

GRAND JURY GOES INTO SESSION

Convened this Morning to Consider Matters for Judge Kelly's Court.

MEETING IS TO BE A SHORT ONE

Regular June Term of Department One Will Convene June 16.

Convening an adjourned session the March grand jury met this morning in the jury room to consider matters preparatory to the commencement of the June term of Circuit Judge P. R. Kelly's court, which will convene here June 16.

The personnel of the grand jury is as follows: H. B. Springer, Albany; G. R. Titus, Lebanon; Gus Gunderson, Sodusville; C. E. Soule, Lacomb; W. O. McClain, Lebanon; S. Lindley, Lebanon, and J. T. Follis, Scio.

It is understood that the session will not last but today and tomorrow as there is but very little business to occupy the attention of the jurors, although scores of witnesses have been summoned to appear before the session. The jury will not make a report until some time late this afternoon after the adjournment of the day's session. The jury will meet again tomorrow morning and will probably remain in session all day when it is expected that their work will have been completed.

The regular June term of Judge Kelly's court will convene Monday, June 16, Thursday afternoon, June 5, Judge Kelly held a preliminary term of his court for the purpose of setting cases for trial, resulting as follows:

Monday, June 16, at 1 p. m., Isabelle Churchill vs. Leona Miller; Tuesday, June 17, at 9 a. m., M. Bussard et al vs. J. L. Irvin, and later in the day E. B. Nickerson et al vs. R. Volkman. Wednesday, June 18, at 1 p. m., Reeves Clark department store vs. George H. Miller; Thursday, June 19, at 9 a. m., State vs. A. J. Newman, and on Friday, June 20, at 9 a. m., the case of J. W. Harrington vs. E. A. Mills, et al. will be tried.

SALEM MAN IS WEDDED TO SHEDD LADY BY COUNTY JUDGE

Yesterday afternoon in the presence of a few intimate relatives, Mr. William Walker Martin, of Salem, and Miss Goldie Lee McClennen, of Shedd, were united in marriage in the county judge's office by Judge Bruce McKnight.

The bride is a popular young lady of Shedd and is the daughter of a prominent farmer of that section. The groom is held in high esteem by a host of friends in Salem where he is employed as a laborer. After the ceremony the couple left for Salem where they will make their future home.

LEGISLATIVE RECORD.

By L. G. Lewelling.

House Bill No. 371.

This law provides that owners of timber in the State of Oregon shall furnish a sufficient patrol thereof during the season of the year when there is danger of forest fires. The patrol must meet with the approval of the State board of Forestry.

In case the owner fails to provide such patrol, the State Forester, under the direction of the State board of Forestry, shall provide the same at a cost not to exceed the sum of five cents per acre, per annum. Any amount so paid out by the State Forester shall be a lien upon the timber patrolled and be collected in the same manner as taxes and returned to the State Forester.

All land shall be considered timber land which shall have enough timber either standing or down upon it to be a menace to itself or adjoining lands.

Residence within one and one-half miles of timber by the owner shall be deemed a sufficient patrol of the same.

The effect of this law is to compel the owners of timber lands who reside without the state to contribute to the patrol of their lands within the state. Heretofore the owners of timber lands residing within the state have maintained a patrol of their land partly for the same out of their own pockets. In patrolling their own lands it became necessary to patrol those of non-residents for protection; the result was that non-residents refused to contribute, hence the passage of this law.

Miss Tulle and Clara Eckert are in Portland visiting with friends and attending the rose festival.

Miss Ruth Cox, of Cottage Grove, is the guest of friends and relatives here.

Arthur Corbin returned yesterday from Portland where he took the examination for prescription clerk.

INSURANCE COMPANY FILES SUIT TO RECOVER $1000

M. E. Brown is Named as the Defendant; Case to Come Up in Circuit Court.

M. E. Brown is named the defendant in a suit to recover a promissory note for $1000 filed against him this morning in the circuit court by the American Life and Accident Insurance company, through its attorney, Arthur Moulton, of Portland.

According to the allegations in the complaint the note was executed by Brown to N. S. Olson on March 22, 1912, and that no part of it has been paid, regardless of the fact that it is now past due. Olson prior to the maturity of the note sold it to the plaintiff corporation, who asks the court judgment in the sum of $1,000 with interest to date and $200 attorney's fees.

DAIRY PRODUCTS ARE IN EXCESS OF $10,000,000

The May bulletin of the Oregon dairy and food commission is in the hands of the state printer, J. D. Mickle, head of the commission, says in the report that the dairy products were in excess of $19,000,000, which is more than any other crop, and $7,000,000 more than live stock, which reached $12,000,000 for 1912.

News Beginning With This Head Is From Daily Issue of SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1913.

LAWN SOCIAL WILL BE GIVEN TONIGHT AT FARM

Rupers Near Tangent Will Be Scene of Merry Festive; Auto Excursion.

A lawn social will be given this evening at the Rupers farm, half a mile east of Tangent, and there will be ice cream and cake galore, together with many other palate-soothing dainties. Everybody has a most cordial invitation to attend the fete and a large crowd is expected. There will be plenty of diversion to afford amusement for the guests and no trouble has been spared to make the fete one long to be remembered.

Fred Westbrook expects to make a trip to the farm with his big automobile truck; providing he secures a load, a number having already signified their intention of going. Those who wish to make seat reservations in the truck can do so if they call up the St. Francis before all of the seats are gone. The truck will leave the hotel at 8 o'clock and a charge of 25 cents for the trip will be made.

TO AID DIGESTION HE EATS SAND

Teaspoonful After Each Meal Is Emmons' "Cure" for Dyspepsia and a Grouch.

Washington, June 13.—Julian Emmons, doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, 65 years of age, hale and hearty, swallows a teaspoonful of sand after each meal.

He never leaves home in the morning without a phial of coarse sand. He says he was troubled constantly with sour stomach, heartburn, indigestion and kindred ills, until he started the "sand cure." Now he asserts that he is never troubled at all, relishes his food, sleeps like a baby and enjoys life to the full.

He has one remedy for all ills. It is said, if you feel grouchy, take a little sand. If a dark brown taste is present on arising in the morning, do not fail to reach for the sand bottle, he advises.

Emmons urges coarse sand, not too sharp, and forswears the fine white variety, because, he says, it dissolves in the intestinal process and is of no value as an aid to the functions of digestion and elimination.

Electric Enlarging Machine.

An electric enlarging machine of the latest and most approved design was this week installed by C. E. Clifford in his studio on First street.

The machine is one of the best manufactured and is an exact duplicate of many of those installed by the photographers in the larger cities. It is a recent invention and will enlarge both ordinary photographs and kodak pictures.

Tomorrow morning during the regular church services the members of the church and Sunday school of the First Presbyterians church will observe Children's Day, with an especially arranged program, according to an announcement made this morning by Rev. Franklin H. Gesselbracht, pastor of the church.

H. Wayne Stannard, a son of Mayor Stannard of Brownsville, returned from Portland last night after attending the Rose Carnival and left this morning for his home in Brownsville.

PENS LIFE STORY AS DEATH COMES

Wrote His Autobiography and Many Poems During Last Weeks of Illness.

St. Louis, June 13.—After an illness of thirteen weeks, during which he wrote his autobiography and many poems, Robert Buechel who for 46 years did not miss a rehearsal or performance at the Olympic theater, is dead.

Until the pencil fell from his weakened fingers, the veteran flutist composed poetry and the words of songs he planned to write. Much of the poetry he sent to a son in Texas.

Each day until nearly the end he wrote in a clear and unflinching hand of his past, of his recollections of his early life in Germany, sometimes in prose, but more often he wrote verses and love songs.

A few days ago he completed the last poem, which he requested his son to send to his life-long friend, Edward L. Prectorius. He also sent to Mr. Prectorius his autobiography.

At the Olympic theater Buechel saw the rise and decline of stardom, and on one memorable occasion, when Patti came to St. Louis, received an ovation from the audience second only to that accorded the singer.

The accompanist of Patti suddenly was taken ill. Buechel was told at the last moment he would have to accompany the singer with his flute. As the applause died away following Patti's famous rendition, the diva took Buechel by the hand and led him on the stage.

"My accompanist deserves at least half the applause," she said as she handed some of the bouquets tossed to her to Buechel.

Buechel came to America from Germany when he was a young man and soon after became a member of the orchestra of the Olympic. Previously he had been the flutist in the private corps of musicians of the King of Prussia, who later became Emperor of contest against 96 other picked as the best in the country.

He saw candles and oil lamps used to light the stage and he saw gas lighting superseded by electricity. He saw the development of the musical comedy.

Always when the stars for whom he had played returned to the Olympic they immediately paid their respects to Buechel.

Buechel was 63 years old.

THIS INVENTOR HAS A NOVEL SCHEME

Kansas Man Thinks He Can Pipe Beer Into a Dry Territory.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 2.—A new problem will confront the Kansas officials in regard to the liquor business, provided the scheme of an Oklahoma man is carried out. A man giving his name as James Snyder came to Leavenworth today and called at a factory for amusement devices.

Snyder unfolded his plan. His scheme was to have two pipes laid under the Missouri river, connecting Leavenworth with Drydale, the saloon town in Platte county. Slot machines would be placed in this city. When a man became thirsty all he would have to do would be to drop a nickel in the slot, which would travel through the pipes to a saloon across the river. A glass of beer would then be carried back through pipes to the patron.

Snyder says that he is determined to carry out his scheme, although he was offered little encouragement. He says he is determined to get around the Mahin law.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Flora Mason is in Portland visiting friends and attending the Rose Festival.

Returning yesterday from Portland where he was a delegate to the meeting of the Eastern Star and the grand lodge of the Royal Arch Masons, Geo. Taylor declared that he had an excellent time and that the meetings were both well attended. Mr. Taylor is High Priest of the Royal Arch order and Worthy Patron of the Eastern Star.

Dr. W. H. Davis has purchased a new Ford automobile to use in his practice, making the third car of this make the doctor has used. Besides this number he has driven a Buick and at present he is the owner of a big Cadillac touring car.

Ralph Cronise, of Salem, is visiting friends here.

Isaac Butler, a railway mail clerk residing in Portland, returned to his home this morning after visiting a few days with his parents, Commissioner and Mrs. T. J. Butler of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patton, of Seattle, passed through the city yesterday afternoon enroute home after visiting with Mr. Patton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Patton of Halsey. The couple were recently married in Seattle. They were met at the train by Miss Lila Patton, a sister of Mr. Patton and Miss Winnifred Austin.

Mr. Nelson Wilber of Payette, Idaho, arrived this afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Dedmond, of Portland, arrived this afternoon to be a guest at the Wright home and to attend the wedding of Miss Rulah Lee Wright and Mr. Nelson Wilber.

MILTON MILLER IS NAMED INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR

Leading Lebanonite Has Been Nominated to $4500 Per Year Job.

After six weeks of delay President Wilson yesterday nominated M. A. Miller as Collector of Internal Revenue for Oregon. The delay in making this appointment is said to have been due to congestion in the treasury department, but by a coincidence the nomination comes only a day or two after the democrat leaders of the senate assured the president that all western democrats, with the possible exception of Walsh, of Montana, will vote for the tariff bill as ratified by the democratic caucus.

Milton A. Miller is a well known Oregon democrat, whose home is at Lebanon. He is a member of the state senate and has been for a number of terms.

If confirmed, as it is believed he will be, Mr. Miller will succeed Colonel David M. Dunne, who has been collector for 16 years. The appointment is not for a definite term, but at the pleasure of the president. All of the deputies and clerks in the office are under civil service, hence there is no patronage to control. The salary is $4500 a year.

THIRTY-FIVE WIDOWS IN LANE COUNTY APPLY

According to Statement Made by County Clerk Marks Only 15 Have Applied Here.

According to a report from Eugene, thus far thirty-five Lane county widows have applied to the county court for pensions under the new law which went into effect June 3. In Linn county according to a statement made last Wednesday by County Clerk W. L. Marks, only 15 Linn county widows have filed applications for pensions. So between the two counties, it can be seen that it is either a case of more destitution in Lane than there is in Linn, or that there is a much larger population or that the people of Lane county realize the meaning of the law more fully than do some of the Linn county widows in need.

HENRY M'ELMURRY'S HAT IS IN THE RING

Will Oppose P. A. Young for Position on the Local School Board.

Notwithstanding the announcement contained in the Democrat several days ago to the effect that P. A. Young was being groomed by his friends for school director, friends of Henry M'Elmurry today relieved him of his hat and tossed it into the ring for the same office.

While it is not known just who presented the name of Mr. M'Elmurry it is said that he has a substantial following and it now seems certain that the election will be hotly contested.

J. C. Piegman, a farmer residing 4 1/2 miles east of here, transacted business in the city this morning. He recently purchased a large tract of land in Linn county through the Tebbutt Real Estate company.

Mrs. A. A. Mickle and sister, Miss M. B. Dickinson, left this morning for Portland where they will attend the last day's events of the Rose Festival. They will return home tomorrow evening.

J. R. FLYNN WILL REMOVE TO PORTLAND TO RESIDE

J. R. Flynn, for many years the very capable and popular representative of Blake, M'Fall & Co., in this district, with headquarters at this city, has been promoted to the head office at Portland, with a splendid position in the offering, and with his family, will soon move to that city to reside, a fact their many friends will regret to learn, though rejoicing in the deserved promotion.

Harry Schlosser left this morning for Portland to attend the Rose Festival. He will return home tomorrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shaw of Mill City went to Portland this morning to take in the close of the Rose Festival.

UNLESS NAME IS ON TAX ROLL WOMEN CAN'T VOTE

According to the opinion of a well known local attorney, no woman can vote at the school election which will be held on Monday unless her name appears on the tax roll. It appears that the passage of the constitutional amendment giving to women the ballot did not change the law insofar as the same pertains to school elections.

Fred Weatherford went to Portland this morning to attend the last day's events of the Rose Festival.

C. H. Burggraf left this noon for Cottage Grove where he will be detained until the fore part of next week on business matters.
