Monday, December 1, from 8 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m. a city election will be in progress in Albany for the purpose of electing officials of the city.

A mayor, recorder, marshal, treasurer, and a councilman from each of the three wards will be chosen.

Those Serving Now.
 The incumbents of the various offices are P. D. Gilbert, mayor; F. E. Van Tassel, recorder; H. B. Cusick, treasurer, and Anthony Austin, marshal. The latter was appointed some time ago to fill out the unexpired term of Ex-Chief Daugherty. Both Van Tassel and Cusick are up for reelection. The latter has served for several terms while this is the first term for the former. Gilbert will not run.

The councilmen are M. J. Cameron from the second ward and Henry Lyons from the third ward, each just completing their first term. They are up for re-election. J. R. Hulbert from the first ward declined to run.

The Candidates.
 The candidates from the various offices are: For mayor, L. M. Curl and W. S. Richards, the former on an independent ticket and the latter on the Socialist ticket; for recorder, F. E. Van Tassel, independent; B. M. Hays, Socialist; for marshal, Anthony Austin, independent, Fred Ries, independent, Tom Cummins, independent, and J. K. Davis, Socialist; for treasurer, H. B. Cusick, independent, and E. C. Krause, Socialist; for councilman first ward, F. H. Pfeiffer, independent and E. V. Smith, Socialist; for councilman second ward, M. J. Cameron, independent and J. Kramer, Socialist; for councilman third ward, Henry Lyons, independent, W. D. McCauley, independent and J. D. Brennan, Socialist.

 Third ward—Judges: H. W. McElmurry, N. D. Conn and J. J. Livingston; clerks, E. L. Umphrey and H. Babb. Polling place, Hammond Lumber company's office, corner First and Railroad streets.

How Wards are Divided.
 First ward: All territory west of the center line of Ferry and one-half of the court house square within the city limits. Second ward, all territory east of the center line of Ferry street and the east half of the court house block to the center line of Baker street. Third ward, all territory east of center line of Baker street to the city limits.

Mrs. H. A. Schroeder of Gates is visiting a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beeson.

W. B. Horner, of Gates, was a visitor in Albany yesterday afternoon. Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Reiley of Crabtree on November 26, a baby girl.

BREEZY NEWS NOTES OF ALSEA HAPPENINGS

Road Supervisor Elected; Band Organized; Grades Added to Schools.

Alsea, Nov. 28.—(Special to Democrat.)—Rev. W. W. Davies and family are moving into their pretty new home this week. Rev. Davis was recently called to the pastorate of this city, and has accepted.

Mrs. E. Bowen and daughter Amy were called to Corvallis Saturday on account of the severe illness of Mrs. Bowen's sister.

Arthur Rust and company are putting up a fine new roller skating rink on East Main street. It is to be a large building, and will have an excellent floor, so the people of Alsea valley, young and old, are looking forward to spending spare time there in refreshing exercise and amusement in the near future.

D. D. Longbottom, one of our leading merchants, is having a commodious warehouse built adjoining his store building.

The Cottage Hotel, which has until recently been under the management of Harold Davis, has changed hands, and is now being supervised by E. Bowen.

T. J. Carns, of Fall Creek, transacted business here on Monday and Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid Society are going to make this coming Thanksgiving day one long to be remembered by Alsea people, as they are preparing to serve a chicken dinner in the high school auditorium on Thursday. It is called a chicken dinner because chicken is one of the main items on the bill of fare, but there will be a great variety of other tempting dishes as the ladies said they would bring everything that is good to eat. The dinner will be followed by an auction sale of useful articles donated by the ladies, the proceeds of both dinner and sale to go to the improvement of the Alsea cemetery.

Thomas and Fred Slate of Albany have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Martha Slate, being registered as guests at the Alsea hotel.

Miss Agnes Fullerton, the central for the F. M. telephone company, made a short visit to Corvallis over Sunday.

W. H. Malone is a Portland visitor this week, being expected back here again on Friday.

Miss Mabel Tharp is confined to her home with sickness.

The Baptists of Alsea have organized a Sunday school to meet in Odd Fellows Hall, where the preaching services will also be held.

Dr. Spencer, of Tangent, who has several months, leaves this week for his home.

The relatives and friends of Miss Florence Rhodes have received the news of her marriage to Mr. Virgil Cook. They will reside in Olex, Oregon.

The teachers of the Alsea schools are this week in attendance at the teachers' institute held in Albany. There are six teachers employed in the schools of this city, but after the institute there will be seven, as the amount of work on hand necessitates more help, and there will be a chance made in the assignment of the work.

Mr. Houser, who has in the past had charge of the fifth and sixth grades, will in future assist with the high school work.

At the road meeting held last Saturday W. H. Malone was re-elected supervisor for Alsea district, and a four mill tax was levied. A large crowd turned out for the election, which was held at the high school auditorium.

Work is going on at the new high school building this week, and in the meantime the students are circulating a petition to raise funds with which to finish the work necessary to make the building complete. Towns many times larger than Alsea could well be proud of such a building as this one will be when finished.

The young men of Alsea are to hold a meeting this afternoon for the purpose of organizing a brass band. As there are many talented musicians in this valley, it is an assured success.

G. P. Hunter and family took Thanksgiving dinner with F. D. Carns and family on Fall Creek.

R. F. Nix and family of Albany have recently moved to Fall Creek and are gladly welcomed to the neighborhood.

ARMY LADS DEFEAT MIDDIES 22 TO 9 TODAY

(By United Press Association)
 New York, Nov. 29.—President Wilson and forty active and retired admirals and generals composed a part of an audience numbering forty thousand which witnessed the Army-Navy game today. The Middies outweighed the West Point men about six pounds per man. As a result the sailors are the favorites with the betters. A drizzling rain which promises to keep up all day makes it certain that the game will be played on a wet field. At 1 o'clock the weather was still threatening, but colder.

New York, Nov. 29.—The army lads won 22 to 9. The army kicked one field goal, made three touchdowns, missing the goal twice. The navy boys made three field goals.

Portland Is Getting Strict.
 Portland, Nov. 26.—The tango may be barred from hotels and dance-halls here according to Municipal Dance Inspector Flack, who is seeking information from dancing teachers as to whether the new steps violate the city ordinance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard of Salem spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Albany.

SOCIETY NOTES

Leading in the social events of the week, was the third annual ball given by the Knights of Columbus in the armory on Wednesday evening. It was a decided success and was participated in by many out-of-town people, as well as Albany folks. The hall was artistically and beautifully decorated for the occasion. Around the walls were pillars and lattice work intertwined with climbing roses; also electric lamps, bearing large brilliantly decorated shades. The lights, in the ceiling were hung with deep yellow shades, which cast a subdued light over the merry dancers. In the center of the hall was a huge boat, the Santa Marie, with the year 1492 on it, suggesting the names of boat and year that Columbus discovered America. The boat was decorated with the lodge emblems of K. C. on the masts and American flags. Henderson's orchestra (Eugene) were stationed in the boat. The grand march was led at nine-twenty by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mickel, who were followed by one hundred and fifty couples. A very pleasing feature of the evening was the special music, given during the intermission, by the orchestra and the beautiful selections rendered by Miss Bessie Henderson.

The patronesses sat on the south side of the hall and were Messdames J. K. Weatherford, S. S. Train, William Fortmiller, W. B. Stevens, C. Clinton Page and J. C. Hammel.

Mrs. C. V. Litter's Sunday school class, the D. M. P. girls, of the Methodist church, entertained the young men of M. Hammett's class last night in the church. Games and refreshments were the diversion of the evening, followed by refreshments.

The Intermediate League of the Methodist church gave a party Saturday in the Sunday school room. Games and music was the diversion of the evening, followed by dainty refreshments.

Misses Helen and Dorothy Pierce of Salem are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hopkins this week.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Leininger on Ferry street on Friday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Sharp in the chair. After a business meeting, David Leininger rendered several selections on the harp, which was followed by refreshments.

Mrs. John G. Bryant of East Fifth street entertained the young people of the Grace Presbyterian church on Friday. The evening was passed in games, contests and a social hour, after which choice refreshments were served.

The second dancing party, given by the Holiday dancing club, took place last night in Bassard's hall. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums. Wood's orchestra played and about twenty-five couples danced until after midnight.

In honor of the birthday of Miss Mabel Townes, a popular young lady of Mt. Pleasant, a surprise party, consisting of about fifty of her friends, made merry at her home Thanksgiving eve. Games were played until a late hour, when the baskets brought were opened and supplied a happy ending to the amusements of the evening.

Miss Willetta Wright entertained at a "Slumber party" at her home on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wright being away from home, the girls took full possession and made merry until the " wee wee" hours of the morning, when slumber overtook them. The lucky girls on this occasion were Misses Mae and Claire Tillman, Kate Stewart, Mabel Schultz, Vera Wilkins, Volena Smith, Christine Pipe, Ruth Bailey (Brownville), Willett, Carrie and Georgia Wright.

Complimenting her cousin Miss Ruth Bailey (Brownville), Miss Carrie Wright entertained a few of her friends Friday evening at her home on Walnut street. Games and music was the diversion of the evening, after which choice refreshments were served. The guests were: Misses Hazel Hockensmith, Beatrice Saunders, Lucile Snider, Ruth Pennebaker, Ruth Fisher, Inez Lemke, Lee Fortmiller, Harriet Van Tassel, Beryl Potter, Estelle Price, Emily Martin, Enlah Hand, Bessie Hoover, Olive Millwood, Ruth Bailey and Carrie Wright.

The Alpha Omega girls met with Mrs. Reade Dowlin yesterday for an all day meeting. The day was passed in making decorations for their annual dance to be given New Year's night in the armory. At noon a covered dish luncheon was served.

Many suppers were given after the Knights of Columbus dance Wednesday evening, among them being one by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barrett, at their home on West Fifth street. The guests sat down at three tables, prettily decorated with pink and white carnations where supper was served which was followed by a social time. Those who partook of their hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Beam, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mr. and Mrs. William Eagles, Mrs. F. C. Hunt, Mrs. C. Clinton Page, Mrs. W. B. Stevens, Mrs. S. Train, Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, Mrs. William Fortmiller, Mrs. J. C. Hammel, Mrs. J. J. Barrett, Misses Frances Nelson, Nan Stewart (Lebanon), Lora and Gertie Taylor, Stella Dorgan, Messrs. Edward Barrett, Hare (Corvallis), Gurlick (Lebanon), Kelly (Portland), Professors Vass and Seelye (Corvallis), and Mr. Frank Barrett.

Miss Volena Smith of West Fourth street was hostess to the girls of her sewing club on Friday. The evening was pleasantly passed in sewing and music, after which a dainty repast was served. Members present were Misses Willetta Wright, Mabel Schultz, Mae and Claire Tillman, Stella Dorgan, Kate Stewart, Vera Wilkins, Georgia Fortmiller, Juanita Hart, Christine Pipe and Mrs. Reade Dowlin.

Miss Inez Lemke of Main street entertained the members of her club last week. The evening was passed in playing games and music, after which a dainty collation was served, the tables being prettily decorated with red and white carnations and place cards, suggestive of Thanksgiving day. The members present were: Misses Carrie Wright, Ruth Pennebaker, Lucile Snider, Lee Fortmiller, Beatrice Saunders, Hazel Hockensmith, Inez Lemke, Messrs. Clarence Wiles, Clemens Lundy, Robert Boettcher, Francyl Howard, Merrill Oling, and Richard Diekover.

A jolly crowd of young folks surprised Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eyronds last Tuesday at their home on Walnut street. The evening was passed in music and a social hour, followed by refreshments. Those present were: Misses Dolly Bending, Pauline Birch, Grace Ebertin, Edna Laubner, Vera Archibald, Pauline and Margaret Pennebaker, Marion Stanford, Mrs. Eyronds, Mrs. Rollin Hackleman and Messrs. Hiram Toole, Fred Dolmery, Delos Foster, Joe Warner, Alvin Carnegie, Clarence Kitchen and Rollin Hackleman.

Miss Hazel Hockensmith was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon today at her home on South Ferry street. The table was artistically decorated with pink carnations, candles and place cards, and the pink color scheme was carried throughout the luncheon. Covers were laid for Misses Clarelle Seelye (Portland), Ruth Bailey (Brownville), Corintha Hart, Lucile Snider, Ruth Pennebaker, Beatrice Saunders, Carrie Wright, Enlah Hand, Ruth Fisher, Inez Lemke, Lee Fortmiller, Gertrude Swank, Harriet Van Tassel, W.
