

ALBANY K. P. TEMPLE BEST IN STATE

Grand Chancellor Grant and the Grand Vice-Chancellor Wrightman Here Yesterday.

LOCAL LODGE SPIRIT AND GROWTH WAS PRAISED

Handsome New Building to Be Dedicated Sometime in January.

That Albany will have one of the grandest Knights of Pythias temples in the Pacific Northwest, upon its completion, and that he would not miss the dedication exercises under any avoidable circumstances, was the statement of Frank S. Grant, grand chancellor of the K. P. lodge of Oregon yesterday afternoon, who in company with Dr. A. E. Wrightman, of Silverton, grand vice-chancellor of the lodge, stopped off in the city for a brief visit with L. M. Carl, supreme representative and W. L. Marks, grand tribune of the order, Mr. Grant resides in Portland, He and Dr. Wrightman left on the 5:30 Oregon Electric for Eugene, where they paid an official visit to the lodge of that city last night.

Dr. Wrightman and Mr. Grant were of the consensus of opinion that the local temple now under course of construction at Lyon and Third streets, was one of the most elaborate in the northwest and would be a creditable institution to the city.

"The construction of this magnificent building," said Mr. Grant, "means enterprise, growth and spirit among your local lodge members. It is not only of significance to the city but to the state at large, because it gives individuality to the city and to Laurel Lodge No. 7. It is significant in many other respects. It goes to show what a substantial lodge you have here, what a remarkable growth it has enjoyed and what spirit it is endowed with. It gives enterprise to the city as well as individuality. It is just as significant to the outside territory as to Albany."

"The main reason that we stopped off here," continued Mr. Grant, "was to consult Mr. Carl and Mr. Marks relative to the dedication of the building. I don't want to miss it and I wanted to ascertain when they contemplated the exercises, so I could lay my plans accordingly. I wouldn't be absent for almost anything and I will be proud to attend that event and see the Albany lodge assume that grand structure for a home, that is so justly hers, that the lodge so justly deserves."

According to the tentative plans, the dedication of the building will take place sometime in January. The plan is to have everything in readiness, the building to be fully completed and furnished before it is dedicated. The event will be an elaborate affair. It is probable that all of the grand lodge officers will be present and the full ritualistic service will be used. Officers of the local lodge will participate.

Mr. Grant, in connection with his office has elaborate plans for the future, some of which he outlined. He is an enthusiastic and faithful worker, aside from being a congenial and wholesome hearted man.

It was at the recent session of the grand lodge in Portland that he was advanced from the office of grand vice-chancellor to that of grand chancellor. During his tenure of former office, which was during the past year, he travelled in official capacity throughout the state of Oregon, 33,000 miles, visiting the various lodges. During the past three weeks he has visited the new office. Mr. Grant has visited six lodges and plans to visit 25 before the first of the year. The trip to Eugene was Dr. Wrightman's first visit to the lodge in an official capacity. He is a practicing physician at Silverton. Last year Mr. Grant visited 28 lodges and this year will visit 50. Dr. Wrightman is an energetic and enthusiastic worker and is thoroughly interested in the work.

Next summer Dr. Wrightman and Mr. Grant, in company with other grand lodge officers, will journey in the doctor's automobile through Central and various other sections of Oregon, to visit lodges in those localities. Mr. Grant will go to Tacoma on November 24, by special request of Pythians of that city to deliver his lecture on the "History of the Order."

Among the many plans that Mr. Grant has decided to carry out, in the event it is approved, is a novel way in which all of the Oregon lodges will participate in the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the order, which will be celebrated at the "Golden Jubilee," to be held at Washington, D. C., February 19, 1914. L. R. Stinson, grand keeper of records and seals, will attend the event in Washington as the representative of the Oregon lodges. On that date Mr. Grant will be in Baker City. His plan is to have all of the Oregon lodges in session in the evening of that day. At the stipulated time, each lodge is to wire to him, that they are in session and in turn he will wire to Mr. Stinson at Washington, who will report it to the "Golden Jubilee" convention. It is pointed out that this will be an impressive ceremony, when it is an-

COUNTY OFFICERS MAKE MAKE OFFICIAL CANVASS

Justice Shedd Has Presided on Board Continuously for 15 Years.

Continuously for the past 15 years, C. J. Shedd, justice of the peace of district No. 4 of Linn county, who resides at Shedd, has been one of the three members of the county election canvassing board. Justice of the Peace Swan of this city, who is an older member of the board, has served as a member continuously for the past seven years. County Clerk Marks is the other member of the board.

Justice Shedd has served since 1898 at all of the elections, including presidential and special elections. Last night these three officials met and made the official canvass for Tuesday's special election for Linn county. The official vote is given as follows:

University repair fund, yes 1542, no 2673; university building appropriation, yes 1387, no 2794; sterilization, yes 1725, no 2391; county attorney, yes 1909, no 2156; workmen's compensation, yes 2518, no 1601. Harrisburg for prohibition 176, against 135; majority, 41. Sweet Home for prohibition 60, against 67; majority 7.

HARRISBURG PEOPLE MAY YET GET WAGON BRIDGE

Linn County Court Agrees to Go to That City and View Proposed Site.

That the people of Harrisburg are determined to have a bridge across the river at that place, was indicated this morning, when another delegation of Potato City residents waited upon the Linn county court and secured the promise of that body to go to Harrisburg and look over the proposed site.

Tuesday when the large delegation of Harrisburg people secured the promise of the Linn county court, that this county would go half way with Lane county for the construction of a bridge, a delegation from that city went before the Lane county court yesterday with the proposition and were turned down. Today a delegation of forty Harrisburg people returned to prevail upon the local court for the construction of the bridge. The court decided to go to Harrisburg and view the proposed site, with this view in mind.

NEW FEATURE FOR LINN COUNTY FAIR NEXT YEAR

Better Babies Contest Will Be Organized for the 1914 Season.

Do you want to know what your baby is worth, in inches, pounds and power?

Then enter in the Better Babies Contest, which the Linn County Fair will hold Sep. 23, 24 and 25, 1914.

It will be conducted with the cooperation of the ablest physicians. Prizes will be awarded to babies scoring highest in the following classes, there being 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th awards:

For Boys—6 months and under 12 months; 12 months and under 24 months; 24 months and under 36 months.

For Girls—6 months and under 12 months; 12 months and under 24 months; 24 months and under 36 months.

Grand Champion Boy and Grand Champion Girl.

For further particulars apply to the superintendents, Mrs. Wm. Abbott and Mrs. R. Shelton.

SHE ASKS DIVORCE ON GROUNDS OF DESERTION

Charging plain and straight desertion, Sossie Brown has filed suit in the circuit court against J. F. Brown for divorce.

The couple were married in Portland, March 14, 1907. There are no children. The plaintiff claims that the defendant deserted her on June 30, of the year they were married, and that he has lived separate and apart from her since. Attorney C. C. Bryant represents the plaintiff.

It was announced that 77 Oregon orders are in session, Mr. Grant said that a plan is on foot to have all of the lodges in the United States carry out this feature. Over the doors of each lodge will be displayed blue, yellow and red lights, apropos of the occasion.

CARTER DIDN'T KNOW HE WAS IN ALBANY

Prisoner However, Slipped One Over on the Police Yesterday.

That he was so drunk that he did not know whether he was in Salem or Albany, is the belief, relative to the case of James Carter, who was hauled in the police court yesterday morning. Carter slipped one over on the officer however.

The belief that the man was tagged as to where he was, when arrested is based on statements he made in the police court. He said he got the booze on Commercial street and that he was going to get on the train when he was arrested. The truth of the matter is, he was arrested after landing in Albany and it was some time before Carter was convinced that he was in this city.

When he was confined in jail, in default of a fine, as usual the officers searched him. When Chief Austin went to the jail yesterday afternoon to put the prisoner to work on the streets, the chief noticed that Carter was more intoxicated than when confined. Investigation developed that he had been imbibing freely from a bottle of whiskey in the pack.

SOCIETY NOTES

The University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College football game, coming off this afternoon, brings a great many out-of-town people to our city, hence week-end parties are in evidence. The young ladies of the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority of the university of Oregon are being entertained by the following Theta sisters here: Miss Frances Nelson has Miss Helen Driver and Miss Charlie Fenton; Miss Willetta Wright has Misses Hazel Rader, Hazel Clarke, Bernice, Lucas and Irene Sullivan, as her guests. At the Taylor home on Fourth street are the Misses Palm Cowden, Helen Jane Hamilton, Mervie Smith and Isabelle Garland. Miss Elsie Bain has as her guests the Misses Eleanor McClain, Edith King, Lila Sangarake and Margery McGuire. Misses Maud Mastick and Margaret Hawkins are guests of Mrs. Crooks. Mrs. W. A. Barrett has as her guests, Misses Katherine Watson, Mary Chambers and Mabel Smith. At the home of Mrs. Winn are Misses Ruth McClaren and Genevieve Shaver. Miss Laura Anderson has Misses Frances Heath and Jane Knox as her guests. The Thetas took their guests to the Hotel Hammel for luncheon today and tonight they will attend the E. D. C. dance to be given in the armory. The E. D. C. dancing class usually give their dances in Bussard's Hall but on account of so many out-of-town people being here over night, Mrs. Page has secured the armory. There will be special music for this occasion.

Everybody boost the "Baby contest" Wednesday p. m. at the armory. Bring all the babies and let them have a good time. Then in the evening hear the songs and see the funny "make ups" of the public school children as they so cleverly do their stunts in Dutch, Irish and American. Admission ten cents, everybody.

Misses Laura and Hazel Bain entertained a jolly crowd of young folks at a Halloween party last Saturday at their home, east of town. Games and stunts was the diversion of the evening, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Reade Dowlin left Thursday for Fayette, Idaho for a week's visit with Mrs. Nelson Wilber, nee Miss Eulah Wright of this city.

The Knights of Columbus entertained the ladies of St. Mary's Catholic church at a social in the parish hall, on Monday. Cards and dancing was the diversion of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Miss Margaret Shea and Mr. Lindren.

The H. D. W. club met with Mrs. W. S. Weaver on Thursday at her home, 824 Washington street. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in sewing, after which choice refreshments were served. The hostess complimented on this occasion Mrs. Drake, Miss Drake of Aberdeen, Washington and Mrs. Evans of Roseoe, Illinois.

A pretty little party was given yesterday by Mrs. L. J. Dowlin at 522 Calapooia street, in honor of the fourth birthday of her daughter Julia Lucile Dowling. Ice cream, candy, fruit and cake was served to the little guests. Many dainty presents were given to the hostess. Those who attended were: Mary Paulus, Mildred Hope Stickle, Charlotte Keith, Lal Keith, Ruth Pratt, Barbara Morgan, Ruella Morgan and Carrie Rex.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Hans Flo entertained the young ladies of the dormitory and college conservatory of music, who attended the Schumann-Heink concert in Salem at a "beef" supper. Privileged guests were Misses Ina Hanson, Bernice Hackleman, Mary Eldred, Ruth Allen (Marshfield), Anna Shell, Eva Wallace and Laura Warrington.

At the Nelson home on Ferry street is a jolly crowd of out-of-town guests who are here for the week end and to attend an University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College football game. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Nelson (Vader, Washington), Misses Charlie Fenton (Portland), Helen Driver (Portland), Messrs. Philip

BANKERS DISCUSS CURRENCY BILL

Over 50 Comprising Groups No. 2 and Wives Met Here This Morning.

WERE GUESTS OF LOCAL CLEARING HOUSE ASSN.

Attended Football Game in a Body; Albany Ladies Entertained Visiting Women.

Meeting here this morning in regular business session, over 50 bankers composing group No. 2 of the state Bankers' Association, thoroughly discussed the proposed currency bill, discussed the proposed currency bill.

The meeting was opened with an invocation by Rev. F. H. Geselbraecht, followed by an address of welcome by Alfred C. Schmitt, president of the Albany Clearing House.

C. E. Hawkins, president of the Lincoln County Bank of Toledo, responded, then followed the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, and reports of officers. Then the business as planned for the convention was taken up.

Speaking on the subject, "An Economic Menace and the Way Out," Orton E. Goodwin, of the Oregon Equal Taxation League, of Portland, addressed the assembly pointedly and interestingly. He outlined the currency bill and his address pertained directly to the meaning of its measure and its significance. At the conclusion of the address, a general discussion upon this measure ensued, with nearly all of the bankers participating. At the conclusion of this discussion, the meeting adjourned the business session and went to the Hotel Hammel for luncheon.

The visitors were the guests of the Albany Clearing House on this occasion and later they are to be taken to the football game also as the guests of the local bankers.

This morning at 11:30 o'clock, the visiting ladies, wives of the visiting bankers, were guests at the Hotel Hammel at an informal reception. A committee of Albany ladies acted as hostesses.

Carrol (Hood River), Jack Latourrette, Max Snow and Dudley Clark, of Portland.

Mrs. A. D. Beckley was hostess to the ladies of the Thursday Book Club at her home on Fifth street. Roll call was responded to with current events. Two interesting papers were read which were as follows: "The Lyric Poetry of Keats—Characterizing his Life; Studying his Poetry as an Exponent of Beauty; His Ode to a Nightingale," by Mrs. C. C. Bryant, and "The Work of Thackeray and Dickens in Fiction; Comparison and Contrast," by Mrs. G. T. Hocken-smith. After a short discussion choice refreshments were served. Mrs. S. N. Braiden was an honored guest.

The teachers' training class of the First Baptist church entertained the members of the Baraca and Philatias classes at a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. W. L. Burkhardt last week. The guests were met at the door by Miss Margaret Miller, a niece of Mrs. Burkhardt, who directed them to the basement where they were met by some ghosts and finally were led into the house. The rooms were decorated with Jack-o'-lanterns and Autumn leaves. Games were played and many spooky stories told. In one of the games Mrs. Dora Flood found the ring, Mrs. Roland Hackleman the thimble and Mr. Edmond King the penny. Delightful refreshments, appropriate of the season were served.

The Shakespeare club met in its regular session on Thursday with Mrs. F. G. Franklin on Fourth street with Mrs. C. W. Tebant in the chair. It was voted by the club that the ladies of the Shakespeare club should

MIGHT HAVE REPLACED CIGAR WITH THE PIPE

My Lady Nicotine Received Few Favors from New Tariff Law.

By Bond P. Geddes. (Staff Correspondent United Press) Throw out the old cigar box, Give me my pipe of clay; For the tariff has raised the price of cigars And these prices I cannot pay.—Apologies to Mr. Kipling. Washington, Nov. 8.—If Kipling had waited until today to write that poem in which he made a lot of women dislike him when he declared, "For a woman is only a woman." "But a good cigar is a smoke." it would have been necessary for him to replace the cigar with the pipe, to make it appeal to the average man; for the Democrats treated the cigar and cigarette as luxuries, which means that instead of reducing import duties on them, they either remained the same or were increased. My Lady Nicotine received few favors from the new tariff law. Devotees of the weed do not stand much chance of saving any money under the new law, unless they smoke it in pipe form. If he smokes a clay pipe, he'll be able to save more.

The same old import tax of $1.85 per pound on filler tobacco is in effect today. American smokers paid $6,120,000 last year on this grade of tobacco. Likewise the old duty of 35 cents a pound on unstemmed filler tobacco prevails, $17,700,000 "went up in smoke," literally last year, as the "indirect tax" on that article, and $2,985,000 more in taxes on stemmed filler.

The Democrats even refused to reduce the tariff on snuff. They did, however, slightly lower the import taxes on cigar bands, especially the fancy varieties—which may interest the label collectors who paste up vases, jars and ash trays in a riot of labels.

While the new law imposes a tax lower by one half, on cheap clay pipes, the regular penny clay pipes will sell for the same amount. "T. D." however, and other more expensive clay pipes, will sell cheaper. For men who use "makins" no tariff saving can be seen, unless it will be that he can get a far better grade of paper for the same or slightly lower price. The import tariff on "papers" is reduced 16 per cent. Republicans, however, declare the importers will get the difference.

The "pipe fiend" who burns tobacco incense at the shrine of "My Lady" with costly imported briar-root or meerschaums, may be able to save a quarter or a half dollar when he finally discards his old, time-stained favorite and buys a new pipe imported since October 3. The 16 per cent tariff reduction on the fancy imported pipes will, it is believed, cause some slight reduction at the tobacco stores.

Albany people will be very much interested in the following item. Mr. Judd made many friends in this city when he was connected with the Linnhaven Orchard company.

The marriage of Miss Vera Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Whitehead of La Grande, to Frank Howard Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Judd of Batavia, N. Y., was celebrated at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning at the family residence, the Rev. Manley F. Albright officiating. There were no attendants save Otto J. Whitehead, brother of the bride, who was best man. The bride wore a going away suit of blue velvet, with a black velvet hat trimmed in fitch. Her corsage bouquet was Rhies of the valley and orchids. Phelps Cowan played the wedding music, Mr. and Mrs. Judd are to live in Batavia.—Chicago Tribune.

The first meeting of the Tri Sigma was held at the home of the President, Miss Nellie Snyder.

There were fifty-two in attendance and all reported having had a perfectly grand time.

Mrs. George Taylor of West Fourth street was hostess to the ladies of the Tuesday club on Monday. The rooms were artistically decorated with roses and cosmos. The afternoon was passed in sewing and a social hour. Mrs. Taylor complimented on this occasion Mesdames J. L. Irvine, Shinn, A. Austin, J. K. Haight, J. J. Collins and W. H. Hornbrook.

Complimenting her sister, Mrs. Wolfe (Portland), Mrs. W. H. Davis entertained informally on Monday evening. Cards were played at three tables, after which a dainty collation was served. Privileged guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barrett, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornbrook, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, Mrs. Wolfe and Dr. Davis.
