Over two hundred people attended the joint installation ceremony of the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters which was held last evening in the castle hall of Laurel Lodge No. 7 in the Baltimore building and it was one of the most enjoyable affairs that has been held in this city for several months.

The crowd began to arrive early in the evening and when the program was opened at 9 o'clock the hall was filled to overflowing.

L. M. Curl, past grand chancellor, introduced Willard L. Marks, past chancellor, of this city, who installed the following officers: Charles B. Reynolds, C. C.; Milton H. McGuire, V. C.; Albert L. Kullander, Prel.; George C. Richards, M. W.; L. M. Curl, K. R. S.; John G. Bryant, M. of F.; Ralph E. McKechnie, M. of E.; Leland R. Gilbert, M. at A.; Ed Tate, I. G.; and Howard F. Hazen, O. G.

Following the installation of the new officers of the Knights of Pythias, the Pythian Sisters in a beautiful ceremony installed their new officers, ably assisted by six or eight of Albany's prettiest little girls. During the program vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. J. F. Watson, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly and Miss Zona Haight, all of whom were compelled to respond with an encore. All three of the signers were accompanied by Mrs. Franklin H. Geselbracht.

The installation ceremony of the Pythian Sisters which was given last evening was one of the prettiest ceremonies ever seen in Albany and the ladies are to be complimented on the excellent manner in which the many details were carried out.

Following the Pythian Sisters' installation splendid talks were made by Frank T. Wrightman, past grand chancellor, and L. R. Stinson, grand keeper of records and seals, of the Knights of Pythias order. Their talks were along the lines of Pythianism and were among the strongest and most inspiring talks ever given in Albany. Both gentlemen have a reputation as orators and that they certainly lived up to it, was admitted by everybody present last evening.

Following the talks by Messrs. Wrightman and Stinson, a fine luncheon of several courses which had been prepared by the ladies was served to the guests by a committee of young ladies and young men. It was approaching morning when the crowd dispersed after a most delightful evening.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS MEETING TODAY

Raymond Robbins and Fred B. Smith Make Strong Pleas for Better Life.

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM PRESENTED BY QUARTET

Meeting Called to Order by C. E. Sox; Every Seat in the Church Occupied.

Declaring that the purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association is to prevent wrong doing, rather than to censure it, Fred B. Smith this afternoon made a strong plea to the young men of Albany at a meeting held at the M. E. church and attended by one of the largest crowds in the history of Albany.

The meeting was called to order by C. E. Sox, president of the local Y. M. C. A., who presented Raymond Robbins.

Mr. Robbins made an effective plea for a cleaner and better life, taking as his text, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." He asked the people of Albany to live so that if Christ should come to Albany he would not weep over the citizens as he did over those of Jerusalem 1900 years ago.

Mr. Robbins was followed by Fred B. Smith who made an excellent address.

The musical numbers by the International Y. M. C. A. quartet were particularly fine, and the entire meeting was one of the most successful ever held in Albany.

TAX FIGURES FOR LINN CO. COMPILED

City Taxes in Six Cities Are Higher Than the County Levy.

92 SPECIAL LEVIES FOR THE EXTENSION ROLL

Highest School Levy Is 15 Mills in District No. 133 Near Crawfordsville.

In six of the eight cities of Linn county the taxes to be paid this spring for local, city and school purposes are greater than the total county levy for all state, county, school and road purposes. In one other city the local levies just equal the general county levy.

Now that the county court has fixed the county levy at 12 mills, the total levy for all purposes for extension on the 1912 tax roll in the various cities of the county is as follows: Albany, 31 1/2 mills; Brownsville, (north side), 27 1/2 mills; Brownsville, (south side), 26 1/2 mills; Halsey, 24 mills; Harrisburg, 25 mills; Lebanon, 32 mills; Seio, 30 mills; Sodaville, 26.8 mills; Sweet Home, 22 mills. The difference in the levy in the two portions of Brownsville is due to the fact that the city is divided into two school districts.

The city levies in each of the cities are as follows: Albany, 13 mills; Lebanon, 10 mills; Brownsville, 8 mills; Seio, 8 mills; Sweet Home, 8 mills; Harrisburg, 7 mills; Halsey, 5 mills; Sodaville, 4 mills.

The special school district levies in each of the eight cities of the county are: Sodaville, 10.8 mills; Lebanon, 10 mills; Seio, 10 mills; Halsey, 7 mills; North Brownsville, 7 1/2 mills; South Brownsville, 6 1/2 mills; Albany, 6 1/2 mills; Harrisburg, 6 mills; Sweet Home, 2 mills.

There are 92 special levies for extension on the 1912 tax roll. Of this number there are 72 special school district levies, two union high school district levies, eight special road district levies and eight city levies. The special road district levies are as follows: District 17 (Santiam), 2 mills; District 22 (Foster), 1 mill; District 23 (Berlin), 3 mills; District 24 (Lacombe), 3 mills; District 25 (Jordan), 2 mills; District 27 (Rock Creek), 1 1/2 mills; District 28 (Sweet Home), 5 mills; District 30 (Kingston), 3 mills.

The school levies range from one-tenth of one mill in District 46 (near Harrisburg) and District 106 (near Holley) to 15 mills in District 135, a one-widistric near Crawfordsville.

DR. CROOKS THANKS COMMERCIAL CLUB

Letter Read at Meeting Last Night Thanking Club for Effective Work.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED FOR BANQUET

Linn-Marion Boundary Question Is Discussed by Members of the Club.

At a well attended meeting of the Albany Commercial Club held last night the matter of correcting the boundary line between Linn and Marion counties was under consideration and the members of the legislature from Linn county requested to use their influence to secure the passage of a bill which will determine and settle the boundary disputes between the two counties.

The matter of preparing for the banquet which will be tendered to Dr. Crooks was also discussed and the following committee appointed on program: E. H. McCune, D. O. Woodworth and C. E. Sox.

The following letter from Dr. Crooks to the Albany Commercial Club is self explanatory: "I beg leave to express formally my thanks to the Commercial Club for their co-operation in our recent Albany College Endowment campaign. I regret that unusual pressure since the first of January has made it impossible for me to write this and many other letters that I should have been glad to write immediately after the success of the campaign. I trust that you will pardon tardiness. I remember with gratitude the interest with which the Commercial Club listened to the statement of our project made by myself and Mr. Carl E. Sox. I remember gratefully that your board of directors at once voted a committee to co-operate with us and that this committee was faithful to a man in attending a number of necessary meetings and in giving us aid in the difficult matter of soliciting funds.

"Naturally I turned at once to the Commercial Club for assistance. Naturally we used the Commercial Club offices as headquarters. Without such an organization in Albany our work would have been seriously crippled, our probability of success would have been much lessened.

"I have been too busy for the last year or two and too frequently out of town to know intimately the operation of the club and to know with what measure of financial support you are meeting. The thought comes to me that the most wide awake towns which I encounter are towns which support liberally a Commercial Club or a Chamber of Commerce who take up all projects for the community's up-building. I want to pledge you my own support in whatever capacities you find you can make use of me and to express the hope, that the citizens of Albany will give to your work such support that you can do the good work that you have done.

"Again thanking you and especially the committee of your board of directors for the work done in connection with the Albany College Endowment Fund."

Mrs. D. M. Shields and Miss Dottie Shields of Detroit, Or., spent yesterday afternoon in Albany on a short shopping trip. They returned home this morning.

Everett E. Cook and Leonard Butterfield, of Taft, Or., arrived in Albany last evening and are registered today at the Van Dran hotel.
