

BOOSTERS FROM BROWNSVILLE HERE

Large Delegation Boosting for Big Attendance at Pioneer Picnic.

15 AUTOS BEAR POSTERS GIVING DATES OF EVENT

Brief Address Made By Rev. Kohler of Brownsville on First Street This Morning.

Arriving shortly after 11 o'clock, a large delegation of prominent business men from Brownsville this morning advertised the Pioneer Picnic which is to be held in that city July 18, 19 and 20, and left for Corvallis where the members of the party will be the guests of the Commercial club of that place for lunch.

Three automobiles containing representatives of the local Commercial club met the Brownsville business men several miles out of Albany and escorted them to the corner of First and Broadalbin streets, where Mayor Stanard of Brownsville arose in his automobile and presented Rev. Kohler who briefly told of the plans being made for the event by his fellow townmen and invited the people of Albany to be present.

On the fifteen automobiles bearing the delegation of Brownsville boosters were huge posters advertising the date of the picnic.

COUNTY COURT CONVENE TEMPORARILY THIS MORNING

The county court convened temporarily this forenoon after remaining in session for the past two days busily auditing bills, passing upon road petitions and receiving a delegation in the interest of making a public park out of the court house grounds, and all of the members left on the noon train for Lebanon, near which place they will inspect a rock crusher and incidentally take in the Lebanon Strawberry Fair. The members of the court will return tonight and tomorrow will resume the present term of court. No action has been taken relative to making a public park out of the court house grounds.

SCIO COUPLE WERE MARRIED HERE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Mr. Ethel G. Arnold and Miss M. Eulela Cyrus were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. Elbert H. Hicks.

The couple belong to estimable families of Scio where they both have many friends. A number of intimate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony. After the nuptial knot was tied the newlyweds left on a short honeymoon to points north and upon their return will make their home at Scio.

Horse Bites Man's Cheek

While attempting to shoe one of the horses of the circus in the blacksmith shop of the big tent of the Sells-Floto shows here yesterday, one of the blacksmiths in the employ of the circus nearly got his cheek bitten off by the horse, objected to being shod, became unmanageable and in the scuffle between horse and man, the animal bit the man on the cheek.

Balloon Peddler Arrested.

A balloon peddler, who is supposed to have been with the Sells-Floto circus, was arrested here yesterday charged with creating a disturbance on the streets. County officials who made the arrest refused to state the nature of the charge or what was done with the man, but it is understood that the man was relieved of his balloons, given a severe lecture, and set free.

Guardian Appointed.

County Judge McKnight has appointed Mrs. Mabel H. Rutter, the mother of Herchel Hofflich, age 5, guardian of the child upon application. The child has an estate of the probable value of $600 and the guardian will be required to furnish bonds in this amount.

To Set Spike Today.

Mark Woodruff of the P. E. & E. came in Wednesday evening for a conference today with Manager M. J. Duryea regarding the celebration to mark the completion of the Eugene-Monroe-Corvallis line of the P. E. & E. Mr. Woodruff went to the front today to see how the work is getting along. C. A. Murphy, secretary of the Corvallis Commercial club, will be here Saturday for the conference.—Eugene Register.

WRECK THIS MORNING DELAYS NOON TRAIN FROM PORTLAND

Train No. 28 Northbound Delayed Near Reform School; No One Injured.

Delayed on account of a wreck near the Reform school, Southern Pacific train number 19, southbound, due to arrive here at 12:25 o'clock this afternoon will not arrive until sometime late this afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock.

The wreck which caused the delay occurred this morning about 10 o'clock, just as train number 28 northbound was pulling past the reform school, when the engine, tender and one baggage car derailed, caused by the spreading of the track. As far as could be learned at the depot this noon no one was injured in the accident and a wrecking crew has been busy all morning endeavoring to replace the derailed train. The latest report stated that the work was rapidly progressing and that from present indications it will be completed in time to let the southbound train proceed in time to reach here about 4 o'clock.

Harry Neely has just completed the construction of a gasoline wood saw which will be operated by him during the present season. He will still remain in his present business but will hire an experienced man to handle the saw.

Prof. Leslie Sharp went to Salem this noon to attend the strawberry fair and attend the baseball game between the Albany and Lebanon high school teams.

Mrs. William Neely and daughter Miss Fayne, went to Portland this noon to visit with friends for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Littler left today for Portland where they will visit with relatives and see the Rose Show. Dr. Littler will also attend the annual meeting of the state dental society which convenes in Portland, June 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th.

and Mrs. L. E. Hamilton and Mrs. E. J. Hamilton were among the visitors at the Lebanon strawberry fair which closed last night. Mr. and Mrs. Francis and Mr. and Mrs. Starb were at Lebanon yesterday attending the strawberry fair.

FIREMEN TO BE SHOWN THROUGH CHAIR FACTORY

Fifteen Firefighters Will Familiarize Themselves with Conditions at Plant.

Fifteen firemen of the local fire department will be taken on a sight-seeing tour of the Veal Chair factory tomorrow morning, for the purpose of inspecting and investigating the conditions in the factory and to learn the location of numerous hydrant take-offs, hand extinguishers and the location of the highly inflammable turpentine tanks, wares and other articles used in the big manufacturing concern.

Mr. Bert Veal, manager of the factory, extended the invitation to the firemen to visit the plant, and as Fire Chief Horsky is anxious to have his men become familiar with the interiors of all of the big plants of the city, and in order to have them reach a certain degree of efficiency which they are destined to do, the invitation was gladly accepted by all of the firemen. The fire fighters will assemble at the factory at 10:30 o'clock and will be conducted through the plant by Mr. Veal.

ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF SPEED ORDINANCE

Gets Lecture from Police Judge; Dog Owners Clash with Police Over Provisions of Law.

Because he violated the terms of the new dog ordinance and incidentally expressed himself in no uncertain terms concerning its provisions when reminded by an officer that he was guilty of its violation, a man was yesterday arrested and taken before Police Judge Van Tassel, given a lecture on the duty of the local officers in enforcing the law and permitted to go on his way without entering a plea to the charge.

OREGON ELECTRIC GRADE CAUSES OVERFLOW OF LAND

Railroad Company Sued For $500 Damages by Mrs. America F. Holbrook.

Charging that she is impeded from farming a tract of land, of which she is the owner because it overflows with water from the Calapooia creek caused by the construction of a railroad grade with improper drainage facilities, Mrs. America F. Holbrook has filed a $500 damage suit against the Oregon Electric Railway company.

Mrs. Holbrook is the owner of a large tract of land, located on the Corvallis road south of here and in her complaint she alleges that she has been deterred from consistently farming 17 acres of the land which she claims has been partially covered with water during the past winter with water during high water stages of the past winter caused by the railroad grade, which she asserts was constructed improperly and without regard to proper drainage facilities.

CARRY DRIVER IS GRANTED DIVORCE BY JUDGE KELLY

James Driver Is Shaken on the Grounds of Habitual Drunkenness and Non-Support.

On the grounds that her husband is a habitual drunkard and that he spent all of his money in saloons, failing to support her, Mrs. Carry I. Driver was granted a divorce late yesterday afternoon by Circuit Judge Kelly from James W. Driver.

Mrs. Driver is a resident of this city and has not resided with her husband for several months. The couple were married in Spokane Wash., over 12 years ago. There are no children as a result of the union. Attorney J. C. Christy represented the plaintiff.

SCOTTISH RITE BODIES TO BURN MORTGAGE TONIGHT

Big Banquet to Follow Impressive Program; Albany Man Elected to Office.

One of the most important affairs in the history of the Scottish Rite bodies of Oregon will be the burning tonight in Portland of the $55,000 mortgage which has been against the Scottish Rite cathedral since the completion of the building in 1902. The affair will be followed by a banquet which will be attended by about 600 persons.

The class of the present reunion met and organized last night with the election of the following officers: President, Franklin T. Griffith, Portland; class orator, William R. Bilyeu, Albany; secretary-historian, George W. Holcomb, Portland; E. G. Jones was elected as honorary member. The program will mark the close of the 28th semi-annual reunion of the Scottish Rite.

Local firemen are planning on another water fight to be held a week from next Thursday.

ALBANY PEOPLE INVITED TO CITIZENSHIP CONFERENCE

E. F. Sox, Mrs. Henreitta Brown and Rev. Albon Esson Will Attend Event.

Among the many distinguished people who have been invited to attend the great Second Worlds Christian Citizenship Conference to be held at Portland, Oregon, June 29-July 6, next are Mr. E. F. Sox, Mrs. Henrietta Brown and Rev. Albert Esson.

In fourteen states definite organizations are now being formed under State Secretaries and it is certain that some eminent man in this state has been or will be named for this important post.

More than 100 of the world's greatest orators have been invited to take part in the Conference which will doubtless attract 20,000 persons to Portland. The affair is everywhere regarded as the greatest religious and social event of modern times.

Mrs. W. A. McLain and Miss Leila Mitchell went to Lebanon this morning to attend the strawberry fair.
