WE propose to devote much space in our newspaper advertisements, this Fall, to impressing every woman with the vital importance of our great new invention, the new—

Nemo Corsets BANDLET SELF-REDUCING LASTIKOPS SYSTEM

Models 522 and 523

These corsets are not merely stylish wearing apparel—garments which simply reduce the figure and give you a fashionable appearance. They also serve as a preventative of those ailments of weakness from which millions of women suffer, and as a cure for them.

They bring to suffering woman-kind a welcome message of relief, comfort and health; and they will be hailed, praised and appreciated as a powerful factor in the upward and onward movement toward hygienic dress.

That such a great achievement in promoting health and comfort can be accomplished by a mere corset will not be easily understood and appreciated. Medical authorities, renowned surgeons and eminent writers on hygiene, who have examined and tested these corsets, have been dumfounded to discover such a simple solution of a problem with which they have battled for years—the prevention and cure of certain ailments peculiar to women. Two models:

ST. CHARLES HOTEL CHANGES HANDS

Grant Pirtle Leases Hostelry To Portland People For a Term of 5 Years.

NEW PROPRIETORS ASSUME CHARGE OF PLACE TODAY

Former Landlord Will Devote Time to Company of Which He Is the President.

Grant Pirtle, the genial landlord of the St. Charles hotel, today leased the hotel and sold the furniture to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eichler of Portland, experienced hotel people who took possession at noon today and will hereafter conduct the place.

Mr. Pirtle bought the hotel property three years ago last May from Giffin and O'Brien, who had conducted the place for many years, and has since taking charge of the St. Charles made the hostelry a popular place with the traveling public. "Grant" is a thoroughly experienced hotelman and his courteous treatment and genial manner has made him popular with everybody.

Mr. Pirtle is the efficient president of the Pirtle-Wieder company, one of the progressive real estate firms of this city, and will for some time at least devote his attention to this business and will continue to make his home in Albany.

With the exception of six months which he and his family spent in Honolulu, Mr. Pirtle has devoted nearly his entire time to his hotel business.

The new people, Mr. and Mrs. Eichler, are thoroughly familiar with the hotel business and will endeavor to conduct the hotel along the same plan which has made it so popular in the past. They have leased the hotel for a term of five years.

John Page, who has served as chief clerk of the St. Charles in a capable manner for the past fourteen months, has accepted a similar position with B. R. Westbrook of the St. Francis and began his new duties today at that place. Page came to Albany from his old home town, St. Paul, Minnesota, a little over a year ago, and shortly after his arrival here accepted the clerkship at the St. Charles.

He is a young man of excellent business qualities and courteous manner and has made many friends among the residents of Albany and the traveling public. Recognizing his ability Manager Westbrook of the St. Francis offered him the position of chief clerk which was accepted and John may now be found at that place.
