

CITY ELECTION TO BE HELD DEC. 1

Mayor, Recorder, Treasurer, Marshall and Councilmen to Be Chosen.

MANY CANDIDATES ARE MENTIONED FOR MAYOR

The Registration Will Open Tomorrow and Books Will Close on November 22.

December 1, the first Monday in the month, is the date of the coming city election.

At that time a mayor, recorder, treasurer, marshal and a councilman from each of the three wards are to be chosen.

Meantime, the people of Albany will be able to watch the trend of politics. Tomorrow City Recorder Van Tassel will send out cards announcing that a primary nominating election will be held for the Democrats and Republicans to choose their candidates.

This formality has always been carried out here but not in the history of the city has a nominating election been held. Nor will one be held this time, although, scheduled for November 1, as the usual method will be employed of nominating candidates by petitions.

Tomorrow the city registration books will be open and will close at 6 o'clock on November 22. The recorder's office is the official registration booth.

Councilmen who are to go out of office are J. R. Hulbert, for the first ward; M. J. Cameron, for the second ward; and Henry Lyons for the third ward.

Mayor Gilbert, Recorder Van Tassel, Treasurer Harry Cusick and Chief of Police Austin, are the present incumbents of their respective offices.

Councilmen Simpson, Blount, and Johnson, the remaining members of the municipal board, are to serve another year.

Councilmen Lyons, Cameron and Hulbert and Chief of Police Austin have been highly spoken of as capable officials. Recorder Van Tassel and Treasurer Cusick have unquestionably met with favor according to the general run of public sentiment.

Judges and Clerks for the coming election have been named and polling places designated as follows:

First ward: G. C. Turner, E. Washburn, and Cora Hopkins, judges; Harriet D. Van Tassel and Cassie Thompson, clerks. Polling places, county recorder's office. Second ward: T. J. Sites, W. C. Tweedale, and D. H. Leech, judges; Lelia Mitchell and Velma Davis, clerks; polling place city recorder's office. Third ward: W. H. McElmurry, N. D. Conn, and J. J. Livingston, judges; E. L. Humphrey, H. Babb, clerks; polling place, Hammond Lumber Company's office.

While it is not definitely known whether or not Mayor Gilbert will be a candidate for re-election it now seems certain that he will meet with opposition in the event that he concludes to enter the race. Thus far the mayor has made no public announcement of his position but some of his friends assert that he will not make the race this fall.

Among those who are mentioned for this position are Dr. Davis, L. M. Curl, Ed. D. Cusick, F. M. French, Geo. Taylor, L. E. Hamilton, W. A. Hulbert, Judge Palmer and others. Some of those whose names are mentioned have positively declined to accept the position and as far as can be ascertained none of them are courting public favor.

None of the members of the city council whose terms expire this fall are at all anxious to give their time to the city for another two years and there is a serious question among their friends as to whether or not they are willing to accept a renomination.

The fight this fall will center around the mayor's office and it promises to be one of the most interesting political battles in the municipal history of Albany.

WOMAN SHOT DIVORCED HUSBAND IN LOS ANGELES

Former Spouse Then Secured Revolver and Fired Shot at Wife Inflicting Flesh Wound.

(By United Press Association) Los Angeles, Cal., Sep. 30.—Frank H. Ivy, a local real estate dealer was shot and probably fatally wounded early this morning by his divorced wife, Mrs. Edith M. Ivy. After the shot was fired the woman dropped the revolver and fled. Ivy crept to where the revolver lay, seized it and fired a shot at his former wife, inflicting a flesh wound in the thigh. The couple were divorced in 1904. The husband remarried and has since been living in Los Angeles.

CHINA PHEASANTS WILL BE HUNTED TOMORROW

Open Season on at 12 o'clock Tonight and Lasts Until End of Month.

A man, a gun and a dog. That's what it will be tomorrow, regardless of anything else. If business interferes with hunting, cut out the business.

Everybody will hunt tomorrow. Everybody will be after the game pheasant. Tomorrow the open season for these birds commences and lasts until the end of the month. Guns will pop in every direction and the farmer will have his land trodden. Some have issued warning to hunters not to trespass while others will join in the merry hunt like good fellows.

Various parties of hunters will leave during the gray hours of tomorrow morning. Some will put in the whole day while others will get back to town for the day's work. Anything to get a shot at the pheasant and there will be quite a few to grace the table.

CITY NEWS

Many Autos.—Twenty-one autos were visible along the curbs of the business section this morning at about 10:30 o'clock within a radius of three blocks. Eight cars were stopped in front of one building. This gives the streets much the appearance of a metropolis, with 15 farmers' rigs tied at the hitching racks at Second and Broadalbin streets.

Venison for Editor.—The Democrat man acknowledges with thanks a generous slice of some of the best venison the writer has ever tasted. The animal was killed by Fred Westbrook in the Alsea country.

Football Game Scheduled.—A football game is to be played here on October 25 between Albany College and Pacific College of Newberg.

From San Francisco to Eugene.—On his regular chimney-cleaning trip, with a conveyance fitted out for house-keeping, a blackfaced man passed through this morning after serving his regular customers in the city. He said he spent the past two years profitably in Portland and is therefore somewhat late on his rounds.

Sustains Bruises in Fall.—L. E. Moe stumbled and fell over the walk on the west side of Lyon street, between Third and Fourth streets, while on his way home Saturday night and sustained several bruises. However, none of the injuries were serious and Moe was able to be on the job yesterday.

Rev. Leech Reappointed to Local Church.—Rev. D. H. Leech, who has been the pastor of the local church during the past year, was reappointed to the pastorate at the conference of the Methodist church at Eugene yesterday afternoon.

105 Licenses Issued.—During yesterday County Clerk Marks and deputies issued 105 hunting licenses. This was the biggest days run during the past week. Only 35 up until 9:30 o'clock this morning were issued.

Passengers are Declined at Geary Street.—Oregon Electric Agent J. J. Hoydar, is in receipt of the following letter from headquarters: "I understand that some people are flagging southbound trains at the newly established Geary street station who are simply going to Albany. We cannot undertake to handle Albany business from Geary street and Mr. Davidson will decline to receive such city passengers."

$3000 Farm Nets $1800.—Raising 14,000 bushels of oats on 250 acres of land, M. Kelly, a farmer residing in the northwestern part of Linn county, near Shelburn, established a splendid record during the past season. Many yields have been reported in this county this year which run 50 bushels to the acre and one yield of 111 bushels an acre, but these were on smaller tracts. In such a large tract as Kelly's devoted to oats the total yield is regarded as a very big one. On 120 acres of a 160-acre tract which he bought a few years ago for $3,000, Mr. Kelly realized a profit of $1,800. This tract yielded 6,000 bushels of oats, which he sold for 38 cents a bushel.

MANY WOMEN REGISTERED AS VOTERS YESTERDAY

Matrons Club in Body Goes to Clerk's Office and All Become Qualified.

That scores of women registered yesterday afternoon as voters, was the statement made this morning by Mrs. Truman Babb, a deputy in the office.

Following a meeting of a matrons club yesterday afternoon the whole crowd went in a body to the clerk's office, where they all registered. Aside from this cortege of ladies, women from various sections of the city are beginning to sit up and take notice and are going to the registration booths.

Heretofore, judging from the present indications, the women hardly realized the meaning of their enfranchisement under the suffrage act, and just recently have begun to become interested. If the present registration of women voters continues, their votes in this section will be an important factor.

CITY NEWS

Go to State Fair.—Leaving this morning, Mrs. C. A. Austin, of Portland, who is here visiting in company with Mrs. Anthony Austin, went to Salem to attend the state fair during the remainder of the week. Mrs. C. A. Austin is a sister of Mrs. Anthony Austin.

Awarded Cup for Best Exhibit.—F. M. Sherman, a prominent farmer residing near Lebanon, was awarded the Oregon Electric silver cup for the best farm exhibit at the Linn county fair at Scio. The cup is being engraved by F. M. French, the jeweler.

8000 Attend Fair.—Eight thousand three hundred people passed through the state fair gates yesterday, making the amount just twice as large as the number passing through the turnstiles on the second day of the fair last year. Secretary Meradith is pleased with the great showing and it is anticipated that the attendance today will go far above that registered yesterday.

Linn Council to Meet.—Linn county council of the Patrons of Husbandry, will meet next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at Grand Prairie grange. All the members are urged to attend this meeting.

MANY EASTERNERS ARE INTERESTED

Great Influx of Immigrants Anticipated Prior to Canal Opening.

PEOPLE FROM ALL SECTIONS ARE INQUIRING

Want Information From Commercial Clubs About Oregon and Valley.

That there are hundreds of Eastern people interested in Oregon and are seeking information about the country the commercial clubs and chambers of commerce of cities of the Willamette valley, is indicated by the number of inquiries received daily by the commercial organizations, real estate dealers who are extensive advertisers and by other sources.

Public officials are constantly receiving similar letters and are turning them over to the proper commercial organizations.

It has been said that this strongly indicates that there will be a great immigration of Easterners to Oregon prior to 1915.

Conditions have been so quiet for some time that this is taken to be a foregone conclusion. With the country substantially fixed politically and otherwise at present, it has been said that there is nothing now to prevent an influx of newcomers.

This morning the local commercial club received through the mail from the Portland Development league a list of 100 names representing people from all over the United States and some from foreign countries. They are seeking information upon the following subjects which is the average run of questions: "I am deeply interested in agriculture," "general information," "Please send me information about Oregon and the Willamette valley," "Information about hogs and cattle raising," "Information about farming," "Land prices," etc., etc.

W. P. Huggins, of Salem, transacted business here this morning.

Edgar Franz, of Hood River, is a business visitor in the city today.

Erwin Huff, of Pendleton, is a guest at the Vaudran hotel.

S. Washburn, of Lebanon, attended business matters here today.

O. B. Stauff, of Crabtree, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Chris A. Vaudran, proprietor of the Vaudran hotel, left this morning for a pheasant hunt.

G. C. Robinson, of Lebanon, is a visitor in the city today.

Allen Walker, of Eugene, transacted business here this morning.

John Moech and Walter Simson arrived home today from Salem where they took in the fair. They expect to go to Detroit to work soon. Dugg Hamilton, of Scio, happened on the streets of Albany today, awaiting for the moving picture shows to open.

Registering Books Open.—Tomorrow the registration books for voters for the coming city election will be opened and will close on November 22. The books would have been opened today but owing to the fact that Recorder Van Tassel is the only official authority to register voters, and by the fact that he is absent from the city today, the opening was deferred. Those who desire to register should apply at the city recorder's office.
