The Cost of Sanitation

Conflicting reports have gone out from the Isthmus of Panama, regarding the cost of sanitation. Some have claimed that sanitation has been very expensive; that when the work shall have been finished, sanitation will have cost 5 per cent of the total ex-pense. This comes, says Col. Wm. Gorgas, the chief Sanitary Officer of the Isthman Canal Commission, from confusing the expense of the sanitary department with those of sanitation. The sanitary department spends a good deal of money that has no relation whatever to sanitation; for instance, more than half the revenues of the sanitary department are speat on hospitals, dispensaries, etc., things that have no relation whatever to sanitation. It is just as misleading to call such things on the Isthmus "san-itation" as it would be to charge to the health department of our large cities the expenses of hospitals and dispensaries and the incomes of the physicians and As a matter of fact, the sanitation of the Isthmus has cost about $400,000 per annum. This is a little more than one cent per day per capita for the total population, and when we are through, we shall have spent on sanitation about $4,000,000 instead of $20 (00),000, as has been stated, or 1.03 per cent of the total cost of the canal instead of five per cent.

The matter has a far wider ap plication than to our local affairs on the Isthmus. If our work is going to be of assistance to other tropical countries, we must show that the expenses of sanitation are within the limits of their financial ability. If the South American governments are told that it has cost the American government

$20,000,000 for the sanitation of this small territory of 500 square miles on the Isthmus for ten years they would all see at once that a similar work for themselves would be entirely beyond their financial ability. But if they are informed that it has cost the Americans a little more than a cent a day pe reapita for the work, they will know that they are financially able to do the same. This can certainly be done by all these countries, as far as their arger and infected cities are con-

The pictures are owned by different people of the city who have kindly loaned them to Mr. Wilkins. who is ever alert to things of the hour, as attested by the window exhibits that have appeared from time to time at this popular drug store. Hence Mr. Wilkins has arranged an interesting exhibit of these baseball pictures in one of the windows of the store which has attracted much attention.

Among the photographs are two championship teams representing this city. One team captured the state championship in 1878. The line-up of this team is as follows: George Sill th. Ed Clarke, c., Jim Fosterss., Dick Conn, If., Phil Baltimore, c., Cash Hawkins, 2b., H. M. Crane, mgr., Rev. Stevens, cf., Mack Monteith, 3b., Frank McCully, p.

Another picture is of the old Albany Colts who took the Northwest championship of Oregon, California and Nevada, 17 years ago. The personel of this aggregation is as follows: Elton Connaway, 3b., Rialto Weatherford, th., Flemmings, p., Harry Crawford, cf., Frank Layton, ss., Billy Mack, mgr., Will Muller, c., Harry Cusick, sub., Lair Thompson, II., Fred Weatherford, rf., Ed McFarland, 2b., Arch Goina, sub.

A game that was of considerable interest and one that will probably be recalled by many of the oldtimers of this city, was a contest played at Lyons, between an aggregation of that city and an Albany team, June 4, 1892, which resulted in a score of 19 to9 in favor of Albany. Members of the Albany cam are as follows: C. R. Winn, Ed Blodgett, Billie Campbell, Pearl Casey, Oscar Marshall, Jack Warner, mgr. Art Lamert, S. Farrell, Wm. Stites. McFarland, Farlow. Alex, Rennie, Jno. Hoffman, Rert Majors.

Other pictures represent the K. O. T. M. team of 1906, the Albany College aggregation of the same year, who captured the state championshin and the Albany High School of 1908.

Armstrong's Baby Dolls passed through Albany this noon, a strik-ing looking lot of young women and men, on their way to Corvallis where they will show tonight, coming to Albany tomorrow night.

Mrs. Ina Smith Thomas and child, of Jefferson, arrived this noon for a visit at the home of the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith

Dr. Withycombe and Prof. Kent, of the O. A. C., went south this afternoon, the former to Pleasant Hill, on extension work, the latter to Drain today and Elkton tomorrow. At the latter place he will help set going a big creamery association just starting.

FOR THIS CITY

Harry Wilkins Secures Collec- Plan Now on Foot Is Meeting with General Favor by the Local Business Men.

Our Forefathers Could Play Would Cost 50 Cents a Month For Twenty-Five Foot Frontage to Maintain.

> If the business men of Albany will co-operate with the city authorities, a uniform system of street lighting which will include cluster lights fo > regard to the proposition this morning and those spoken to in regard to the matter were enthusiastic.

The city proposes to place cluster light posts at the corners of First, Second and Lyon Streets and main tain them out of the city funds. Local business men are now being asked to install and maintain two posts be-tween the corners on each side of the street, the estimated cost of main-tainence being approximately fifty cents for every twenty five feet of business frontage.

The plan appears to be the only solution of the problem of the street lighting in Albany and is meeting with much favor among the progressive and public spirited merchants who have taken the lead in a campaign for a better lighted city.

INVITATIONS FOR BIG CLAM FEAST WILL SOON BE ISSUED

Occasion Will Be the Fifth Anniversary of Organization of Commercial Club.

Approximately 200 invitations will be sent out today or tomorrow to all of the present members, all of the old members and all who ought to become members of the Albany Commercial club, inviting them to attend the fifth anniversary of the organization of the commercial club.

All of those who have been unintentially overlooked and who desire to attend the meeting will be gladly given an invitation by the club management upon application and will be cordially welcomed.

With a specific notation of "Please be prompt" the following is the printed form of the invitation:

REGINA AGAIN DEFEATED OREGON AGGIES, 6 TO 3

Game Was Characterized by Good Hitting; Fielding of Collegians Was Ragged.

In a seven inning practice game the candidates for Hulen's Regima, Western Canadian League again defeated Coach Garrett's Oregon aggies by a score of 6 to 3 yesterday afternoon at Corvallis.

score of 6 to 3 yesterday afternoon at Corvallis.

Hulen's men made a much better showing in this contest than they did in Tuesday's game when they defeated the O. A. C. by a score of 7 to 6. There is only one error marked against the Reginas while the aggies are charged with 6. However, the collegians put up a better game of ball than they have thus far this season. The special feature of the game was the batting of both sides. Regina made seven hits off of O. A. C's best pitchers and the collegians made five hits.

The Canadians made two runs each in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings. Corvallis made one score in the sixth and in the seventh Captain Cooper made a three bagger, which netted two runs for his team.

Rankin and Irwin did the twirling act for Regina with Baker and Gray behind the bat. Carnell McMillian and Moorehead pitched for O. A. C. and Supple and Weller performed the backstop stunt.
