

GRIDIRON GAMES FOR 1914 FIXED

Albany Loses Out As Football Arena for Coming Year—Schedule Given.

PORTLAND IS TO HAVE SEVEN BIG GAMES

Conference Divided for Preliminary Contests in Basketball and Baseball.

That Albany lost out entirely as a football arena for the 1914 season, was the word received here this afternoon from Portland. This became known following a 12 hours' meeting between the Northwest conference managers in that city yesterday afternoon.

Portland grabbed four of the 1914 conference games and Eugene one of the seven scheduled. Whitman and Willamette will play in Eugene. The Oregon-O. A. C. game will be played either in Corvallis or Portland. If the latter, and if Washington plays O. A. C., the Aggies will make four appearances in Portland.

Seattle gets three big games, and Spokane one. Idaho and Washington State finally scheduled their game, November 7, which is a month later than in the past.

In addition to the four football games in Portland in 1914 a wrestling tourney was scheduled for late in March at the Multnomah club. The 1914 track and field meet was awarded to Pullman and will be held on May 29.

According to John R. Bender the Northwest was divided into two sections, east and west divisions, for baseball and basketball. In baseball each of the three colleges west of the mountains play the other four teams while the same is true of the three on the other side of the hills. In basketball six games between each college were wished on the schools. In the finals in these sports, the eastern baseball champions come west, while in basketball the western champions cross the divide to battle against the eastern aspirants.

The 1914 schedule for the two big Oregon college teams is announced as follows:

- University of Oregon.
 - October 10—Whitman College, at Eugene.
 - October 17—Washington State College in Portland.
 - October 24—University of Idaho, at Moscow.
 - October 31—Probably Willamette at Eugene.
 - November 14—University of Washington at Seattle.
 - November 21—Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis or Portland.
 - November 26—Multnomah club in Portland.
- Oregon Agricultural College.
 - October 3—Probably Multnomah club in Portland.
 - October 10—Probably Multnomah club at Corvallis.
 - October 27—Washington State College at Pullman.
 - November 14—University of Idaho at Portland.
 - November 21—University of Oregon at Corvallis or Portland.
 - November 27—Probably Willamette University at Corvallis.

CURTIS SUTTON HAS BEEN PARDONED BY GOVERNOR

County Attorney Hill Recommended That the Youth Be Set Free.

Upon recommendation of County Attorney Gale S. Hill, Governor West yesterday pardoned Curtis Sutton, the 19-year-old lad, who was sentenced to 25 days in the county jail, on a charge of larceny.

Sheriff Budine received the pardon papers last evening. Sutton was released and given in care of his father, who came down from Salem to take the boy back with him. Young Sutton before coming to Albany resided in the Capital City with his parents. The charge upon which Sutton was convicted was that of appropriating $15 from the Hotel Hammel chef, Roy Hammel, age 20, a companion of Sutton's, was charged with connection in the same case. Hammel got 20 days and is serving his time. Both lads were employed at the hotel, Hammel as dishwasher and Sutton as the night bus driver.

WOODEN BUILDING IN FIRE LIMITS NETS CITY $20

T. I. Terrill Fined That Much but J. A. Jones Paid the Fine.

For the erection of a building within the fire limits, contrary to the new building ordinance, T. I. Terrill was this afternoon fined $20 and costs in the municipal court. However, Terrill did not pay the fine but it was paid by W. A. Jones, who claimed that Terrill was not responsible for the building being constructed. It appears that Terrill was furnishing the capital, while Jones did the work. The structure was to be built as living quarters for Jones.

In passing judgment, Judge Van Tassel called attention to the fact that on a previous occasion, Terrill had been in court for erecting a structure in violation of the ordinance but that the case was continued. Both Terrill and Jones were in court when the judge announced his decision. The elderly man immediately arose, declaring that Terrill was not responsible, as he dug up the necessary money out of his own pocket.

CITY NEWS

Farm Names Filed Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon County Clerk Marks issued certificates for two farm names, filed in his office. The name of "Green Roads Ranch," filed by E. M. Sherman, of near Lebanon, suggested by the fact that all kinds of garden truck is grown on the place, was one and the other was "Lahurnum Farm," the ranch of George Johnson, of near Lyons. Mr. Johnson named after some old trees that are growing thereon, which was sent to him many years ago from Ireland.

Like the Valley.—Arriving here yesterday afternoon after a 5 weeks tour of California, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Drexler are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Richards. They say they are very much impressed with the Willamette valley. In a few days they will leave for a tour of Northern Oregon and Washington, afterwards returning to their home at Laramie City, Wyo. Mr. Drexler is an engineer of the Union Pacific railroad.

Rehearsals Held Pleasant Session.—Meeting last night in regular session, the Rehearsals enjoyed a pleasant social, and initiated several into the order. The initial work was splendidly exemplified and the officers received many flattering comments. After the ceremonial session, refreshments were served.

Addresses Students.—Rev. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis this morning spoke to the students of Albany college at the chapel. He spoke of his travels in the Holy Land, and gave many interesting and instructive facts.

Served in Many County Offices.—Here (business) business today, Judge W. L. Wells, a well known farmer of Hubay, upon his condition in that section as looking fine. Judge Wells located in Linn county 30 years ago, coming from Polk county, where during his residence, he served as county assessor, sheriff and judge.

County Cold Last Night.—Probably the first time during the present winter, it was cold enough last night to freeze, and a thin coating of ice was melted on many portions of water this morning. A heavy fog lay on the ground and a heavy fog overtook during the morning, making a disagreeable atmosphere.

Part of Heating Plant Arrives.—The boiler and some of the steam heating plant for the new public library has arrived. The boiler has been unloaded at the building and will soon be installed.

Dance Well Attended.—The dance given last night at the armory by the Albany Military club was well attended and was an enjoyable occasion.

Admitted to U. S. District Court.—While in Portland yesterday Representative L. G. Lewelling was admitted to practice in the United States District Court. He returned home last night.

Motor Will Not Run on Sundays.—Commencing tomorrow the Mill City-Albany motor will be discontinued on Sundays. Heretofore the motor has been making regular trips on Sundays but the traffic will not warrant the run now. However it will continue on the regular week day run. No trip will be made tomorrow. This is according to an announcement made this morning by Agent Mickle.

FLOOD CLAIMS 75 VICTIMS

Every Fresh Report Swells List of Known Drownings in Flood.

MORE THAN HALF OF DEATH TOLL ARE NEGROES

Water 18 Feet Deep in Business Sections of Several Towns.

(By United Press Association) Bryan, Texas, Dec. 6.—Accounts pouring in of the fatalities of the Texas floods raise the death toll to seventy-five definitely. Every fresh report adds to the roll of the grim reaper, and reports have not yet been received from all districts affected. The latest addition to the list included ten Hearne, six Highbank, and eight Bryan residents. Of the dead half or more are negroes.

Anxiety is felt here and in Hearne for a number of residents who volunteered their services for rescue work and who have disappeared and have not been heard from. It is feared the boats used by them have capsized, drowning the occupants. Numbers of others cannot be accounted for, but the actual list of known deaths amounts to seventy-five.

The Brazos river is swelled to a raging sea ten miles wide for a distance of a hundred miles, upon the surface of which toss objects of every sort and description, pillared by the storm and flood from every town and hamlet and remote corner in the valley, borne along by the force of the rushing waters. Above the windows, pouring into the second floor of the business houses in several towns, the water records a height of 18 feet. From the far portions of the flood's reach the report comes that the waters are slowly receding but this has not been felt lower down as yet.

PIONEER OF 52 IS CALLED BY DEATH

After an illness of six weeks, R. M. Crawford, a pioneer of Linn county passed away at the home of Mrs. Marie Simpson at 718 Washington street late yesterday afternoon.

The deceased came to Oregon in the year 1832, having crossed the plains with an ox team and locating in the Willamette valley. Later he engaged in business in Albany but retired from active business life several years ago. He was 86 years of age at the time of his death.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

A. J. Bunley, of Nashville, transacted business in Albany yesterday afternoon, returning home this morning.

PRECINCTS OF COUNTY ARE TO BE CHANGED

County Court and Representatives of Districts Are to Confer Monday.

The precincts of the county are to be divided and rearranged. This is the result of the adoption of women suffrage, making the precincts too large as they are at present.

The county court, which is now in session will commence this work Monday. Today the members of the court have been working on the plans to be followed out. On Monday a representative from each of the present districts has been detailed to go before the court to confer relative to carrying out the plans.

It is not definitely known what will be the result of the conference but the changes will be announced as soon as the work is completed.

DISTRICT NO. 10 WILL ELECT ROAD SUPERVISOR

People Are Giving It As Much Attention As Presidential Election.

To choose a road supervisor of district No. 10, Tangent section, an election will be held Monday, in which the people of this district will select one of five candidates. Intense interest centers over the election and it is understood that the people are giving it as much attention as they would a presidential election.

Desiring to ascertain the popular will before appointing road supervisors, this is in keeping with the road policy plan announced sometime ago by the county court. The plan is that such elections be held and upon considering the candidates the people have voted for, the county court at its own discretion, will appoint the official accordingly.

W. C. Scott, the present road supervisor of the district is one of the candidates and the others are: E. L. candidates and the others are: M. L. Forster, Scott Churchill, Edward Mitchell and F. M. Sharp. According to reports there is keen rivalry between the candidates.

Flue Burns Out.—A flue burning out in the building at the corner of Lyon and Second streets occupied by the Moose lodge, caused an alarm of fire this morning but as no damage was threatened and as the fire house was diagonally across the street the department did not respond. The fire was allowed to burn until it went out.

Charles Cladek, of Lacombe, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

D. J. Crickelair, returned last evening from a commercial trip to points north.

C. O. Boom, of Salem, is in the city today on business. He will return home this evening.

R. R. COMMISSION DISMISSES CASES

Two Telephone Suits from Linn County Have Been Dropped at Salem.

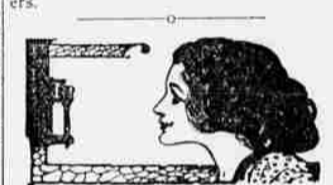

ONE CONCERN NATIONAL BANK AND BELL PHONE

Plainview Mutual Against the Pioneer Company Dismissed; Nothing but Name.

Yesterday the Oregon State Railroad Commission ruled in two telephone cases of Linn county, and dismissed both complaints. They were the First National Bank against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and the Plainview Mutual Telephone Association against the Pioneer Mutual company.

The complaint of the First National Bank of Albany against the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company was dismissed. The bank owns the telephone equipment in the building and asked the commission to compel the company to connect with it and furnish service. The commission declined on the ground that the bank is not a public utility, and the commission has no jurisdiction over it.

Holding that the Plainview Mutual Telephone Association, which asked for a connection with the Pioneer Mutual company, is not a public utility, the commission dismissed its complaint. The complainant, the commission says, is nothing but a name, consisting of lines owned by subscribers.

LOCAL ATTORNEY TO WRITE FOR PACIFIC REPORTER

Elmer Richardson Employed to Write Up Oregon Cases for Publication.

The West Publishing Co., of St. Paul, Minn., which publishes the Pacific Reporter containing the decisions of the supreme courts of Oregon and a large group of the western states, has employed Attorney Elmer Richardson of this city to prepare the Oregon cases for publication.

To do this requires a careful analysis of each case to determine the exact questions of law decided in each case, and the writer of headnotes embodying these points in the briefest possible form. At the same time digest paragraphs are written to correspond with each paragraph of the headnotes, and these paragraphs are used for the index to the volume—in which cases may be published and for the American Digest, Key Number Series, Pacific Reporter Digest, and any other digest prepared by the West Publishing Co. which covers Oregon cases.

MEN COOKED AND SERVED GREAT MEAL LAST NIGHT

Not a Single Miscue Happened As Far As Could Be Seen Either.

To prepare, cook and serve a meal may have been a hard task for some men, but it wasn't the least bit for the men of the First Presbyterian church, who served a supper last night to over 300 people.

The purpose of the supper was to raise money through the sale of tickets to pay off an assessment debt against the church on account of street paving. And the necessary sum was made with a little left over. It was a case of father serve mother, for the women were not allowed to work. Everything was done by the men, from cooking to washing dishes. Men waiters, men cooks, men dishwashers, men overseers and the men as far as the casual observer was concerned, did not make a single miscue. Many of the women looked as though they were on pins and needles, when one of the mere men, came around to pour coffee or pass the soup. It was a wonderful meal to say the least, and the men deserve great credit. Tipping the waiters became so frequent that it had to be announced that it was prohibited and a sign to that effect was posted.
