That Her Husband Knocked Her Through Screen Door Was Alleged in Complaint.

PLAINTIFF ALSO ALLEGED HUSBAND DRANK TO EXCESS

Mrs. Anna Bretthauer Files a Complaint for Divorce Here This Morning.

That her husband, George Jarrett, knocked her through a screen door and over the railing that surrounded the porch to the ground below, was one of the allegations in the complaint upon which Mrs. Nellie Jarrett was granted a divorce this morning in the circuit court by Judge William Galloway.

Mrs. Jarrett also alleged that her husband drank to excess and often came home in a filthy and unclean condition and that on one occasion he drew a loaded revolver and threatened to blow her brains out.

Mrs. Jarrett also alleged that on several occasions her husband assaulted her and would have inflicted serious injuries upon her, had not neighbors come to her assistance. She also claimed that during the past few years he had failed and refused to support her and her two sons, Donald, aged 11, and Claude, aged 7.

The plaintiff was given the custody of her children. Attorneys Weatherford & Weatherford appeared for the plaintiff.

Drinking to excess was also the principal cause for action in the suit for divorce which was instituted in the court here today by Mrs. Anna Bretthauer against her husband George Bretthauer.

The plaintiff alleges in her complaint that her husband is addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquor and during the times that he is intoxicated, often mistreats her and on one occasion it was necessary for her mother and brother-in-law to interfere to keep him from injuring her. The plaintiff asks the court to grant her the custody of her 5-year-old daughter, Virginia Nellie.

DEPUTY SCOTT INSPECTS ASH SWALE GRANGE

Good Meeting Held and Organization Said to Be in Excellent Shape.

Editor of Democrat: On Saturday, Feb. 15th, I visited Ash Swale Grange which is located about half way between Shedd and Brownsville. This Grange was organized six years ago and has prospered fairly well; there is one thing which makes against them and that is they have to meet in the Ash Swale school house, and are badly cramped for room.

The attendance was not large. A fine luncheon was served at noon and the hour was spent in social enjoyment. The question of destroying noxious weeds such as Canada thistle, black mustard, French pink and other kinds of useless things which grow in the fields was discussed at length, also field mice, gophers and rats which are in abundance all over the country. The question was continued for further discussion.

The master, Fred Harrison, is rapidly becoming proficient in his work. The secretary, Mrs. Pearl Troutman, has made a very efficient officer, but for the last few months she has been unable to attend to her duties on account of sickness.

There are thirty members on their roll book, and others are asking for admittance.

They have erected one of the best sheds for their teams of any grange in Linn county. This is also used by the school children who come from a distance.

J. H. SCOTT.

C. C. Wade, city recorder of Scio, is in the city today looking after business matters and attending court.

DR. GEORGE E. RIGGS IS NOW LOCATED IN THE HUB CITY

Young Physician Opens Office in New Hill Building at the Corner Second and Main.

Among the physicians to locate in Albany recently, is Dr. George E. Riggs, M. D., who came to this city about a month ago and has opened offices in the new Hill block at Main and Second streets.

Dr. Riggs accompanied by his wife spent nearly a month visiting various towns and cities in all parts of Oregon looking for a suitable location. They finally decided upon this city as having the best future of any town visited by them and are exceptionally well pleased with Albany as a home city.

Dr. Riggs is a graduate of the medical department of the University of Oregon and since his graduation has enjoyed a large practice, being associated for some time with Dr. Fred Ziegler, city physician of Portland. He was also attached to the Multnomah county hospital for some little time and has practiced in various parts of the state.

Dr. Riggs is a young man of pleasing personality and is rapidly becoming acquainted with the people of this city, especially in East Albany, and will no doubt secure a large practice here.

ANOTHER SCHOOL FAIR THIS FALL

County School Superintendent Gives Results of Similar Fair Last Year.

AIM TO BRING SCHOOL AND HOME CLOSER TOGETHER

Six Hundred Dollars in Prizes Offered by Association for Show in September.

The splendid success of the industrial school fairs which were held at Albany and Scio last year and the increasing interest being taken by both parents and children in the work, has resulted in the decision to hold an even greater fair along the same lines this year, probably during the month of September. County School Supt. Jackson, to whom much of the success of last year's fair belong, has the following to say to the citizens of Linn county on this subject:

To the Citizens of Linn County:—"Last year a large number of the boys and girls of the county, in addition to learning many valuable things in school, took an active part in the industrial contest in gardening, poultry, mechanical and industrial work in the home, encouraged through the school."

"As a result of their labor one of the best exhibits of its character, perhaps ever prepared in Linn county was presented to the public and to this work in many of the most progressive states has become part of the school system and has greatly increased the wealth of the state and the efficiency of its citizens."

"We can do the same in Oregon. Our past experience has been encouraging. However, we solicit the support of every citizen, at this time, in the development of this work. "It is evident that the prime object of this movement is to teach the rising generation to respect labor, to use their hands as well as their minds, to make practical application of the things learned in books and to become more useful men and women."

"In order to encourage this work at home, to bring the home and the school closer together and to lead them to appreciate country life, and believing that the country, especially in Linn county, is one of the best places in the world for the boys and girls to reach the highest development, we are preparing to hold an industrial fair in connection with the Linn County Fair to be held the last week in September."

"At this fair the children may exhibit the best of what they have raised or made. The co-operation of the parent will help to solve the problem of finding profitable work for the town boy and girl as well as for the country children. A new feature of the fair of this year is the prizes awarded for work done in the school, such as drawing and mechanical work, also prizes on each of the leading breeds of poultry."

"For the contest the children will be divided into two classes, those twelve years and older and those under twelve years of age. Three prizes will be offered on each product exhibited. The Linn County Fair Association has offered $600 in cash prizes and, five thousand copies of the prize list, now being printed, will be sent out to the schools in the near future. Several local fairs may be held prior to the county fair provided proper arrangements can be made."

"Again soliciting the encouragement and support of the public for a greater school fair, I beg to remain, Very truly, "W. JACKSON, "County School Supt."

MASONS DO HONOR TO D. P. MASON

Banquet Held at St. Francis Hotel Last Evening Was Well Attended.

TRIBUTE WAS PAID TO THE PAST GRAND MASTER

J. K. Weatherford Acted As the Toastmaster; Host Is Given Tremendous Ovation.

Never has a former officer of St. John's Lodge received a greater ovation than that accorded to David P. Mason, past grand master of the Masonic Lodge of Oregon, at a banquet by him tendered to the past masters of the local organization at the St. Francis hotel last evening.

Over thirty former masters of the local lodge were seated at the banquet board when called to order by Hon. J. K. Weatherford who acted as toastmaster.

Asserting that their host had always been a useful citizen; that he had reflected credit upon the order with which he has been connected during the greater portion of his life and that he stands first among the members of St. John's Lodge, all of the speakers paid an eloquent and glowing tribute to the past grand master of the Masonic Lodge of this state.

In a few well chosen words Mr. Mason thanked the members of the Masonic lodge for their generous sentiments and the honors which had been conferred upon him.

The banquet tables were artistically decorated with beautiful floral pieces and the ten course dinner served by the management of the St. Francis was one of the most elaborate ever served in this city.

The invitations were limited to past masters of St. John's lodge.

REVERE HOTEL TO CONTINUE TO OPERATE IN HUB CITY

Will Be Conducted on European Plan; The Rooms Will Be Remodeled Soon.

Editor Democrat: The old homelike Revere House, which for thirty-five years has sheltered and fed the traveling public, high and humble, so satisfactorily, will be closed, or deserted, as an evening paper puts it, for a short time only.

For as soon as men and money can do it, the rooms on the second and third floors will be entirely renovated, papered and tinted, refurnished and put in first-class shape for hotel purposes to be conducted on the European plan.

This means that you can secure a neat, homelike room at a moderate price and get your meals at a restaurant or cafeteria, order what you want and pay for what you get.

A hotel conducted on the European plan is something Albany has needed for a long time, for the traveler will not be compelled to pay fancy prices for his accommodations. The Revere House with its brick annex contains many pleasant bay window rooms and when remodeled will be second to none in the valley.

The first floor of the large structure will be converted into modern business rooms with plate glass fronts. The entire building is under lease for a term of five years.

That the Revere House will not be closed for good, will be glad news for its old patrons, many of whom will continue to make their home at this popular hotel. Rooms will also be let to permanent roomers. CHAS. PFEIFFER.

NO MEETING HELD AT THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

Owing to the fact that a large number of the officers and directors of the Albany Commercial club were numbered among the guests at the Masonic banquet, it was impossible to obtain a quorum for the meeting and the same was adjourned until Monday, February 24th.

A large volume of business has accumulated during the past week and the same will be disposed of at the next regular meeting.

H. A. Hudson, a prominent resident of Portland and supreme master Artisan of the Artisan lodge of Oregon, arrived in Albany this afternoon and will pay a fraternal visit to the local assembly tonight.

Mrs. C. R. Lowell stopped off in Albany yesterday to make a brief visit at the home of her father, Dr. D. L. Foster of this city. She will leave this evening for San Francisco.

An exceptionally good bill was presented at the Dreamland last night and will be presented again this evening. Both the vaudeville and the moving pictures were high class and the theatre was crowded for all three shows.

TWO MEN ARE FINED BY JUDGE VAN TASSEL THIS MORNING

Both Defendants Arrested for Appearing Upon Streets in Intoxicated Condition.

Ed Stanifred was arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of appearing upon the streets last evening in a drunken condition. He insisted that he wasn't drunk and pleaded "not guilty" to the charge. However, after giving the defendant a hearing, Judge Van Tassel decided that Stanifred was drunk as charged in the complaint, and assessed him $10 and costs, which was paid.

G. M. Miller, who also promenade the streets last evening with an overload of booze, was also fined $10 and costs by Judge Van Tassel. Not having the change, Miller will assist in cleaning the streets for the next five days.

TANGENT NEWS

Mrs. Lizzie Sharp left Friday for a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Myrtle McFarland of Cottage Grove.

L. D. Simmons has left Tangent with his family for Arizona to reside.

Miss Minnie Scott has a position in the sheriff's office at Albany.

The directors of the Tangent school district have been compelled to secure the services of another teacher as the three rooms could not accommodate the large number of pupils who apply for admission. The high school now has twenty-seven pupils and more are expected.

Farmers are getting busy clearing up and pruning their orchards and berry vines, making ready for planting their early gardens. There are a few farmers plowing but the ground is still rather too wet to work well.

The late dry weather settled the roads so it is fairly good traveling once more.

RALEIGH SHARP IS ARRESTED HERE

Complaint Signed by Police Chief Austin Charges Violation of Local Option Law.

SALE IS ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN MADE TO R. B. LEABO

Judge Swan Fixes Bonds at $250 and Defendant Was Unable to Furnish Them

Raleigh Sharp, residing on East Second street, was arrested shortly before 6 o'clock last evening by Policeman Griff King, upon a complaint signed by Chief of Police Austin as private prosecutor, which charges the defendant with selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the local option laws on Saturday, Feb. 1, to R. B. Leabo.

Sharp was brought before Judge Swan immediately following his arrest where he was arraigned. Sharp pleaded not guilty and his bonds were fixed at $250 and his trial set for 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Being unable to furnish bonds, Sharp was taken to the county jail last evening where he spent the night.

According to Policeman King when he went to Sharp's home last night to serve the warrant for his arrest, his knock at the door was answered by Mrs. Sharp who informed the officer that her husband was not in. However, King thought different and stepping through the front door, started for the door leading into an adjoining room.

Mrs. Sharp immediately grabbed the officer and sought to prevent him from entering the other room. The officer was not to be stopped nevertheless, and upon opening the door of the bedroom, found Sharp standing in the far corner of the room. Sharp did not resist arrest and accompanied the officer down town to Judge Swan's court.

The arrest of Sharp is another result of the activities in this city recently of R. B. Leabo who has been securing evidence for several weeks against Albany bootleggers and blind-piggers. Convictions have been secured in every case with the exception of those that were appealed to the state supreme court.

SHARP SENTENCED BY JUDGE SWAN TO SERVE TWENTY DAYS

Positive Yesterday He Bought Booze of Bill Riley; Memory Fails Him Today.

Raleigh Sharp who was arrested last night charged with selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the local option law, was tried afternoon in Judge Swan's court and found guilty. He was sentenced to serve 20 days in the county jail and began serving his sentence this afternoon.

Sharp yesterday stated that he purchased three bottles of liquor from Bill Riley but when placed on trial this afternoon after spending a night in the county jail, he wasn't sure but what it was Jim Hart's place where he made the purchase, and that it was two bottles instead of three.

He was positive yesterday that he purchased the liquor from Riley but when Judge Swan proposed calling Riley into court as a witness, Sharp's memory failed and he didn't know where he got the booze. After considering the testimony, Judge Swan gave Sharp a jail sentence of twenty days.

the INTERLOCKING Style of
with older models.

The U. S. Interlocking Cream Separator represents the highest attainment in cream separator construction and possesses every essential separator requirement in the highest known degree.

Here are some of its special advantages.

1. It has about half the bowl diameter of older models.
2. It intensifies the centrifugal force and prolongs the path the milk must travel.
3. It gives practically double the skimming surface and does about twice the work of older models.
4. It keeps the milk and cream entirely apart and affords a protected path for the cream.
5. It is operated with about half the power of older models.
6. It is easiest and quickest washed by the same centrifugal force which skimmed the milk.
7. It skims cleanest. For clean skimming the U. S. holds the World's Record.
