

HOP MARKET HAS SLOWED UP SOME

Wheat Buying Operations Have Been Progressing on a Moderate Scale

GROWERS ARE SMILING BROADLY NEVERTHELESS

They Are Not Worrying as They Are Too Busy to Hunt Buyers

Continued from Wednesday, July 30.

The hop grower is wearing a broad smile these days. The wheat growers are moderately smiling. All prices on this season's products have not thus far been quoted but it is generally conceded that the farmers are too busy with the harvest to find buyers.

Recent reports relative to the hop and wheat situation are as follows:

"The Oregon hop market has just passed through one of the most exciting periods it has ever known. Since Saturday the price has made a sheer jump of 2 1/2 cents a pound, accompanied at what was at times furious buying. New crop values have been placed firmly at the 20-cent mark by the operations just closed.

"The hop market quieted down yesterday. No further purchase of the new crop was reported, but the market has lost none of its strength. The substantial character of the recent buying and of the buyer were sufficient to establish the price firmly at 20 cents and there is nothing in sight to cause it to recede. It is true that nearly all of the purchasing was done by one dealer, and that the big eastern firms indicate no intention of following him, but sellers are not affected by this fact. Enough hops have been bought at 20 cents to cause the growers, one and all, to hold for this price or better, even though the demand has ceased for the time.

"Wheat buying operation yesterday were on a moderate scale. Farmers are more occupied now with harvest than with finding buyers, and there is no incentive for the latter to rush in on the present market. Prices have undergone no change in the past few days. The local track basis for club holds at 79 and 80 cents."

YOUNG MEN WALK FROM GARDINER TO NEWPORT

Canoe Was Wrecked in Shooting Rapids in Umpqua Near Kellogg.

Arriving in the city yesterday afternoon from Newport, E. P. Strong, in company with a friend, Guy Corbin, whom he left at the resort, during the past ten days has spent a memorable outing, in which they walked 130 miles and a canoe in which they were shooting rapids in the Umpqua river was wrecked.

Strong, in company with Cordau left Roseburg, their home, June 19 in a canoe by way of the river, bound for the mouth. They succeeded in navigating the river for 80 miles when they ran into the rapids near Kellogg, resulting in the canoe capsizing in the swift current and discharging its contents into the water. The occupants were thrown into the water but managed to swim ashore from Kellogg they walked to the coast, with the exception of a boat ride of 30 miles from Scottsburg to Gardiner.

Upon reaching the coast they proceeded to walk to Newport arriving there yesterday.

All Strong after spending the night here at the home of Prof. J. L. Baker left on the noon train for his home at Roseburg.

LOCAL CROP OF PEACHES ARE NOW COMING ON

This morning C. H. Stewart picked several fine specimens of Idaho Early variety of peaches out of a tree at his home and graciously favored several of his friends with the business fruit. They are among the first of the season to ripen. One of the peaches measured 3 1/2 inches in circumference.

The local crop of peaches will soon begin to appear on the market in abundance. Those at present on the market come from Southern Oregon as the peaches in that section ripen much earlier than the Willamette valley crop.

Leaving this morning for Belknap by automobile, D. Bussard and family will enjoy a few weeks outing at the famous hot springs. This is the second outing expedition the Bussards have taken this summer, only recently returning from Newport.

PRETTY WEDDING CEREMONY SOLEMNIZED LAST NIGHT

Miss Golda Yates and Earl Canfield Were United in Marriage

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Yates on Jackson street was the scene of a pretty wedding last night, when their daughter Miss Golda Yates became the wife of Earl Canfield.

In the presence of scores of relatives and friends, Rev. Leech performed the impressive ceremony. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Miss Loane McGuire was bridesmaid and Clark Canfield, a brother of the groom, was best man. Little Dorothy Robnett acted as ring bearer.

Miss Nelson Allen, of Salem, rendered a pleasing instrumental solo prior to the ceremony and Victor Yates, a brother of the bride, was heard in a masterful song solo. Miss Yates played the wedding march.

After the ceremony the guests assembled around an artistically decorated festive board and an elaborate four course collation was served.

This morning the newlyweds left on a north bound train on a brief honeymoon for parts unknown to their friends. Upon returning they will make their home here.

J. P. ROBERTS TO WITHDRAW FROM LAUNDRY CONCERN

Albany Steam Laundry Will Be Continued Under Management of Wieders

On the first of the month, J. P. Roberts will sever his connection with the Albany Steam laundry.

R. L. Wieders, C. H. Wieders and Mr. Roberts have been affiliated as proprietors of the laundry for the past several months. Although he has not definitely made up his mind what course he will pursue, it is assigned as Mr. Roberts reasons for withdrawing from the concern, that he wished to go to Portland to engage in some kind of business.

After residing here for several years the Roberts moved to Portland where Mr. Roberts was engaged in the grocery business. Later he sold out, returning with his family to Albany and becoming a partner in the laundry concern.

Under his and his associates' management the laundry has become one of the most up to date institutions in this section of the valley and has enjoyed a prosperous business. Messrs. Wieders who are thoroughly experienced in the business will continue it as heretofore.

Motoring Through Northwest.

Passing through the city yesterday by automobile, William S. Bidle and family and Philip Beach, composed a touring party from Los Angeles enroute to Portland and other north-west points. Enroute through the valley they stopped along the McKenzie river, near Eugene and had considerable luck with the fly. While here they stopped at the Hammel.

FARMER HAS SPLENDID SPECIMENS OF OATS

Stalks measuring fully five feet tall, bearing large kernels of oats, Henry Lyle, a farmer residing near Lebanon brought to Albany yesterday afternoon the largest specimens of this crop seen this season.

The heads of the stalks measured more than 10 inches in length and one head contained over 300 grains. The oats are of the Shadelford variety which is a comparatively new species. Mr. Lyle believes that he will get 125 bushels an acre out of the crop, which was sown late in April.

Will Hunt Deer.

Leaving this noon for Myrtle, Orrin Anderson and Dr. W. R. Cook will enjoy a two weeks' hunting trip in the mountains of that section. They went well prepared for an enjoyable outing and expect to return with records as deer hunters.

Will Motor to Cottage Grove.

Leaving this noon by automobile for Cottage Grove, J. R. Hulbert and W. G. Ballack, will be the guest of friends there who will later take them on a deer hunting expedition in that section of the valley. The two local men went well prepared for a genuine outing and were equipped with all the necessary accessories to make camp life ideal. They will be gone for two weeks. According to Mr. Ballack every time Mr. Hulbert goes out on an outing it rains. Mr. Ballack stated that if it begins raining this time he is going to return home immediately. Therefore, if it rains, look for them to return.

Left Today for Belknap.

Leaving this morning for Belknap by automobile, D. Bussard and family will enjoy a few weeks outing at the famous hot springs. This is the second outing expedition the Bussards have taken this summer, only recently returning from Newport.

JUDGE GALLOWAY HOLDS COURT HERE

Convened Adjourned Term of March Term This Morning at 10 o'Clock.

SEVERAL MINOR CASES ARE TO COME UP

Suit of Buhites Against Barrows Was Tried; Divorce Case to Be Settled.

Convening an adjourned term of the March term of department 2 of the Linn county circuit court, Judge William Galloway opened court this morning at 10 o'clock.

With several minor cases to come up during the term Judge Galloway will probably hold court here during today and tomorrow.

The first case to come up this morning was the suit of Ina Buhite and H. G. Buhite against C. E. Barrows.

The case involves accounting in connection with the running of a farm, alleged to be under the control of the plaintiffs and has not been conducted as stipulated in a contract entered into between the plaintiffs and defendants.

Attorney George W. Fright represents the plaintiffs and Attorney Frank Holmes the defendant.

Judge Galloway did not run the bar docket as was expected this morning but proceeded immediately to hear the testimony in the case.

Several witnesses are to be called and it will be hotly contested.

Scores of allegations are made in the complaint attempting to substantiate the claims of plaintiffs with regard to the alleged unsystematic methods in violation of the contract as used by the defendant in conducting the farm.

During the term Judge Galloway expects to pass upon several divorce cases.

Allen H. Banks, window trimmer for S. E. Young & Son, expects to leave tomorrow on a two weeks vacation trip to Cascade. He expects to do some fishing and hunting.

FIND YOUNG WOMAN IN COFFIN 2,500 YEARS

Casket Discovered in Switzerland Contains Body Buried 600 B. C.

GENEVA, July 29.—An interesting archaeological discovery has been made which is puzzling Swiss scientists, who intend to consult American and English experts about it.

While excavating the foundations for a large hospital at Neuchâtel, workmen found a bronze coffin at a depth of ten feet. Within the coffin were the bones and skin of the mummified body of a young woman. On one of her wrists were four bronze bracelets and top of a substance which resembles lignite. By her side lay a little bronze bell.

Swiss scientists have traced the grave to 600 B. C., but believe it is older. They cannot account for a fashionable beauty of the bronze age finding her last sleeping place at Neuchâtel.

APPLICANTS FOR CITIZENSHIP ASKED IF THEY ARE I. W. Ws.

Judge Galloway Will Hereafter Ask All Foreigners This Question

Hereafter when a man is examined for citizenship before Judge Galloway, he will be asked if he is a member of the I. W. W., pursuant to a custom adopted by the judge. Although the question is not required, Judge Galloway deems it an important matter to be entered into the testimony of the applicant.

When Panagis Nick Palumbis, a Greek lumber mill employee, of Mill City, applied before the judge this afternoon to be examined for citizenship, he asked this question in conjunction with the required interrogations. He answered that he was not. At the conclusion of the examination County Clerk Marks was instructed to admit the applicant to citizenship.

FUNERAL OF LATE MRS. AUERWAY HELD TODAY

Services Were Conducted at Fortmiller Chapel by Rev. E. H. Hicks.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Erab E. Auerway, was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Fortmiller chapel, services being conducted by Rev. E. H. Hicks of the Baptist church. Interment took place in the city cemetery.

The late Mrs. Auerway, passed away at the age of 68 years at her home in Bend, July 29. The remains arrived here this noon. The deceased formerly resided near Oak Creek in this county and left a host of friends here to mourn her death.

Mrs. C. F. Carskaden, of Eugene arrived here this afternoon to visit with friends.

STOLE HUSBY'S LEG TO KEEP HIM IN CITY

Woman Determined to Have Divorce Papers Served on Spouse.

Joliet, Ill., July 27.—Rose Novalk, 20 years old, who married Antone Kurdiana of Detroit here nineteen days ago, took her husband's wooden leg and kept it hidden until he had been served with papers notifying him of her suit for divorce.

Mrs. Kurdiana had been told by a friend that no papers could be served on Kurdiana if he left the city and the suit would fail.

When he awoke he found his artificial limb gone and shouted from a hotel window for help.

His bride would not tell the police where she had hidden the support until a deputy sheriff arrived with the notice of her suit.
