

CLARENCE LOVEJOY ARRESTED TODAY

Astoria Embezzler Nabbed At Thomas This Morning By J. A.
Bilyeu of Scio.

SHERIFF SMITH GETS MAN WANTED IN CLATSOP COUNTY

Fugitive Bookkeeper Accused of Juggling Accounts of Elks Lodge Recently.

Clarence Lovejoy of Astoria, who disappeared from that city several months ago after embezzling a sum of money estimated at between $600 and $700 from the Elks lodge of that city, where he was employed as bookkeeper, was arrested this morning at the residence of Mrs. S. W. Gaines in the country near Thomas by Deputy Sheriff J. A. Bilyeu of Scio, and will be brought to this city where he will be held to await the arrival of officers from Astoria. He will be taken back to Astoria where he will be forced to stand trial for embezzlement.

The arrest of Lovejoy came when Sheriff Smith of this city received a telegram last evening from Sheriff Burns of Clatsop county to the effect that he had been informed that Lovejoy was hiding at the Gaines home near Thomas, he being related to the Gaines family. Sheriff Smith immediately telephoned to his deputy at Scio to make the arrest and bring the prisoner to this city.

Bilyeu made the arrest this morning, Lovejoy making no resistance, and is now on his way to Albany with his prisoner. It is said that Lovejoy has admitted his guilt. The description of Lovejoy which was received here this morning gives the prisoner age at 37 and the photo which accompanied it shows Lovejoy to be a good looking man.

He juggled the accounts of the Astoria lodge several months ago and after securing over $600 from the lodge's funds, hurriedly left Astoria and came to Albany, from which place he went to Thomas where he has since been living with relatives in that vicinity. Sheriff Burns notified Sheriff Smith today that he would send an officer to this city at once to return Lovejoy to Astoria, and he will probably arrive here this evening.

MISTAKE IN ADVERTISEMENT CAUSES TROUBLE TODAY

Many Women Would Buy 17
Cent Underwear Advertised in the Democrat.

A mistake on the part of the proof reader, is causing the firm of Chambers & McCune no end of trouble and explanation.

In the quarter page advertisement carried by that firm in the columns of the Democrat, a mistake was made yesterday in quoting the price of boys' woolen underwear. In the copy it was advertised at 93 cents but in setting up the advertisement the printer made a mistake which was overlooked in reading proof. When the advertisement appeared the underwear was advertised at 17 cents.

This morning women have been swarming into the store for the purpose of buying 17-cent woolen underwear and it has kept a force of clerks explaining to the customers during the greater portion of the morning.

FANNIE WHITTAKER IS GIVEN A DIVORCE

Three Generations Testify in Interesting Case in Judge Galloways Court.

YOUNG WOMAN WAS 17 YEARS OLD WHEN SHE MARRIED MAN

Thirteen Decrees Granted Since
Court Opened in This City
Last Monday Morning.

Three generations testified in the divorce case of Fannie Whittaker vs. G. M. Whittaker which was heard yesterday in Judge Galloway's court in this city, the plaintiff's mother and grandmother adding their testimony to that of the young lady herself.

When Fannie McCune of Lebanon was but 17 years of age, she married G. M. Whittaker who was at that time 45 years old. Shortly after their marriage, which occurred on January 31, 1910, the newlyweds moved to Montana but a few weeks Whittaker informed his young bride that he did not care to support her longer and after giving her money to purchase a ticket back to Lebanon, he deserted her, leaving her among strangers. She returned to Lebanon where she has since resided with her mother.

Before granting her a divorce, Judge Galloway gave the young woman some fatherly advice and severely criticized her for marrying a man nearly three times as old as she was, telling her that he was old enough to be her father. Whittaker's marriage to Agnie McCune was his third marriage and on each occasion none of the wives were over 17 years of age. He had three children by his first wife, one by his second, but none by his last wife who was given a divorce yesterday for desertion.

Besides the divorce issued by Judge Galloway yesterday to Fannie Whittaker, three others were also granted. Pearl Wilkerson from Charles H. Wilkerson, George D. Neely from Eva B. Neely, B. W. Miller from Icie A. Miller. This makes a total of thirteen divorces granted by Judge Galloway since the opening of court in this city last Monday morning.

Y. W. C. A. OF ALBANY COLLEGE MISSIONARY PAGEANT SOON

Dr. Charles R. Manley of Kansas City Addressed Students of College Today.

The Y. W. C. A. of Albany College will give a Foreign Missionary Pageant in the college chapel Friday evening at 8 o'clock, free to everybody and everybody invited. A good deal of attention has been given to the preparation of this pageant and it will be worthy of a large attendance.

At the chapel exercises this morning a very interesting address on India was given by Dr. Charles R. Manley of Kansas City. Dr. Manly was born in India and grew up to about ten years of age at a distance of two days' journey from other white people than his parents who were missionaries. He knew no English when he came to America, but learned it thoroughly in six months and forgot as thoroughly the native language of India in the same time. He saw for the first time several of his little brothers and a sister after the oldest of them was some ten years old, when they returned to America. Dr. Manly practices medicine in Kansas City and is now visiting Mr. C. L. Bass in Albany.

Miss Juanita Hart of Portland arrived in Albany this afternoon and will visit for a few days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Hugh Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Cornish of Alton, Iowa, have been visiting during the past two days at the home of I. W. Reeder of this city. They will leave in the morning for California.

C. A. Van Dran, one of the genial proprietors of the Van Dran hotel of this city, went to Oregon City last evening to attend the dedication of the new BKS' Temple in that city. Mr. Van Dran will transact business in Portland today.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Patton of Corvallis arrived in Albany last evening and are registered at the Van Dran hotel.

G. W. Garland of this city went to Crabtree today where he will look after business matters this afternoon.

Phil Baltimore, one of Albany's crack shots, left this afternoon for Tangent to attend the big turkey shoot which is being held there this afternoon.

Al Humphreys, a barber at the Combination shop, succeeded in capturing the turkey which was thrown from the Sternberg store roof at noon today.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE WILL BE HELD AT CORVALLIS SOON

The schoolteachers of Linn and Benton counties will convene at Corvallis on next Monday in their annual convention which will be in session for three days. The institute will be held in the high school building and will be in charge of County School Superintendents Mack of Benton county and Jackson of Linn county. The convention will be addressed by some of the most noted educators in the country and all important questions pertaining to the schools will be discussed.

Albert Joffray of Portland, mail transfer clerk at the Union depot in that city, arrived in Albany last evening on a short visit with the boys at the local postoffice. He will return to Portland this evening. Mr. Joffray was formerly mail transfer clerk at this city.

PEACOCK IS GUILTY AGAIN SAYS JURY

After Deliberation of Twenty-two Minutes Verdict of Guilty Was Returned.

THIRD CASE ON TRIAL TODAY AT THE LOCAL COURTHOUSE

Is Accused of Selling Liquor to Rex Peery, A Resident of Lacombe Country.

After deliberating but twenty-two minutes, the jury in the second case of Oregon vs. Al Peacock, for violation of the local option law, which was tried in this city yesterday, returned a verdict of "guilty as charged in the indictment."

This is the second time within the past two days that Peacock has been found guilty of violating the local option law, a jury on Tuesday having returned a verdict of guilty after but twenty-five minutes deliberation. The first indictment charged Peacock with selling liquor to Ed Aekerman of Shedd.

The indictment upon which he was tried yesterday charged him with selling liquor to Lawson Craft, a young man residing at Lacombe. This morning a jury was being secured to hear the evidence in the third case against Peacock.

In this case he is charged with selling intoxicating liquor to Rex Peery of Lacombe. The jury which returned a verdict of guilty against Peacock yesterday was composed of the following men: H. L. Kizer, D. W. King, Henry Shaunis, John B. Miller, A. P. Blackburn, W. W. Poland, Lee J. Gaines, L. C. Trask, J. B. Burch, William Conner, Charles A. Bates, P. H. Harggett.
