

Mr. Selling's Candidacy.

The Democrat cannot support the republican nominee for United States Senator.

Mr. Selling is doubtless a very amiable gentleman and a successful business man, but thus far he has failed to qualify as a progressive candidate.

He is openly supporting Taft, which is nothing more or less than a public endorsement of the Payne-Aldrich tariff. An endorsement of the Aldrich methods of revising the tariff might prove a very valuable recommendation for a candidate in Rhode Island, but not so in Oregon.

The Democrat does not wish to intimate that Roosevelt is addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquor. We have never believed in that kind of a political campaign even though the facts seemed sufficient to warrant the statement.

But in view of the many intemperate statements which have emanated from the lips of the Colonel, it would be almost a matter of charity to assume that he was.

Resign, Mr. Kellaher.

"No man can serve two masters." This was written a good many years ago but it has a present day application to the case of Mr. Kellaher who would serve as presidential elector for both Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt.

Elected to his present position as a republican and afterwards repudiating the party which conferred upon him his present office, Kellaher would still serve a master whose integrity he has himself impeached and deprive that party of an elector who honestly represents the party's principles.

If Mr. Kellaher is to retain the respect of the fair minded people of Oregon he will lose no time in tendering his resignation.

Do you want a president of the United States who will be obligated to no other interest than that of the people, and who will place the welfare of the country above that of the exploiters? If you do, send in your mite to the Woodrow Wilson newspaper campaign fund. No sum is too large or too small to be acceptable to the Democratic National committee and an appeal is made to every progressive voter to aid in this campaign for a cleaner and better administration of the public affairs.

Roosevelt High Tariff Champion.

"Here in California you are interested in the beet sugar industry. Remember Mr. Wilson views the tariff on beet sugar as a malignant growth."—Colonel Roosevelt in his speech at Los Angeles.

And this is the nominee of the so-called progressive party. This is the man to whom the "progressives" look for a revision of the tariff downward.

Assailing the record of Taft, casting slurs at Wilson and anointing his own head as the King of Progressives, Colonel Roosevelt reminds the people of California that the beet sugar industry will not be safe in the event of the election of Woodrow Wilson.

Can the voters ask for more convincing evidence as to Mr. Roosevelt's views on the tariff question? Can the consumers expect any relief from the present high schedules in the event of his election?

A Confession of Facts Needed.

Senator La Follette is not impressed by the vicious silence of Mr. Roosevelt as to who furnished the money for his campaign for the Presidential nomination at Chicago. In his magazine the Senator insists upon publicity, not secrecy, as to the Roosevelt contributions.

The Wisconsin Senator has reason to know what influence put him out of the race as the candidate of the Progressive Republicans. He demands not a "confession of faith," such as the third-term candidate made at the Roosevelt convention at Chicago Aug. 6, but a confession of facts.

In Ohio it is reported that over $300,000 was expended to secure delegates for Mr. Roosevelt. Who supplied it?

Who contributed all the money spent for Roosevelt in Illinois? In Maine? In Massachusetts? In New Jersey? Where did it all come from?—New York World.

Discredited.

The third party enters the campaign in Oregon discredited. By nominating Mr. Kellaher without requiring him to retire as a Taft elector it repudiates all and singular of the high moral pretensions to which it lays claim.

The Taft people have a right to five electors, the same as the Wilson people and the Roosevelt people each have a right to five electors. But the Taft people have only four electors.

Mr. Kellaher is not a Taft elector. He is a Roosevelt elector by choice, by public statement, and by the action of the Salem convention yesterday. At the same time he chooses to occupy a place as a fifth Taft elector, and the convention sanctions his course by nominating him as a Roosevelt elector without requiring his withdrawal as a Taft elector.

The convention, as the voice of the third party, has made Mr. Kellaher's indefensible position, its position. It has made Mr. Kellaher's attempt to deprive the Taft people of one elector, the Bull Moose party's attempt to deprive the Taft people of one elector.

It has made Mr. Kellaher's attempt to force the Taft people into the campaign with only four electors, the Bull Moose party's effort to force the Taft people into the campaign with only four electors.

It has made Mr. Kellaher's attempt to steal one of the Taft electoral places, the effort the Bull Moose party to steal one of the Taft electoral places.

After this action, no Bull Moose in Oregon is now in position to denounce any act of the Taft convention at Chicago.

No Bull Moose in Oregon is now in position to denounce Thomas McCusker and the other four Oregon delegates who did not vote for the Roosevelt program of organizing the Taft convention at Chicago.

No Bull Moose in Oregon is in position to denounce any political fraud of any kind.

In attempting to rob the Taft people of one elector in Oregon, the Bull Moose Party in this state is guilty of one of the rankest political frauds in American history.—Portland Journal.

Wilson on the Tariff.

Governor Wilson's position on the tariff is so clear and well defined that it merits the closest study of every earnest citizen. For example, he said in his speech of acceptance:

"The revision should begin with the schedules which have been most obviously used to kill competition and to raise prices in the United States, arbitrarily and without regard to the prices prevailing elsewhere in the markets of the world; and it should be extended to every item in every schedule which affords any opportunity for monopoly, for special advantage to limited groups of beneficiaries, or for subsidized control of any kind in the markets of the enterprises of the country; until special favors of every sort shall have been absolutely withdrawn and every part of our laws of taxation shall have been transformed from a system of governmental patronage into a system of just and reasonable charges which shall fall where they will create the least burden. When we shall have done that, we can fix questions of revenue and of business adjustment in a new spirit and with clear minds. We shall then be partners with all the business men of the country, and a day of freer, more stable prosperity shall have dawned."

Nothing can be clearer than that Governor Wilson has given the subject of tariff revision close and intelligent study. He has avoided the reactionary attitude of the Taft Republicans, and has put to shame the disingenuous unfolding of the third-term candidate in the discussion of this important issue of the campaign. He has left nothing to interfere, but has clearly and honestly stated his position. The American people who have so long been the victims of republican repudiations of platform pledges regarding the revisions of the tariff, will find Governor Wilson's frank and clean cut statement refreshing and inspiring. His speech of acceptance holds out the prospect for the first time in many years that the tariff will be actually revised downward and revised with reference to the good of all the people rather than for the special interests which heretofore have been able to prevent the republican party complying with its solemn platform pledges.

BLOOD POISONING CAUSES DEATH OF LEBANON MAN

R. M. Wiley Cut Thumb Slightly Five Weeks Ago, Now Is Dead.

A very slight injury sometimes results fatally. Such was the case in the death of R. M. Wiley, who was one of Lebanon's bright and successful young business men, who passed away Wednesday evening at about 6 o'clock.

A razor cut of one of his thumbs was not regarded as a serious matter, until blood poisoning manifested itself, and despite all efforts of his physician, the young life was closed when hope was brightest.

Roy M. Wiley was born in Texas 24 years ago, but came with his parents to Oregon when he was but eight months old.

Only last October he was united in marriage to Miss Birdie Murphy of Sodaville, and was just at the beginning of a prosperous business career. Being bright, competent and accommodating, he had unusual promise of success.

The young wife and his parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their untimely bereavement.—Lebanon Tribune.

Mrs. John McChesney, of this city went to Lebanon this morning to attend the Rebekahs' convention which is in session there today.

(Special.)

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 18.—Governor Wilson struck the trail of Colonel Roosevelt for the first time in the campaign today when he whirled through a program of speeches and receptions in the twin cities.

The Democratic candidate started for Chicago and Detroit tonight, deeply pleased, he said, with the spontaneous response and the enthusiasm of the crowds that either heard him speak or shouted their cheers as he motored through the streets of the twin cities.

When the party reached Minneapolis, the Commercial club had breakfast ready and the Governor talked 20 minutes on the trusts and big business, eliciting close attention and applause.

NE WYORK, Sept. 18.—"Disloyalty to the Republican party" was the charge upon which four members of the Republican National committee were expelled from the party by the committee today.

The committee accepted the resignation of members from Minnesota, Oklahoma and Ohio. It declared vacant the seats from New York, West Virginia, North Carolina, and California.

The committee refused to recognize a telegram from Russ Avery, of California, announcing his resignation, and voted to expel him for disloyalty to the Republican party. Chairman Lilles was empowered to appoint a sub-committee of three to recommend a successor to Avery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Arthur Hall, known here until today as Arthur Knable, shot and killed his brother, James J. Hall, in the latter's downtown office late today, and then went to Hall's apartment 15 blocks away, killed Mrs. Hall and committed suicide. The tragedy brought the first disclosure of the relationship of the two men. Family quarrels are believed to have caused the shooting.

BINGHAM, Utah, Sept. 18.—Forty-five hundred men employed in the copper mines here laid down their tools this morning, after the operators refused last night to meet their demands for an increase in pay of 50 cents a day. Every mine in the camp, with one exception, is idle.

The strikers are mostly foreigners and are determined that no one shall enter the mines or buildings until their demands have been granted.

Shots were fired today when deputies marched to the mines to draw the fires. A striker was shot by a deputy at another point. The strikers entrenched themselves and a warlike front was presented.

PORTLAND, Sept. 18.—United States Senator Jonathan Burnes is yet undecided as to whether or not he will be an independent candidate to succeed himself next November. Arriving in Portland this morning, he declared that his action will be determined by the conclusion he may reach as to whether Ben Selling who defeated him in the primaries for the Republican nomination, was legally selected.

To this was added the further qualification as to what the friends of the Oregon system advise him to do. This will also enter into his consideration he said.

"If as I am informed, Mr. Selling was nominated by acts in violation of the corrupt practices act," said the senator, "and the friends of the Oregon system are of the opinion that the best way to sustain the laws and rebuke unlawful practices is for me to become a candidate, why, I will be a candidate."

ASHLAND, Or., Sept. 18.—James S. Boyd of Dinuba, Tulare county, California, and Mrs. Lydia Powell, who resides about nine miles east of Ashland, were married yesterday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage. Mr. Boyd is 85 years of age and his bride 78 years. He has five living children—three sons, aged 64, 53, and 51; two daughters, aged 59 and 53 years; 76 grandchildren and great grandchildren, and five great great grandchildren.

"Cupid can get the old as well as the young," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will make their home at Dinuba, California, where Mr. Boyd is a heavy real estate holder. They will spend a couple of weeks in Ashland before going to their southern home.

CARPENTERS COMPLETE WORK OF REMODELING STOREROOM

The carpenters have completed the work of remodeling the interior of the store room recently vacated by H. A. Stoltenberg which will be occupied after Oct. 1 by G. A. Flood and the store now presents a most attractive and well arranged appearance.

New shelving has been installed on both sides of the room from the front to the rear, while a large balcony and railing occupies a space in the rear end of the room. The carpenter work was completed in seven days and the work of painting the shelving is now under way.

Mr. Flood expects to be in his new store by October 1st, when the place vacated by him will be occupied by the new cafeteria. Mr. Flood will enlarge his already complete stock of dry goods and add several new lines.

Sheriff Smith announces that after Oct. 7, interest and penalty will be added to the last half of the taxes, so that all who have not yet paid may do so before the penalty goes into effect on the 7th of October.

Mrs. Roy Humphrey went out to Thomas this morning where she will spend a few days visiting with her parents.

Congressman A. W. Lafferty used the Congressional Record to answer the scathing remarks of the Portland papers. In the record of the 7th he refers to a cheap blatherskite editorial of one, and declares that the unreliability of another as a publisher of fair statements is well known to the people of Portland. Then he says he knows the profits of the Oregonian and Journal are at least $375,000 annually, the Oregonian's being $225,000 and the Journal's $150,000, the two being equal to the salaries of fifty U. S. senators. He says he defies both of the big newspaper companies. A candidate for re-election in Oregon using a Washington D. C. paper is certainly an interesting thing in the events of 1912.
