

JUDGE SADLER GIVES STRONG ADDRESS

Municipal Judge of Chicago Tells of Crime in Illinois Metropolis.

FRED EMERSON BROOKS WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

Excellent Program Arranged for Balance of Week--Cambridge Players Tomorrow.

"The Criminal in the Making" was the subject of a lecture delivered at the Chautauqua grounds last night by Judge Sadler of the municipal court of the city of Chicago.

Judge Sadler proved a forcible and an entertaining speaker and handled his subject in a manner which was pleasing to the vast majority of his audience.

Claiming that the public dance hall, the saloon, idleness and the sensation journalism of the Hearst character are the most potent factors in breeding crime, Judge Sadler pointed out the many imperfections in the system of handling crime in the great cities.

"A Christian home and home influence is the best police force in any city," said Judge Sadler, and the slum was characterized as the breeding ground for crime.

Judge Sadler also paid a tribute to the public-spirited citizens who are taking a keen interest in the nationwide play-ground movement. He claimed that the play-grounds in the cities are doing more to check the wave of crime among the younger generation than any other force and urged the co-operation of the smaller towns in the movement.

The big attraction tonight at Chautauqua will be Fred Emerson Brooks, poet and humorist. This is one of the best attractions which was booked for this year's assembly and the humorist will undoubtedly be greeted by the largest crowd since the Chautauqua opened last week. He will appear promptly at 8 o'clock and everybody who expects to secure a seat should be at the auditorium early. Following is the program to be rendered tonight by Mr. Brooks:

- 1. "Dot Good for Noddings Dog."
2. "Old Ace."
3. "Hush-a-by, Close Yo' Eye."
4. "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth."
5. "Pickett's Charge."
6. "Pat's Opinion of Flags."
7. "The Orphan-Ox Team."
8. "The Kindergarten Tot."
9. Foreigners' "Views of Liberty Statue."

Don't forget that Fred Emerson Brooks has the whole evening. He is an orator as well as a poet, and also a wit, and his delightful pantomime and mimicry keeps his audience in the best of humor. Here is what the great men of the nation think of him: Henry Watterston—"Brooks' 'Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg' is the greatest poem I ever heard."

William J. Bryan—"You can hear Brooks a mile. He's one of the big ones." William McKinley—"Fred Emerson Brooks is good--and so original." Theodore Roosevelt—"I've heard Brooks and he's bully--you don't need anyone else--he'll fill your auditorium."

Gen. Miles—"Brooks' 'Pickett's Charge' is the grandest heroic poem I ever heard." Cardinal Gibbons—"I enjoyed your poems and your recital--yours is a great art."

The Wit of Taluague--Our great Tabernacle never rang with such applause. Mr. Brooks had just finished "The Miracle of Cana" the audience demanded a repetition of the poem. All Grand Army men and Spanish War veterans should by all means make it a point to attend this evening to hear the famous poem, "Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg."

The great leaders on both the Union and Confederate sides join in saying that this is the greatest heroic poem ever written.

This morning there were over one hundred people in Miss Sutherland's class of Domestic Science. And the interest seems to be increasing every day. On Wednesday afternoon she will deliver a lecture that will be of very great interest to all of the ladies. It will be "Left-overs and how to use them."

On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 the famous Cambridge Players make their first appearance before an Albany audience. This company is made up as follows:

Miss Pauline Harrison, is a soprano of unusual gifts, she has been occupying some of the best church positions in the United States, and has appeared before the best musical clubs. She hails from Massillon, Ohio.

Miss Marjha Miller of Mount Vernon, Ill. is capable of giving a full evening as a reader, impersonator and actress. She has a lovely personality and will win her audience at once.

Miss Margaret Granger from Marion, Iowa, is of a type and style totally different from the other two ladies but fully their equal as an entertainer. In addition to her work in the sketches and vocal trios, she is the accompanist.

Mr. Jess Coffey comes all the way

MAN AT DEPOT THIS MORNING CURSES A PORTLAND PAPER

Gave Rambling Address on All Subjects From Anarchy to High Cost of Living.

A man at the depot this morning, evidently crazy, began cursing the "Oregonian" in a loud and angry voice, and the "beautiful" things he called it wouldn't sound well in print.

After talking in a rambling voice for several minutes during which he berated in scathing terms, Oregon's largest daily, he suddenly switched his subject to the "cost of high living" and then began to denounce the country as tyrannical.

He had a ticket for Mill City and the train pulled out just in time to save the man from being arrested by Chief of Police Daughtry who arrived at the depot in answer to a telephone call.

The man had previously insulted a man and his wife in a restaurant near the depot and escaped a beating at the hands of the man, by being forcibly ejected from the restaurant by an employee of the place.

Warranty Deeds.

Forest-Hill Investment Co. to W. R. Johnson and Grace Shea. June 5th, 1912. 125.18 acres in Sec. 7, Tp. 12, S. R. 1 W. $10.00.

O. E. Pomeroy and wife to J. L. Jilley and wife. Jan. --, 1912. 40 acres in Tp. 12, S. R. 1 West. $2,000. James R. Shaw and wife to R. Raynes. Jan. 15, 1911. Lot in block 13, Shaw's addition to Mill City. $10.

Quit-Claim Deed.

Annie A. Skipworth to Grant Nichols. Dec. 9th, 1908. Lands in block 9, in Southern addition to Albany, City cemetery. $15.00.

from Oklahoma City, and although young in years and lyceum work, will soon become known as one of the best characters on the platform.

This is the only organization that has been coached by Mr. Elias Day, and the only one that is allowed the use of his name as coach and director. It seems to be the unanimous verdict of the newspapers throughout the East that no organization appearing before the Chautauqua assemblies put up any better entertainment than the Cambridge Players. Here are some of the comments:

"The Cambridge Players proved to be one of the best entertainments ever witnessed in this town."

"They are a group of strictly high grade entertainers and each number was loudly applauded."

Seldom have we seen so much merit crowded into such a short space of time. There have been very few entertainments in this city that have given more general satisfaction. Their program for the afternoon will be as follows:

- Ladies' Trio--Misses Harrison, Miller and Granger.
Character Sketch--Mr. Coffey.
Dramatization of "Susan Clegg"--Miss Granger and Miller.
Song Cycle--Miss Harrison.
Original Imitations--"An Evening at the Sylvandale Church"--by Misses Miller, Granger, Harrison and Mr. Coffey.
Reading--Miss Miller and Miss Granger.
Soprano Solo--Miss Harrison.
Scenes from "The Rivals" in costume--Mrs. Malatrop, Miss Granger; Lydia Languish, Miss Miller; Captain Absolute, Mr. Coffey.

They will also appear in the evening at 8 o'clock and give the following program:
Duet--Misses Harrison and Granger.

- Reading--Miss Miller.
Costumed Songs--Misses Harrison, Granger and Miller.
Impersonations--Mr. Coffey.
Soprano Solo--Miss Harrison.
Scenes from Domestic Life--Miss Harrison, Miss Granger, Miss Miller and Mr. Coffey.
Reading--Miss Granger.
Group of English Ballads--Miss Harrison.

Scene from "Henry V."--King Henry V. Mr. Coffey; Katherine of France, Miss Miller; Alice, a lady attendant, Miss Granger.

The warm weather today induces a big crowd of visitors to the Chautauqua grounds this afternoon at 4 o'clock, John Burkhardt, the local birdman will give an exhibition flight in his aeroplane.

Burkhardt has made many successful flights here in the past month and was only prevented from flying on July 4th by a slightly damaged plane. This has, however, been repaired and Burkhardt stated today that the machine was in perfect condition for the flight at Chautauqua Park this afternoon.

Burkhardt caused a sensation here a few weeks ago, when he flew across the western section of the city over Bryant's Park and the Willamette river, alighting on the gravel bar near the steel bridge, on the north side of the river.

The athletic field just west of the auditorium at Chautauqua Park is an ideal aviation field, the portion that was cleared for a ball park being an excellent place from which to start and finish, and giving the spectators an excellent view of the machine during its flight.

Other athletic sports were held on the Chautauqua athletic field this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock which were greatly enjoyed by the Chautauqua visitors. The Albany band gave concerts on First street this morning and at the park this afternoon.

LOS MOLINOS LAD IS LEFT IN ALBANY

Otho Keefe, Age 7 Years, Steps Off Train Which Leaves the City Without Him.

HEARTBROKEN BOY LOOKED AFTER BY PASSENGERS

Frantic Mother Wires From the Capital City to Send Son to Union Depot, Portland.

When little Otho Keefe, aged 7 years, of Los Molinos, California, who was accompanying his mother to Portland for a visit with relatives during the Elks' reunion, stepped off the second section of train No. 16 when it pulled in to the union depot here this morning, he had no idea of getting left in the Hub City.

When the train came to a stop at the local depot, the little fellow who was clad in a suit of Khaki and wore a pair of sandals, slipped away from his mother and went out on the station platform to take a view of the city and it evidently impressed him so much that he forgot all about the train and it pulled out without him.

When he discovered that he was left, he was heart-broken and his tears streamed down his sun-burned face. His grief attracted the sympathy of a number of the many passengers on the station platform who were waiting for the trains and he was soon in the midst of friends, all of whom were anxious to help the lad.

One kind-hearted man, M. E. Garwood of Woodburn, took the youngster in tow and after washing the lad's tear-stained face, bought him an orange and thus got him in a good humor again.

The mother of the boy evidently didn't miss him until the train had nearly reached Salem, for some time later a telegram was received at the depot from Conductor Long of No. 16 instructing that the boy be placed aboard the Eugene flyer which arrived here at 8:25 o'clock and sent to the union depot at Portland where his mother would be waiting for him. He was a bright little fellow and will be looked after by the passengers enroute to Portland.

P. J. HEAD LEFT FOR SAN DIEGO YESTERDAY BY AUTOMOBILE

P. J. Head, who has been the Eilers Music House representative here for a number of years, left yesterday by automobile with his family for San Diego.

Mr. Head will remain with Eilers Music House and it is his intention to stop at all important points between here and San Diego and sell pianos.

He has been very successful while in Albany, and during the past week he was here sold 12 pianos, disposing of during the sale all but 14 of the 32 pianos in stock. Mr. J. C. Gallagher will remain here to dispose of this stock.

STEAMER POMONA MADE LAST TRIP DOWN RIVER YESTERDAY

Owing to the low stage of the river the steamer "Pomona" of the Oregon City Transportation Company, made its last trip this season down the Willamette river yesterday morning, after running several days longer than is usual at this time of the year.

E. E. Coleman, who has been local agent for the O. C. T. company for the past few seasons, is one of the most efficient river transportation men in Oregon and through his endeavors and by his courteous treatment of the public and especially the merchants, the Oregon City Transportation Company has enjoyed a liberal patronage during the past season.

Mr. Coleman was a passenger on the Oregon Electric to Portland this morning where he will still be in the employ of the company at that city and may go to California later in the summer. The residents of Albany hope "Cap" will come back next winter.

MISSSES RHODA STALNAKER AND LAURA ANDERSON LEAVE ON EASTERN TRIP

Miss Rhoda Stalnakar of this city left last night for a visit of several months at her old home in Beverly, West Virginia. She was accompanied by Miss Laura Anderson of Albany College who is enroute to her home in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, where she will spend the summer with her parents.

This fall she will go to Europe to receive advanced instruction in German and Latin, returning to Albany next year. The Misses Stalnakar and Anderson will travel together as far as Grafton, Pa., and chose the southern route via San Francisco and New Orleans.

WEYERHAUSER MAN SEES GREAT FUTURE

Albany One of Best Towns in the State Says Marshall of Big Lumber Company.

COMPANY OWNS 30,000 ACRES IN LINN COUNTY

Weyerhaeuser Holdings in Oregon are Big--Has Title to Over 300,000 Acres.

George Marshall, general tax agent for the Weyerhaeuser Lumber interests, arrived in Albany last night and is registered at the Revere hotel.

When seen by the Democrat representative Mr. Marshall gave out the following interview:

"Our company pays into the treasury of Linn county about $10,000.00 annually. This sum represents the taxes levied against our holdings here and of course we firmly believe that we are paying more than our just proportion of the burden of taxation."

"In Linn county the Weyerhaeuser interests own in the neighborhood of 30,000 acres of timber land and have title to about 300,000 acres in the state of Oregon."

In reply to the question as to what he thought of the future of Albany, Mr. Marshall said:

"Albany is, in my judgment, one of the best towns in the state. It has just as good a country and just as good, if not better, transportation facilities as Eugene and there is no reason why it should not be as large as Eugene at the present time. Albany is just beginning to catch up with herself. The people are just beginning to realize that the place has a great future and in my judgment you should easily have a city of ten thousand people in less than three years."

Mr. Marshall was accompanied on the trip by his daughter and they returned this afternoon to their home in Tacoma, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jepp of this city went to Portland this morning to attend the Elks' reunion and visit friends for a few days.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Judge Hewitt of this city went to McMinnville this afternoon where he will look after legal matters for a few days.

Mrs. Layman of Woodburn arrived in Albany at noon today for a short visit with Mrs. Charles L. Thrasher of this city.

E. F. Anderson of this city went out to Tallman this morning where he will harvest the hay crop on his farm in that vicinity.

An 8-pound daughter was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McKinney of this city. Mother and child both doing well.

Dr. Virginia Leweaux and daughter arrived in Albany this noon from Corvallis where the doctor has been on professional business.

Morris Senders went to Harrisburg this afternoon where he will spend a few days visiting relatives and looking after business matters.

Duncan McKecher of Crawfordsville came down this morning and went to Portland this afternoon to attend the Elks' convention.

Wayne Stanard of Brownsville passed through Albany this morning to Portland where he will attend the big Elks' reunion this week.

S. C. Stewart, the Albany banker, went out to Lebanon this morning on a short business trip. He is a stockholder in the Lebanon State bank.

H. F. Merrill and son John went to Newport this morning to get their cottage ready for the summer. They will spend several days at the resort city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Austin of Brownsville were passengers to Portland this morning to visit friends for a few days and attend the Elks' jubilee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cooley of Brownsville passed through Albany this morning to Portland to attend the Elks' convention and visit friends for a few days.

A. Crandall, George Tyceer and Roy Williams, prominent residents of Brownsville, passed through Albany this morning to Portland to attend the Elks' reunion.

Miss Aileen Hughes of this city was a passenger on the electric to Portland this morning where she will spend a few days attending the Elks' reunion and visiting friends.

Agent J. J. Hoydar of the Oregon Electric reports 52 tickets sold at the local office to Portland this morning on the limited. Nearly the entire crowd were Albany people.

Miss Gertrude Stevens of this city, daughter of President John H. Stevens of the Corvallis & Eastern, went to Portland this morning to visit this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sellers, formerly of Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will go to Portland Thursday.

MURRILL CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Claimed that a Local Cook Stabbed Proprietor of the Oregon Restaurant.

BOUND OVER TO AWAIT ACTION OF GRAND JURY

Preliminary Hearing Held this Morning--Defendant Unable to Secure Bondsmen.

Crazed by drink, James Murrill made an assault on T. J. Terrill of the Oregon restaurant late last night and was arrested by Chief Daughtry on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Murrill made his appearance at the Oregon restaurant about 11 o'clock last night and had no sooner entered the place of business than he created a disturbance. He was ejected from the restaurant twice by Terrill and later returned with a pocket knife and assaulted the proprietor. Terrill was stabbed once in the right side and cut on the neck. The police were at once notified and the man taken into custody.

The preliminary hearing was held before Justice of the Peace Swan this morning and the defendant bound over to await the action of the grand jury under five hundred dollars bonds. He was unable to secure bondsmen and in default thereof is confined in jail.

Murrill has been employed as a cook in a local restaurant and is well known among the residents of Albany.

Frank W. Horsky, one of Albany's progressive young merchants, took the electric to Portland this morning where he will attend the Elks' reunion. He is esquire of the Albany lodge of Elks.

Mrs. M. B. Craft left this afternoon for Portland to attend the Elks' reunion. Her daughter, Miss Agnes Craft of Moscow, Idaho, will join her in Portland and return to Albany where she will spend a month's vacation. Mr. Craft will go to Portland Thursday.

STANDING OF THE CONTESTANTS IN the Tracy Clothing Company Automobile Contest For the Week Ending July 6. Table with 5 columns of names and vote counts. Remember we give away one 42 piece dinner set to the contestant that records the largest votes from July 1 to July 15th. So be sure and record all votes July 15th. Tracy Clothing Company 330 West First Street