

PLANS FORMULATED FOR VALLEY EXHIBIT

Representatives from Eight Counties Met at State Fair Yesterday.

FINAL MEETING TO BE HELD HERE OCTOBER 30

Committee Appointed to Draft Plans and Submit Them at This Meet.

To formulate plans for an Oregon exhibit at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco in 1915, representatives from five different counties in the Willamette valley met at 11 o'clock in the administration building at the fair grounds yesterday morning.

Benton Lane, Marion, Linn and Polk counties were represented by prominent members of booster clubs of each section. Fred S. Bynon, of Salem, was elected secretary and C. H. Stewart of Albany, temporary chairman.

A committee composed of Fred S. Bynon of Salem, M. J. Duryea of Eugene and C. H. Stewart of Albany was appointed to line out a plan of work which will be submitted at a meeting which will be held at Albany October 30.

The plan of the representatives is to divide the state into different sections, each section to exhibit its own products. The eight counties represented yesterday will comprise one division, that of the Willamette valley. In this manner it is thought that the exhibits will be much better and more complete as every county in the state may exhibit in this way.

Mark Woodruff, publicity man and newspaper writer for the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway company is interested in the plan and has signified his intention of assisting the different counties in any way possible.

It is reported that the meeting was characterized with enthusiasm and that all present gave their hearty endorsement to the plan.

The meeting to be held here on October 30 will convene at 2:30 o'clock. One delegate from each commercial club in the various counties and a member of the county court of each county is expected to be present. The committee appointed was instructed to arrange for the meeting and to bring in the outside counties.

Those who attended the meeting were: M. J. Duryea, of Lane; Fred Bynon, of Marion; C. A. Murphy, C. A. Johnson, and W. F. Groves, of Benton; C. H. Stewart, J. H. Robnett and F. M. French, of Linn, and C. W. Dossett, of Polk.

DEAL CLOSED FOR SALE OF DREAMLAND THEATRE

B. F. Nix Sells to Charles Shortridge Who Leases to Independence Man.

Closing a deal yesterday, B. F. Nix, has sold the Dreamland theater to Charles Shortridge, who assumed charge of the place this morning.

Mr. Shortridge has leased the theater to E. E. Clyde of Independence for one year and he will conduct the place for that period. Mr. Clyde is experienced in that line, having had two years' experience at Independence. It is his plan to conduct the place as it has formerly been run by Mr. Nix, the retiring owner.

Until recently Mr. Shortridge was engaged in the confectionery business on Lyon street at the corner of Second street. He sold this business some time ago.

Mr. Nix gives as his reason for selling that he desires to move into the country. This he expects to do some time later. He has been the owner of the theater for several months.

JORDAN VALLEY NEWS NOTES AND PERSONAL MENTION

Jordan Valley, Or., Oct. 3.—(Special to Democrat.)—School in district No. 61 began September 29 with Asa P. Hiron as the helm.

Many fields in our part of the county show large black streaks, which indicate the farmers are getting a good start on next year's crop.

W. N. Brotherton and wife drove to Salem and will spend the week at the fair.

Mr. J. S. Schmitt and family went to Salem this morning expecting to see in the rest of the week at the fair.

YESTERDAY WAS BIG DAY AT STATE FAIR

Today is Oregon Manufacturers Day—Fair Will Close Tomorrow.

One thousand more paid admissions at the state fair yesterday than on the day before, and the day before was the great record breaker up to yesterday. This was the announcement given out at the office at the fairgrounds late last night.

From practically every town between Roseburg and Portland, that is on the railroad they came, and from many villages where the only egress to the railroad is through the medium of a stagecoach. Portland alone sent 500 on the special all steel train over the Southern Pacific. The Oregon Electric and other S. P. trains brought thousands more and even Salem day which for a brief 24 hours held the record for attendance was eclipsed.

Today is Oregon Manufacturers' day. At 10:30 a. m., prominent Oregon speakers talked on the subject of "Greater Patronage of Oregon Products and Industries," at the auditorium.

Hundreds of Albany people attended and today scores left on every northbound train to attend the evening program. Tomorrow will mark the closing day of the fair, and another large attendance is anticipated.

NEW PASTOR TAKES CHARGE OF ST. PETERS CHURCH

Rev. J. D. Cummins of Smyrna Del., Arrived Yesterday; Holds Services Sunday.

Rev. James Dirikson Cummins, of Smyrna, Del., has assumed charge of St. Peters Episcopal church here and will hold his first services tomorrow. Rev. Cummins is a native of Smyrna and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee Cummins, of that city. His father is the postmaster of Smyrna.

Rev. Cummins enjoys the distinction of having been baptized, confirmed and ordained to the ministry of the same church. The ordination was performed by Rt. Rev. Frederick J. Kinsman, bishop of Delaware in St. Peters church at Smyrna, June 1st, last. The young clergyman comes from a family of Episcopalians. He was born September 12, 1888. His father is a namesake of the late Bishop Alfred Lee, of Wilmington, Del. Rev. Alexander Griswold Cummins, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., is a cousin.

A week before his ordination Rev. Cummins graduated from the Episcopal Divinity school, Philadelphia. Prior to that he took a two years special course at the University of Pennsylvania. While a student, he was for six months in charge of the Episcopal church at Bristol, Pa. His work there was especially successful. He was so well liked by the members of the Bristol church that they made him promise that he would preach his initial sermon, after ordination in that edifice. Although his parents and a number of his friends at Smyrna were desirous of having him deliver his first sermon there, he was released when the obligation to the Bristol parishoners was explained.

Baptized when an infant, Rev. Cummins was confirmed by the same prelate when twelve years of age. He made up his mind when but a boy to enter the ministry. He numbers among his friends and supporters many of the leading prelates and laymen of the Episcopal church throughout the country.

Bishop Charles Scadding, of the diocese of Oregon, secured a promise from the young minister two years ago to come to this diocese after his ordination. Accordingly the charge at Albany was offered him.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. Will Meyer and Mrs. Frances Pettibone were hostesses to the members of the Triple F. club on Thursday, complimenting Mrs. Glen Elkins of Grants Pass, Oregon. The evening was pleasantly passed in sewing, followed by choice refreshments. Honored guests were: Misses Dodge (Kansas) and Nell McFaden (Eugene). Members present were: Mesdames Doughton, Homer Moore, Will Meyer, Misses Velma Davis, Volena Smith, Frances Pettibone, Minnie Scott, Hazel Saylor, Edna and Sadie Smith and Vera Tracy.

A reception was given Wednesday night at Tremont Hall by the faculty and student body of Albany College to the freshmen and new students in the school. About 70 young people were present and they enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Games were played and a field meet took place which consisted of hurdling, a mile race and broad jump. At the close of the evening's fun, refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. H. Davis, of Ellsworth street entertained the ladies of the Missionary Society of the Christian church on Wednesday. The leader of the afternoon was Mrs. M. L. Sanders and the subject was "Prayer for the years 1913 and 1914." Very interesting papers were read by Mesdames Nimmo, Chance and Emerson. Mrs. Essex and Mrs. Frank Watson rendered a few solos, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. S. N. Train was hostess to the ladies of the Entre Nous club on Tuesday. "500" was the diversion of the afternoon, followed by dainty refreshments.

The ladies of the Royal Auction Bridge club were entertained by Mrs. John Ralston on Thursday. Cards was the diversion of the afternoon, after which the hostess served choice refreshments.

The members of the First Presbyterian church and Sunday school gave a "picnic supper" in the church parlors, last night. After supper, a musical program was given and games played.

Mrs. Wilkins and Miss Pear Wilkins passed yesterday in Salem, attending the state fair.

The Misses Willetta Wright and Christine Pipe, Kate Stewart, Mae and Claire Tillman are passing the week end in Salem as house guests of Misses Helen and Dorothy Pearce and incidentally attending the fair.

The Modern Travelers' club met with Mrs. Dickover of 1106 Ferry street this afternoon. Roll call was responded to by current events. Two very interesting papers were read one on "Socialism" by Mrs. Crooks. The hostess served choice refreshments.

Miss Eulah Hand is entertaining some young ladies this evening at theater party to be followed by supper at her home.

ROOSEVELT PEEVED AT NEWSPAPERS

In a Towering Rage the Colonel Sails for South America on Board Even Dyke.

PAPERS DECLINE TO SUPPRESS PORTION OF SPEECH

Will Hunt Big Game in Amazon Valley and Make Speeches in Big Cities.

(By United Press Association)

New York, Oct. 4.—In a towering rage Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt sailed today on the liner Even Dyke for South America. The former president spoke last night at the Progressive banquet and because certain portions of his address which he decided to withhold from the press were printed in the New York papers, he became enraged and was ill natured when he boarded the big ocean liner.

In his address, he asserted that there would have been no canal had he not taken Panama. He also bitterly criticized Wilson's Mexican policy.

The party included the colonel, his wife, Margaret Roosevelt, Secretary Harper, Naturalists Fiola, Cherry and Miller, and Rev. Father Zahn. The ex-president will deliver addresses at Rio Janeiro, San Paolo, and Buenos Ayres. He will hunt big game in the Amazon valley while not engaged in speech making.

CLAIMS THERE ARE FAKE LAND DEALERS ABROAD

That there are a few fake land dealers, who have been in Marshfield and are now working through the valley, was the statement made this morning by C. D. Green, president of the Chamber of Commerce of that city who is here visiting friends, and warns the people of this section to be on the lookout for such parties.

Mr. Green stated that these men are selling land on the partial payment plan at greatly inflated values, misrepresenting the location and description of the property.

Jeffie Ayers, of Kings Valley, attended business matters here this morning.

H. S. Jackson, of Corvallis, is a business visitor in the city today.

J. B. Cornett, a prominent resident of Sheeds, is in the city this afternoon attending business matters.

A. S. Casteel, of Yaquina, is a business visitor in the city today.

J. M. Dickson, of Sheeds, transacted business matters here yesterday afternoon.

OFFICERS OF STUDENT BODIES TO BE ELECTED

Albany High School and Albany College Will Elect Leaders Monday.

Monday, student body officers will be elected at the Albany High school and the Albany College.

A president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer are to be chosen, then to transact the business of the two student bodies for the ensuing year.

It is understood that keen rivalry exists in the high school for the presidency, and the coming election promises to be hotly contested. There is no evidence of office seeking, it is said, but that the various divisions of students are determined to elect their favorite candidates.

On the other hand at the college, it is said, that but little attention has been given the election. Politics have been lacking at that institution but the probabilities are that an interesting election will be held.

Class officers will be elected on that date in both schools. The high school senior class has already elected officers.

LINN COUNTY COUNCIL MET THIS MORNING

All Kinds of Business Is Being Considered; Progress Key-note of Big Meeting.

To transact all kinds of business, Linn County Council of the Patrons of Husbandry, met this morning at 10 o'clock at Grand Prairie grange hall and will remain in session until this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Grangers from all over the county are present and a big meeting will be held. Every granger in the county was invited to attend and from this, the enormity of the meeting may be surmised.

Business pertaining to legislative work, to the good of the farmer and the county and cities as a whole is being considered. Plans tending toward the development of various resources and progress of the county, to affect the towns are among the propositions being considered. An extensive report of the meeting will be given at an early date.

Miss Bertha Taylor, returned this noon to her home at Monroe after visiting her sister Mrs. H. E. Hector.

Fred Frady, of Sheeds, is transacting business here today.
