

KENNEDY TO SERVE SENTENCE IN JAIL

Supreme Court Dismisses Appeal Taken by Defendant From Circuit Court.

WAS CONVICTED IN JUNE BEFORE JUDGE KELLY

Will Serve 60 Days and Pay a Fine of $600 for Conviction in Two Cases.

For violation of the local option liquor law, James Kennedy will have to serve 60 days in the county jail and pay a fine of $600.

The state supreme court yesterday issued a mandate dismissing the appeal taken by Kennedy after his conviction.

Kennedy was convicted in Circuit Judge Kelly's court during the June term on two joint indictments with James Hart. The jury found a verdict as charged and Kennedy was sentenced by the court to 30 days in jail in both cases and to pay a fine of $250 in one case and $350 in the other case. His bonds were fixed at $1500 in each case.

Immediately, through his attorney, J. J. Whitney, Kennedy served notice of appeal.

Meantime while the action of the supreme court on the appeal was being awaited, Kennedy has been out on $3000 bonds. They were furnished by J. Riley, P. Anderson and others. Sometime today Kennedy will be taken back to jail to serve his term. He served several days following his conviction without bonds.

Hart, who was convicted jointly with Kennedy, made an effort to get a notice of appeal served in his case but the paper was never recorded. Meantime, Hart has been serving time in the county jail.

The trial of Hart and Kennedy attracted considerable attention. The prosecuting witnesses were Lebanonites, who claimed that the prisoners shipped liquor to Lebanon in a rig during the Strawberry fair and disposed of it there. This was one of the two charges upon which they were indicted, the other concerned a local case.

DRUNK AND ABUSIVE HE GETS SOAKED HARD

Robert Wiseman Gets It by a Fist and Also in the Police Court.

That when a man is drunk it is no excuse for him to use abusive language to everyone he meets, was demonstrated yesterday evening, when Robert Wiseman, of Lebanon, got a badly swollen face and his assailant, J. C. Neal, car inspector at Southern Pacific depot, was commended for his action in the police court.

Wiseman enroute from Salem to Lebanon had apparently imbibed too freely of joy water and while waiting for his train to depart, meandered about the depot platform, it is claimed, abusing everybody with unbecoming language. At last, it is said, he ran across the wrong man. Neal didn't wait a minute but gave Wiseman a good soaking on the side of the face. This morning Wiseman's face was swollen in a puff and he could hardly see out of his eye.

Policemen King and Rodgers arrested the two men. Wiseman spent the night in the city jail sobering and Neal was told to appear in the police court this morning.

After hearing the evidence of several witnesses, Police Judge Van Tassel levied a fine of $20 and costs upon Wiseman which was paid. After commending Neal for his action in the matter, Judge Van Tassel promptly discharged him.

JEALOUSY MAKES HER LIFE BURDENSOME

Evelyn Christie Files Suit For Divorce Against Martin Christie.

Charging that through jealousy her husband would not permit her to visit friends, compelling her to remain in isolation at her home without friends or relatives being permitted to visit her, Evelyn M. Christie, has filed suit in the circuit court against Martin K. Christie for divorce upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The couple were married on April 7, 1909. There is one son, Carl, age 3, for whom plaintiff asks the custody. According to the complaint the defendant has treated the plaintiff cruelly and inhumanly through jealousy and has associated with improper persons, which has brought humiliation upon the plaintiff.

The plaintiff asks the court for $25 per month alimony, for the support of her child and $500 worth of household goods, owned by them during their marriage. She also asks for costs and disbursements of the suit. Attorneys Weatherford and Weatherford represent the plaintiff.

LINN COUNTY FAIR WAS ONE GRAND SUCCESS

Closed Yesterday, "Albany Day"---Best Exhibits Shipped to Salem.

That the Linn county fair was marked with great success and that the exhibits were better and bigger than ever before and that the attendance was larger than in years, was the statement made this morning by scores of Albanyites, who attended the closing day yesterday, the occasion being "Albany Day."

It has been estimated that fully 200 or even more Albany people attended the fair yesterday. Many made the trip in autos and it is said that 20 local machines were counted in and around the fair grounds. Many people went over on the train.

The fair this year was pronounced a thorough success. Today the work of tearing down the exhibits is on the best of the fair will be crated and shipped to the state fair. Messrs. W. L. Jackson, E. C. Roberts and D. W. Rumbaugh, are in charge of this work and will accompany the exhibits to Salem and superintend their installation in the space.

MANY APPLICATIONS FOR CITIZENSHIP

Record Number of Petitions for Final Papers Filed With County Clerk.

DECLARATION OF INTENTION PAPERS ARE ALSO FILED

Many Applicants Is the Result of Expiration of Time Limit Today.

All records were broken yesterday at the county clerk's office for the reception of petitions for final papers and declarations of intention papers for citizenship.

Nine petitions for final papers were made and two made declarations of intention to become citizens.

Those who made petitions for final papers are Robert Irvine, of Albany, Scotland; Charles Holloway, of near Brownsville, England; Tedley Stubbs, of Brownsville, England; William Pears, of Albany, England; John McKechee, of Crawfordville, Canada; Frederick Kraschewski, of Scio, Germany; Paul Limbeck, of Scio, Hungary; Christopher Shelyig, of Albany, Norway, and Christopher Howland, of Albany, Norway.

Those who made declaration of intention to become citizens are Paul Shelyig, of Albany, Norway; and Thor Lien, of Albany, Norway.

The previous records established at the county clerk's office in one single day for the reception of applicants for citizenship is two.

The reason for the many applications yesterday is that all men who made declarations of intention for citizenship more than seven years ago should apply for second papers not later than today. If application for final papers was not made by the aspirants to become American citizens before this date, the applicant would have to file a new declaration of intention in which event he would have to wait at least two years before he can apply for final papers.

This change was caused by a new law passed by the last legislature which goes into effect. The applications made yesterday were all under the old law.

100 STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED IN COLLEGE

That the prospects are bright for a big school year at the Albany College, is indicated by the fact that more students are enrolled this year than in at least the past two years.

At present with indications that more are to come, there are 100 students enrolled. Sixty are in the college and academic courses and forty in the conservatory of music.

Many new students are numbered among those enrolled, while the old students are practically all back. The gain in enrollment over last year is a substantial one. The freshmen class has 17 students and the sophomore 15.

A. F. Aulin, of McMinnville, is a guest at the Vandran hotel.

There will be no religious services at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow. G. E. Mercian, of Salem, is at the Hammel.

IN FORTY MINUTES 20 LICENSES WERE ISSUED

Twenty hunting licenses were issued in forty minutes this afternoon by County Clerk Marks and deputies, making a total of 47 licenses issued during the day with more still going out.

County Clerk Marks stated this afternoon that for the past three days, an average of 30 hunting licenses have been issued.

This indicates that quite a few will hunt pheasants when the season opens on the first of the month and that the guns will pop in every direction.

E. R. Olin and son, of Mill City, are at the St. Francis.

R. E. Freese, of Crabtree, is a visitor in the city today.
