

CAMPBELL TALKS TO COLLEGIANS

President of State University Declares That Time Is Coming for Strong Colleges.

CITES FORCIBLY THE VALUE OF EDUCATION

Pictured the Development of Panama Canal to the Progress of Present Day.

Declaring that the time is coming when Oregon shall have a system of strong colleges, President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, addressed the student body of what may be regarded as a plea for everybody to acquire an education, in which the value of an education was forcibly presented.

President Campbell gave the introductory lecture in a series that the college is planning for every Friday morning of this semester. His theme may be said to have been "The Value of Education." He began with the assertion that the time is coming in Oregon when we shall have a system of strong colleges in the state. "Less than one per cent of possible students are now in the higher institutions of learning, while we should have from ten to twenty per cent of them. Every college we have should be overcrowded. With the great prosperity that is coming in a large way to this Northwest from the opening of the Panama canal and the wonderful improvements in the use of power in this age, all of our high schools and colleges are going to have more students than they can take care of. Our interests are common. It is hoped that ultimately the university will not be doing much work below the junior year and that a very large part of its work will be with graduate students."

President Campbell declared that he wanted Albany college, to realize that the university's good wishes and whatever it could do to help is absolutely at its command. He declared that the best work he ever got was the work he got from a small college. The lecturer then pictured the great development of the present age with the Panama canal as his theme, and made reference to his eleven weeks' trip on a steamboat on the Missouri river when he came to Oregon. He declared that the little present progress the most wonderful age is just ahead.

"The purpose of education is to take students in time of their leisure and try to fit them for all of these things. The students in Oregon are at the center of things—on the ground floor—and should be patient, prepare thoroughly, and then when fully ready earn money, enjoy more, and bring more to pass for all the rest of life—double, triple and even ten fold what could be done without a thorough education. A thoroughly trained business man can do about ten times as much in a day as others. The college should give you a provisional working theory of life—general working plan—and the ability to put it into effect."

OPENING OF PANAMA CANAL CELEBRATED HERE TODAY

With whistles of every description blowing, horns honking, bells of all kinds ringing, cut out on automobiles open, roosters crowing, in fact nearly a little of everything making a noise, above the din of which an occasional shout or gun shot could be heard, Albany celebrated today at 11 o'clock the wedding of the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific, through the Panama canal, when the big blast that removed the last barrier was fired.

To start the ball rolling, the fire alarm blended with the town clock as it was striking the hour and almost simultaneously nearly everything that could make a noise was turned loose. Even the roosters crowed and alarm clocks, in the show cases of the jewelry stores went off. The din for a brief period of three minutes was simply voluminous and was heard for miles around.

Immediately after the noise had subsided, short addresses were delivered in the various public schools by prominent business men, relative to the opening of the canal, what a great undertaking it has meant and what it will mean.

The schools were jammed with parents and other interested in the canal and intense enthusiasm reigned supreme. At the high school, President H. M. Crooks, of Albany College, spoke at the college, President Campbell, of the University of Oregon, spoke of the canal in conjunction with an address he was scheduled to deliver. Dr. Dagit spoke at Madison school, Mayor Gilbert at Central, J. S. Van Winkle at the Maple school and E. P. Nitting delivered an address at the East Albany school.

LYON STREET WOULD PUT ONE OVER ON FIRST

Property Owners Have Taken Cluster Lighting Idea into Their Own Hands.

That the property owners of Lyon street propose to take the initiative in the matter of installing cluster lights became known this morning when the matter was formally taken up with Mayor Gilbert. If the plans of the Lyon street property owners materialize that street will be the best lighted thoroughfare in Albany within the next thirty days. Cluster lights will be installed throughout the entire business district and an effort will be made to extend the system from First street to the Southern Pacific depot. The business men of Lyon are putting forth their best efforts to have the system installed before any action is taken by the First street property owners.

BABY SHOW WAS HELD HERE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Much interest centered about the baby show held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the cradle roll department of the United Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. E. E. Sox.

The show was in charge of Mrs. Sox and was highly successful. Thirteen babies under the age of three, were entered. Twenty-two were expected to be entered but owing to various reasons, some were unable to appear. Prizes were awarded to three and as all of the babies are regarded as prize winners, the names of those who were awarded the prizes are withheld. The show was a very informal affair and proved a source of much pleasure to the various mothers. Weights and measures of the different tots were taken.

The following is a complete list of the names of the babies:

Roy Barnes, Charles Elcott Irvine, Esther May Holmes, John William Rhodes, Maxine Margaret Monteith, Elda Lorene Hofflich, Glen Earl Mackey, Oren Freerksen, Isabel Perfect, Carleton Sox, Mary Katherine Stewart, Mary Alice Fisher, Emma Leeper, Howard Blodgett, Ida Marie Holmes, Jeanette McCoy Stearns, Raymond Lewis Holmes, John Avery Millard, Frances Virginia Hornbrook, William M. Kannelly, Mildren Abzada Goff.

BORROWED PANAMA HAT TO HOIST ON FLAG STAFF

Manager Meyer of the Bligh theater, was the victim of an imposition this morning when Harry Wilkins, of the Dawson drug store, borrowed from him a Panama hat.

Wilkins did not tell Meyer what he wanted the hat for but it later developed, when Meyer spied his hat attached to the end of a flagstaff bearing a flag, while Wilkins was endeavoring to attach it to the front of the drug store.

A small crowd had gathered around to watch the placing of the flag staff, when Meyer came up.

"This is the dickens of a way to do a fellow's hat," said Meyer.

Then the joke was on him, as Wilkins told of how he had secured the hat without informing Meyer what he wanted it for. Eventually the hat was hoisted with the flag staff.

Ella Vale, of Scio, is attending business here this afternoon.

W. S. Stull and wife, of Newport, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to attend business matters.

Not Justification for Jilting.

London, Oct. 10.—The loss of a girl's love is no justification for her lover jilting her, decided the jury in a breach of promise case at Mold, Flintshire. After she had become engaged to Howard Pugh, Miss Amy Jones met with an accident which resulted in the amputation of her right arm, whereupon Pugh promptly threw her over. When the case came to trial he set up the defense that a one armed woman could not possibly be a success as a working man's wife. Miss Jones was given a verdict of $125 and costs.

HUERTA SUSPENDS MEXICAN CONGRESS

High Handed Action Considered Likely to Cause Increased Trouble in Country.

NEW SENATORS WILL BE ELECTED LAST OF MONTH

City Under Martial Law; President Attempts to Nip in Bud Unfriendly Demonstration.

(By United Press Association)

Mexico, October 11.—Declaring that both branches of congress are suspended, President Huerta practically assumed the dictatorship of Mexico today. His formal proclamation dissolving the national legislature announced that new senators and deputies will be chosen at the election which will be held October 26.

That so high handed a proceeding will be permitted to pass without serious trouble is considered unlikely in official circles. The city is now practically under martial law. President Huerta having plainly made up his mind to nip in the bud any demonstration against himself which might be the means of ruining his influence in Mexican affairs.

MRS. SCHULTZ FALLS FROM SKY LIGHT AT HAMMEL

Through an accident in mistaking the entrance to the banquet room of the Hotel Hammel from the roof of the court running up and down the center of the building, Mrs. Amel Schultz, who was assisting in serving the banquet to the merchants, fell through a skylight last night about 6:30 o'clock, and received cuts on her elbow and two fingers. She fell five feet and was badly shaken up. The accident was not a serious one and today the victim is up. Dr. Wallace was called and bandaged the cuts. It was due to the accident that the merchant's banquet was delayed.

Gertrude Wiley, of Corvallis, is stopping at the St. Francis.

E. S. Van Cleve and family, of Toledo, are visitors in the city this afternoon.

LEBANON STORE WAS ROBBED LAST NIGHT

Safe Was Blown Up and Money Taken; Loss Is Estimated at $1500.

Lebanon, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special to Democrat.)—Burglars entered the Reeves-Clark dry goods store here sometime late last night or early this morning, blew open the safe and made their get away with a large amount of money. The loss is estimated to be about $1500 including the damage to the safe and store. The safe is a complete wreck. It has not been ascertained what the burglars used. The store was in a turmoil this morning. Only a few people heard the explosion as it was muffled.

The burglary was apparently committed by two men, who were evidently familiar with the conditions. The authorities are chasing down every available clew and it is said that several are under close suspicion. Several parties are scouring the country in an effort to locate the robbers. It is believed that they are on their way north, as two men were seen to dash out of the city on horses, shortly after the crime is believed to have been committed and take a northward course.
