

7000 ATTEND GAME HERE ON SATURDAY

Corvallis Special Arrives Here at 1:30 Bringing Huge Crowd of Rooters.

NO FIGHTS OCCURED TOMOR PLEASURE OF THE CONTEST

Demonstrations by Students on Field Win Applause of the Spectators.

Continued from Monday, Nov. 25.

The football game in this city last Saturday afternoon which resulted in the defeat of Dolan's aggregation by the close score of 3 to 0, was one of the best gridiron battles ever staged in the Willamette Valley and was attended by over 7000 people who flocked to this city from all parts of the state.

The special from Corvallis which consisted of twelve coaches arrived in Albany at 1:30 o'clock, bringing 2500 enthusiastic fans, including the residents of Corvallis and practically the entire student body of the Oregon Agricultural College, headed by the color band.

Upon the arrival of the special, the cadets who were attired in their olive drab uniforms, lined up in company formation and paraded through the streets of the business section and back to the football field where they occupied a section of the south side of the field.

The Oregon special from Eugene which consisted of eight coaches, arrived at 1:45 o'clock and was stopped near the grounds where the crowd of about 2000 varsity students detained and immediately went to the grounds, where seats had been reserved for them on the north side of the field.

Plenty of seats were provided for everybody and the best of feeling prevailed. There wasn't a single fight or disturbance of any kind during the game and after the contest was ended, the supporters of both schools mingled freely with each other without coming to blows.

Between the halves, the students gave demonstrations on the field. The U. of O. crowd marched about the field, forming the letter "O" and playing the music of their band.

The Aggies marched about the field forming the letters "O. A. C." after which they massed together in the center of the field and rendered a song. The most original stunt and one which was very appropriate for the occasion occurred when the O. A. C. boys liberated eleven carrier pigeons to which were attached orange and black ribbons. The pigeons hovered over the field for several minutes and then flew away in the direction of Corvallis. The "doves of peace" were greeted with the cheers of the entire crowd.

MASS MEETING AT THE CLUB ROOMS TONIGHT

Plans Will Be Discussed for Securing a Larger Number of Manufacturing Enterprises.

To discuss with the business men of Albany the advisability of establishing a manufacturing enterprise which will give employment to a large number of men, J. H. Tregilgas will be present at a mass meeting which will be held in the club rooms at 8 o'clock this evening.

Mr. Tregilgas is willing to back the enterprise with his own money and is a man of experience in the particular line of manufacturing which he proposes to carry on in this city.

Mr. Sandstrom, a heavy stockholder in the Union Furniture company, will also be present at this meeting and give his ideas as to Albany as a manufacturing city.

Every business man in Albany is urged to attend this meeting and to use his influence towards the establishment of more manufacturing enterprises in the Hub City.

Mayor V. S. Wennersten and Councilman J. L. Underwood of Lebanon were passengers on the electric limited this morning to Portland where they will look after business matters today.

County School Superintendent W. L. Jackson went to Corvallis this morning to assume charge of the Linn-Benton teachers' institute which convenes there today.

C. W. Rootcher, city superintendent of the Albany schools, and Lloyd A. Marquand, principal of the high school, went to Corvallis this morning. Both are instructors at the teachers' institute.

Miss Alice Farnsworth who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornbrook, returned last night to resume her studies at the University of Oregon.

Paul Leach, employed by the Brownsville Real Estate Co., returned home last evening after a short visit in Albany at the home of his parents.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TENDERED BANQUET TO VISITORS

Best of Feeling Shown by the Speakers; Informal Reception at the Club Rooms.

A feeling of goodfellowship between the members of the faculty and students of the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College was manifested at the banquet tendered to the officials of the two colleges and members of the football teams at the Elks hall Saturday night by the Albany Commercial Club. Immediately after the close of the game the college officials assembled at the Commercial Club rooms where an informal reception was held. At six o'clock they proceeded to the Elks' hall where an elaborate banquet had been prepared. President Van Winckle of the Albany Commercial Club acted as toastmaster and first presented President Campbell of the University. President Campbell was followed by President Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural College, J. K. Weatherford, president of the Board of Regents of the Oregon Agricultural College, Mayor Gilbert, Sam Dolan of Corvallis, Mr. Goary of Eugene, Mr. Pilkington of Corvallis, Tom Kay of Salem and others who are prominent in the respective college cities spoke at the banquet.

The speakers congratulated the citizens of Albany upon the excellent manner in which the crowd had been handled and the best of feeling was shown by the various speakers. It was the unanimous opinion of those present that the game next year should be held in the Hub City.

PLATE GLASS FRONT FOR THE NEW HAMMEL HOTEL

If the plans of the contractors are carried out, the new plate glass front will be installed in the New Hammel hotel building during the early part of the present week. The elevator has also arrived and will be installed in a few days. The contractor in charge of the building operations is pushing the work as rapidly as possible and expects to have the building ready for occupancy at an early date.

SOUTHERN SURGEONS WILL OPERATE FOR INSANITY

Wheeling, Nov. 22.—An operation to cure insanity will be undertaken by Drs. Gregory Ackerman and C. A. Gigerter on Eugene Carver, a 17-year-old French boy, whose case has been a puzzle to physicians since he was a baby. When beginning to walk the lad was knocked down in play, and although he regained his physical strength he has displayed criminal inclinations which make it necessary to keep him continually under observation.

Recently he lighted a large quantity of paper to a grate and placed the fire in a clothes closet, setting fire to the house. A few days later he stabbed his 16-year-old sister with a fork.

COURT HOUSE NOTES.

- Warranty Deed. Harriet Cooley to W. C. Templeton and wife, Sept. 26, 1912, 10 acres in claim 59, T. 14, 2 west, S. 1, J. A. Cary and wife to H. H. Wevitt as trustee, Nov. 12th, 1912, Lands in section 29, T. 10, 1 west, S. 10, O. B. Long and wife to Bernard Sorenson, Nov. 9th, 1912, Lands in block 6 in City of Harrisburg, $1.00, O. B. Long and wife to O. A. Sorenson, Nov. 12, 1912, Lot in block 3 in City of Harrisburg, $5.00.
- Bargain and Sale Deed. H. H. Hewitt and wife to J. A. Cary, Nov. 20, 1912, 1.35 acres in section 20, T. 10, 1 west, S. 10, H. H. Hewitt, trustee, to Lulu B. Cary, Nov. 20, 1912, 105 acres in section 29, T. 10, 1 west, S. 10.
- B. E. Raines and wife to L. T. February and N. A. Lands in section 2, and 45, T. 12 and 11 west, Linn county, $1.00.
- Quit-Claim Deed. Zala G. Sorenson to Bernard Sorenson, Nov. 11, 1912, South 50 acres of land, deeded to Idaho F. Campbell.
- Marriage License. Will F. Gatchell, age 27, and Bertha Mann Cook, age 27, both of Lebanon.
- George W. Cline left this morning for Portland on a short business trip. He will also go to Westport down the Columbia, before returning home.
- Mrs. Edith H. Bookler of Portland, who delivered a fine sermon to a large audience at the Methodist church last evening, returned to the metropolis this morning.
- B. J. Lakin, proprietor of the Dreamland theatre, returned last night from Chicago where he has been spending the past two months. He brings to Albany some of the latest ideas in the moving picture business from the Illinois metropolis.
- J. P. Galbraith, U. S. inspector at Eugene, Washington, passed through Albany today to Brownsville where on next Tuesday he will attend the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Captain James Blakely.
- Miss Maude Collins, who teaches at the Oak Plains school between Halsey and Shedd, passed through Albany this morning to Corvallis to attend the teachers' institute.
- Miss Myrtle Crabtree who teaches school near Sweet Home passed through Albany this morning to Corvallis to attend the teachers' institute.

CHIEF OF POLICE DAUGHTRY MAKES STATEMENT TODAY

Thanks Residents of Albany for Support Given Him and His Night Officers.

Chief of Police Ellis Daughtry when interviewed this morning by the Democrat representative concerning his resignation as head of the police department of Albany, gave out the following statement: "I resigned my position as police chief purely on my own accord. There are certain people in Albany who are dissatisfied with my work. I am not going to stand in their way to make this city better than it now is. I have performed the duties of my office to the best of my ability and to the entire satisfaction of the mayor and members of the city council, who have not asked me to resign and none of whom wanted me to resign.

ELLIS DAUGHTRY Who Tendered Resignation Today as Chief of Police of This City.

"As for taking money and checks from bludgeoners, I never took a cent from anybody and will give five hundred dollars to the person who will prove that I have ever taken money from the bludgeoners or that any check given me by them, has passed through the banks.

"My nightmen, Webb and McClung, have performed their duties to my satisfaction and I never asked them to resign. They resigned on their own accord. This also applies to the special officers.

"I want to thank the residents of Albany and the mayor and city council for the support they have given me and I hope my successor, whoever he may be, will perform his duties to the entire satisfaction of all."

CLARENCE CAMERON GAME; PAYS ELECTION BET

Attired in a full dress suit and a silk hat, Clarence Cameron wheeled a wheelbarrow through the principal business section of the city Saturday afternoon which was decorated with advertisements for Dawson's drug store.

The comedy in which Mr. Cameron was the star performer was the result of an election bet made by him with Fred Dawson that Roosevelt would carry Oregon.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MANNING HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

The funeral of Mrs. Manning who died at St. Mary's hospital late Friday night was held at the family residence on East First street yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Manning was taken sick with convulsions Friday and was removed to St. Mary's hospital. She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn her death.

T. J. Butler, county commissioner, went out to Sadie Butte this morning to house some machinery which is owned by the county.

Attorney J. K. Weatherford of this city was a passenger to Corvallis this morning where he will attend the circuit court which is now in session there.

Miss Tate, who has charge of the fifth grade of the Central school in this city, went to Corvallis this morning to attend the teachers' institute.

The early train to Corvallis this morning carried over 70 Linn county schoolma'ns to the teachers' institute which convenes in the College City this morning.

Miss Jessie Read, one of Linn County's efficient schoolteachers, who has charge of the Knox Butte school, four miles east of this city, went to Corvallis this morning to attend the teachers' institute.

GOVERNOR WEST TO ARRIVE TONIGHT

Chief Executive Will Address Albany People at 8 O'clock at the Opera House.

"LAW ENFORCEMENT" IS THE SUBJECT OF HIS ADDRESS

Banquet Will Be Tendered the Governor at New Elite at 6:45 O'clock Sharp.

Governor Oswald West will arrive in Albany from Salem on the "Willamette Limited" at 6:30 o'clock this evening and tonight at 8 o'clock will address a monster mass meeting of local citizens at the opera house on the subject of "Law Enforcement."

Upon the arrival of the governor's train at the union depot this evening, the chief executive will be met by a reception committee and taken to the New Elite where he will dine with a number of prominent business men of this city, including Mayor Gilbert.

The committee having the dinner in charge have made arrangements with R. C. Churchill to serve the dinner at 6:45 o'clock and covers will be laid for twenty-one. Following the dinner at the New Elite, the governor will be taken to the opera house where he is scheduled to appear at 8 o'clock.

At the mass meeting at the opera house at 8 o'clock this evening, Mayor P. D. Gilbert will preside and the chief executive of the state will be introduced by the Hon. W. R. Bilyeu of this city, who delivered an enthusiastic address at the armory a short time ago when Governor West was forced to abandon his trip to this city.

The governor's address this evening will be of vital interest to every law-abiding citizen of Albany, and the ladies in particular are urged to attend. Come early for the seating capacity of the opera house is limited.

COFFIN AND HEARSE FOR HER PRIZE PUG

Mistress Had Spent $3,000 on Him in 12 Years, and They Travelled 50,000 Miles.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.—With greater funeral honors than are accorded many men, "Monkey," a pug dog, owned by Mrs. Mary Jackson, was buried this afternoon.

"Monkey" died of old age yesterday morning after four veterinary doctors had been in attendance, Mrs. Jackson was almost prostrated and sat weeping today beside a coffin containing the body until time for the funeral. The dog was twenty years old.

"Monkey" and Mrs. Jackson travelled nearly 50,000 miles together in the United States. Mrs. Jackson spent more than $300 for his comfort and health in the last twelve years. During the dog's illness of three months, four doctors were in almost constant attendance. When it was seen that there was little hope of averting death, Mrs. Jackson was about to send to Chicago for a specialist in animal ailments, "Monkey" did before this could be done.

The body, in its costly casket, was exhibited in the best room of the Jackson home. Flowers were sent by neighbors and admirers of "Monkey," a hearse carried the casket to Price Hill, where "Monkey" was buried in a lot furnished through the Ohio Humane Society. Funeral services, consisting of short addresses by the members of the society, were held at the residence.

"Monkey" was a Russian pug, and had carried premiums at the Madison Square and Niagara Falls shows as the smallest in his class. Mrs. Jackson had refused offers of $500 for the pet.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in Albany Dec. 6 and 7; Lebanon 5. Remember the dates. wn29

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, administratrix of the estate of Mary F. Rhoades, deceased, has filed her final account in the matter of said estate with the County Clerk of Linn county, Oregon, and the County Court of said county has fixed Saturday, December 28th, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m. as the time for hearing objections to said final account and for the final settlement of said estate.

Dated this 29th day of November, 1912.
NELLIE R. MYERS, Administratrix.
T. J. STITES, Atty. for Administratrix. N29D27

EAT BOILED ONIONS SAYS HETTY GREE

World's Greatest Business Woman Is Still Against Woman Suffrage; Is 70 Years Old.

New York, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Hetty Green, probably the world's richest woman, will celebrate her seventieth birthday tomorrow.

"She said today that the 'celebration' will consist of her going to her desk in the Broadway offices of the Westminster company, the headquarters of the Green estate, at the usual hour, 9 o'clock, and remaining there hard at work until 5 or 6 o'clock. Then she will return to the home of her hostess, Countess Leary, 1029 Fifth avenue, where she will continue as a guest until the little flar she gave up in Hoboken after the marriage of her daughter, three years ago, shall be ready for her occupancy again.

Mrs. Green was nibbling at a boiled onion while she talked to reporters. "I always have a boiled onion with me," she said in explanation of her unusual dietary indulgence, "and I always chew on one when I am hungry. It is the greatest protection in the world against disease germs. I have been doing this 20 years, and as a result I have not had a sore throat in that time. All women should do the same thing and they would, too, if it were not for their vanity."

The world's greatest business woman is still against woman suffrage. "I do not believe in it at all," she snapped when asked about her present attitude. "A woman's place is her home, busy at baking, washing and caring for the children. I took care of my husband and his stomach and he lived to be 83."

Mrs. Green said she could not state the amount of her fortune. "Unless I should tell a lie," she added with vigor. "I may be worth $25,000,000 or I may be worth $200,000,000. I should have to guess. But early next year my son Ned and I are going to take an inventory of all we own. Then we will know definitely the value of our estate."

MRS. GREEN'S HEARTY WELCOME

Mr. and Mrs. George Hochensmith returned Tuesday evening from Albany where they had been to see W. O. Bond, who, by the way, remains about the same as when last reported.

C. R. Evans has returned from his trip to Portland and other points north. He brought home with him a fine thoroughbred Holstein bull and a Poland China pig. When it comes to stock, Mr. Evans believes in keeping the best.

The new traveling library, consisting of 59 volumes, has just arrived and the books are now to be had at the Halsey Public Library. These books have not come to stay and every one should take advantage of the opportunity to read them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Winniford were in attendance at the Apple Show at Albany Thursday where they captured first prize on both celery and sweet potatoes. Mr. Winniford was amused by some ladies remarking as they passed his exhibit: "they can't fool us." "They can't raise such sweet potatoes in Oregon." To all such doubts we beg to say, just visit Mr. Winniford's farm southeast of town.

J. P. Hunter of Halsey, who had been visiting his friend, Harry Stewart, of near Albany, returned home the first of the week. While there he and Mr. Stewart took in the Corvallis foot ball game on Saturday which was a contest between the O. A. C. team and that of Whitman College, of Washington, the O. A. C.'s being the winners in the score of 20 to 3. Mr. Hunter pronounced it a good game.

Mrs. G. W. Mornhinweg and son, Homer, went to Albany Friday and met Charles, son and brother, who is attending high school in that city, and who accompanied them home for a visit until he returned for school Monday.

Mrs. R. A. McCully accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Wallace, went to Eugene on Friday where they visited at the home of Mrs. McCully's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bonnett. Mrs. Wallace returned Saturday evening and Mrs. McCully will remain until the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Whitlatch were in Halsey shopping on Tuesday.

Mrs. M. E. Gardner went to Albany for a visit with friends on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Jones left Tuesday for a visit with her daughter who lives near Albany.

Mrs. Guy Richmond, of Eugene, came down the first of the week for a visit with her father, Newt Afford.

Born in Halsey, Oregon, Nov. 18th, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Robins, a daughter.—Enterprise.

NEGRO OFFERS SKIN FOR A WHITE GIRL

Refused, He Still Insists on Saving Little Victim of Burns.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Among the seven men who appeared today at the St. Agnes hospital and offered to give part of their skin to save the life of six-year-old Mary Fararra was a negro. He was by far the most anxious of the crowd and even after all the others had been rejected by the physicians he continued his offer.

The men came in answer to a newspaper advertisement inserted by the mother of the child, who cannot give her own skin because she is soon to become a mother again.

Little Mary was horribly burned about a month ago and the burns refused to heal. The physicians say that because of the death of "Billy" Rugh, the Gary, Ind., "newsie," who died following an operation for skin grafting; they are unwilling to take the skin off of any person except a member of a patient's family or an intimate relative.

A FUGITIVE HIMSELF, WORKS AS SLEUTH

Illness in New York Brings Confession of $40,000 Theft of State's Money.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 25.—Will R. McBride, former assistant state auditor of Oklahoma, who absconded nineteen months ago with $17,000 of the state's money, traveled abroad nearly all the time while absent and actually worked, while himself a fugitive from justice, for Scotland Yard and detective agencies in London and throughout the British Isles and later in New York for other detective firms.

Now a confessed defaulter of $40,000 or more of the state's money, he is back in Guthrie, a guest at the home of Sheriff Murphy, where he is being concealed from members of the Burns Detective agency.

McBride has made a clean breast of everything, it is said, to Attorney-General West of Oklahoma, who is making ready to grab the "higher-ups" in the case.

While away McBride traveled in France, Austria and Germany. Thoughts of his wife and two-year-old boy at home brought him back to New York last spring, and a long spell of sickness finally forced him to telegraph Attorney-General West that he was at the Cadillac Hotel, New York, sick and without money to pay his bills.

West telegraphed McBride the money and met him in Joplin, Mo., last Saturday. There, it is said, McBride told West all about his defalcations, which consisted of the issuing of many bogus state warrants.

One of the prettiest things ever seen in foot ball were the doves let loose, emblems of peace between the two colleges, a fine expression of the renewed relationship.

A baby down in Texas has just been born with gray hairs. No other state would be big enough for that.

If a turkey ever sheds tears, now is the time to get busy.

Something doing in policeman. Also undoing.

What's millions without the respect of your fellowman.

We have much to be thankful for, and there will be more when the b. p.'s are downed for good.

All is not cold that shivers, says Woods Hutchinson in Good Housekeeping. Some people just shiver from habit. The world needs to get used to little snaps and be ready for them.

About the best of everything is the family reunion on Thanksgiving day, running over with good will and fellowship, with turkey breast and cranberry sauce simply as incidentals incomparably small beside the others.