

THOUSANDS TO SEE COLLEGES GRAPPLE

Game Started at 3 o'clock on Neutral Ground and Will Be Biggest of Year.

TEAMS ARE EVENLY MATCHED IN WEIGHT

Conditions Are Ideal for Great Battle—Grounds Are In Splendid Shape.

With every train hundreds of people have arrived in the city today from all sections of the state to attend the annual conflict between the Oregon University and the Oregon Agricultural College. It is expected that at least 8,000 will attend and the attendance will probably reach 10,000. The day is ideal for the game and the field is in splendid shape. The game was called promptly at 3 o'clock.

Six years ago the Oregon Aggies vanquished the University of Oregon. Six years ago Carl Wolff booted a placement between the goal posts and won the first victory for the orange and black in 10 long years. The score was 4-0.

Six seasons have flashed by since then, five of them disastrous to Corvallis, and today these two bitter enemies clash again on a neutral battle ground at Albany, midway between the two campuses.

Considered in broad sense today's battle will be the most pretentious of the year in this state. True, Oregon meets Washington in Portland one week from today, but the national rivalry which exists between the two big Oregon colleges, the added spice of surprise and upset, conspire to make this game today the classic of the fall.

In strength and weight the two eleven are evenly matched. Oregon's team will average around 175 pounds, the Aggies 173 to 174 pounds. Not only will the weather materially affect the game, although it is believed the fast, but the field the heavier the light shiny variety looks will also be.

Everything is in readiness for the game. The bleachers were completed days ago and the reserved seats have been arranged. All ready to go, the work and inside the grounds have been placed. Yesterday a crowd of students under the direction of Graham, Murray Walker, of Oregon, completed the work of fixing up the field and everything is now ready for the game.

SAYS CRABTREE IS IGNORANT AND BACKWOODS PRECINCT

Crabtree, Oct. 8.—(Special to Democrat).—"Oh all the ignorant, back woods precincts, Crabtree sure takes the prize," muttered a loyal university supporter as he turned in disgust from reading the election returns Wednesday. "Put Crabtree in here," Crabtree voted 82 against and 25 for the university inauguration. "There are just 25 people here who have brains and intellect worthy mentioning," he continued, "and 82 who haven't." The city of it is that just such people have a voice in public affairs, have a right to say "yes or no" on questions beyond their comprehension. No wonder Oregon is one of the most backward states in the Union, educationally. No wonder intelligent, progressive people get discouraged and want to get out. No wonder Crabtree doesn't grow. Eighty-two against 25 progressives is big odds and hard to overcome. Here's hoping and praying that there are few communities like Crabtree in Oregon.

ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS EUGENE HIGH

Played at Eugene Yesterday Afternoon; Score Was Six to Nothing.

In a game resembling water polo more than football, Albany high school defeated Eugene high school yesterday afternoon on Kincaid field, by a six to nothing score.

Poor generalship on the part of Eugene lost the game. With the field in the condition that it was in for them to hope to gain consistently by straight football, was impossible. But Quarterback West failed to realize this, and time after time he would put his men through the same kind of plays. Had he resorted to a punting game instead of line bucking, the score might have been different. In the last quarter of the game the Eugene team, with four downs to make their yardage, and only eight yards from Albany's goal line, tried a forward pass and lost the ball.

Albany's team was blessed, however, with all the proverbial luck of the game. There was never a time when luck figured in the game that all of it didn't break with Albany, but despite this luck, Albany outplayed Eugene in generalship and team work. Eugene had good interference, but little or none of it was used. All the plays were by individuals trying to star with utter disregard for team work.

The line up was as follows:
Eugene Position Albany
Wattmore L.E. Rexrod
Schultz Schmitz
Froy
Callison L.T. Thacker
Club J.G. Sinton
Tims C. Davis
Hoffer R.G. Williamson
Haldwin J.T. Hart
Emney R.E. McKee
West O.B. Montroth
Gery F.R. Archibald
Terrell R.H. Briggs
Klitzing Moses L.H. C. Archibald

Miss Florence Smith, of Portland, arrived in the city this morning for an over Sunday visit with her friend, Mrs. Eva Ingens, and incidentally will take in the big football game this afternoon.

WEEKLY REPORT FROM UNION STOCK YARDS

Portland, Oct. 8.—Resorts for the week at the Union Stock Yards have been: Cattle, 1143; calves, 25; hogs, 2001; sheep, 4871.

Albany cattle population has been a third less than total for every period last week, but sales have and have increased appreciably. No doubt that the condition of the market is very good. However, the decrease in sales was not very large. The market is very good and the price of cattle is very high. The price of calves is very high and the price of hogs is very high. The price of sheep is very high.

POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD IN JANUARY

Oregon Branch of American Association to Hold Meeting Here at Same Time.

CHAMPION OREGON HEN WILL BE ON DISPLAY

Splendid Array of Exhibits From O. A. C. Will Be on Exhibition Also.

The Albany Poultry show will be held the second week in January at the armory. Besides the regular poultry show, there will be no exhibition of the year and display from the O. A. C. Also the greatest lay but hen in the world from that institution.

The Oregon branch of the American Poultry Association will also hold its meeting at this show. The American Poultry Association is to the poultrymen what the stock association is to the stockmen. It works for the interest of the poultrymen in the way of having freight and express rates reduced, try to induce people to raise better poultry, ship better and cleaner eggs, lay down the rules for running poultry shows and makes the rules for judges to judge by.

The American Poultry Association has over 3000 members in the U. S. It has branches in every state. Once each year each branch gives a dollar. This branch show is held in a city getting the largest number of votes from its members. This year Albany received over one-half of the votes. The show and the meeting will be held here in connection with the Albany show. Portland, Eugene, McMinnville and Albany were on the program. At these shows the American Poultry Association offers one gold medal (worth $25) twelve silver medals and twelve diplomas. Those are awarded for members only. These medals and diplomas will be given this year at the Albany poultry show.

The officers of the Oregon branch are: F. J. McClain, Eugene, president; J. R. Rindhouse, Clatskanie, vice-president; F. J. Steiner, Estacada, secretary; Lee J. Porter, Portland, treasurer; Vernon Parsons, Eugene, executive committee; Executive board: F. J. Miller, Roseburg; C. D. Minton, Portland; H. S. Hanson, La Grange; J. B. Griffin, Eugene; F. P. Seavers, Albany.

EXTRADITION PAPERS FOR THAW SIGNED

Governor Felker Signs them at Concord by Request of Governor Glynn.

WAS THE RESULT OF CONSPIRACY CHARGE

Case Now May Last for Years; Thaw Not To Be Returned Immediately.

(By United Press Association) Concord, N. H., Nov. 8.—Governor Felker today signed extradition papers returning Harry Thaw to New York at the request of Governor Glynn.

The extradition resulted in a charge of conspiracy in connection with the escape from Mattewan on which Thaw was indicted by the New York county grand jury. The decision, it is said, doesn't mean that Thaw will be returned immediately to Mattewan. It is stated the Thaw's fight against conspiracy charge may last for years.

It is a foregone conclusion that Thaw could not be taken to New York on account of the writ of habeas corpus, which is pending before Judge Ablich, of the United States circuit court. It may be several years, it is said, before the decision is reached as both sides are determined to carry the case to the supreme court if necessary.

Linn County Court to Confer Here.—The members of the Linn county court will confer with the Lane county court in Eugene this afternoon, presumably on the matter of a bridge across the Willamette. Word of their coming was sent ahead yesterday.

Weather Fair.—The range of temperature for 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock this a. m. was 37 to 60 degrees. The river is at 62 feet and is falling. The weather report says rain tonight and Sunday.

On Way Home.—A card received from Frank Arthur Lane, reports home from the East says: "I will be going to be home again. I have seen some interesting things on my trip employed particularly the historic sights in Boston and surrounding places. I made a short visit in New York, Montreal and Ottawa. I visited the parliament building of the Dominion at the latter place. We ran into very cold weather in St. Paul and quite a bit of snow in the Rockies. I haven't seen anything that could equal our Oregon woods, either in the way of flowers or of birds. There is a pleasant sensation in hearing home and I hope to be there within a few days."

Files Annual Report.—The Wells-Fargo Express company has filed its annual statement with the railroad commission. The report states that earnings from transportation in Oregon for the year ending June 30, last, was $41,274.01 and from other sources $245,036.50 was received. A Portland building valued at $75,921 returns an annual income of $42,185.34.

BETTER BABIES WILL BE SPLENDID FEATURE

A New Department Has Been Organized for Linn County Fair in 1914.

Do you love your baby? Of course you do and so does your neighbor who has none, and the crusty old bachelor who pretends he thinks babies are a nuisance.

Everybody loves a baby and that is why the better babies movement is the sensation of the present day. It is a real fine plan for making sick babies well, delicate babies strong, and well babies perfect. It is founded on sane hygienic living for the baby. The Linn county fair will hold its first contest Sept. 23, 24 and 25, 1914.

Enter your baby. The information you will receive will be worth many dollars to you in the future. This great event will be conducted by physicians of this and other counties.

In this contest babies will be examined by physicians under the better babies standard score card, compiled by prominent specialists in children's diseases.

Prizes are awarded according to physical and mental development. Physicians cooperating in this splendid movement are, Doctors Davis, Robnett, Kavanaugh, Stark, B. R. and J. P. Wallace of Albany; Drs. Dele and Adams of Harrisburg; Dr. Brewer and Beachamp of Stayton; Drs. A. B. Ross, Root and C. W. Ross, Ecbanin; Dr. Allen of Jefferson; T. H. Thompson of Salem and G. H. Hubbard of Scio. Information, information is free and no entry fees are charged.

Granma Bray Passes to Her Last Reward

Mrs. Mary B. Bray died at the home of her son, J. R. Bray, 822 Walnut street, after an illness of five weeks.

She was born in Pennsylvania Oct. 23, 1824 and died Nov. 7, 1913. She went with her parents to Indiana in 1835. She was married to Charles Grace Bray Dec. 19, 1844; to them six children—three daughters and three sons. Her husband died Nov. 6, 1852. In 1857 she moved with her children to Illinois where she lived until 1888 when she came to Albany, Oregon, where she resided until her death.

She leaves one son, J. R. Bray, of Albany, and one daughter, Mrs. H. C. Dennis, of Red Oak, South Dakota. She leaves six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. at the residence, 822 Walnut street Sunday afternoon, and will be conducted by Rev. Leach.

An Old Subscriber.—Worth Hutton called in the Democrat office yesterday and renewed his subscription. He is one of the oldest subscribers on the list, having taken the paper since the same was established in the year 1853.
