FRUIT GROWERS HELD SESSION

Enthusiastic Meeting at the Commercial Club Rooms Largely Attended.

MATTER OF CANNERY AT THIS CITY FULLY DISCUSSED

Dryer and Vinegar Factory Also Taken Up--Date Set for Annual Meeting.

The Albany Fruit Growers' association convened an enthusiastic session Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Commercial Club rooms and a large number of local members were present.

The subject of establishing a cannery in the city was the main topic of discussion before the assembly. The proposition met with much favor and the necessity of such a concern was strongly urged by leading members present.

JUDGE KELLY WILL CONVENE ADJOURNED TERM OF COURT

Will Dispose of Motions and Demurrers and Set Cases for Trial.

An adjourned term of court No. 1 of the state circuit department will be convened by Judge Percy R. Kelly, Thursday afternoon, at 1 o'clock.

TWO COMPLAINTS FILED TODAY WITH COUNTY CLERK

Two complaints were filed today in the county clerk's office. B. C. Phetteplace has instituted a suit against A. J. Shelton for the recovery of $350, for which the plaintiff took the promissory note of the defendant on April 15, 1912.

J. S. Scott has filed proceedings against J. E. Lobaugh and wife for the recovery of $350, which is alleged to be due for a surgical operation performed at Portland on Mrs. Lobaugh in April 1907.

VISITED GIRL, LEFT AUTO MOTOR RUNNING

Albany Young Man Forced to Walk Home for Gasoline After Sunday Night Courting

An interesting story is being told today on a prominent resident and automobile enthusiast of this city, whose name could not be learned.

It is rumored the said automobilist, who is reported to be a good looking young unmarried man, called upon his lady, yesterday afternoon, to take her automobile. Upon arrival at the house he was invited into the parlor, where he awaited patiently for the appearance of the young lady.

Late the young man took his departure and to his dismay he found the motor of the machine running. He scratched his head reflectively and suddenly remembered that he had forgotten to switch the engine off when he went into the house several hours hence.

SCHOOL CHILDREN OF COUNTY TO COMPETE FOR PRIZES

School Superintendent Jackson Busy Issuing Prospectus for Industrial Fair.

County School Superintendent W. L. Jackson is busy today getting out the prospectus pertaining to the school children's industrial department of the Linn County Fair, which will be held at Seio, September 24, 25 and 26.

PERSONAL MENTION

Fred Dawson returned this noon from Newport where he was looking after his branch store.

Henry Struckmire, of this city, went out to Thomas this morning to look after his interests there.

W. A. Bodine, the orchard specialist and expert, went to Lebanon this morning to attend the pruning of the orchard of Miss Helen Crawford, which Mr. Bodine declares the finest in Oregon.

S. A. D. Hamilton, the humorist, of Seio, returned home this morning after again securing the show. Hamilton would make a pretty good character himself in one of the comedies.

Roy E. Pierce, clerk at the Julian, Corvallis, was at the Hotel Hammel today.

J. A. Wilson, of the Salem Brewery, was in the city today.

The steel bridge is said to be covered with mud so as to make navigation somewhat difficult.

A gang of hobos were operating out near the depot this noon, begging from passengers getting off the cars.

L. L. Swan went to Shedd this afternoon on legal business.

Our subscribers to the state of Oregon are urged to remit for their subscription by return mail if possible to do so; otherwise to acknowledge receipt of same, giving the management some idea of when the account will be settled.

OSLUND GAVE COPPER MERRY CHASE YESTERDAY

Griff King Is Quite Adept at Sprinting, However, and Overtakes Man.

Arrested Sunday evening on a charge of disturbing the peace at the Belmont rooming house on East Second street, Allie Oslund was brought up before Police Judge Van Tassel this morning and plead guilty.

Oslund, it is claimed, was drunk and indulged in a fist fight with Roy Suesens, which resulted in Suesens being knocked down a flight of stairs, sustaining several injuries. A police alarm was sent in, whereupon it is alleged Oslund skipped, giving Policeman Griff King a long chase before he was interrupted near the corner of Ninth and Ellsworth streets.

LARGE CROWDS ATTENDED FIRST DINNER AT HAMMEL

J. C. Hammel Welcomes the Guests; Cuisine Unsurpassed in This City.

The dining room of the new Hammel hotel last night was the scene of a large number of diners from Albany's elite set. It was the first Sunday dinner served in the brilliant dining room.

J. C. Hammel, the affable manager, with a perennial smile upon his countenance, stood at the door and welcomed his guests with the spirit and hospitality that has always characterized him as a successful hotel proprietor.

The Sunday diners at the Hammel are destined to become popular, if last evening's reception of the meal is to be taken as a criterion. The cuisine in every respect, cannot be surpassed by any in the city.

Splendid music was rendered during the meal hours by the Chautauqua orchestra.

THE GRAND JURY IS NOW IN PROTRACTED SESSION

Larceny Cases Are Among the First to Be Taken Up; List of Jurors.

The Linn county grand jury convened this morning at 9 o'clock and is expected to remain in session all the week.

The members of the jury are as follows: W. D. Busey, of Lebanon, foreman; M. M. Meiser, of Shelburn; J. A. Wallace, of Seio; C. G. Cowles, of Albany; Peter C. G. of Harrisburg; J. C. Warner, of Harrisburg; N. P. Slate, of Orleans; and District Attorney Gale S. Hill and Deputy Dan Johnston, as representatives of the state.

It could not be learned which cases would be taken up first, but it was understood that several larceny cases will probably occupy the attention of the jurors today.

Roy Knott, of Johnson's Best, made another trip out to Tallman this morning.

Y. M. C. A. LECTURE WAS WELL RECEIVED BY PUBLIC

The lecture given under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A., as an educational treat to the people of this city, was one of the most interesting as well as educational entertainments given here this season.

The lecture, which was presented by Dr. C. D. Williamson, a lecturer of note, was held Tuesday, February 25 at the United Presbyterian church. Dr. Williamson is a fluent speaker and understood his subjects well, which were the "Yosemite National Park" and the "Grand Canon of the Colorado." The doctor has traveled over these places of national interest and the stereopticon views that were shown during the lecture were taken from original photographs he had taken while there.

A large crowd appreciated the rare educational treat and it is hoped by many that the Y. M. C. A. may bring Dr. Williamson to this city again.

C. L. Monson, stationery traveler, went to Salem this morning, the northern terminus of his route. He goes as far south as Ashland.

POLICE JUDGE VAN TASSEL BUSY MAN THIS MORNING

Three Men Arrested on Charge of Being Drunk Are Found Guilty and Fined.

James Daly was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness and was brought before Police Judge Van Tassel this morning. He was unable to pay his fine of $10 and costs and was given 5 days on the streets.

Ben Black was also brought up this morning on a similar charge. This was Black's second offense, having been arrested two weeks ago. He received a fine of $20 and costs which he could not pay and was given 10 days on the streets.

John Smith was arrested late Saturday afternoon for drunkenness and was fined $10 and costs. He was unable to pay and is now resting in the city bastille.

LEBANON AUTHOR WAS IN ALBANY THIS MORNING

He Will Soon Publish Another Story on Life in Alaska.

Geo. E. Waggoner, of Lebanon, was in the city this morning on his way to Corvallis on a business trip. Mr. Waggoner is the author of Pioneer Oregon, a story of intense early interest, dealing with life in the mines and on the trail in our early days, as observed from actual experience, and coloring into it sufficient romance and veiling to make it a very readable volume. The author has been universally complimented upon the work both from a literary and a readable standpoint.

Mr. Waggoner also has the manuscript about ready for another story, this one on life in Alaska, where he spent five years during the Chilkoot Pass period, when it took nerve to make the different trips into the interior. He gathered much actual material in hunting and traveling, as well as mining experiences, and with his gift for narration, is bound to present a work worthy of consideration. He has not decided when he shall launch the new production.

Mrs. Fred Orcutt, of Jamesport, Mo., arrived last night on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith, of West Albany.

MENTALLY UNBALANCED; IS COMMITTED TO POOR FARM

Man Arrested Saturday Is Not Violent; Will Be Given a Few Days to Rest.

East end, that a man had been seen acting queerly and was supposed to be mentally unbalanced, in the streets of that section of the city, John Catlin arrested the fellow early Saturday evening, near Pennywinkle creek.

The man gave his name as Myer and said he had been working on the Oregon Electric for the last month. Myer was confined in the city jail over Sunday and this morning was brought up before the county court where his case was examined by the court and County Health Officer Davis. It was concluded that Myer is suffering from temporary insanity and he presented an unusual case before the court, refusing to talk or give any information concerning himself. The decision of the court committed him to the poor farm for five days and if he doesn't recover, at the end of that time further action will be taken.

HUSBAND SAVES HIS WIFE THROUGH TRANSFUSION

San Francisco, Feb. 28.—Heroic measures were taken yesterday by Dr. Lewis Michelson and Dr. F. K. Kinslow to save the life of Mrs. William Mack, a patient at the St. Joseph's hospital. Mrs. Mack had been suffering from severe hemorrhages and her physicians decided only a prompt transfusion of blood would prevent her bleeding to death, as her own blood seemed to have lost its power of clotting.

The husband of Mrs. Mack willingly volunteered to act as the subject. Dr. Kinslow called Dr. Lewis Michelson of the Emergency hospital corps in consultation and the transfusion was decided upon. The husband's arm was strapped close to that of his wife and for 15 minutes the transfusion of blood continued. Late last evening it was declared that Mrs. Mack was on the road to recovery. Mrs. Mack is an employee of the telephone company. He said he felt no ill effects from his experience and will be on hand to work at his post Monday.

REV. LEECH PREACHED STRONG SERMON YESTERDAY

New Members Affiliate with the Church at Regular Sunday Morning Service.

Declaring that many churchmen are too willing to induce the well dressed stranger to affiliate with the church of God and loath to show the same interest in the poor fellow who is "run down at the heels," Rev. D. H. Leech delivered a strong sermon at the First Methodist church yesterday morning.

The pastor urged the members of his congregation to devote more time and study to the higher things of life and give less thought to the mere incidents of their business career. He asserts that legitimate business is necessary as well as legitimate pleasure and reminded his congregation that Jesus Christ never spoke against business until it became fraudulent.

"Don't let pleasure and society lift God out of your heart," said the pastor. "The whirlpool of society will not bring you closer to your creator. Announce a meeting in some hamlet located in the cow country and I venture the statement that you will find more hungry souls, ready and willing to listen to the Gospel than you will find here in Albany."

The sermon followed the affiliation of ten new members with the church some of whom were admitted to membership upon letters from pastors residing at their former place of residence.

REVIVALS WELL ATTENDED AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Splendid Music and Strong Sermons Draw Crowds; Two Accept Christ.

The First Christian church was well filled last night for the first service in the series of revival meetings which have been announced for some time.

The sermon subject was "The Man Worth While." It was illustrated by the use of poems, anecdotes and Bible stories. At the song of invitation two came forward to take membership in the congregation. The music conducted by Mr. Burton was much enjoyed. His solo was well rendered and very helpful. The regular quartette gave a selection which was thoroughly enjoyed. They consist of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. J. C. Holbrook, and Mr. J. F. Watson.

Services tonight at the regular hour. The sermon subject will be "The Jericho Campaign—A New Leader." The services will continue throughout the week.

STUART-KNAPP NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED SATURDAY EVE

Mr. C. G. Stuart and Miss Grace Knapp were united in marriage at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. F. W. Emerson of the Christian church.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the minister, 709 Broadalbin street, and was a quiet affair, being witnessed by W. W. Stuart, a brother of the bridegroom.

Mr. Stuart is a prominent young man of Albany, having resided here for several years, and being engaged in the plumbing business. Miss Knapp is a well known young lady of this city. She formerly resided with her parents on a farm seven miles southeast of Albany and since living in the city has made a host of friends.

The newlyweds will make their home here.

The Nashville Students, soon to be in Albany, were in the city this morning on their way to Lebanon.

Rev. W. P. White went to Portland this morning on a business trip connected with the Fourth U. P. church of that city.

Mrs. Cahler this morning made her semi-weekly trip up the C. & E.

Lawyer Glos came over from Corvallis this morning.

Chas. M. Smith, of Palmyra, N. Y., has been in the city.

Harry Febersham, of Corvallis, was in the city today.

Rev. Jones and daughter, of Tangent, and Rev. and Mrs. Law, of Corvallis, returned this morning from Harrisburg, where they had been to attend the district conference of the M. E. church South. Bishop Waterhouse, also came down on the train, going to Portland. His sermon yesterday was declared to be a very able and convincing one.

W. B. Chance, mill inspector, left for Silverton, where one of the best mills in western Oregon is located, having a capacity of 125,000 feet a day and doing a big business.

SUPREME COURT TO RENDER DECISION

Case to Establish the Title of Albany College Grounds Will Be Decided Tomorrow.

CO. CLERK RECEIVES LETTER FROM JUDGE GALLOWAY

Case of Much Local Interest Will Be Definitely Decided at Salem.

County Clerk Willard L. Marks is to receipt today of a letter from Judge William Galloway, at Salem, in which the judge informed Mr. Marks that the state supreme court will tomorrow decide the case of the contested suit instituted against the heirs of the Monteith estate by the Albany College Board to establish the title of the College grounds.

This case is of considerable interest to local people, arising when the College board intended to dispose of the grounds, which had been left by the late Thomas Monteith, objecting to the grounds being used for anything but college purposes. It was held that when the property ceased to be used for this purpose, it would revert back to the Monteith estate. The college board contested this contention on the part of the heirs and when the case came up before Judge Galloway, in the circuit court, some time ago, the judge ruled that as long as the property was to be disposed of for Albany College purposes that the college authorities would have a right to sell the property.

After this decision the case was appealed to the supreme court.

It is reported that 10,000 people rode on the Oregon Electric last Saturday between Portland and Eugene, on and off the sixteen different trains.

Geo. H. Taylor, L. C. Marshall and D. P. Mason returned last night from Portland where they attended the funeral of the late W. A. Cleland who was buried with Masonic honors in that city.

H. H. Clemens of Boone, Iowa, is investigating conditions in Albany with a view of locating here. He is very favorably impressed with local conditions.

MISSOURI BISHOP LEFT INSTRUCTIONS FOR BURIAL

No Flowers and the Funeral Conducted Through Quiet Streets Is Request.

Kansas City, Mr., Feb. 28.—An epitaph in Latin and instructions for funeral and burial were found today among papers left by Bishop John Joseph Hogan of the Catholic diocese of Western Missouri, who died here yesterday. It was the bishop's wish that no flowers be used at the funeral and that the funeral be not conducted through thronged thoroughfares, but rather through the least frequented streets of the city.

The suggested epitaph, translated, read: "Herein are buried the ashes of John Joseph Hogan, First Bishop of Kansas City, born in the year 1829. Pray for him."

Archbishop Glennon and Bishops Hennessey, Cunningham and Ward, of the St. Louis province, with Bishops of the States of Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma, will attend the funeral Monday morning.

ALBANY PEOPLE ATTEND CONCERT AT STATE CAPITAL

Returning Sunday evening from Salem where they heard the concert given by the Portland Symphony Orchestra, a number of leading music lovers of this city declared that the entertainment was one of the best ever presented in Oregon and that they had a delightful time. The orchestra is under the leadership of Mr. Denton, a well known musician and former resident of this city. The members of the Albany party who attended the concert were as follows: Miss Frances Wilson, Mrs. Fred Dawson, Mrs. Billings, Mrs. Tebault, Jeanette and Anna Dawson, Marion Anderson, May Ballack, Lyle Baird, Clemens Lundy, Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt.
