GRAND PRAIRIE GRANGE ELECTS PERMANENT OFFICERS

Installation Ceremonies Will Take Place on Second
Saturday in January.

One of the most interesting meetings ever held in the history of Grand held last Saturday, when in addition to the usual routine of business, the Prairie Grange Number 10 was that officers for the ensuing year were elected. D. H. Bodine presided at the meeting and F. M. Mitchell acted as secretary. The following officers were elected:

Master, C. H. Shaw; overseer, R. W. Ivy; lecturer, Rachel Faley; steward, A. D. Calkins; assistant steward, W. F. Parsons; chaplain, Lyman Markham; treasurer, Thos. Froman; secretary, F. M. Mitchell, gate-keeper, E. M. Combs; pomona, Golda Combs; cures, Vera Combs; flora, Roberta Fry; lady assistant steward, Irene Fry.

Installation of officers will take place on second Saturday in January, at 11 a. m. The usual banquet will be served free to all grangers and invited friends.

Mr. Carter is here as delegate to the Artisan convention and before leaving called at the Democrat office to renew his subscription to the paper.
