LA FOLLETTE COMPLIMENTS DAVIES.

That one of the most important pieces of work ever undertaken by any branch of the government is contemplated by Joseph E. Davies, federal commissioner of corporations, is given as the belief of Senator La Follette, contained in a signed editorial in La Follette's Weekly. Senator La Follette declares that an investigation, conducted by Mr. Davies will result in relieving the people from any "further tribute on fictitious wealth and inflated values."

"If Commissioner Davies is empowered to carry out the plan outlined in his speech at Atlantic City a few days ago, the bureau of corporations will enter upon one of the most important features of work ever undertaken by any branch of our government," says the senator. "Mr. Davies contemplates an investigation of trusts and combinations which shall determine first, whether the concentration of industry in the hands of a few corporations has had economical results, and second, whether the public has been benefited by the results."

"Since its creation eleven years ago, this branch of the department of commerce has made separate investigations of great value, including the beef, tobacco, lumber, steel, Standard Oil, water power, harvester and other trusts. These investigations have furnished the public authoritative facts regarding each specific industry, but up to this time the government has not attended to correlate the facts in relation to the whole big problem of industrial monopoly. This, Commissioner Davies proposes to do, and to extend the investigation to cover the whole field of industrial combination. If undertaken in a scientific spirit and carried forward with the assistance of the nation's ablest and best economists and investigators, this work will be of immense value to congress in dealing with a radical and effective way with the next big problem to be dealt with, before the country can become industrially free."

"Such an investigation should determine the value of these great properties. We should know the actual amounts that have been invested, and to what extent we suffer from extortionate prices because of overcapitalization. The people are willing to pay a fair return on legitimate values, but they should no longer be compelled to pay tribute on fictitious wealth and inflated values. In outlining this far-reaching work, Mr. Davies has shown a far-reaching breadth of view and a comprehension of the possibilities of his bureau that will receive general public commendation."

LOO FOO CHANGES PLEA AND PAYS FINE OF $52

Up This Morning in Municipal Court on Charge of Maintaining Nuisance.

Changing his plea this morning, Loo Foo, a Chinaman, was fined $52, which includes costs, by Municipal Judge Van Tassel on a charge of maintaining a nuisance. The fine was paid and Foo was released from $100 cash bail. Attorney Mark Weatherford represented the defendant.

Foo was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Austin. In the complaint, which was filed by the chief, the Chinaman was accused of violation of sections of ordinance 436, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in the city and regulating the operation of cigar stores, pool halls and restaurants.

Foo is the proprietor of a chop house at 121 and 125 East First street, known as the White House restaurant.

According to the complaint filed by Chief of Police Austin, Foo, was charged with allowing booze to be consumed in his place of business and of supplying the articles for such purposes. The offense was alleged to have been committed on November 9.

HERE IS A GOOD ONE ON CLEM IRVIN

When Clem Irvin of the First Savings Bank of this city accepted the secretaryship of the bankers convention he did not believe that with it he has accepted a job as mail carrier for Uncle Sam, but such appears to be the case.

Among other things the secretary was instructed to write to Senator Owen for detailed information concerning the provisions of the Owen-Glass currency bill. This he did and in today's mail he received a mail sack completely filled with literature on this subject. The local banker took up the white man's burden and carried it to his place of business and asserts that it is not part of the secretary's duty to read and digest all of the matter contained in the government mail bag.

TAX COLLECTIONS MADE TO DATE ARE GIVEN

REGISTRATION IS VERY SLOW NOW

Only 1128 Have Thus Far Registered for the Coming City Election.

7000 ARE MEN AND THE OTHER 428 ARE WOMEN

Fairer Sex Are Fewer Than at First; Only 10 More Days Left to Qualify.

Are you going to vote in the coming city election?

If you are, then why don't you register. It is estimated that nearly 1900 more eligible voters of the city of Albany have not thus far registered and there is only about 10 more days before the books close. The election is to be held on December 1 and the books will close at 6 o'clock on November 22.

That the women who have been rather scarce in the registration booth as compared to their activity when the books first opened was the statement this morning by Mrs. Harriet Van Tassel, one of the registration clerks in City Recorder Van Tassel's office.

"For awhile," said Mrs. Van Tassel, "the women gave the men a close race in number of registrations but now there are nearly twice as many men as women. If the women don't come in faster many of them will not have a chance to vote."

At present there is a total of 1128 registered. Of this number 700 are men and 428 are women.

City Recorder Van Tassel stated this morning that there should be at least 2000 registered voters by the time the books close but that from the present progress, the indications are for only about 1500.

"It will either be that number," said the recorder, "or there will be an awful rush toward the end."

During the past few days the registration clerks have hardly been busy all of the time, so slow has the registration progressed. The officials wish to urge those who contemplate registering to come as early as possible and avoid a probable rush towards the end. The books will close at 6 o'clock sharp on the twenty-second and if there happens to be a crowd waiting to be registered at the expiration of the time, they will not be sworn in.

Miss Mabel Riggs, of Portland, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young.

F. S. Crow, of Portland, is attending business matters here today.

CHARGED WITH NOT PROVIDING PROPER CARE FOR CHILD

On complaint of Mrs. Isabella Southworth, Ed Richards will be tried this afternoon before County Judge McKnight on a charge of not providing proper parental care for his thirteen year old daughter Pearl.

The case went to trial at 3 o'clock. It is understood that an effort will be made to have the child sent to some industrial institution for children. Her father is a laborer. Several witnesses are to be called in the case.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed his final account as administrator of the estate of W. Q.
