

HAYWARD RETURNS FROM STOCKHOLM

Veteran Trainer of Athletes Has a Fine Time But Is Glad to Be Home Again.

SAYS AMERICANS SHOWED UP FINE IN OLYMPIC GAMES

Long Days In Sweden Cause the Pacific Coast Men Trouble In Getting Sleep.

THURSDAY

Tanned by the wind and sun and in fine health, "Bill" Hayward, the veteran trainer of athletes, passed through Albany this afternoon enroute to Eugene from Sweden, where he has been attending the Olympic games, while keeping the Pacific Coast athletes in trim during the contests.

"Hayward left Eugene early in June and went to New York where he joined the athletes from this coast who were enroute to Copenhagen to compete in the games in which the world's best men were entered. "The American athletes made a fine showing," said Hayward to the Democrat representative this afternoon, "especially in the 100-metre race which consisted of 16 heats, and the Americans all qualified for the semi-finals."

"The Pacific Coast boys," said Hayward, "were bothered for several days after arriving at Copenhagen, in getting sleep. It doesn't get dark there until about 10 o'clock at night and begins to get light again about 3 o'clock in the morning, and the boys were not used to this system of 'running the day.'"

"We were treated royally everywhere and especially in Sweden where a crowd of several hundred people waited patiently at the wharf for several hours, for our steamer to depart. Some of the boys were invited to other meets in various parts of the country, including France and Germany."

"Hawkins and McClure represented the University of Oregon; Bellah, the Multnomah Club; Courtney, University of Washington; Reiser, Los Angeles; and Ralph Rose, California. Horan, Georhart, Kelly and other Pacific coast athletes were also in attendance."

Hayward left Dover, England, two weeks ago Sunday, and New York City last Friday, coming home via the Canadian Pacific. "I have had a fine time," said he, "but am glad to be back again in Oregon." When asked if he would be with Oregon again this year he said: "You bet I will. You can't get me away from the University of Oregon."

Hayward visited Brussels, Berlin, Antwerp, Stockholm, Copenhagen and other cities while gone.

"Bill" is known to every high school and college athlete on the coast and he has hundreds of admirers among them.

When Hayward first came to Oregon he was engaged by Albany College and through his careful coaching and training the local institution turned out champions in all branches of athletics from football to all field events.

GOYARD GIRL WEARS STOCKINGS OF GOLD

Bretton Woods, N. H., Aug. 7.—Stockings of pure gold—the fashion vaguely announced from San Francisco—is a glittering fact in puritanical New England.

Miss Almie Gordon of New York, one of the fashionable young people at the Mount Washington hotel, is the first to bring the alchemic innovation to Bretton Woods, but the excitement and admiration which her golden stockings caused among the young and old point to a rapid spread of the new hosiery habit.

Thus far Miss Gordon has worn two pairs of the wonderful creations. The first appearance was at one of the weekly dances, when her descent of the main stairway was marked by a pedal glow that dazzled all the other guests. The second pair—which appeared at the following dance—were not only of golden texture, but were heavily brocaded with figures of a bird of paradise. It is said that golden stockings are considered a bargain at $100 a pair. You can wear one pair two times—if you are lucky.

MOSQUITO BITE MAY CAUSE LOSS OF SAILOR'S SIGHT

Philadelphia, August 6.—Suffering from blood poisoning, the result of being attacked and bitten by a swarm of mosquitoes, James Hood, an English sailor, is in the Pennsylvania hospital here today threatened with the loss of one of his eyes. Hood was found on the deck of an oil freighter at the Greenwich piers. He had fallen asleep on the deck, and when discovered by his shipmates, his arms and face were covered with blood. Both eyes were badly swollen from the infection and his sufferings were such that physicians had to administer an opiate.

L. Griswold of the Oregon Electric Railway left this morning for Junction City, where he was called on company business.

EXCURSIONISTS ENJOY TRIP TO MOUNTAINS

Train Is Stopped at Mill City to Allow Junketers to Inspect Hammond Mill.

Everybody who went to Detroit yesterday on the K. of P. excursion returned home last evening after having a most enjoyable day in the Cascades. On the way up the train was stopped for twenty minutes at Mill City while the excursionists made an inspection of the big sawmill of the Hammond Lumber company and the well equipped store of the company.

At Kiphart's Bluff another stop was made to allow the people to obtain a view of Mt. Jefferson, but this was impossible. However, the junketers were able to secure a magnificent view of the Santiam which dashed through the canyon over a hundred feet below.

A large number of local fishermen took advantage of the excursion to spend the day whipping the waters of the Santiam and Breitenbush, and stops were made all along the line to permit the nimrods to drop off.

Upon the arrival of the excursion train at Detroit, the excursionists crossed the suspension bridge to the beautiful grove on the Linn county side where lunch was spread beneath the big trees. After dinner many of the party took long hikes up and down the river, while others spent the time fishing. The train left Detroit on the return trip at 5:30 and arrived here at 8:30 o'clock.

Agent Mickel of the Southern Pacific company went along with the excursion party and personally looked after the comfort of the junketers, and that official was most accommodating, looking after every little detail that would add to the comfort and convenience of the crowd, and stopping the train wherever wished. The courtesies extended by the railway company and its agent were greatly appreciated.

GRIEF STRICKEN MOTHER ASSAULTS THREE DOCTORS

Philadelphia, Aug. 6.—Hysterical over the death of her baby, two years old, who had died at the Lebanon hospital here while under ether that had been administered during an operation for the removal of adenoids, Mrs. Gertrude Cutler attacked the three physicians who had been witnesses in the case before the coroner.

Mrs. Cutler was aided in her assault by her mother, Mrs. Tillie Feinstem, and when Drs. Benjamin L. Singer, Charles Shapiro and Leon J. Tunitsky walked down the corridor of the city hall umbrellas were plied over their heads and shoulders.

Court attaches held the women until the physicians had made their escape.

MISS LENA THRIFT IS MARRIED AT SALEM

Miss Lena Thrift of this city and Mr. B. B. Colbath of Salem were united in marriage at the Capital City at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

The ceremony was performed at the Congregational parsonage and was witnessed by only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thrift of Albany and is a young woman of charming personality.

The groom is the manager of the Blown planing mill at Salem and is one of the best known young business men of that city.

The Democrat joins with the many friends of the bride and groom in extending congratulations.

WIFE REFUSES TO LEAVE OLD HOME

Would Not Live In House Which Husband Had Provided For Her at Shelburn.

MR. AND MRS. R. GLASGOW LIVE TOGETHER BUT 19 DAYS

They Were Married at Mehana February 6, 1910, and Two Weeks Later Separate.

Because his wife refused to reside at the home he had provided for her at Shelburn and preferred to live at her old home instead, Robert H. Glasgow today filed suit in the circuit court here asking that the bonds of matrimony now existing be severed, and that he be granted a divorce.

The Glasgows were married in Mehana on Feb. 6, 1910, and lived together as man and wife but 19 days, separating on Feb. 25th, 1910, after the bride refused to leave her old home.

Glasgow also alleges in his complaint that his wife began a course of cruel and inhuman treatment shortly after their marriage for the purpose of annoying and harassing him. H. B. Chess of Lebanon is attorney for the plaintiff.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE

Colonel Roosevelt appeared in person before the Chicago Bull Moose convention yesterday and received a demonstration from the delegates which lasted fifty-two minutes.

The Portland Journal has subscribed $250.00 to the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund.

President Taft has urged speedy action on the question of tolls for the Panama Canal, claiming that ship-owners are entitled to know two years in advance the maximum tolls.

Dr. Harry Lane and State Senator Milt Miller, the latter of Linn County, will be the principal speakers at a Democratic rally to be held in Portland next Friday night.

The litigation growing out of the location of the Klamath County court house has been settled by the Oregon Supreme court, the action of the County Commissioners being sustained.

Louis Sax and son of Portland have been arrested on the charge of arson. The order of kerosene following a small blaze in the Blue Front Clothing Store led to the arrest of the two proprietors.

Earl Rogers, chief counsel for Attorney Darrow in the bribery trial now being held at Los Angeles was yesterday fined fifty dollars for contempt of court.

Rolla Wells, former mayor of St. Louis, has been picked by Governor Wilson as treasurer of the National Committee.

MISFITS Contributed By F. P. Nutting.

A great deal of time is wasted in Congress just over politics by the men sent there to do the business of the government. Those who read the Congressional Record are surprised at the space given to buncomb.

Carrie Nation may have gone to extremes, but she made the world take notice. There are times when nothing but smashing will do things.

It's a partnership affair, the selling and buying in blind-pigdom.

It is all fixed up, Congressman Lafferty recently wrote Mr. Roosevelt:

"Ignore Taft, Make the issue direct with Wilson from the sounding of the gong."

Of course there will have to be a gong or some other noise with Roosevelt in the lineup.

Altogether Albany is a city of excellent morality. This blind-pigdom is considerable of a boil that needs heroic treatment, and doesn't represent the real health of the town.

Have it done in Albany, if possible.

We will all be suburbs of each other when all the roads are electrified, and new ones built. Nothing brings the world closer together than electricity.

The probability is that T. R. will receive more votes than W. T., and that W. W. will have as many as both together.

One of the greatest needs of the age is a fly swatter that will hit every varmint in a room at one swipe.

It is awful hard for some to admit they don't know everything.

LINN COUNTY FARMER WEDS YESTERDAY NOON AT DALLAS

Accompanied by Local Minister He Journeys to Polk County City After His Bride.

Marion Propst, a prominent Linn county farmer and for several years past, a widower, yesterday slipped one over his friends, when he came to Albany and accompanied by Rev. Albyn Esson of the First Christian church, went to Dallas by automobile where he was married at noon to Mrs. Rosila Compton who resides near Parker.

Propst and Rev. Esson were joined at Monmouth by Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Compton and the party went to Dallas where the marriage ceremony was performed at high noon in the parlors of the Hotel Gail by Rev. Esson.

After the wedding ceremony was performed a fine wedding dinner was served and the party returned to Albany. The newly-weds will reside on Mr. Propst's farm east of this city.

YOUNG WOMAN RIDES HORSE FROM SEATTLE TO MEXICO

"Kate E. Rockwell-Seattle to Mexico," was the entry made in the hotel register at the St. Francis late yesterday afternoon.

The entry was made by a young woman from Seattle who arrived in Albany on her favorite saddle horse about 5 p. m., having ridden the entire distance from Seattle to Albany in less than nine days.

When seen by the Democrat representative, Miss Rockwell had the following to say about her trip:

"Yes I am on my way to Mexico City and I am enjoying the trip immensely. I love my horse and the roads are in fairly good condition, so the trip has been a pleasant one. I found, however, that the roads were much better between Salem and Albany than they were between Portland and Salem."

"I will leave about five o'clock in the morning for Eugene but will not remain in that city over a few hours. I expect however, to visit friends in Medford for a few days and will stop a week or so at Los Angeles and Santiago, taking the Yuma route southward. I am following the Pacific highway wherever it is possible to do so."

"I don't know how long it will take me to make the trip to Mexico City and don't really care for this is a pleasure trip and I am enjoying every minute of it."

"I have been in nearly every state in the Union and made one trip on horseback from Dawson, Alaska, to the Kenetehimstock mountains. I have also been in South America so you can readily see that I love to travel."

"I don't envy the owner of an automobile. I pity them. They don't know what real enjoyment is until they get a saddle horse and take a good long ride. My horse is the best friend I have."

E. H. McCune returned last night from a business trip to Portland.

Architect C. W. Hand is drawing plans for a five-room modern residence for J. W. Bentley. The residence will be erected on Calapooia street.

Mr. Phillip Carbary, secretary of the Inland Retail Dealers' association of Spokane, left for Corvallis this noon. He will return the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. King and family passed through Albany on their way to Portland last evening. Mr. King is a member of the firm of Aids-Wortman & King and has been spending a few days at Newport. They were registered at the St. Francis.

LOCAL POLICE WILL DESTROY ALL BOOZE

Mayor Gilbert Has Full Authority to Use Any Means Needed To Stop Traffic.

WHEN INTERVIEWED SAID HE WAS GOING THE LIMIT

Raids Yesterday Beginning of Crusade to Rid Albany From 'Blind Pig Element.'

When interviewed this afternoon by the Democrat regarding the blind-pig situation in this city, Mayor Gilbert said:

"We are going to destroy the booze as fast as it comes into the city and we are going to do it with our own police force. I have been given full authority to use whatever means that are necessary to stop the illicit sale of liquor in this city and I am going to go the limit. The unlawful sale of beer and whiskey in this city is going to be stopped, and soon at that."

The raids made yesterday by the local police are said to be but a beginning of the crusade which has been started by the authorities here to rid the city of the parasites who bear the title of "boot-legger" and from present indications there will be raiding from now on until the last dime has been forced out of business here.

The mayor and police officers are vested with full authority to use any means necessary to close the "pigs" and that they are going to go the limit was made plain this afternoon by Mayor Gilbert.

C. D. Stevens, a former resident of the state of California and a sign and scenic painter of more than usual ability, has concluded to locate in Albany. He is now engaged in painting the scenery for the Dreamland theater and as soon as this piece of work is completed expects to purchase one of the oldest established decorating firms in the city. He has been engaged in this particular line of work for the past 36 years.
