The Oregon Suffragette.

There is room for an honest difference of opinion as to whether or not woman suffrage is demanded by the majority of the women and considered expedient by the majority of the men, but there is one question upon which there is no room for a difference of opinion and that is as to the methods used by those who have charge of the suffrage movement in Great Britain.

The reckless destruction of private and public property, the uncalculated abuse of public men and general intemperate statements credited to the suffrage leaders has done much to discredit the entire movement abroad.

The time has gone by when a resort to open anarchy will bring men to change their viewpoint on any public question. An appeal to reason and common sense will eventually succeed if the cause is just, and those who are advocating it retain the respect of the electors. To obtain a respectful hearing is the first thing which is desired if the evangelist of suffrage would accomplish her purpose. No woman can expect to obtain a hearing of this character if she is introduced to the audience as a law breaker. If women have no respect for the law as it exists today they should most certainly not be entrusted with the important duty of assisting in drafting the laws of tomorrow.

The leaders of the suffrage movement in Oregon set an example which might well be followed by their sisters across the water. The appeal of the Oregon women was made to the common sense, to the reason and to the chivalry of the electors. They never lost sight of the fact that while they were laboring in a great cause, they were still women, and it was due to the fact that they at all times retained the respect of the voters that they finally won in the battle of political equality.

New Lebanon Postmaster.

Editor H. Y. Kirkpatrick, editor of the Lebanon Express, has been appointed and confirmed as postmaster of his home town, and the Democrat congratulates both Mr. Kirkpatrick and the people of Lebanon on the appointment.

The new appointee has spent the best years of his life as editor of the Express. He has been identified to a greater or less extent with every public improvement and has contributed more than his share to the upbuilding of the community in which he has resided for the past twenty or more years. Honest, capable, and a thorough progressive, the Democrat knows of no man in Lebanon who was more entitled to the position, or who would give the patrons of the office a better administration.

LEBANON ITEMS.

The last meeting for the school year of the Parent Teacher Circle of the Lebanon public school was held Wednesday, according to a letter received from them, when officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President, Mrs. Byron Millap, vice-president, Mrs. R. Kuhn; secretary, Mrs. Jessie Wilder; treasurer, Mrs. L. A. Chandler.

Mrs. Millap is a graduate of Stan-

NEW ROLFE THEATRE IS NEARING COMPLETION

That the New Rolfe Theater is rapidly nearing completion is indicated by the fact that a crew of electricians have been busily engaged today in finishing the wiring on the interior of the building and placing the electric bulbs in the many outlets on the front of the new theater.

When completed the new playhouse will be one of the most modern and up-to-date moving picture shows in the valley. It is built on an absolute fireproof plan. The building is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy by the latter part of next month.

ROYAL OAKS WILL STOP AT EUGENE ON WAY TO PORTLAND

Object of Organization Is to Make Oakland Most Beautiful City in U. S.

The Royal Oaks, a body of 200 prominent men of Oakland, Cal., will stop in Eugene on Sunday, June 8, on their way to the Rose Festival in Portland and will be there for an hour and a half, according to word brought to Eugene yesterday by E. J. Finerman, of that city, who just returned from a business trip to San Francisco.

Mr. Finerman bore letters of invitation to the Royal Oaks from L. L. Goodrich, president of the Eugene Commercial club. He presented these letters to those at the head of this body of Oakland boosters, and secured a promise from them that they would stop there.

The Royal Oaks were only recently organized, but they are members of an organization that has been in existence for two or three years and has done more for the city of Oakland during that time than any other body of men. One of the objects of the organization is to make Oakland the most beautiful city in the United States.

J. R. Wilson, of the Oregon Electric, is in the city looking after the building of a roof over the loading platform of the freight depot on Water street. This is being put up for the protection of the men while loading and unloading freight in wet weather.

W. M. Parker and daughter, Miss Alzina, returned last night from Portland, where they spent several days. Among others visited was A. D. Barker, who is better than at one time, and talking things philosophically, with a smile for his friends.

WARD ENTERS PLEA OF "NOT GUILTY"

Alleged Bootlegger Arrested in Raid Yesterday Was Arraigned in Police Court.

THE TRIAL WILL COME UP TOMORROW MORNING

Local Police Raided Two Suspected Blind Pigs Yesterday and Confiscated Liquor.

Making the first raids under the provisions of the new ordinance recently passed by the city council, which permits officers to enter places and make arrests without a warrant, when it is their belief that a nuisance is being conducted therein, local police officers raided two alleged blind pigs late yesterday afternoon and succeeded in arresting Francis M. (Pid) Ward, suspected of bootlegging and confiscating a quantity of bottled beer and whiskey.

The officers conducting the raid were Sheriff Bodine, Chief of Police Austin and Policeman Griff King. They first entered Ward's alleged resort at the foot of Baker street shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and made the arrest of the proprietor. Half a barrel of bottled beer was seized.

Ward was arraigned later in the police court on the charge of conducting a nuisance by violation of the local option liquor law and pleaded "not guilty." His bonds were fixed at $200, which were furnished in cash and the prisoner was released from custody to appear tomorrow morning in court at 9 o'clock, the time set for his trial.

The boat house which is anchored in the river at the foot of Baker street and known as the "Titanic" was the scene of the next raid conducted by the police, where a quantity of bottled whiskey was seized. The officers effected an entrance to the place by breaking in the door. There was no one in the boat house at the time of the raid but the officers have the names of the alleged proprietors of the establishment which is suspected as a blind pig. Walter C. Marks and W. C. Crawford are believed to be the owners of the boat-house and conduct the place. No arrests have been made up until early this afternoon.

Lone Eugene Man Tangles with Two Albany Men After Arrival of 3 o'Clock Train.

A live fight is reported to have ensued between two Albany men and a man from Eugene at the Oregon Electric depot early this morning after the arrival of the 3 o'clock south-bound train. Judging from the amount of blood at the north end of the cement platform, it appeared to have been a bloody combat. It is understood that the men were members of a party of Moose who were returning from Salem after attending the carnival. There were several eye witnesses to the fight but the names of the parties could not be learned. No arrests were made.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT COMPLAINT OF $19000 SUIT

Title & Trust Co. and Harry Hawkins Wish to Ascertain Cause of Action.

Motions for an order of the circuit court to strike out the complaint of the plaintiff for the reason that two causes of action have been plead and not separately stated, for an order requiring the plaintiff to file an amended complaint, wherein is stated the two causes of action separately, to-wit: the cause of action upon the note set out in the complaint and the cause of action upon the contract of guaranty as alleged in the complaint and for an order requiring the plaintiff to elect which of said two causes of action they will rely upon, where filed in the office of county Clerk Marks this morning by the Oregon Title and Trust company and Harry Hawkins and others. In both motions the first National Bank of this city is named as the plaintiff.

The matter arose out of the fact that the plaintiff bank instituted suits for the recovery of $1200 against the defendant company and for $7000 against Hawkins and others recently and the defendants seek to ascertain which cause of action the plaintiff will rely upon.

Attorneys Weatherford and Weatherford represent the plaintiffs and Attorneys Hewitt and Sox are for the defendants.

J. F. Traver went to Portland this morning to see about the sale of some Portland property.
