TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1913.

Some men will never learn that noise is not statesmanship.

Judging from the number of lightning rods which have been installed during the past week, Albany is about due for a severe electrical storm.

Speaking about candidates for chief of police, wonder what has become of Ellis Daughtry?

Many an embryo-statesman is waiting to be urged.

Dignity that is not overdone, honesty, conservatism and brains, coupled with a pleasing personality and the ability to address an audience without bringing discredit upon the city which you represent are some of the qualifications which go to make a successful candidate for mayor.

Who wants to stand up and be measured?

Some of these "Why I Left My Husband" articles which appear in the current issues of the popular ladies magazines ought to be labeled trash and tossed into the yawning waste paper basket.

Wonder how many of those courageous gentlemen who are urging the administration to buckle on the sword and make an example of Mexico, would enlist in the event of hostilities?

Some men who are brave enough to fight a buzz saw are veritable cowards when they clash with their wives.

Usually the fellow who "would not take an office if he had a certificate of election," couldn't be elected.

Ben Jones is out for congress. The name sounds familiar.

The most vain men in the world are the fellows who go about proclaiming that they don't care for newspaper publicity.

Albany is getting some good advertising out of the Salem local option election anyway.

Don't be too good natured or too generous with your cigars. Someone may construe your good nature and generosity as a bid for nomination to some city office.

Mrs. Pankhurst complains that her Madison Square Garden address was poorly advertised. The Democrat believes that the small crowd was due to too much advertisement; of the principal speaker.

When a woman strains every nerve to haul down the prize at a card party, she calls it a mere harmless diversion. When her husband plays poker at two bits an ante, she believes that he has mortgaged his title to the next world.

One thing can be said in favor of Ex-President Taft. He makes less noise than any other ex-president.

If some men could capitalize their galls they would be worth a million.

Many a New York department store would give a fortune for the advertising received by Harry K. Thaw.

Most bankers are willing to accommodate you for ten per cent.

Wonder what has become of the sweet young girl who used to wash the dishes and make bread? Usefulness appears to have gone out of fashion among the younger set.

Sharpen up your ax. The date of the municipal election is December 1st.

Mr. Pankhurst came to America to collect a bomb fund.

Former Night Watch Here.—John Jones of Portland is in the city on a few days' visit. He is a former city nightwatch and engineer for many years. His son, Clem Jones, is a letter carrier in Portland, and his daughter Emma is now Mrs. Bertram of Mill City, wife of the superintendent of the Hammond Lumber Co's mill, with whom he is visiting for a few weeks. Mr. Jones, like other Albany people sees a great improvement here.

Marriage License Issued.—Two marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon. They were to Walter Dagert, age 36, and Maud Huston, age 36, both of Albany, and Roy McKendrick, age 21 and Nola Pinkston, age 18, both of Albany.

NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST FROM JORDAN AND VICINITY

Mr. Herman Shelton and family spent Friday and Saturday in Albany. Mr. Jno. Sandner went back in the mountains a few miles south of here on a hunting trip. The first day he killed the limit, returning the next day disappointed because he hadn't enjoyed any outing at all. He reported plenty of game and it was hard to resist the temptation of exceeding the limit.

If you want a bear story ask Debs Shelton about it. He can give it in rhyme, but neither he nor L. W. Wood can bring in the bear's scalp.

Peter Burchart of Sublimity and John Burchart of Topeka, Kan., spent the first of the week visiting with the families of Joe Schwindt, and Frank Rohwein. They were looking for a location.

Manager Geo. Sanders of the Bell Telephone company of Albany met the people here and presented a proposition whereby the people are to return, or purchase the phones which they already have.

Mrs. Addie Beaver and her sister Ruth visited over Sunday at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alph Shelton of Lyons.

Captain D. W. Collins, of the U. S. Artillery Corps, detailed as instructor of the Oregon National Guard Reserves with headquarters at Eugene, was in the city yesterday.

R. P. Conant, of Mill City, was a visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

Constance P. Daries, of Toledo, shopped here yesterday afternoon.

Forest Wilbure, of Salem, transacted business here yesterday afternoon and this morning.

W. J. Murphy, of Aberdeen, Wash., is registered at the Vandran.

D. G. Hopkins, of Salem, attended business matters here yesterday afternoon.

F. Webster, of Corvallis, was in the city yesterday afternoon attending business matters.

A. L. Downes, of Portland, is a business visitor in the city today.

Mrs. Lillie Moses of Stayton was visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Archibald last week.

M. F. Wood has moved his family into Tangent where their children can attend school. They occupy the house belonging to Mr. B. W. Mills, who soon expects to go to California to spend the winter.

Floyd Hayes of Mill City spent Sunday in Tangent, visiting his parents and children.

Mrs. Joe White of Salem spent the last few days of the past week with relatives near Tangent.

Mrs. Ella Hayes of Portland stopped off the Sunday train to visit with her nephew, M. F. Wood and family.

Thomas Skelley has moved his family to Tallman, where he has charge of the S. P. section gang between Albany and Lebanon.

A. C. Armstrong received the largest express packages ever shipped to Tangent last Sunday. It was a cow packed in a crate.

The public school of Tangent gave an entertainment last Friday evening. There was a large number of patrons of the school and others in attendance. They report a fine time and were well entertained.

There will soon be another dry goods and grocery store opened in Tangent. The new building located on the corner of Second street is rapidly nearing completion and when finished Tangent will have two general stores.

ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY O. A. C. FRESHIES

Great Game Is Promised Tomorrow Afternoon on Local Field.

One of the best football games of the season is promised tomorrow afternoon at Athletic park when the O. A. C. freshmen team clash with the Albany High school team. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

According to scores the "aggies" are on a level with the local team and with good teams in splendid shape a good game is assured. This will probably be the last game played in Albany until Thanksgiving day as the high school team goes to Salem next week and Eugene the week after. With their great victory last Saturday spurring them on, the members of the local team are in high spirits and are determined to win from the freshmen. Albany's lineup is as follows: McKee, Rexford, r. c.; Williamson, r. t.; Hart, r. g.; Davis, c.; Thacker, Simpson, l. g.; Tracy, l. t.; Briggs, Clelan, l. e.; Monteith, q.; C. Archibald, l. h.; R. MAYOR GILBERT OUT OF RACE FOR MAYOR

Issues a Public Statement in Which He Says He Is Not a Candidate for Re-election.

The following formal statement was given out to the Democrat today by Mayor Gilbert:

To the people of Albany:
As I am asked daily if I am a candidate for re-election to the office of mayor I wish to say that I am not a candidate. I have other interests that will require all my time.

I think it the duty of all our business and professional men to serve at least one term as mayor or councilman and as I look upon our business men as being above the average I see no reason why we should have any trouble getting the best of material for mayor.

I shall always look back upon the past two years that I have served as mayor with much pleasure and to my successor whoever he may be I can wish no better fortune than that he have six such men in the council as are there now or that have been there during my term—loyal, honorable business men who look after the interests of Albany all the time.

Believing in Albany and that she will never take a step backward but that each succeeding year will be the greatest in her history.

Your obedient servant,
P. D. GILBERT.

MANY HUNT FOR BEARS THAT RAMPAGE ORCHARD

Jordan, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special to Democrat.)—Three miles east of Jordan and about the same distance from Lyons on the old Hoffsfus homestead a couple of bears have been making trips every few nights to the orchard in quest of fruit. These bears have been pursued a great many times by local hunters with dogs, but would not tree. Traps have been set nicely baited with honey and apples, the traps thrown, bait eaten and the brutes are yet master of the situation.

Last Sunday evening a bunch of our local sports concluded to go to the orchard and wait for them, but as the small hours came along, drowsiness crept over them and some how or other the bear came along to his fill and left, leaving the hunters "holding the sack" as usual.

Crowds from Stayton, Salem, and Scio.

CURL ENTERS RACE FOR MAYOR

Petitions Are Being Circulated Today and Will Be Filed Tomorrow.

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY IS MADE

Friends Claim That He Will Prove a Strong Candidate and Claim Election.

Nomination petitions for L. M. Curl are being circulated this afternoon and will doubtless be filed tomorrow morning. When seen by a Democrat representative Mr. Curl said: "Yes, I have definitely concluded to enter the race and will accept the nomination. My friends have insisted that I become a candidate and I enter the race believing that there is a demand for a considerable number of the best citizens of the city that I permit the use of my name." Mr. Curl came within a few votes of being elected two years ago. He has served as a member of the city council and his friends believe that he will prove a strong candidate.

SOCIALIST TICKET HAS BEEN FILED WITH RECORDER

W. S. Richards Up for Mayor and J. K. Davis Will Seek Office of Marshall.

The full Socialist ticket has been filed at the city recorder's office, for the coming city election. The ticket was filed on the twenty-first but the recorder forgot to announce it to the press until today.

The following is the personnel: For mayor, W. S. Richards; for recorder, M. F. Hayes; for marshal, J. K. Davis; for treasurer, Ed. C. Krause; for councilman from the first ward, E. V. Smith; for councilman from the second ward, J. Cramer; for councilman from the third ward, J. D. Bryant.

That the Socialists intend to make a strong effort to place at least some of their candidates in office is indicated by the recent activity among members of the party.

Mrs. M. J. Bridgeford left this noon for Newport for an over Sunday visit. Rev. E. H. Hicks left this noon for Riddles where he will lecture tonight.

M. J. CAMERON CONSENTS TO ENTER THE RACE

Will Be Candidate for Renomination; Friends Assert He Will Have No Opposition.

That M. J. Cameron has consented to accept a renomination for the office of councilman in the second ward became known today when friends circulated his petition.

Mr. Cameron has always been identified with the best interests of the city and his friends assert that his creditable record during the past two years of his incumbency on the council should entitle him to re-election without any question.

Whether there will be an opposing candidate is not known, but thus far no other petition has been filed with the recorder.

PANAMA COMMISSION HEAD MAY ATTEND MEETING

R. A. Booth a Member of That Body Will be Present on October 30.

That there is a probability of O. M. Clark of the Oregon Commission of the Panama Pacific International Exposition attending the meeting to be held here on October 30 of representative of various valley counties, sent from the booster organizations and county courts for the purpose of discussing plans for a Willamette valley exhibit at the exposition, and that R. A. Booth, of Eugene, a member of the commission will be present is indicated by the following letter received this morning by C. H. Stewart, from Mr. Clark:

"We are pleased to note the interest you are taking in the exposition," runs the letter, "and we will be glad to do anything to assist you and can promise that Mr. Booth will attend your meeting at Albany and perhaps the writer."

The other three members of the commission are C. L. Hawley, McCoy; John F. Logan, Portland, and W. L. Thompson, Pendleton. The meeting will convene here at 2:30 o'clock at the Commercial club.

Believing that F. H. Pfeiffer will make a strong candidate for the office of councilman in First ward, friends yesterday afternoon circulated a petition in the business section of the city and secured a large number of signers.

Mr. Pfeiffer is at the present time a member of the executive committee of the Albany Commercial club and has always been active in promoting the best interests of the community in which he lives. He has a large circle of friends who are confident that he will be elected by a large majority.

J. R. Hulbert, the present councilman from the first ward positively declined to accept a renomination. He was strongly urged to run for the office of mayor but owing to business reasons was unable to accept the nomination. Mr. Hulbert was considered one of the best men on the council and had he desired a second term, there would have been but little doubt of his re-election.

PFEIFFER OUT FOR COUNCILMAN IN FIRST WARD

Considered a Strong Candidate; Hulbert Absolutely Declines to Accept Re-nomination.

ODELL WANTED ON ANOTHER CHARGE

Barber Arrested Yesterday Barely Missed Being Taken on Second Charge.

ACCUSED BY EUGENE PEOPLE OF JUMPING BOARD BILL

Constable Catlin Awaiting for Warrant, Discovered That Sheriff Had Prisoner.

"What's Oregon's loss is Washington's gain," said Constable John Catlin this morning commenting on another phase of the Odell arrest yesterday.

"I am going to put up a sign," he continued humorously, "to this effect: 'Wanted barbers with the best of references. Board jumpers or jail breakers need not apply.'"

Had the Washington sheriff not arrived the time he did yesterday afternoon, arrested the prisoner, A. F. Odell, the barber who ran the shop in the St. Francis hotel, and beat a hasty retreat north, Constable Catlin in all probability would have been going south with the barber as his prisoner at about the same time the sheriff departed for the north.

The latest developments in the case form a rare coincidence.

Quietly and unexpectedly the Washington sheriff arrived in the city yesterday armed with requisition papers and all other necessary weapons to take Odell back to Ritzville, Washington, where he is said to be wanted on a charge of breaking jail. According to local police he was securing a term there on conviction of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The Washington sheriff had trailed Odell to Albany and through the assistance of Chief of Police Austin, who conducted the investigation here, was convinced that the man here was the right and succeeded in intercepting him without trouble or delay.

It now develops that Odell was in Eugene before coming to Albany. He has been here for nearly three months. The authorities of Eugene have been on the lookout for him since he left there, according to the constable, on a charge of jumping a board bill of $50. Finally Odell was located here. He was communicated with and an effort was made to collect the bill. Odell disregarded the payment and accordingly a warrant was secured for his arrest. Constable Catlin was awaiting the warrant to arrive by the noon mail yesterday when he learned that the Washington sheriff has gotten in ahead of him and that the prisoner was speeding back to Washington.

"Anyway," said the constable, "the sheriff would have had the first crack. His case was before mine and involved a greater crime. What's our loss is Washington's gain and what's the difference?"
