

SPIRITISM SAID TO BE DEMONISM.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the common-sensationalism received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demon origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits personate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible, are thoroughly acquainted. He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived ones to pray, do penance, etc. This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demonic control. Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victim, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise, are given. The price of the little book is but five cents; it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein. Enclose stamps to the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

ALBANY PEOPLE IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. D. Bussard Injured When Car Runs Over Embankment in Illinois.

CAR TURNS TURTLE PINNING OCCUPANTS BENEATH IT

Mr. and Mrs. Desenbaugh Taken to Chicago Hospital—Both Sustain Bad Injuries.

While enroute from Streator, Illinois, to Loganport, Indiana, this week, in an automobile driven by A. Desenbaugh, the machine which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. Bussard of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Desenbaugh of Streator, Illinois, went over a high bank and turned turtle, pinning the occupants beneath it. Mrs. Bussard suffered a badly wrenched back and shoulder and Mr. Bussard escaped serious injury, his injuries consisting of a few minor cuts and bruises. Mr. Bussard's sister, Mrs. Desenbaugh, was pulled out from under the car in a serious condition and it was thought for an hour or more that she was dead, having sustained serious injuries to her back and head. She is thought to have sustained internal injuries.

Mr. Desenbaugh, who was driving the car, suffered a broken shoulder and several cuts about the head. The party had left Streator, Illinois, for Loganport, Indiana, 140 miles distant, to visit friends, and had covered about 100 miles of the distance, when the steering gear broke and the car shot to one side of the road and plunged over the bank before any of the occupants of the car were aware of what had happened, and turned turtle burying the occupants beneath it.

People who witnessed the accident rushed to the scene and lifted the car off the passengers. Mr. Bussard was able to assist in the work of placing the car in an upright position but the other members of the party had to be assisted or carried from the scene. Mr. and Mrs. Desenbaugh were both taken to a hospital in Chicago, where they are now receiving medical attention and Mrs. Bussard was taken back to Streator.

Mrs. Bussard was able to write with one hand and sent a letter to her brother-in-law, Mart Bussard of this city, telling him of the accident. Mr. and Mrs. Bussard left Albany several weeks ago for an extended trip through Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and other eastern states and had intended later to meet Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Burkhardt of this city, who are also traveling in the east, and tour the southern states before returning home.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bussard in this city will be glad to learn that they escaped as fortunately as they did and hope that the next news received from them will be to the effect that they are fully recovered and able to continue their trip.

This is Oregon's second game, they having defeated Willamette University at Eugene Saturday afternoon by the score of 12 to 0. The boys were all in the pink of condition and expect to win at Walla Walla Saturday, although they are not anticipating an easy job by any means.

MISS BONEATA CHRISTY WEDS A. P. PRIESTLEY, OF CHICAGO

Wedding Solemnized at Home of Bride's Parents in This City Last Evening.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Christy in this city at 9:30 o'clock last evening when their daughter, Miss Boneata, was united in marriage to Mr. A. P. Priestley of Chicago. Rev. W. P. White of the United Presbyterian church officiating.

ROOSEVELT'S CONDITION IS GOOD ACCORDING TO DOCTORS

Chicago, Oct. 17, 1 a. m.—When it came time to take his temperature, Colonel Roosevelt was found asleep and had been since shortly after 11 o'clock. At that time he was visited by Dr. McCauley, the house surgeon who was told by the Colonel that he "intended to get in seven good hours of sleep."

At 10 o'clock all three of the physicians had visited the Colonel. Their examination resulted in the announcement that the condition of the patient was normal and there was no indication of sepsis in the wound or pleural complications. The following was the official count: "Temperature, 98.6; pulse, 84; respiration, 23; leucocytes, 6400; polymorphonuclea neutrophiles, 74; general condition, good."

"MILLIE, CHRISTINE," TWIN FREAK, IS DEAD

Two-Headed and Four-Legged, but with One Body. "They" Long Puzzled Scientists.

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 15.—Word was received here today that Millie, one of the celebrated Millie-Christine twins, known all over the world, had died at her home near Whiteville, Columbus county, about sixty miles from Wilmington, and that Christine, although the two were joined together, lived several hours later.

The twins were about sixty years old. Born in the slavery times, the women, who are colored, were sold for $40,000 to be used for exhibition purposes. While being shown in Philadelphia, a few years after their sale, they were stolen, and nothing was heard of them by their owner for several years. Finally he located them in London and regained possession of them. He again placed them on exhibition in Europe and America.

Millie-Christine had two heads and two sets of lower extremities, but one body. What one disliked the other disliked, the same things made each ill, but they had their differences and were known to have quarreled with themselves. They were the wonder of physicians, anatomists and biologists everywhere. On the stage the sang in chorus and danced. One head carried on a conversation with one person while the other carried on a different conversation with some one else.

Judge Whitney went to Tallman this afternoon to make arrangements to move back to Albany to reside. He has been residing the past year on his farm.

ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL WILL OPEN FOOTBALL SEASON SOON

Regular Team and Alumni Will Clash on College Field on Next Saturday.

The Albany High school football eleven will open the football season in this city at the college grounds on Saturday afternoon when they will clash with the alumni. Coach Shaddock has had the squad out every night for the past ten days and the team is rounding up in fine style and will give the alumni a hard tussle Saturday afternoon.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, and the boys should be given a big crowd.

Rolla Bruce, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bruce of this city who was captain last year of the high school team at La Verne, Minnesota, has been chosen captain of this year's team of the local high school.

MISFITS

Contributed by F. P. Nutting.

Senator Chamberlain always draws a large crowd and makes good in his Albany talks—a welcome visitor to the Hub. It was a very interesting thing at the banquet at Eugene to see S. P. men singing, with the crowd, on a chorus: "Glory hallelujah, when I'll come to Eugene."

The entire country sympathizes with Ex-President Roosevelt; but that has nothing to do with the politics of it. 20,000,000 gallons of liquor drunk in the prohibition states of the U. S. in a year, is the record given by the year book of the National Brewers' association, and probably correctly. That sounds big; but figure it out. The per capita is only 1-1/3 gallons, while the per capita of the license states is 5 gallons—some difference. But what a load the whiskey men make over the 1-1/3 gallons.

Albany will also help Corvallis out when she has her O. E. celebration.

The trouble with a great many men is that they don't know the powers in them.

Albany is now a cafeteria city, a metropolitan feature appreciated.

A demand for furnished rooms should be met. There are enquiries frequently.

The Misfit man has been looking for a big enough handkerchief for the occasion, the result of the Boston victory over New York. The bean eaters earned it, though, and in base ball as in everything else we do well to take our medicine.

The Wilson spirit is one of peace and good will, speaking for the kind of era this country needs.

CYRUS WALKER HAS STORY WITH A MORAL

Albany, Ore., Oct. 18, 1912. Editor Democrat—

While in Spring Valley, Polk Co., this state, in April 1911, organizing a grange I enjoyed the hospitality of Prof. W. J. Crawford, orchardist and dairyman, and at one time prominent in religious work in Albany, also for a time principal of the Albany public schools. One of his sons, Geo. H., if I rightly remember his name and who as a boy is well remembered here, no doubt, told us that when in Salem one day he met a German from Dallas, who owned a meat market there, and upon asking him how business was since Polk county had gone back wet answered about as follows, which I express in the language and facts as given to me, viz: "I tells you how it is; I likes mine beer, mine friends likes their beer, so I votes him wet; but now I sees them fellows they goes to the saloons and pays their moneys for whiskey and beer and then they comes to me and wants credit. The next time I votes him dry, and I ain't the only one."

Whatever the reasons may be for wishing to turn Albany "wet" again, it would be well for those who think it best to do so, or so desire that condition, to heed the German's experience. That will apply to all legitimate business enterprises, and as to prosperity, "let well enough alone," and not "jump from the frying pan into the fire" because of "blind pigs" or other evils complained of.

FIRST SLEEPING CAR TAXED TO CAPACITY LAST NIGHT

The first sleeping car to leave Portland over the Oregon Electric at 12:01 o'clock last night was taxed to its capacity with passengers for this city and Eugene. The "Owl" service will undoubtedly be popular with the residents of the valley if the crowd that reserved berths on the train last night is a fair indication.

The sleeping cars are open at Portland shortly after 9 o'clock and passengers for Albany may retire at that time and remain in their berths until the train leaves this city at 5 a. m. The train arrives here at 3:30 a. m.
