MRS. PANKHURST.

Mrs. Pankhurst, the dean of English suffragettes has arrived in New York. She was very properly detained by the government immigration officials and ordered deported. In her native country she has been convicted of crimes involving moral turpitude. By her own government she is held as an undesirable citizen and she now seeks entrance into a foreign port for the avowed purpose of repeating her spectacular crimes, breeding discontent and making a laughing stock of the laws of the land. Had the immigration officials admitted her under the circumstances they would have been unfaithful to that portion of their oath of office which requires them to support and enforce the constitution of the United States. She is an undesirable alien and as such is entitled to no favors at the hands of the government.

Mrs. Pankhurst and those who have followed her leadership in Great Britain are a libel against their own sex. They have irreparably injured a cause which they sought to promote. Their methods are the strongest argument yet advanced against equal suffrage in England. The spectacular means employed to promote their cause, their open and notorious defiance of law, their lack of discretion, their intemperate statements, and their unwomanly conduct have all contributed to damn the entire movement among sober thinking Englishmen.

Mrs. Pankhurst is an unwomanly woman and an unnatural one. She has none of the finer instincts which are characteristic of the feminine sex. She lacks judgment, intellect and character. She is a lawbreaker and a fool. She is the greatest living enemy of the cause which she advocates. Suffrage will come in England sooner or later as it will in every other country, but it will be in spite of Mrs. Pankhurst and her band of wild-eyed followers. She is the largest stone in the path of women's progress, and from the standpoint of those who advocate and believe in equal election privileges for both men and women, the sooner that stone is removed the better. If Mrs. Pankhurst would render a real service to the suffrage movement, let her go on a hunger strike in the privacy of her own home, and by her own volition thus remove from the world of men, the one woman who has done more to make the "votes for women" movement in England a parody on justice and the militant leaders the laughing stock of the world.

Let Mr. Pankhurst, and the female lunatics who have been her partners in crime, follow the example of the women of Oregon. The Oregonians won a great fight and they won it solely because at no time did they forget that their creator had made them women. They used fair and lawful means and thus demonstrated their fitness for the ballot. Mrs. Pankhurst has proved to the world that a padded cell would be more in keeping with her intellect than the election booth.

After all the Democrat believes that the Oregonian was right when it referred to President Wilson as the "schoolmaster statesman." The new president appears to have taught the members of congress the true meaning of the words "Progressive Democracy" and has successfully compelled them to put his ideas into practical execution.

The fellow that has the least to say usually does the most talking.

One of the most important institutions in Albany is the public library. It is well supplied with the best literature, is under capable management and will soon be housed in a neat and attractive building. It would be difficult to make too liberal an appropriation for an institution of this character.

A North Carolina man has been refused a license to marry. He is old enough to know better anyway.

To find a man big enough and broad enough to make a capable mayor and at the same time one who is fool enough to run and popular enough to be elected is the question which is just now concerning the people of Albany.

Is the furnace oiled and ready for its task? Not much longer in soft breezes may we bask, for winter soon is due, with its sting and storm and stew—that's the reason, gentle reader, why I ask. Have you banked the house the way it ought to be? Have you got a pile of kindling fair to see? Have you got your winter's slate ready for the stove and grate? Oh, you ought to try and pattern after me! For old Winter never hits me unawares; I am ready when he rips around and tears, with my briar and my hook, in the cozy inglenook, with my feet upon a half a dozen chairs. Ah, the careless man is always in the hole; when the blizzards and the tempests start to roll, he is raging here and there, in his fury and despair, begging dealers for a basketful of coal. And the dealers view his coming with a frown, and they wilt him with a glance and turn him down, for their phones are bringing in, with a clangor and a din, such appeals from every corner of the town. How I wish you'd look ahead a day or two, and be ready for the storm with a house that's good and warm, and a larder full of tempting things to chew. —Walt Mason.

Former Albany Man Here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue, of Klamath Falls, have been visiting in the city the guests of Mrs. Hogue's brother, Judge Kelly, and mother, Mrs. M. J. Kelly, after attending the grand lodges of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters in Portland. Mr. Hogue is a former prominent Albany man, once superintendent of the city schools, afterwards connected with the Oregon Pacific, now the Corvallis & Eastern, being general freight and passenger agent for several years. Eight years ago they went to Klamath Falls, where Mr. Hogue has been secretary of the big irrigation project. This is his first visit here for three years, and he sees a remarkable improvement even in that short time, and he considers Albany one of the most stable, solid cities in the state. Mr. and Mrs. Hogue this morning went to Corvallis for a short visit.

Mill City People Here Yesterday.—A number of Mill City people were in the city yesterday and late Saturday afternoon and evening to attend the McCabee session. Among those who were here are: Joe Misner, James Misner, G. W. Robert, J. A. Swan, Nellie Work and Mary Drayela.

Rolf's Platform.—When seen this morning by a Democrat representative in regard to his proposed candidacy for the office of Chief of Police, George Rolf stated that he has not yet made up his mind as to whether or not he will run, but that in the event of his nomination and election he will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law, any person selling, disposing of, or giving away warm beer.

Football Men Expected Today.—According to a statement made this morning by one who is in close touch with the Oregon-O. A. C. football situation, it is expected that Dr. E. J. Stewart, director of athletics at the college and Graduate Manager Dean H. Walker, of the university will be here sometime today to complete arrangements for the staging of the big game here on November 8. The Commercial club proposition has not been officially accepted but it is believed that it will be by tomorrow.

Large Class Initiated.—With a big blow out, in the form of a jolly social session and interesting lodge work, followed by the serving of a splendid supper, a large class was initiated into the order of Maccabees Saturday night. The initiation work was exemplified by the team of the Mill City lodge. Delegates from Jefferson, Corvallis, and Lebanon were present. After the banquet, a number of prominent members of the order made short addresses, including a talk by J. W. Sherwood, state commander of the order who resides in Portland.

Fred Fair Has Returned.—Fred Fair, who disappeared from the city suddenly Friday, returned Sunday night. He says he has been to Portland that he intends to straighten up his accounts.

Marriage Licenses Issued.—The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday and day before: Samuel Hunter, age 26, and Lillian M. Price, age 24, both of Albany, and Ernest C. Hornback, age 23, and Lalo Hornback, age 19, both of Albany. James Jones, age 20, and Nellie Connes, age 17, both of Albany.

K. P. INITIATED LARGEST SINGLE CLASS LAST NIGHT

Two City Officials and Nine Others Take Obligation of the First Rank.

Last night the largest class in the history of Laurel Lodge No. 7, Knights of Pythias, was initiated into first rank, when several prominent residents, including two city officials, took the obligation.

The event was a noteworthy one. A striking feature was the administration of the obligation of the rank, by a son of his father, when Leland Gilbert, prelate of the lodge, administered to his father, Mayor Gilbert. Another feature of this part of the program was that yesterday was the forty-fifth birthday of the mayor. Two other noteworthy features were that another city official and a brother of the mayor were initiated into the order at the same time, when Councilman John R. Hulbert and S. S. Gilbert assumed the obligation of the rank.

Altogether eleven were taken in last night. Of this number six were from the Rathbone Bible class, from Albany who were initiated at the grand lodge in Portland last week, being the largest delegation from any city. They are W. G. Ballack, Ed. Washburn, S. N. Braden, Neil M. Bain, Sigurd B. Carlson and J. R. Hulbert. Others who went in last night were Harry Stearns, A. E. and J. W. Dooley, aside from S. S. Gilbert and Mayor Gilbert. Next week it is expected that at least eleven or twelve more candidates will be ready to ride the goat.

Get Season Tickets at Door.—Secretary Foster of the Y. M. C. A. stated this afternoon that all of those who have not secured their season tickets for the lecture course, may secure same at the door Wednesday night, prior to the opening of the first entertainment by Ralph Parlette at the United Presbyterian church. This convenience is arranged because of Mr. Foster's inability to see all of those who pledged themselves to purchase tickets in the canvass that was recently conducted.

Alley Being Paved.—Paving of the alley running between Second and Third streets in the block from Lyon and Ellsworth streets was commenced yesterday afternoon and today is well under way. The work will be completed within a short while.

Nothing Heard of Fugitives.—Up until late this afternoon nothing has been heard of the prisoners, Charles Smith and Charles Davidson, who escaped from the county jail night before last. Sheriff Bodine went to Lebanon this morning and whether he went on a mission concerning the fugitives could not be learned.

Hoover Lumbermen Here.—A. G. Hinkle and R. G. Cochran, of the Hoover Lumber company, of Hoover, Or., were in the city last night. They were here to attend the session of the Masonic lodge. They returned home this morning.

Farm Name Filed.—David Shearer, a dairyman of near Tangent, this morning filed the name of Donnybrook Dairy Farm with the county clerk, by which his place near Tangent will hereafter be known.

Referee's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, was by an order of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn County, in Department No. 2 in that certain suit wherein Andrew Shearer was plaintiff and Ida Pugh, P. MANAGERS SELECT CHAUTAUQUA BILLS

Partial List of Attractions Chosen Here Last Night for Three Assemblies.

SIX TOPLINERS ENGAGED BY ALBANY ASSOCIATION

Prospects Bid Fair For Bigger and Better Sessions Next Year Than Ever.

A conference of the three Oregon Chautauqua association managers held here last night and concluded this morning in the parlors of the Commercial club, resulted in the engagement of 6 attractions for the coming assemblies.

The purpose of the conference was to arrange for next year and secure the best talent available, to the end of better and bigger assemblies than ever for next year.

The attractions are all from the Chicago Chautauqua Managers Association represented last night at the meeting by Prof. Daggy of Seattle.

The talent thus far engaged forms only the musical and dramatic end of a program, while other attractions are to be engaged and arranged for later. Aside from what has already been signed up for, considerable local talent and special features are to appear on the program, coming from other chautauqua program bureaus.

The meeting was attended by the members of the board of the Albany Chautauqua Association, including Manager Stewart and Managers H. E. Cross and G. F. Billings, of the Gladstone and Southern Oregon Chautauqua Association respectively. The latter is held at Ashland.

The Gladstone Chautauqua will be held this year from July 8 to 19, the Southern Oregon Chautauqua from July 7 to 17 and the local Chautauqua from July 8 to 19.

The following are the attractions engaged by the local association thus far:

Ferguson's Dixie Jubilee Concert Company, troupe of 7. Four performances.

Castle Square Entertainers, 4 people, 4 performances.

Lee Emerson Bassett, dramatic recitals.

Chicago Glee Club, 4 people, 4 performances.

Ash Davis, cartoonist, lecturer and story teller.

Alexander M. Lochwitzky, L. L. D., Russian reformer and political exile.

Manager Cross also engaged all of the talent above mentioned and Manager Billings engaged all but two of the attractions.

Assumed Business Name Filed.

Nine persons owning and operating a threshing machine in the district about Knox Butte filed the assumed business name of the concern with the county clerk this morning as Knox Butte Threshing Machine Company. Those interested in the concern are: A. N. Reed, A. B. Bond, Frank Lines, Ira Cox, E. B. Smith, A. B. Marshall, C. E. Mills, L. G. Cox, and M. Bussard, all giving Albany as their address.

Guardian's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned guardian of Hethel Hofflich, a minor, will, pursuant to the order of the county court of Linn County, Oregon, duly made and entered in the matter of the guardianship of said minor on the 27th day of September, 1913, sell at private sale for cash in hand from and after the 1st day of November, 1913, the following described real property belonging to the estate of said minor, to-wit:

Beginning at a point in the center of a county road on the South boundary line of Perry Watson's Donation Land Claim No. 63 in Township 11 South of Range 4 West of the Willamette Meridian, Oregon, which point is 93 chains East of where the section line between Sections 26 and 27 intersects said south boundary line of said Claim No. 63 and running thence East 25.26 chains; thence South 3 chains; thence West 25.26 chains to the center of said county road; thence South 10 degrees West 2.85 chains; thence West 6.35 chains; thence North to the South boundary line of said Claim No. 63; thence East along said South boundary line, to the place of beginning containing 275 acres more or less all lying and being in Linn County, State of Oregon.

Said sale to be made subject to confirmation by said county court.

TOM CUMMINGS OUT AFTER CHIEF'S STAR

Circulating Petition This Morning. Says He Will Enforce Law in Event of Election.

That he will make an active canvass for the office of chief of police was the statement made to a Democrat representative this morning by Tom Cummings. Mr. Cummings is circulating a petition which has been signed by a considerable number of voters. When asked in regard to his policy in the event of his election, he gave out the following statement:

"I have never been a candidate for office before in my life but should the people see fit to elect me, I propose to enforce the law and to perform the duties of my office to the best of my ability."

CITY NEWS.

John Robson Back.—John Robson, returned last night from an eastern trip which he visited his mother who resides in Iowa. Mr. Robson says times are good in the east and he saw one Bull Moose on the trip.

Assumed Business Names Filed.—This morning R. M. Hutchins, as proprietor of the Clover Leaf Dairy filed the assumed business name of that concern with County Clerk Marks.

Eugene is In Lead.—The result of the regular work in the Y. M. C. A. at Albany is 250 points for membership, and 188 dollars paid. Salem has not reported though the report from that association should have been in by Saturday night. It was said that Salem had not made any phenomenal record or they would have been anxious to report progress. The report of Albany seems low in comparison with Eugene but this is accounted for by the fact that Albany association is a new one and has not the renewals to boost their membership that older ones have. However, Albany has a newer territory to work over and will doubtless give a good account in the final reckoning.

Guardian Appointed.—This morning Judge Galloway appointed a guardian ad litem for the defendant in the case of Lewelling against R. Goldblatt, a minor. A Goldblatt was named. The case was brought by Lewelling as trustee to recover goods alleged to have been purchased from the bankrupt concern of R. Rogoway & Sons, to save them from being sold with the stock. Goldblatt, who runs a second hand clothing establishment, runs it in his 7 year old son's name.

Saturday was Big Day.—Saturday was a big day at the city recorder's office for registration, in fact it was the biggest day since the books opened. A total of 134 registered. Yesterday and today registration has been rather slow. There is just about a month more left in which to register. The books will close November 22. If you haven't registered, do it now.

Election Notices Posted.—County Clerk Marks has caused election notices to be posted calling the special election for November 4, in which the people will vote special referendum measures.

Sealed Bids Opened November 29.—Yesterday an advertisement appeared in the Democrat from the treasury department at Washington, asking for sealed proposals for the construction of the proposed Albany post office. The bids will be opened on November 29. The specifications call for mechanical equipment, interior lighting fixtures, and approaches to a two-story building, with basement covering a ground area of 4700 square feet, stucco, terra cotta and stone facing with tin roof. Drawings and specifications may be obtained from the postmaster or at the office of D. W. Woodworth supervising architect, Washington.

Assumed Business Name Filed.—This morning A. J. Mealy filed with the county clerk, the assumed name of a business of which he is proprietor, namely the Mealey Brothers Mill Co., of Sweet Home.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Executrix of the last Will and Testament of W. H. Kaltrider, deceased, has filed her final account as such Executrix of said Estate, with the County Clerk of Linn County, Oregon; and the Judge of the County Court for Linn County, Oregon, has fixed November 3rd at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. for the hearing of objection of said Estate if any, and further settlement of said Estate.

Dated this 25th day of September, 1913.

SEEKS TO REGAIN TITLE TO LANDS

Joseph R. Godwin Wants to be Declared Owner of Tracts He Deeded to Family.

CLAIMS HE WAS TREATED CRUELY BY THEM

Deeded Land to be Cared for Fearing He Was Close to Deaths Door.

On the grounds that he has been treated cruelly by his wife and children, after deeding to each of them a parcel of land, fearing that he was close to death's door, upon condition that they care for him, after he had somewhat regained his health, Joseph R. Godwin, through Attorneys Mark Weatherford and N. M. Newport, is today in Circuit Judge Galloway's court, seeking a decree declaring him to be the owner of all the land he deeded to the members of his family. The plaintiff was carried into the court room by four men in a chair.

The case went to trial this morning. The defendants in the case are Cassie Godwin, Pearl Godwin, Nettie M. Scott, Jenny Junky, W. L. Godwin, Etta M. Godwin, Laura A. Godwin, Minnie M. Godwin, George W. Godwin, Priscilla Godwin, his wife. Their attorneys are H. H. Hewitt and S. M. Garland.

According to the complaint the plaintiff alleges that on or about August 24, 1909 and for some time prior thereto, this plaintiff was suffering from a stroke of paralysis and was sick and unable to do any work and did not expect to live a great while, and in anticipation of not being able to survive said stroke and did not expect at any time in the future, physically, to be able to work and earn a living for himself and desiring to secure himself a home and care during all of the time that he should live and a decent and respectable burial thereafter, entered into a contract with the defendants whereby the defendants promised and agreed that in the event the plaintiff would deed to them lands that belonged to him, they would take care of him, give him a good home and in the event of his death would give him a decent and respectable burial.

It is alleged that upon these considerations, the plaintiff then deeded to each of the defendants, a parcel of land of a tract owned by him in section 8, township 13, range 3 west.

Following the filing of the complaint, the defendants entered a demurrer, to which the plaintiff answered, then a motion for appointment of a guardian for the minor defendants was filed. George M. Godwin then filed his answer.

Assumed Business Name Filed.

This morning A. J. Mealy filed with the county clerk, the assumed name of a business of which he is proprietor, namely the Mealey Brothers Mill Co., of Sweet Home.
