- When May has called the flowers
- For the summer waiting long,
- And the breath of early roses,
- Who,
- The hedges into song
- Comes the throb of martial music
- And the banners in the street,
- And the marching of the millions
- Bearing garlands fair and sweet
- 'Tis the Sabbath of the Nations,
- 'Tis the floral feast of May,
- In remembrance of our heroes
- We keep Memorial Day.

Memorial day will be fittingly observed here by the local camp of the G. A. R. and other fraternal orders. Committees of the different organizations and orders are busily engaged in perfecting plans for the proper observance of the day.

All of the details are not available at present relative to the program to be carried out. Plans are under way to make the day one of divine observance and it is understood that a big parade will be formed to be headed by the Elks' band and composed of the members of the G. A. R. and other orders of the city and county. The local militia company, and hundreds of school children will be included in the line of march. The parade will proceed through the main thoroughfares of the city and thence to the cemetery where special memorial services will be conducted by the

ALBANY BOOSTERS GUEST OF CORVALLIS

Party of Albany Business Men Visit There in Interest of Chautauqua.

CORVALLIS ASSURED HEARTY CO-OPERATION

Big Effort Being Made to Make Coming Assembly Largest Ever Held Here.

Several Albany business men went over to Corvallis yesterday morning by automobile where they were the guests of the Corvallis Commercial club at dinner. The trip was made in the interest of the Albany Chautauqua and the primary intention of the trip was to invite the Corvallis people through the Commercial club to cooperate with the Albany people in the holding of this sessions assembly, which resulted in the members of the Corvallis Commercial club assuring the Albany boosters of the hearty cooperation of the people of that city. Accordingly Corvallis people will be much in evidence during the coming Chautauqua and it is probable that many people of that city will establish headquarters on the grounds.

Similar expeditions will probably be made to other cities in this section by leading business men of the city as it is the desire of President Ellis to make this seasons Chautauqua one of the largest assemblies ever held here.

While at Corvallis yesterday the Albany men gained the promise of college authorities that the O. A. C. would establish headquarters on the Chautauqua grounds during the assembly of an exhibit of its extension work. This is destined to be an interesting exhibit as similar ones have been installed at various shows and fairs during the present season and have proved to be intensely educational and interesting to everybody as the college extension work embodies a wide scope of diversified farming.

HUSBAND CHARGED SPENDING ALL OF HIS MONEY FOR DRINK

Mrs. Carrie Driver Wants Divorce from James Driver on Grounds of Non-Support.

Charging that her husband, James V. Driver, spends all of his money in saloons, and that he has been a drunkard for nine years, having during that time willfully neglected and refused to care for her, Carrie I. Driver has instituted a suit in the Linn county circuit court to dissolve the bonds of matrimony existing between them.

The couple were married at Spokane, July 11, 1899. Mrs. Driver removed to Albany a year ago where she has since resided and has succeeded in gaining a livelihood for herself, acquiring personal property of the value of $1000. In her complaint she alleges that her husband led a straight and industrious life for two years after their marriage, but since then has been addicted to the drink habit.

The plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce and asks that she may retain her personal property. There are no children as a result of the marriage. Attorney J. C. Christy represents the plaintiff.

Frank C. Needham and Mrs. Lizzie Rodney, both of Linn county, were married at Corvallis this week, at the home of Mr. Cal. Thrasher.

Mrs. Bob Fletcher and son left this noon for Astoria for a visit at the home of Mrs. Fletcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Forger.

Mrs. Frank Kitchen, of Jefferson, was in the city this afternoon to see her daughter, Miss Rose Tapper, at St. Mary's hospital. A week ago an operation was performed upon her for appendicitis, and she is doing well.

Mrs. Cox, of Portland, returned home this morning after a visit with her son, Dr. W. A. Cox and wife.

BIDS FOR LIBRARY BUILDING OPENED

All Bidders Were Present Yesterday When Papers Were Presented.

ESTIMATES AVERAGE APPROXIMATELY $16000

When Completed Building Will Aggregate Investment of $26000.

With every bidder present, Chairman M. H. Ellis, of the library board, opened the bids for the new Albany public library yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at his office in the presence of President Hewitt, the building committee and the architect.

The bids were considered relative to oak finishings, rather than in fir, as the prices were within the probable estimate of the money available for the construction of the building. The following were the contractors' estimates in oak finishings: R. D. Snell, $16,325; A. J. Keep, $15,315; Blount & Babb, $15,195; John McChesney, $15,750; McNeil & Hoover, $15,231; and A. W. McGilvery, $16,322.

Although there were many other bids submitted, the foregoing are those to be considered. Some of the other bids were for portions of work which if accepted may possibly have reduced the total cost. Chairman Ellis stated this morning that it was a source of much pleasure to note that the bids were all within close range, as this was indicative that there was real bidding and keen competition for the contract, which will be awarded within the next two or three days.

The bids are for the construction of the building and do not include heating and lighting fixtures, furniture or architect's fees. When the cost of these matters are added to the contractor's bill, the cost of the building will aggregate approximately $26,000. The lot at the corner of Third and Ferry streets upon which the building will be erected is valued

FOR PALE CHILDREN

For weak and puny children, disposed to catch cold easily, we recommend the use of Rexall Wine of Cod Liver Extract. You don't have to coax the child to take it because it does not have the disagreeable taste of ordinary cod-liver preparations. At the same time it contains those reconstructive tonic properties of the fresh Norwegian cod livers so generally recognized by physicians as valuable in the treatment of all who are disposed to be weak, anemic, and run-down, or who are liable to catch cold easily. For more quickly bringing about the recovery of convalescents recovering from weak and wasting diseases—for strengthening the system and building up the weight—and as a tonic and strength-builder for old people, specially those with feeble digestive powers, we recommend the use of Rexall Wine of Cod Liver Extract, and back up our recommendation with the positive guarantee that if you do not find it entirely satisfactory in building your strength and weight, if you do not find it entirely satisfactory in every way—your money back. Price, $1. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store.

FRED DAWSON,

A number of Albany people went to Salem this afternoon to see the celebrated Maud Adams, America's leading actress, one intensely devoted to her profession.

at $26,000, so it can be seen that when the building is completed it will represent a total investment of approximately $26,000.

Chairman Ellis stated this morning that if there are no delays in securing the money from the Carnegie library fund the building should be easily completed and ready for occupancy by fall.

The floor of the building will be finished in fir and it is planned to over it with a specially made cork inoleum which would cost approximately $500.

BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO CLOTHES.

Even We Admit

that there are more important things in the world than having the right clothes. We realize that "A man's a man for a' that."

But, unfortunately, people will judge a fellow by the way he looks—and even more unfortunately, lots of fellows don't look as well-dressed as they might. It isn't because they don't try, it's because they don't know how or where to get garments that will bring out the best of them, and hide the worst of them.
