JUDGE GALLOWAY COMPLETES TERM

Accounting Case of Buhite Against Barrows Finished This Afternoon.

CORA KELLER IS GRANTED DECREE OF DIVORCE

Injunction Suit of Smith Against Allen Is Now Up for Trial.

After occupying the entire day yesterday before Circuit Judge Galloway, the case of Buhite against Barrows, for accounting in connection with the running of a farm, was continued this morning and will probably be completed early this afternoon.

Upon the completion of this case Judge Galloway will take up the injunction suit of D. B. Smith et al. against E. R. Allen et al. This case will be completed late this afternoon, when Judge Galloway will adjourn the term of court.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Galloway granted Cora E. Keller a decree of divorce from Charles E. Keller and gave her the custody of their 6 year old son, Robert D. The defendant failed to appear in court.

The couple were married in Kansas City, December 16, 1901, and removed to Benton county July 15, 1910. The divorce was granted on the grounds of desertion. According to the testimony the husband deserted the wife July 11, 1912.

Judge Galloway yesterday afternoon also granted a decree in behalf of the plaintiff and one of the defendants in the case of W. F. Hines against E. F. Gillett and Jennie Gillett and E. J. Frazier, which involved liens upon property for labor performed. Frazier having instituted a lien previous to that of Hines. The defendant failed to appear.

According to the findings of facts in the case, Hines, pursuant to an agreement, performed labor in the Blue Mining District on the Osgood, claim, for which he did not receive his pay, instituting the lien.

In the decree the Gilletts are barred from claiming any right to the property except the right to redeem it within the time required by law and the plaintiff and defendant Frazier are allowed $102 and $218 respectively with interest. Hines is allowed $50 attorneys fees.

Aside from these matters Judge Galloway has passed upon minor matters including cases involving registration of title, motions, demurrers and has entered numerous orders.

J. H. Turpin, a resident of Lebanon and a member of the Spanish American War veterans association of this city, expects to leave during the week for Portland where he will visit for a few days with his father and take passage on the boat for Tampa, Florida, where he expects to reside. He will go by way of the Panama canal.

TODAY IS PROBABLY HOTTEST DAY OF THE SEASON

With unprecedented suddenness and with but little warning Old Sol put forth every effort today shortly after noon to make the rest of the day one of the hottest of the season. Much suffering and complaining has been recorded. Conflicting temperatures have been recorded. In one place came the report that the mercury stood 129 degrees, in another 99, in a third 95 and 91 in another.

If these records are to be taken for anything this has been the hottest day of the season. The highest temperature registered during the season up until today was 96.

YOUNG MEN MADE ASCENT OF MOUNT JEFFERSON

Bob Stewart and Earl Gilbert Returned Last Night From Outing

Returning last night, Bob Stewart and Earl Gilbert, have spent a most enjoyable outing on the slopes of Mount Jefferson in the extreme north east corner of Linn county. The young men left here a week ago Monday.

Leaving here they went to Detroit by railroad and from there packed in to Lake Parmelia on the edge of the mount, where they established permanent camp. From there they went on numerous expeditions, on one occasion ascending the mountain way above the snow line. They tell of the rare beauties of that section, which is practically desolate of habitation. They say that fishing is unsurpassed there, the streams being full of all kinds and sizes of fish, and that the woods are full of game.

Mrs. C. F. Tripp of Lebanon Fell Yesterday In Front of Cusicks Bank

Slipping and falling on the pavement yesterday afternoon in front of Cusick's bank, Mrs. C. F. Tripp, an aged lady from Lebanon, sustained a wrenched knee.

Mrs. Tripp was picked up and carried into Dawson's drug store and later was carried up in the building to Dr. W. R. Shinn's office where the injured limb was attended. The doctor pronounced it a slight injury, although it was feared at the time that it would prove serious, due to the fact that sometime ago Mrs. Tripp suffered a fractured hip, and has since been compelled to walk with crutches.

The aged lady had come over from Lebanon to consult Dr. Shinn. After leaving his office she proceeded down the stairs and upon reaching the sidewalk at the foot of the stairs, one of her crutches slipped, throwing her forward on her right knee.

CAUTIONS AGAINST FIRE ARE ISSUED

State Forester Asks All to Help Save Timber From Being Fired

DEER HUNTERS ARE ASKED TO CO-OPERATE

Rules to Prevent Blazes Destructive to State's Wealth Given Out

Salem, Or., July 30.—Elaborate preparations were completed today by State Forester Elliott for protecting the forests from fire during the hunting season for deer and other big game, which starts Friday. Many of the field men have written to the state forester that there is already an unusually large number of hunting parties in the forests awaiting the beginning of the open season, and many more are expected daily.

Unless the hunters are careful they naturally become the most dangerous menace to the forests in dry weather. A lighted match dropped thoughtlessly or a campfire left smoldering might be the beginning of a conflagration that would destroy hundreds of thousands of dollars of timber.

For the benefit of these men and school children, through the co-operation of the Oregon Forest Fire Association, the state forester has mailed 100,000 copies of a pamphlet giving rules to prevent fire. Some of the rules follow:

Do not toss away burning matches or tobacco.

Do not build a campfire in leaves, rotten wood, or against trees or logs, where it may spread or where you cannot be sure it is out.

Always scrape (toward the fire) a strip clear around your campfire, digging down to dirt.

Never leave a fire until it is out. If water is not available, bury it with dirt.

Do not burn a slashing in dry season without a permit from the fire warden.

Put out any fire you find you can, using water or earth and trenching around it. If you cannot, notify someone.

The best tools for fighting fire, are the shovel, mattock, ax and wet sacks.

GLUSTER LIGHTS SEPTEMBER 1ST

City Authorities Expect Agreement with Oregon Power Company In August

POWER RATES ARE SATISFACTORY SAYS MAYOR

Price of Posts Is Only Question Standing In Way of Immediate Construction Work

"We hope to have the new municipal street lighting system installed by September 1st, said Mayor Gilbert to a Democrat representative this morning, "but thus far the city authorities have been unable to reach a satisfactory agreement with the Oregon Power company as to the price of posts."

It is the aim of the council to provide an attractive post and one which will be good value for the money invested by the property owners, but we have certain well defined ideas as to what a post of this character should cost. The entire question is now up to the Oregon Power company and as soon as the corporation makes a price which is satisfactory, actual work will be commenced on the cluster lighting system. All questions as to the cost of the light are agreed upon and the value placed upon the post is the only question which stands in the way of an adequate lighting system for Albany."

GRAIN IS NOW BEING CUT THROUGHOUT LINN COUNTY

With the cutting of grain now under way in this part of the state, farmers assert that the grain yield in Linn county this year will be the best for several years. An unusually high hay crop has been harvested and indications are now good for a splendid yield of wheat and oats.

Threshing will start later this season than for several years. This is due to the wet weather last fall. Little fall grain was planted, so most of the crop is spring grain.

It is expected threshing will begin in this section of the state about August 10.

MUCH WARMER TODAY THAN IT WAS YESTERDAY

The highest temperature recorded yesterday was considerably over that of the day before, the mercury going up to 87 as compared to 79. However there was only 2 degrees difference in the minimum temperature for this morning and yesterday morning, the highest being 54 early this morning.

For the past three days the river has stood at the 21 foot stage with no perceptible variance either way. It is believed that if the dry weather continues to prevail the water may recede to a slight extent yet.

TRAINS FROM EUGENE TO MAPLETON BY NEXT JANUARY

According to Statement Given Out by Johnson Porter of Porter Bros.

Johnson Porter, of the Porter Brothers, gives out the following story in the Portland Telegram:

"Trains will be running between Eugene and Mapleton by January 1 on the Willamette & Pacific railroad, the new road which is to connect Eugene with Marshfield, at Coos Bay. It is possible that even before the end of the year the trains will be in operation. The distance between Eugene and Mapleton is considered the worst for those who try to reach Coos Bay overland in the winter months, for from Mapleton they can travel down the river by launch to the beach.

"No less than 3000 men are now working on the road, divided among 32 camps. Porter Brothers have about 2300 men at work and Twoly Brothers 700. More men are needed."

This indicates the activity dominating the Porters and might mean more or less concerning the proposed road which has been agitated following the purchase of a vast tract of timber in this county by the Porters.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF IN SALEM

Fred Ingle Takes Woman's Life and Then Turns Gun on Himself

ATTORNEY'S OFFICE SCENE OF TRAGEDY

Murderer Is Former Corvallis Man—Jealousy Said to Be Cause

Crazed by jealousy on account of domestic troubles, Fred W. Ingles of Corvallis placed a muzzle of a .38 revolver to the head of his wife, Dora D. Ingle, yesterday in the office of Attorneys Carson & Brown, of Salem, and sent two bullets crashing through her brain, killing her instantly, says this morning's Statesman. He then turned the smoking gun on himself and sent a third bullet plowing into his own head, inflicting a mortal wound.

Ingle died about 5:30 yesterday afternoon. He lived scarcely an hour after the shooting. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Holm, in Wenatchee, Wash., and three or four brothers.

All the more horrible was the work of the fiend when it became known that he had vowed he would "get" his wife and "kill her on sight." It was reported that Ingle had been involved in some financial difficulty with the express company at Woodburn and that he was held responsible for the disappearance of $500 from the company's funds. It was for this, it is said, that he was let out of his position there. Brooding over this affair and his domestic troubles are said to have wrought upon his mind until he became distracted.

Five people were in the office at the time of the tragedy. They were Fred W. Ingle, Dora D. Ingle, Miss Renska Swart, Attorney McFadden of Corvallis and J. D. Turner. Just previous to the shooting, Mr. Turner, attorney for Mrs. Ingle, and Judge W. S. McFadden, attorney for Ingle, were in the library trying to effect a reconciliation between the husband and wife. The two attorneys stepped into Turner's private office and left the three alone in the library for a conference in regard to the difficulty. Pending the outcome, the institution of divorce proceedings would rest.

Scarcely two minutes elapsed when two shots, sounding like reports of a toy cap pistol were heard, followed by a woman's screams. The two men rushed into the library and found Fred and Dora Ingle in the far end of the room, which was partially partitioned off, lying on the floor dying.

RAILROAD BUSINESS FOR MAY OVER $8,000,000

During May the railways of the United States received for their services to the public an average of $8,230,000 a day; it cost to run their trains and for other expenses of operation $5,920,000 a day; their taxes were $341,500 a day; their operating income $1,972,322 a day for the 220,892 miles of line reporting, or at the rate of $8.93 for each mile of line for each day. Thus for every six dollars of their earnings which remained available for rentals, interest on bonds, appropriations for betterments, improvements and new construction, and for dividends, the railways had to pay more than one dollar in taxes.

All of these amounts are substantially greater than the similar returns for May, 1912. They are from the summary of the earnings and expense compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics from the Interstate Commerce Commission. They include over 95 per cent of the mileage and earnings of all the railways of the country.
