The Deposed Prosecutor Begins Proceedings to Keep New Man from Work.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY DON'T WANT OLD DEPUTIES NOW

Tom Word Declines to Act as a Special Agent in the Vice Crusade in Portland.

SATURDAY

H. M. Esterly, newly-appointed by Governor West to supplant George J. Cameron in the office of district attorney of Multnomah county, and accepted by the court, has exercised his new duties less than one day, when proceedings were begun last night by Mr. Cameron to oust him from the position and to get himself reinstated as district attorney.

Information in quo warranto proceedings was filed for Mr. Cameron, with the announcement that Mr. Cameron's attorneys will appear before the court at 9:30 a. m. today to apply for an order to restrain and prohibit Esterly from exercising or attempting to exercise the functions of the office of district attorney and to ask "that upon final hearing he be declared guilty of usurping, intruding into and unlawfully exercising" the office of district attorney; that he be ousted and Cameron reinstated and that the plaintiff have judgment for costs and disbursements.

In the document filed containing the information in quo warranto proceedings, Mr. Cameron denied the lawful right of Mr. Esterly to hold the office and declared illegal his entrance into the grand jury room yesterday and his participation in the work of the grand jury.

C. W. Furey will appear for Mr. Cameron, and he will be assisted by Henry St. Rayner, M. L. Pipes also probably will be secured to assist them. Mr. Esterly had not determined last night whom he would secure to handle his side of the case.

"We will not attempt to take charge of it ourselves," he said. "We've got about all the work we can handle in the regular line of official duty, and I will confine myself to that and call upon someone else to take charge of the Cameron case." Mr. Esterly yesterday appointed four deputies—Loyal H. McCarthy, A. A. Jayne, W. S. Asher and E. R. Ringo. Judge Morrow recognized without hesitation both Mr. Esterly and his deputies, making it plain, however, that his ruling was not final, and that Mr. Esterly was recognized for the present because no question had as yet been raised as to the legality of his appointment.

HEART STILL THREE MINUTES AND LIVES

Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—Anthony Lama, twenty-five years old, a line man, was revived today after his heart action had completely stopped, according to the statement of Dr. R. Francis Taylor, police surgeon of the Nineteenth District.

Lama was trimming a city lamp, when he touched a live wire and was hurled unconscious to the ground twenty feet below. Dr. Taylor happened to be near and used, what is known to the profession as Sylvester's method of artificial respiration. Despite the fact that there was absolutely no pulsation for at least three minutes, he succeeded in restoring the man after working over him for more than an hour.

Surgeons say many deaths from electrocution might be avoided if artificial respiration were resorted to immediately.

EXHIBITS AT SCIO FAIR GOOD SAYS STEWART

Inclement Weather Prevents a Large Attendance; Only Slight Damage Done to Crops.

"The best and largest exhibit ever assembled in Linn county," was the statement of Linn Stewart of the Albany Commercial club who returned last night from the Linn county fair.

The fair closed yesterday and owing to the inclement weather the attendance was unusually small except on Friday when a large crowd passed through the gates.

Owing to the fact that the track was too heavy, Mr. Stewart says that the management found it necessary to call off the races.

It was decided yesterday to ship the premium exhibits of Industrial school fair to the State fair at Salem, the Southern Pacific Railway company having agreed to transport the same without any charges and it will be loaded at West Scio today.

The farm exhibit of John Zeller of Crabtree was one of the best exhibits seen at the fair.

Mr. Stewart says that he talked with a number of prominent farmers in regard to the crop situation and finds that they are not as far along with the harvesting on the farms of the Santiam as they are on the Albany prairie. He was told by one thresher that twenty-four hours of dry weather will be sufficient to enable farmers to resume threshing operations. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion that thus far only slight damage has been done to the crops.

The funeral services of the late Ivan Williams, who with E. R. Walker was recently drowned in the Deschutes river when their boat capsized, will be held tomorrow afternoon at Pine Grove cemetery, four miles from Halsey, and will be conducted by the Albany Lodge of Elks of which the deceased was a member. Neither Williams nor Walker were able to reach the shore and sank to a watery grave in the river.

A third man who was in the boat with them at the time it capsized, managed to reach out and grab a rocky portion of the canyon wall where he held for six hours until rescued by the crew of a passing freight train on the Oregon Trunk railway. Both Walker and Williams left Linn county a few years ago and went to Eastern Oregon where they took up claims near Metolite.

PLANS ARE DISAPPROVED BY CARNEGIE CORPORATION

Local Board Will Make Them Conform to Requirements; No Great Delay Anticipated.

Disapproving a portion of the plans prepared by the Albany Public Library association because of certain rules and regulations adopted by the Carnegie corporation, Judge Hewitt, president of the local library board, yesterday received a letter from R. A. Franks, financial secretary for Andrew Carnegie in which certain objections were raised to the proposed plans and specifications for the new building, the plans having been recently forwarded to the Carnegie corporation for their approval or rejection.

The members of the local board had instructed the architect to provide a small auditorium on the ground floor with the expectation of ultimately converting the same into a children's department. Mr. Franks disapproved this plan and also raised objections to the relative proportions of the depth and width of the new building.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 31.—Three distinct, though slight, earthquake shocks were felt here last night at 9 o'clock through a period of 15 seconds. No damage was done. Chandeliers were rocked and dishes shaken. The direction reported was from east to west.

Alton, California, also felt the shock.

Mexico City, Aug. 30.—Fifty rurales commanded by a second lieutenant today defeated 150 rebels in a four hours' fight on the Hongo Hacienda, south of Jimulico, Coahuila, according to an official report to the president. Eighteen rebels and three rurales were reported killed. General Huerta, who is proceeding northward from Chihuahua with three thousands of troops, was last reported to be at Madera on the northwestern railroad.

London, Aug. 31.—The only English journal thus far to approve the Panama canal bill act as recently passed by the American congress, is the Nation, a radical weekly, which argues that the exemption of American coastwise ships from the payment of canal tolls has not violated the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

"Fair-minded people," says the Nation, "must recognize that the exempting clause is not a new grievance on the trade of this or any other country."

Tucson, Ariz., Aug. 30.—F. M. Curtis and Bert Cunningham, after a harrowing series of incidents in making their escape from the rebel-infested zone of northern Sonora, following the killing of three insurgents at El Oro mine, arrived here today in rags and still carrying their guns.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The fight between the Taft and Roosevelt forces over presidential electors from Kansas was transferred to the supreme court of the United States today. It will be rushed to the printer so the court may dispose of it immediately after convening October 13. The decision of the Kansas courts is adverse to the Taft following.

The Taft forces allege they are deprived of rights guaranteed by the fourteenth amendment to the constitution. It is charged that the Roosevelt electors procured signatures of Taft men to petitions as candidates for electors by pretending they were republicans and would support the party's candidates for president. These candidates, it is added, did not intend to give this support unless Roosevelt was nominated.

St. Albans, Vt., Aug. 30.—During the course of his speech here today before a crowd of 3000 persons, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, progressive presidential nominee, was interrupted and asked by a man in the audience if the new party were the "progressive republican party."

ALBANY MUSICIANS GIVE CONCERT AT NEWPORT

Mrs. Adna Smith Flo and Miss Wilma Waggener of this City Are Well Received.

The following is from the Newport Signal:

The concert Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church given by Mrs. Adna Smith Flo, soprano and director of the Albany College Conservatory, and Miss Wilma Waggener, pianist and head of the piano department of the Conservatory, was one of the rare treats of the season. An appreciative audience composed of the music lovers of Newport and Summer visitors, greeted these two professional musicians. Each soloist appeared to advantage.

Miss Waggener has just returned from Berlin, having spent the past year in study with Alberto Jonas and carries with her one of his most flattering recommendations. She was at very best and played the difficult piano numbers with ease and finish. Perhaps her strongest number was the beautiful C. sharp minor Scherzo of Chopin, which gave her a chance to display her technique and beautiful tone color to advantage. Her closing number was the brilliant Caprice Espagnol of Moszkowski which received an enthusiastic encore.

Mrs. Flo is a pupil of William Shakespeare, and at the close of her recent study with him received a letter, in which he stated that she was one of his best pupils. Mrs. Flo has one of those rare contralto-soprano voices and her even development carries the rich quality from her deepest tones to her highest. Her sweet and gracious appearance coupled with a fresh voice and wonderfully artistic temperament makes her one of the most accomplished singers ever heard in Newport. Her best number was "Villanelle" by Del Aquia. Albany College is to be congratulated upon its conservatory faculty.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE TWIRLER KNOWN HERE

Has Gathered Together a Fast Bunch and Game Promises To Be Interesting.

If the weather permits there will be a ball game at the local park tomorrow afternoon between Maxmeyer's Stars of Portland and the Albany Athletics. Maxmeyer has been pitching for different teams in the Northwest League this season and is well known in baseball circles.

Claud Swann, who has been playing ball in Portland, says Maxmeyer has gathered together a fast bunch of players and is confident that he can shut out the local team. It is understood several of the K. C. players will be with the Stars tomorrow and that the line-up furnished by Maxmeyer several days ago has been changed in several instances.

The Albany team will consist of the same men as last Sunday with the possible exception of E. Dooley, who is away and may not return in time for the game, in which event Monson will be put in at first and L. Bigbee at center. Bill Patterson will probably oppose the over-confident Maxmeyer in the box.

The lineup follows:

Swann .....rf..... Lake
C. Bigbee .....3b..... Yett
