

NATION'S BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AWAY

Hundreds of Local People Celebrate the Fourth at Various Places.

SALEM AND EUGENE VISITED BY THROGS

People of Newport, Dallas and Foster Were Hosts to Crowds of Albanyites.

In the glow of somewhat of a kindly day, it has been estimated that fully 1500 Albanyites celebrated the Fourth of July yesterday at Salem and at Eugene, while hundreds observed the nation's birth at various other places and at home.

The estimate can somewhat be based upon the sale of railroad tickets. Over 200 tickets were sold at the Oregon Electric ticket office during the fore part of yesterday. At the Southern Pacific, the number far surpasses this amount which read to all places, the majority including Newport, Salem and Eugene.

Salem was visited by the largest number of local people where a joint three days celebration of the cherry fair and the Fourth of July was opened Thursday and will last throughout today. The latch key hung on the outside and characteristic of the affable hospitality for which Salemites are noted, the visitors were made at home with something doing every minute for their pleasure and entertainment.

The parades, the special attractions and last but not least the famous cherry fair were extremely creditable to the people of Salem and were attended with pleasure and interest by the vast crowds.

Although the recent rains had injured some of the cherries, the exhibit was appropriately staid by one Salem booster, as being bigger, better and grander than ever before. Cherries of all varieties were on display, big plump, juicy cherries as big around as a fifty cent piece, artistically and carefully packed lay on the shelves to greet eyes above watering mouths.

At Eugene hordes of people from this city, although small compared to the delegation celebrating at Salem, attended the gigantic Moose Carnival celebration of the Fourth. Returning last night several local people were loud in their praise of the splendid time had as a guest of the Varsity City. Creditable in the extreme were the parades and feature attractions arranged for the observation of the nation's birth at that city, they said.

Hundreds of local people went to Newport yesterday on the largest excursion of the present season. Other places were visited by Albany people, including Dallas and Foster. Morning parties from this city were numerous, many making the trip to Salem and Eugene and the other places by way of this route.

HORSE DROPPED DEAD IN ROAD OF HEART FAILURE

Valuable Colt Belonging to Winfield Parker Suddenly Succumbs.

While being driven to this city yesterday morning from Plainview, a valuable 2-year old colt belonging to Winfield Parker, of Plainview who in company with his family were coming here to attend the grange picnic, dropped dead of heart trouble, on the Lebanon road a few miles south of here. It is understood that the colt had never been driven on the road before and has only recently been broken to harness. The Parker buggy was attached to a passing vehicle and towed to this city, where the Plainview family are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Parker.

District Attorney Gale S. Hill returned from a business trip to Salem.

AT SALEM YESTERDAY ALBANY WAS DEFEATED 4 TO 0

Patterson Pitched Good Game for Local Team but Did Not Have Support.

The Salem "Senators" again showed their superiority over the Albany "Athletics" yesterday at Salem before a crowd of 1200 people by winning 4 to 0 in an interesting game. Not an earned run was made by Salem, their runs coming in on errors by Kennard, Swann and Ryals.

Baker as usual pitched big league ball for Salem, only three hits being secured off his delivery. Patterson pitched a good game for Albany allowing nine hits which were scattered throughout the game and with good support would have held the Salem team scoreless.

SCORE: R H E
Salem 4 9 0
Albany 0 3 3
Umpires—Cheyne and Salisbury.

Mr. Harry Corimet, of Lebanon, spent the 4th in Albany the guest of Mrs. H. C. Harkness.

ALBANY SINGERS ARE MAKING GRAND HIT

Delight Large Cherry Fair Audiences at Grand Theatre in Salem.

Singing to packed audiences at the Grand theatre, Salem, during the Cherry Fair, the quartette of Albany young men who pleased large crowds at the Rolle recently are taking the Salem music lovers by storm, attested by the many encores accorded them during their engagement.

The quartette is composed of Harry Raymond, Jay Palmer, Clark Huston and Gerald Crawford. After completing their engagement at the Grand the Albany singers will appear at other valley points, including Eugene and Corvallis after which they will go on a vaudeville circuit.

A. Sutherland, of Sheel, was in the city today. His daughter, Miss Mary Sutherland also arrived for Chautauqua, during which she will have charge of the department of domestic science under her last year a very popular feature.

P. W. Quinn, of Brownsville, spent the 4th of July in Albany, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Collins.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE EXTINGUISHED; NO DAMAGE

Old Barn at Corner of Oak and Second Streets Was Scene of Fire Friday.

Responding to a telephone call, a crew of firemen with the use of the auto chemical truck, extinguished a small blaze in an old barn at the corner of Second and Oak streets early yesterday morning before much damage was done.

The fire was discovered by S. R. Livingston, owner of the building about 2 o'clock. The barn contained nothing of particular value except several loads of straw, in which the fire was burning. Mr. Livingston attempted to extinguish it by the use of a garden hose but he could not reach it with the stream. He then telephoned Fire Chief Horsky with the result that the fire was put out in short order.

The origin of the blaze is not known but it is believed that it was caused by hoboes, who it is known have been accustomed to sleeping in the old barn.

MET IN PORTLAND FOR FIRST TIME SINCE EARLY BOYHOOD

Rev. D. H. Leech and Rev. J. M. Hervey Enjoy Happy Reunion.

Meeting for the first time since boyhood, Rev. John M. Hervey, of Billings, Mont., formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Prineville, and Rev. Leech, pastor of the local Methodist church met the fore part of the week at the World's Christian Citizenship conference at Portland and enjoyed a happy reunion. Rev. Hervey and Rev. Leech are first cousins.

Rev. Hervey has been in attendance at the conference and is now in Albany as the guest of Rev. Leech. Tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock Rev. Hervey will preach the sermon at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Fred Aldredge and son went to Portland this afternoon for a visit. Mr. Aldredge is in the east on a few weeks visit at his old home.

A. M. Cannon, U. S. district clerk at Portland, and daughter, Miss Carolyn, spent the 4th at the home of D. P. Mason, coming up in their auto. Miss Carolyn will remain for some time.

HARRIMAN CLUB TO TACKLE ALBANY

Local Fans Are Promised Fast Game Tomorrow Afternoon at Athletic Park.

CLUBMEN ARE SAID TO HAVE FORMIDABLE TEAM

Salisbury or Berry May Do Twirling Act for Albany; Game Called at 3.

The Albany "Athletics" will cross bats with the Harriman club of Portland for the first time this season at the local park tomorrow afternoon beginning at the usual time, 3 p. m.

The Harriman club until this year were known as the O. R. & N. team and have always been represented by a good bunch of ball players in all of their games played here.

They were recently defeated by the Multnomah club 3 to 0 and by the Astoria team 1 to 0 which is a good showing since both the above mentioned clubs are especially strong. The Harrimans have defeated Roseburg, The Dalles and other good teams this season.

It is probable that Salisbury or Jack Berry will occupy the box for the local team tomorrow as Patterson pitched against Salem yesterday and Lyle Bigbee will be out of town. The game should prove close and interesting and a large crowd is expected to attend.

The lineup follows: Albany—Swan, 2b; Monson, cf; C. Bigbee, 3b; Colbert, 1b; D. Patterson, c; W. Patterson, rf; Kennard, ss; Ryals, lf; Berry, Salisbury, p. Harriman club—Hyland, 2b; Crowe, cf; Voss, 3b; Mount, 1b; Chamberlain, c; Shinn, rf; Devine, ss; Hinkle, lf; Baker, p.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Prettyman and daughter went to Cottage Grove this afternoon, and from there will go over forty miles into the mountains to camp during the summer, hunting and fishing.

Robert F. Smithwick, the competent chief engineer of the P. E. & E. of Corvallis, was in Albany visiting yesterday.

LINN COUNTY COUPLE MARRIED THURSDAY EVENING

In the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives, Mr. Wayne Powers and Miss Lillie Schenman, both of Linn county, were united in marriage Thursday evening in the parlors of the Rice House by Rev. D. H. Leech, pastor of the First Methodist church. The bride is a member of a well known family residing near Seio and the groom resides on a farm near here, where they will make their home.

Robert Murphy left this noon for Little Elk for a fish. Thomas Hopkins is already there getting the fish in a biting mood, and during the next few days some big catches are anticipated.

School director W. H. McElmurry celebrated yesterday in Salem.

ORDINARY STAMPS NOW GOOD FOR PARCEL POST PACKAGES

All the postoffices now accept ordinary stamps for parcel post packages and parcel post stamps for letters, the two kinds being now interchangeable. No more parcel post stamps will be issued as those now on hand are exhausted. Through an error of division the percentage of postoffice receipts gain was given in The Guard last evening as something more than 12 per cent, when it should have read something more than 16 per cent gain for the year.—Eugene Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, of New York City, who have been visiting at the home of Maj. C. B. Winn, left today for California on their way home.
