

ALBANY GLASPS HANDS WITH EUGENE

Hub City Senta Delegation 1100 Strong to Participate in Oregon Electric Celebration.

ALBANY DELEGATION ATTRACTS FAVORABLE NOTICE

Crowds Well Handled by Sister City and Celebration Was a Great Success.

Headed by the Elks Band, wearing the now famous Hub City booster badges, and carrying banners appropriate to the occasion, 1100 citizens of Albany received a tremendous ovation when they appeared in the Oregon Electric parade at Eugene yesterday afternoon.

Arriving in Eugene shortly after schedule time, the Hub City Special was welcomed by a strong delegation of Eugene business men after which the Albany boosters formed in line and paraded through the business streets of the city.

No city in the Willamette valley sent a larger delegation than Albany and none made a more favorable impression upon the vast throngs who arrived on every train to assist in the celebration of the completion of the Oregon Electric to our sister city of Eugene.

The local train which left Albany early in the morning was loaded to the guards and every seat in the Hub City Special was occupied.

The management of the Albany delegation was excellent and the various committees in charge of the enterprise are deserving of no little praise for the manner in which Albany was represented.

The decorations in Eugene were excellent and her citizens not only proved themselves able to handle a large crowd successfully but made every visitor feel that he was welcome, and that his presence was appreciated.

The street pageant which required fifty minutes to pass a given point, was one of the best ever seen in the Willamette valley.

A banquet was tendered to the officers of the various commercial clubs, visiting city officials, and railroad men at one o'clock and was said by the Albany men who attended, to have been one of the most elaborate affairs ever held in this section of the state.

The speaking was held in the court house square and excellent speeches were made by Senator Geo. Chamberlain, Pres. Young of the Oregon Electric, Congressman Hawley and others.

When the Hub City special pulled out of the yards at Eugene last night a large crowd of Eugene citizens had assembled, and a deafening cheer went up from the large crowd when the eleven coaches started on their homeward journey.

WILSON GETS OVATION IN MIDDLE WEST

National Committeeman King Tells of Great Demonstration for New Jersey Governor.

In a letter received by the Democrat, Will R. King, national committeeman from Oregon and head of the Pacific and Intermountain division of the Democratic national committee, with headquarters at Chicago, has the following to say about the wonderful reception accorded Governor Wilson in the Middle West:

"I returned from St. Louis yesterday where I went to meet Governor Wilson with the committee. He had the biggest reception ever accorded a candidate for the presidency of the United States. There were about 25,000 people in the coliseum and at least 100,000 outside. Also a torch-light procession miles in length, carrying not less than 20,000 torches. He was similarly received in Chicago yesterday."

H. F. McIlwain of Leaburg, Lane county, a former Albany merchant, is in the city on a short business trip. He continues to own Albany property, interested in it progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Matlock, of Eugene, are in the city, preparatory to residing, Mr. Matlock having accepted a position as clerk in the new Hotel Waldorf. Previous to then he will be at the Hotel Revere.

United States Senator George E. Chamberlain arrived in Albany last evening and is spending the day here at the St. Francis. He will speak here this evening.

WEALTHY NEW YORK MAN WOULD KNOW GIRLS NAMES

Took Picture of Young Ladies at Elks Reunion--Said to be Albany Young Ladies.

On Thursday, the day of the big parade, Weiss took his camera with him and secured several views of the parade and the huge crowd which lined the streets of Portland on that day. When Weiss returned to his home in New York, he had the films developed. He was able to identify most of the pictures he secured, with the exception of one.

This picture was taken by Mr. Weiss on Seventh street in Portland and the two central figures in the photo were two young ladies dressed in white, both of whom were smiling.

Weiss was curious to know who the charming young ladies were and in an endeavor to ascertain their identity sent a print from the film to the Portland lodge of Elks, asking them to help him out.

The picture was reproduced in Monday's issue of the Evening Telegram and several local people who saw the picture, which was on the front page, declare the young ladies to be Miss Louise Pirtle, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pirtle of this city, and Miss Waneta Riley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Riley, former residents of Albany but now of Newberg.

Both young ladies attended the Elks' reunion at Portland and both bear a striking resemblance to the girls in the picture.

DEMOCRAT REPRESENTATIVE INSPECTS STATE UNIVERSITY

Member of Student Body Urges Support of This Publication for Appropriation.

That the students of the State University are loyal to their college and faculty was demonstrated to the editor of the Democrat in Eugene yesterday, when Miss Alice Farnsworth, a senior in the literary department and a niece of the writer, insisted upon making a thorough inspection of the buildings, and then requested the support of this publication for an appropriation for the school at Eugene.

To say that the State University does not compare favorably with similar institutions in other states would be a libel on Oregon. The facility is a strong one and all departments are ably conducted. The standard maintained is high and no parent need look further than Oregon in order to give a son or daughter the advantages of a higher education.

The Democrat is always in favor of liberal appropriations for the institutions of learning maintained by the state, and in the judgment of the editor, the State University should not be handicapped by lack of adequate funds with which to keep up the present high standard.

BOSTON RED SOX ARE WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

Cinch Pennant In Tenth Inning When Snodgrass Fails to Catch Engle's Fly.

BEDIENT AND WOOD TWIRL GAME FOR BOSTON TODAY

Each Team Had One Run to Credit Until Tenth Inning When Red Sox Score Two More.

Fenway Park, Boston, Oct. 16.—(Special to the Democrat)—The failure of Snodgrass, the centerfielder of the New York Nationals to catch Engle's fly in the tenth inning of today's game, resulted in the Boston Red Sox winning the baseball championship of the world by the score of 3 to 2, after the hardest fought battle in the history of American baseball.

The Giants made the first run in today's game in the third inning off Bedient and one in the tenth off Wood. Boston scored one in the seventh and two in the tenth off Mathewson.

The failure of Snodgrass to catch Engle's fly rattled the Giants and they went to pieces, Boston securing two runs which won for them the world's championship and the pennant.

The batteries in today's game were: New York—Mathewson and Meyers; Boston—Bedient, Wood and Cady.

PAVING OF FIRST STREET IS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY NOW

Principal Thoroughfare from Montgomery to Main Nearing Completion.

Paving operations are progressing rapidly on first street now and that thoroughfare will soon be completely hard-surfaced from Calapoota to Main, a distance of 15 blocks.

The last contract called for the paving of this street from Montgomery to Main with gravel bitulithic. The portion from Jefferson to Main has been completed for several days with the exception of a small strip where the spur of the Corvallis & Eastern crosses First street between Thurston and Lafayette which will be paved as soon as the railway company completes the work of placing its track on the street grade.

The binder on the remainder of the street from Jefferson to Montgomery has been laid and the paving crew of the Warren Construction company were working this morning on the block in front of the Magnolia Laundry putting the top dressing on.

The paving company has had a large force of men engaged for several days in grading Sixth street and getting it ready for paving, this being the next street to be hard-surfaced. The operations of paving Sixth street from Baker to Washington will begin upon the completion of the First street and Water street contracts.

POISONED CANDY SENT TO GIRL CHOIR SINGER

Cincinnati, Oct. 15.—Through the agency of candy which had been dipped into a solution of bichloride of mercury, an unidentified enemy sought the life of Miss Isabel Sparkes, soprano soloist at Christ Church, the leading Episcopal congregation of the city, who lives at No. 2511 Auburn avenue. It is at this church that President Taft usually worships when in the city.

Miss Sparkes ate three pieces of the candy and became very ill. Her life was saved by the prompt ministrations of the family physician. Miss Sparkes' sister also partook of a piece of the candy and was made ill. It was several weeks ago that Miss Sparkes received the candy. City and federal detectives have been endeavoring to obtain a clue to the criminal.

Miss Sparkes has recovered, but she is in constant fear that some enemy might take other means of injuring her.

It is pointed out that the aim of the sender of the candy might have been the permanent injury of the girl's vocal organs through inducing lockjaw, as the drug has that tendency.

Several local newspapers have received letters evidently signed with a fictitious name stating that Miss Sparkes had tried to end her own life, but that she was recovering. Miss Sparkes today asked that the fullest publicity be given to the real facts.

WILSON LEADS IN PRESIDENTIAL VOTE

Surprise of Result Is the Lead of Thirty-nine Votes Which Taft Has Over Roosevelt.

NEARLY FIVE HUNDRED BALLOTS WERE CAST

Wilson Has As Many Votes As Roosevelt and Taft Combined. Debs Gets Twenty-five.

Table showing vote counts for Wilson, Roosevelt, Taft, Debs, Chafin, Bryan, Clark, and West, with a total of 470.

That Governor Wilson will carry Linn county by an overwhelming majority and that Taft will lead Roosevelt, is indicated by the presidential straw vote which has just been completed by the Albany Daily Democrat, the returns showing that Wilson received as many votes as Taft and Roosevelt combined.

The total number of votes cast was 470, of which number Wilson received 219, Taft 129 and Roosevelt 90.

Since Saturday business and professional men of Albany have been calling at the Democrat office for the purpose of participating in the election and on Monday Mr. C. L. Hill was given a sealed ballot box and called at the business houses on First, Second and Lyon streets and at the places of business between the river front and Third street. This territory includes the entire business section of Albany and every man met by Mr. Hill on that day was requested to record his vote.

Mr. Hill also called at the new buildings which are being erected in Albany and obtained a representative labor vote. No one was intentionally slighted, the object of the management being to obtain an honest expression of opinion by a large number of citizens of this section of the county.

The sealed ballot boxes were opened and the vote canvassed by Wm. H. Hornbrook, F. P. Nutting, L. R. Gilbert and C. L. Hill.

A CASE OF SMALL POX AT CAPITAL

The development of a case of smallpox at the state house yesterday afternoon threw consternation into the ranks of officials and clerks at the capitol building and it is one of the chief topics of discussion therein today, says the Capital Journal.

A. C. Barber, chief clerk in the office of Insurance Commissioner Ferguson, is the victim, and attending physicians have removed him to the detention hospital, where he is resting easily. Where he contracted the disease is just as much of a mystery as where the two clerks in the office of the state engineer, which adjoins the office of the insurance commissioner's office, contracted it several months ago.

The office has been thoroughly fumigated, and it is not believed that further cases will develop.

Conrad Meyer, Jr., is reported confined to his home with a slight attack of bronchitis.

PALM CAFETERIA IS OPENED AT NOON BY M. J. MONTEITH

New Establishment Bids Fair to be One of Hub City's Most Popular Eating Places.

With the tables resplendent in snow white linen and new silverware and the entire force of employees busy throughout the noon hour serving its patrons, the new Palm Cafeteria at the corner of First and Ferry streets, was opened to the public at noon today by M. J. Monteith, the proprietor of the new establishment.

The building in which the cafeteria is located would hardly be recognized now it having undergone a wonderful change during the past few weeks. The walls have been beautifully tinted inside the place in cream and brown which shows up fine with the white wainscoting and gives plenty of light in the room. Hooks have been placed conveniently about the room for hats and coats.

An artistic feature of the room is the row of white columns which divides the dining room from the serving counter. There are five of these columns which are connected by chains. The columns are of attractive design, and add greatly to the appearance of the place.

The cashier's table and dining room are located on the left side of the room as you enter the door and the serving counter is on the right. On each table today was a handsome bouquet of pink cactus dahlias and asparagus bloom.

The opening today with prominent residents of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Monteith were kept busy seeing that everybody was served promptly, which they did in splendid style. Mr. Monteith received many compliments on the sanitary and conveniently arranged cafeteria and if the crowd who took dinner there today is a fair indication, the place will be one of Albany's most popular eating houses.

The pastry, the salads, etc., are made by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clemens who formerly conducted the Clemens grill in Portland and who have been retained by Mr. Monteith to look after this feature in the establishment.

A GAME LAW VIOLATOR IS CAUGHT

Deputy F. L. Perkins Catches a Hunter and Makes the Arrest.

Millard Bass, a farmer living up the river a few miles, was arrested by Deputy Game Warden F. L. Perkins on the charge of killing China pheasants out of season. Bass was brought before Justice of the Peace G. W. Crumpton this afternoon, and pleading guilty, was fined $25. He did not have the money and was taken to the county jail in Albany by Deputy Perkins to serve out the fine.

We understand that Bass had on a game bag containing two pheasants, and that he ran from the deputy and threw away the game bag, and then tried to hide by lying in the grass.

Deputy Perkins recommended the minimum fine on account of the defendant being a poor man and having to go to jail.

A. O. Bass, a brother of the defendant, claimed that the officer had damaged his potato patch to the amount of $250 by running over the same, and the deputy paid him that amount, taking his receipt therefor.—Lebanon Express.

LOOK WHOSE HERE ---OUR GEORGE

Senator Chamberlain Will Speak at the Opera House This Evening on Political Issues.

OREGON SENATOR SAYS WILSON AND LANE ARE WINNERS

Regrets Attempt on Life of Roosevelt and Discusses Albany Post Office Appropriation.

Arriving last night from Eugene, Senator George E. Chamberlain will be the speaker at a democratic rally which will be held at the opera house at 8 o'clock this evening and from all indications the building will be packed by admirers of Oregon's Junior senator.

When seen at the St. Francis this morning, Senator Chamberlain expressed deep regret at the attempted assassination of Ex-President Roosevelt.

"I think that the attack upon Roosevelt should be viewed with horror by every good citizen, no matter what may be his political affiliations," said Senator Chamberlain. "It is one of those things that if permitted to go unchallenged, may be repeated today by an attack upon Taft and on Wilson tomorrow. It is most certainly the work of a fanatic and it seems unfortunate that there are men so unparliamentary as to seek to use the unfortunate incident for political purposes."

When asked in regard to the senatorial situation in Oregon, Senator Chamberlain authorized the following:

Notwithstanding the fact that the entry of Bourne in the senatorial fight has on the fact of it, strengthened Sellings' chances, Lane has elements of strength which are not possessed by either of the other candidates, and in my judgment, the Democratic nominee has the best chance of success.

When asked about the appropriation for the Albany postoffice, Senator Chamberlain said:

"The appropriation bill for your local postoffice passed the senate and I made an address before the house committee on public buildings on this bill. The chairman of that committee assured me that while no new appropriation measures were to be considered during the last session, it was more than probable that the appropriation would be made during the next session of congress."

When asked about the presidential situation, Senator Chamberlain spoke as follows:

"The sentiment among the leaders of both the old line republicans and the insurgent element seems to be that Wilson will win.

"The reactionary element of the republican party seem to feel that there is danger in the third party movement, not only to the county, but to the republican party itself, and there is a disposition because of this feeling on the part of the old line republicans to vote in large numbers for Wilson.

"There were many democrats in 1896 who sincerely believed that free silver, if carried out to its final analysis, would endanger the national credit and from purely patriotic motives, they voted the republican ticket. The same feeling exists among the republicans of the old school today and from motives of patriotism, many of them will vote the democratic ticket."

"In addition to this defection in the republican party, there are thousands of insurgent leaders who do not believe the third party movement is necessary or expedient. These men so feeling and believing, are advocating the election of Wilson as the true exponent of progressive principles."

"Expressions from voters in various portions of the state lead me to believe that Wilson will carry Oregon, with Roosevelt second in the race. The same conditions exist in other states and there are many well informed men who believe that Wilson will carry nearly every state in the union."
