TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1913.

ALMOST UNANIMOUS.

Never before has a president of the United States received such a vote of confidence as that given to President Wilson at the Tuesday election. Coming as it did, following a revision of the tariff schedules and after the administration has outlined its policy in relation to a reform of currency system, the result can mean but one thing, and that is the unqualified endorsement of Woodrow Wilson and the present Democratic congress.

In New York City the people repudiated "Boss" Murphy and elected by more than 100,000 votes an appointee of President Wilson to the office of mayor.

In New Jersey a Democratic governor bearing the stamp of approval of the friends of the president was elected by a tremendous majority and he carried with him to victory a Democratic legislature.

In the state of Massachusetts David R. Walsh, a progressive Democrat was elected governor over the renegade Foss, the Republican Gardner and the Progressive Bird, by a majority of more than fifty thousand votes.

In Maryland, Blair Lee, a progressive Wilson Democrat was elected to the United States senate by a large majority.

In Virginia a Wilson Democrat was elected governor.

Three out of the four congressional districts which voted upon candidates selected Democratic congressmen to represent them for the coming two years.

Newton Baker, a Wilson Democrat was re-elected mayor of Cleveland.

The Democratic majority in the state of Kentucky was greatly increased and in the municipal elections in Indiana the Democrats carried off the honors in thirty-eight cities while the Republicans were successful in but eighteen.

In no state where the administration was made an issue were the Republicans or Progressives successful, and wherever the national issues entered into the contest the majorities of the Democratic candidates were increased.

It was truly a great victory and one unprecedented in American history from the standpoint of the peculiar conditions.

It has been heretofore considered a political axiom that no party could revise the tariff and remain in power. The Wilson administration has revised the tariff and within a few months after the bill was signed by the president has received a vote of confidence such as may well gladden the heart of any progressive Democrat. It proves again the old adage that honesty is the best policy and that this rule can be applied to politics and work just as successfully as it does in the career of the average business man.

WORK OF ORGANIZING D. A. R. CHAPTER ON

To those women who are looking forward to posterity with a knowledge gained by looking backward to ancestry, and with the admonition of the renowned Edmund Burk who said, "Those who do not treasure up the memory of their ancestors do not deserve to be remembered by posterity," this organization of the Daughters of American Revolution appeals. The year 1776 registers the birth of this nation, made possible by the lives and property of our ancestors, men who gave their lives and property, who had the courage of conviction, strength of character, and ability to mobilize against the chaotic usurpation of despotism; we of 1913 are enjoying the results of the sacrifice.

More than one hundred thousand women in the United States have traced unbroken lineage back to the men and women identified with the Revolutionary War and records are available to those who are eligible, even though not known of by them. Isn't it worth while to establish one's identity with the vigorous, determined, liberty loving men who made this government our home? There are those in Albany who believe it, and will soon organize a chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution.

If there is a woman in Linn county who is already a member of the national organization, or is a member of a local chapter in some other state, or desires to apply for membership in the Albany chapter which is to be organized early in 1914, kindly send your name and address to Mrs. Levi E. Tracy.

Stella Ingram, of Lebanon, visited friends here yesterday afternoon. She returned home this morning.

Ed. J. Ebb, of Bandon, is in the city attending business matters. He is at the St. Francis.

E. Hofer and R. M. Hofer, of Salem, are visitors in the city. They are at the Vandran.

C. B. Reese, of Cascadia, transacted business here this morning.

the occasion and the members of the club passed an enjoyable evening together. Wood's orchestra furnished the music.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Kavanaugh of Third street were hosts to the members of the "300" club on Thursday evening. At the close of the game Mrs. Peter Paulus and Mr. T. Y. S. Ballantyne scored high. The hostess served a dainty collation.

The Alpha Omega girls met with Miss Elsie Bain on Monday for an evening of work.

Will Address Men.—I. B. Rhodes, a well known Y. M. C. A. man, of Portland, will address a men's mass meeting at the local institution Sunday afternoon. He will open his address at 4 o'clock. One week from today the second number on the lecture course will be given.

"The Girl from Mummies" Tonight.—Tonight the great play "The Girl from Mummies" will be presented at the Blythe theater. The ticket sale has been exceptionally gratifying to the management and indicates interest in the play. The indications are that the theater will be crowded. A few seats are left for those who have not secured their tickets.

Marriage Licenses Issued.—Yesterday afternoon a marriage license was issued to D. H. Wheeler, over 21 years of age, and Rosa E. Blund, over 18 years of age, both of Lebanon.

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM CRABTREE VICINITY

Literary Society Gives Halloween Party; Montgomery Family Move Away.

Crabtree, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special to Democrat).—The Crabtree literary society held a very pleasant Halloween party at Hoffman's Hall Friday night. The hall was prettily decorated in yellow and green and lighted with jack o'lanterns.

Several items of the "Track meet" contest were the chief features of the evening and furnished a great deal of amusement.

After the contest, refreshments, consisting of doughnuts, pumpkin pie and sweet cider were served after which dancing was enjoyed until the wee small hours.

Winter seems very reluctant to settle down and "hide a wee" in Crabtree this year and here's hoping the reluctance will continue daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and sons Harold and Ronald, left today for Anderson, California, to make that place their future home. In the departure of the Montgomerys Crabtree loses a valuable family and what is our loss is Anderson's gain.

S. M. Wirt has purchased the lot opposite the depot and after December 1st the Crabtree Creamery Association will do business at that place. It has not been fully decided whether a new building will be erected or the old one moved to the new site.

Crabtree is growing, despite the fact that it has an "Athletic trouble" W. J. Lumidge is tearing away the old building back of the cream station and will erect a hardware store there in the near future.

John Kizer hauled the Montgomery household goods and assisted in loading the car.

The Ladies Aid of Crabtree served dinner today in the old hotel dining room.

The little Chatfield boy who had the misfortune to break his arm above the wrist, while playing on the school grounds recently, is able to be out.

County School Superintendent Jackson visited the Crabtree school last week.

Potato growers in this vicinity are working over time to get the crops harvested while the good weather lasts.

Mr. Betzger, who bought the Montgomery property took possession today.

Major R. H. Hendershott and son gave an entertaining concert under the auspices of the M. W. H. at the church Monday evening. Despite rain there was a good crowd in attendance.

A good sermon was enjoyed by a large congregation at the church both morning and evening Sunday. Next preaching service will be November 23. All are invited.

W. S. Paul lost a valuable family horse last week.

PERSONAL AND NEWS NOTES FROM JORDAN

Jordan, Or., Nov. 5.—Mr. H. Joy went to Salem on a combined pleasure and business trip.

Mrs. McDonald has rented her farm to Messrs. Pepperlin and Dougherty. She expects to move to Mill City next week.

Mr. W. R. Kay has been very poorly for some time, but is improving some lately.

The dance at this place was pronounced quite a success. There was a good attendance from outside points. Mr. Arthur Lengele and daughter went to Salem. The daughter will remain with her uncle for some time.

Road Supervisor Nick Endre expects to begin crushing rock soon. He has just learned from the county clerk the amount of money he is to receive from the special tax which was voted last year.

A hunting party consisting of Messrs. Henry Shank, Harry Shank, Joe Fisher and Miles Marshall brought in a couple of deer, but report game scarce.

TEACHERS MEETING TO BE HELD SOON

Four Hundred School Teachers and Masters to Attend Institute on November 24.

MANY PROMINENT SPEAKERS ENGAGED FOR OCCASION

Meeting to Be Held in High School Building—Reception Held on Twenty-Fifth.

That the coming Linn and Benton county school teachers' institute to be held at the local high school on November 24, 25 and 26, promises to be one of the biggest ever held and that it will prove of considerable value to the teachers, was the statement of W. L. Jackson, county school superintendent of Linn, when seen this morning. Four hundred teachers will be here during the convention. A splendid program is now being arranged by Mr. Jackson, including many speakers of note.

The convention will be divided into six departments, of three general assemblies a day, during which 15 departments will be taken up. The departments are designated as primary, intermediate, advanced, rural school and high school.

Speakers have been engaged for each department. Specialists on various subjects have also been engaged. Round table discussions will take place in which the teachers will have a chance to express their views.

Among the teachers that have thus far been engaged are: State School Superintendent, J. A. Churchill, and Assistant E. E. Carlstrom; M. S. Pittman, of the state normal school; Miss Shafter, of the U. of O.; Dr. Calvin S. White, secretary of the state board of health; L. P. Harrington, industrial field worker; Edwin T. Reed, of O. A. C.; H. M. Crooks, president of Albany College; Agnes Jones, of the Palmer writing system; Mrs. Mayme Fulkerson, R. W. Kirk, superintendent of Corvallis schools; A. C. Argo, of Corvallis; Bertha Davis, Corvallis; Vera Walker, Corvallis; M. S. Lovelace, Scio; L. L. Gooding, Harrisburg, and several of the Albany schools.

On November 25 a big reception to the teachers will be held. The people of Albany are invited and it is hoped that there will be a big attendance. The event will be held at the high school.

Still Continuing.—Evangelistic meetings at Grace Presbyterian church are still continuing. Interest is greater than ever. Theme tonight: "Excuses." Gospel in variety of song.

PERSONAL MENTION FROM PEORIA AND VICINITY

Peoria, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special to Democrat).—Mrs. John Goinley and Mrs. Berry Cummings of Halsey spent Thursday with Mrs. Lillie B. Nixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wiegant and Lucy, May Brattain of Corvallis motored out to the Clarence Brattain farm Wednesday.

C. W. Barcus and Cato Gibbs went to Corvallis Friday on business.

BANK FILED TWO SUITS FOR RECOVERY OF $1000 IN EACH

Worth Huston and Sarah Hulbert, Administratrix of Hulbert Estate Defendants.

Two suits were filed yesterday in the circuit court, naming the J. W. Cusick & Co. bank as plaintiff in both and Worth Huston and Sarah J. Hulbert, administratrix of the estate of Mark Hulbert, as defendants in the one case and the latter as the defendant in the other. The plaintiffs in each suit asks judgment in the sum of $1000 with interest, attorneys fees and costs and disbursements.

Both suits contain practically the same allegations, and differ only as to the defendants. According to one complaint Mark Hulbert, prior to his death, executed a promissory note for $1000 on October 12, last year payable after four months on any bank in the city of Albany. The plaintiff alleges that prior to the maturity of the note it was sold to them, that after its maturity, which occurred after the death of the said Mark Hulbert, they duly presented it to the said administratrix of the estate for settlement. It is alleged that the note was returned marked "disallowed."

The suits in which Worth Huston is named jointly with Mrs. Hulbert as defendants, it is alleged that Huston and Hulbert both executed a similar promissory note and identical allegations are made. Gale S. Hill represents the plaintiff bank.

CITY NEWS

Weather Fair.—The average temperature for 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock this morning was 54 to 45 degrees. The rainfall for the same period was .19 inches. The river is at 6.5 feet. The weather report says occasional rain tonight and Saturday.

St. Francis Bus Broke.—A wheel on the St. Francis auto bus came off this morning on First street opposite Hamilton's store while the conveyance was enroute from the depot. It attracted considerable attention but no damage was done. After some difficulty the wheel was replaced in good order.

Lebanon Plays Dallas.—This morning the Lebanon High School football team passed through the city enroute to Dallas where they will play the high school team of that city this afternoon.

Eugene to Play Albany.—The annual game between the Eugene and Albany high school football teams will be played on Kincaid field in Eugene this afternoon. These two teams have won from each other about an equal number of games in the past years. The game is looked upon by local high school students as the big event of the season in football circles.

Celebrated Birthday.—Last evening a party of ten men gathered in the banquet room of the Hotel Hammel, in honor of the birthday of E. D. Cusick.

Leave for Tour of East.—Leaving yesterday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gordon, who reside near Shedd, are on their way to the east, where they will spend two months. They left Portland last night for Denver and from there they will go to Illinois and Iowa to visit in various parts of those states. Before returning they may go to Pennsylvania. They will return by a southern route.

Issued Order for Summons.—County Judge McKnight yesterday issued an order of publication of summons in the case of Portland Lumber Co. against Matt Munson, to quiet title to timber lands located jointly in Linn and Lane counties. In the complaint the lumber company asserts that they are the legal owners of the lands and that previous owners, including Munson have claimed some interest in the tract. The summons applies to all of those who claim right or title thereto. The case is to come up in the regular session of the circuit court.

Go to Roseburg.—Leaving this noon Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fetterman are on their way to Roseburg to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fetterman's mother who died there the other day.

WOMAN NOMINATED FOR TREASURER OF LEBANON

Lebanon, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special to Democrat).—At the mass meeting held in the opera house last evening it was decided to support the following nominees for city officers: Mayor, A. E. Zeising; councilman, I. M. Crandall, J. M. Burtenshaw, W. G. Amos, E. E. Taylor, J. L. Loftin and E. E. Regester; recorder, Miss Helen Crawford; treasurer, R. W. Green, the present incumbent. Petitions will be circulated to place their names on the ballot.

FORTY FOUR WOMEN OF SHEDD CAST VOTE

Shedd, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special to Democrat).—Forty-four women voted in the special election here. The vote cast is as follows: University repair fund, yes 60, no 80; university building appropriation, yes 44, no 94; sterilization act, yes 89, no 53; county attorney act, yes 64, no 74; workmen's compensation act, no 91, yes 50.

ALL IN READINESS FOR BIG GAME

Stage Is All Set for Great Contest Between U. of O. and O. A. C.

GAME WILL BE CALLED AT 3 O'CLOCK--10,000 EXPECTED

Spectators Will Be Well Take Care of on Athletic Field Saturday.

Everything is complete for the Oregon-O. A. C. football game here tomorrow afternoon. Local dope artists say that when the referee's whistle blows at 3 o'clock tomorrow, the biggest game ever played between those two colleges will be on.

Fully 10,000 people are expected to attend the game. From a weather standpoint, the present outlook is favorable for clear weather, though the weather reports say occasional rain. Dean Walker, manager of the university aggregation, is of the opinion that at least 10,000 will be here in the event the weather is favorable.

William Eagles announced this afternoon that so far as the local end of it was concerned, all is in readiness. All that remains to be fully completed is the marking of the field. This work is being wound up this afternoon under the direction of Walker, who arrived this noon with a corps of workers. Walks and bleachers are all in readiness for the crowds. The walk leading from Lyon street to the park will be completed this afternoon. The field is in splendid shape and could not be better.

Two excursion trains will arrive in the city shortly after noon, bearing the teams of each institution and hordes of rooters. A little later two more trains, one each from Corvallis and Eugene will arrive, bearing the town folks. At 2:30 o'clock a mammoth excursion will arrive from Portland and way points. The early morning trains will bring special coach loads of rooters. At least two of the excursion trains will not leave the city until after 10 o'clock. The others will probably return within an hour after the game.

Local betting on the game is uncertain. However, the odds are somewhat inclined towards the university. Some even bets have been made.

Immense interest is prevailing everywhere in the game. Though it may seem strange, the defeat of the University of Oregon at Salem last Saturday by Willamette University, has stimulated considerable more interest in the coming game. It is believed that by this reason the attendance will be greatly increased. As a rule such an unexpected defeat would not obtain such a result. However, the intense interest rests in the fact that the people who thought that Oregon would run all over the "Aztec" after the latter were meted out the crushing defeat at the hands of the University of Washington, are now of the opinion that the university aggregation will have to go some to win from the Corvallis boys.

Nevertheless, it is realized that Oregon's defeat was due largely to over-confidence and the use of second ring men. It all serves to show that a great game will be in progress after the referee's whistle is blown Saturday at 3 o'clock.

Will Make Home in Alsea County.—Leaving this morning, B. E. Nix and family went to the Alsea country to make their home on a ranch. Mr. Nix has purchased a 288 acre farm 12 miles northeast of Alsea. He formerly conducted the Dreamland theater and is well known here.

Attractive Football Window.—One of the most clever window displays ever seen at the S. E. Young store is that on display representing a football game. The window is built out as a gridiron, with goal posts, etc. On the miniature field are a number of little Kewpie dolls, arranged to represent a scrimmage. The sidelines are full of spectators. U. of O.-O. A. C. pennants adorn the background.

Tried to Break Trust.—Charles Carter, who was sentenced to jail this morning in default of fine on a drunk charge, tried to skip this afternoon, after being put to work on the streets. However, Officer King was too sly for Carter. The result was that the prisoner was recaptured and placed in jail.

Corvallis High Plays Cottage Grove.—Spending the night here last night, seventeen members of the Corvallis High School football team left this morning for Cottage Grove where they will play the high school team of that city this afternoon. The football team stopped at the Vandran. They are Blain, Beck, Reardon, Hopkins, Doolittle, Beach, C. Beach, Wilson, Calvin, Miller, Fallatly, Whigham, Pinkerton, J. Wilson, Gogly, Argo and Tallman.

Street Car Being Replaced.—After undergoing repairs, the street car is being replaced on the run this afternoon. The car has not been painted or renovated as was specifically stipulated in the resolutions passed by the city council. The trucks have been worked over and the steps have been painted. Otherwise there is no difference in the appearance. The work was done in the C. & E. repair shops.
