Hundreds in This City Answer Appeal For Assistance to Flood Victims.

THE MAYOR PUTS STREET CLEANERS TO LOADING CARS

Local Merchants Donate Freely Everybody Subscribes to the Funds.

For the Flood Sufferers of Ohio and Indiana.

As the citizens of Albany and vicinity are sending a large car of the necessities of life to the flood stricken districts of these states, I wish to notify the people of Albany that anything they wish to contribute to this car in the way of fruit, clothing, etc., will be thankfully received. Car will be loaded at the Commission house tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

P. D. GILBERT, Mayor.

Pursuant to the above proclamation issued by Mayor Gilbert yesterday, telephone calls have been pouring in to the Commercial Club today from all parts of the city, from persons offering donations of every description. Money, clothes and food of every kind has been offered and today two big cars are being loaded with Albany's contribution to the greatest and most appalling disaster in years. It is evident that local people keenly feel the urgency of the dire distress prevailing in the flooded and tornado-stricken districts of the Middle West, attested by their prompt response to the calls for assistance. Many people residing in the devastated districts and fully realize the significance of the disaster. Much concern is felt locally for relatives and friends residing in the East. Manager C. H. Stewart of the Albany Commercial Club, at the instance of appeals from other commercial bodies of the state, started a commendable movement yesterday when he suggested that a carload of potatoes be sent from this city to the potatoes of the Middle West. At present there is an over-supply of the local potato market and this suggestion met with a simultaneous approval. Accordingly the railroad companies were negotiated with for the necessary transportation facilities, and responded readily. Two big box cars were furnished and will be started on the way to the East tonight. Free transportation has been granted these shipments.

Today a large committee of local business men have convened the city for subscriptions to cover the expenses incurred in the loading of the cars and tremendous results attended their efforts. Practically everybody responded to their solicitations and sums from 25 cents to $10 were subscribed. The money left over after the expenses are defrayed will also be sent to the flood victims. The amount thus far subscribed could not be ascertained at present.

Five hundred sacks of potatoes were loaded on each car together with many other donations. One of the cars is spotted near the Albany Commission Co. and the other is on a siding at the Oregon Electric freight depot. Workmen have been busy all day loading these cars with every manner of sustaining necessities which have been coming in from people in every part of the city. Local spirit in connection with this calamity is high. Everything constituting the shipment has been donated. Local merchants have willingly subscribed to the funds and donated goods. Flour, canned goods, sugar and many kinds of vegetables have been received from the spirited merchants. One farmer donated several sacks of beans. Hub Bryant, one of the best known capitalists and philanthropists of this city, who is a retired farmer, gave 500 bushels of potatoes, provided leaders in the movement would see that they were sacked. Accordingly Mayor Gilbert dispatched the entire street-cleaning department to Mr. Bryant's place in the east end where they are busily engaged in sacking the splendid potatoes, to constitute part of the shipment of the big refrigerator car donated by the Southern Pacific railroad. Many farmers have donated to the cause and as a result many apples will be included in the shipment.

The cars will be shipped tonight and will be rushed to their destinations as rapidly as possible. It is estimated that the trip will be made within a week. They will be shipped in the names of the governors of Ohio and Nebraska and their prospective destination will be places where sustaining necessities are most imperative. By the use of the wire the cars will be kept track of by state officials and upon their arrival will be directed to places of most need and from there the goods will be distributed. Remarkable success has attended the efforts of the committees of the Commercial Club in arranging this city's donation to the flood victims and it has been a source of much elation to note the sympathetic and willing spirit which has dominated attitudes of those who have given.

W. W. FRANCIS PAID INTO COUNTY TREASURY 5 CENTS

On Account of Shortage of the Treasurers Books as Found By Accountant.

County Treasurer W. W. Francis has paid into the county treasury the sum of 5 cents, on account of the shortage on the treasurers books, according to an examination made by F. M. Redfield, who was recently employed by the county to certify the official books. Mr. Redfield completed the examination of the county treasurers books the fore part of the week, for a period of four and one half years during the time Mr. Francis has been in office up until the first of the year. Keeping his books during this time with only a single shortage of 5 cents is considered a remarkable record, and Mr. Francis has received many congratulations for his accuracy. In his report to County Clerk Marks, certifying as to the accuracy of the books, Mr. Redfield highly commended Mr. Francis as a capable accountant.

JAKE BILYEU PAYS FINE OF $300 WAS RELEASED

Sheriff Bodine Discharges the Liquor Law Violator After Serving Twenty Days.

Jake Bilyeu, who was convicted of violation of the local option liquor law, paid his fine of $300 into the county treasury yesterday afternoon. The money was paid over to Sheriff Bodine who turned it over to the county treasurer. Bilyeu was convicted of the charge last July before Judge Kelly in the state circuit court, but the case was appealed to the state supreme court. Judge Kelly had imposed a sentence of 20 days in the county jail besides a fine of $300. The supreme court sustained the judge in this decision and the mandate from that court was received here just twenty days ago. Upon paying the fine Bilyeu was released from custody.

All of the equipment for the plant has not yet arrived, but it is expected some time in the near future and in the meantime the management has a crew of men busy erecting new sheds and manipulating the machinery already in operation. The concern is headed by J. L. and M. T. McAlister, two enterprising young men who recently came to this city from Corvallis.

BURGLARS ENTER BLACKSMITH SHOP EARLY THIS MORNING

However Nothing Is Missing; It Was Believed Intruders Were After Money.

Burglars entered the East Albany blacksmith shop some time early this morning, effecting their entrance by prying the lock off of the front door. So far nothing is missing and it is supposed that the intruders were after money, leaving in the habit of leaving in a safe. The shop is located on the Salem road, just around the corner of Main street and is conducted by M. P. Huffman. This is one of many like crimes that have been committed recently and it appears as though a regular epidemic of burglaries is in vogue.

Dr. Fred Thompson, of Salem, came up last evening to see his folks. President Kerr, of the O. A. C., passed through the city last evening on his way home from a trip down the road, going on the new O. E. train straight through, without change of cars.

BIG HERR FOUR WHEEL TRACTOR TO BE TESTED TODAY

Was Driven from This City to Corvallis Over Worst Roads in the County.

That the big four-wheeled Herr tractor recently shipped into this city from the East is undoubtedly a remarkable invention and that it will do all that is claimed for it by its manufacturers, was fully demonstrated yesterday afternoon, when the local agent, Tom Slate, drove the machine from here to Shedd and thence to Corvallis, over some of the roughest and muddiest roads in the county. The tractor was given a thorough test along the way. It was driven through mucky fields and was given heavy pulling tests, performing absolutely satisfactorily. Today it will be given a test against a Caterpillar, an International and a Rumley, three well known tractors at the Oregon Agricultural College. Tom Slate of this city will manipulate the Herr machine and it is expected that farmers from all over the country will attend the exhibition.

MANY DOLLARS ARE GIVEN FOR FUND

Local People Readily Respond to Solicitors for Donation to Aid Flood Victims.

CONTRIBUTION LIST NOT TO CLOSE UNTIL MONDAY NOON

Albany Shipped Two Car Loads of Provisions Early This Morning.

Over three hundred and fifty dollars in cash was subscribed here yesterday by local people towards the relief of the flood victims in the Middle West. A committee of business men canvassed the main section of the city during part of the day with this result. Many expressed their willingness to contribute later when seen by a solicitor. The canvassers were unable to see everyone, and accordingly it is the desire that those who wish to contribute to the fund are asked to place their contributions in an envelope and put them on the plates in the local churches to communicate, providing they cannot communicate with members of the canvassing committee.

Manager Stewart stated this morning that the money left over out of the fund subscribed after the expenses have been defrayed, will be wired direct to Governor Cox of Ohio, Monday afternoon. The reason given for this is that more distressing conditions exist in this state than anywhere else at the present time. The two cars which were loaded yesterday with all manner of provisions and sustaining necessities donated by spirited citizens and farmers of this section, left early this morning for their destinations. The cars bore a tag of general description as follows: Pacific Fruit Express Car, No. 1466, containing flour, clothing, etc., shipped to Hon. James M. Cox, Governor of Ohio, at Dayton, Ohio. Great Northern Refrigerator Car, No. 99982, containing potatoes, flour, clothing, etc., shipped to Hon. Samuel M. Ralston, Governor of Indiana, at Indianapolis, Ind.

The following telegram was sent to Governor Ralston, of Indiana, this morning by the Commercial Club and a similar one was sent to Governor Cox of Ohio: "Hon. Samuel Ralston, Governor, Indianapolis, Ind.—Great Northern Refrigerator Car ninety thousand nine eight two, containing provisions and clothing, contributed by the citizens of Albany, Oregon, was consigned to you at Indianapolis this morning. We are shocked at the indescribable calamity that has fallen upon your people, and you have our deepest sympathy. Albany Commercial Club."

The past week has been one of social gaiety. Many of the clubs who had suspended their meetings during the Lenten season, opened again this week. The dedication services at the First Presbyterian church brought a great many out-of-town guests, who were extensively entertained by local society people. The largest and most delightful function, since the close of the Lenten season, was the Malabon ball given Tuesday evening at the armory. The following out-of-town people were in Albany the past week attending the dedication exercises of the First Presbyterian church: Dr. Wm. Foulkes (Philadelphia), Dr. Wallace Lee (Tacoma), Dr. H. L. Reed (New York), Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nevins (Portland), Rev. McLeod (Mill City), Mr. Duncan Monteith (Portland), Mr. and Mrs. Goff (Newburg), Pres. L. M. Walker, wife and son, (Portland), Mr. A. C. PREMIUM LIST FOR SCIO FAIR PRINTED BY CHURCHILL

Neat Pamphlet Containing Advanced Information on Linn Co. Fair Completed Today.

The premium list for the seventh annual Linn County Fair, to be held at Scio, September 24, 25 and 26, has just come off the press of P. K. Churchill's printing establishment and is the nearest booklet ever gotten out by the fair association. The book was designed by Mr. Churchill and is a tribute to his ability as a printer and bookbinder. Every premium on every phase of the fair is listed, including a complete program for the three days of the festival. The rules and regulations governing the exhibits and information in general on any subject pertaining to the fair are given in the neatly appointed pamphlet. Many leading merchants of this county have advertised in the book, which will be issued within a few days. Officers of the fair association are: A. G. Prill, president; Asa Hiron, vice-president; Roy Shelton, secretary; Riley Shelton, assistant secretary; and Ed. Myers, treasurer.

Dr. A. G. Prill, of Scio, was in the city today, coming this morning. In order to reach home tonight he is obliged to go to Jefferson, on the cars, taking a team from there home, nine miles through the rain and mud. The way trains run on the Corvallis & Eastern east of here is very inconvenient for people doing business in Albany.

A surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. J. W. Foley's 40th birthday when a number of her friends called Friday afternoon at her home near Grand Prairie Grange. Those present were Mrs. Alice Dimond, Mrs. John Carnegie, Mrs. E. L. Peehler, Mrs. Brennenman, Mrs. Hattie Stilson, Mrs. Byron Peehler, Mrs. John Marcus and Mrs. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Rogers, of Salem, were in the city this morning on their way home from a trip west.

Dr. Ketchum, of Salem, this morning went out to Shelburn, and there through a heavy rain five miles to Mt. Pleasant, where he will conduct services tomorrow. Doing supply work during the winter has a strenuous feature to the work. A child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bilyeu, of Portland, this morning, according to a telephone message received today. The parents had intended to name the new boy, William Jennings, in honor of the great commoner, but it was a girl and will be christened "Lebanon." Oscar Ingram, of Hebron, was in the city this forenoon. A special musical program has been arranged for the first Sabbath services in the Morning Presbyterian church. The big pipe organ will be played, and special quartette and choir music will be rendered.

ALBANY COLLEGE WON THE DEBATE FROM M'MINNVILLE

Live Contest Held in College Chapel Last Evening; Score 3 to 0.

Albany College won the debate in the college chapel last night from McMinnville College by a score of 3 to 0. The question was, Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished in Oregon. It was a red hot question and a live debate and was attended by a large number of local people. There are two more contests to be held in the Intercollegiate Debating League, which is composed of Albany, McMinnville and Pacific colleges, and if the local college should win one of these debates the championship of the league would belong to this college. It is not definitely known when the next contest will be held. If Albany College wins the championship this year this will make two consecutive years that this college has won.

The judges in the contest were: Dean J. A. Bexell, E. F. Carleton of Salem, and Dr. Joseph Schafer of Eugene.
