

..SUMPTER.. OREGON

The Johannesburg of America

"There is a Tide in the Affairs of Men, Which, Taken at the Flood, Leads on to Fortune;"
That Time has now Arrived at

.. Sumpter, Oregon ..

The Mining, Commercial and Financial Center of Eastern Oregon.

Population, Feb. 1, 1899,	-	171
Population, Jan. 1, 1900,	-	3,100
Population, July 1, 1900,	-	10,000

*** The Brightest Star in the Mining Firmament ***

Sumpter, Golden Sumpter, is surrounded by dividend paying mines. There are ten quartz mills running day and night, turning out thousands of dollars in dividends. The district stands today, for development made, second to none on earth.

Sumpter has a Railway

Four Saw Mills.
Electric light plant, with 60 arc lights and 2000 incandescents.
A most modern $50,000 water system with 30 fire hydrants.
Public school buildings and church buildings.
One steam laundry.
Two savings and one safety deposit bank.
Two newspapers.
One opera house.
Four hotels.
Ten restaurants.
About 15 lodging houses.
Six general merchandise and grocery stores.
Two hardware stores and plumbing shops.
Four dry goods and haberdashery stores.

Three Jewelry stores.
Two drug stores.
Three cigar and confectionery stores and news stands, with 12 newspapers on sale from the mining centers of the United States.
Two furniture stores.
Two tailoring establishments.
Two millinery emporiums.
One fish market.
Four meat markets.
Five barber shops.
Two bakeries.
Sixteen saloons.
The Sumpter Club.
One brewery.
Two hay and grain stores.

Three livery and freighting stables.
Three stage, transfer and freighting companies.
Six stage lines.
Three blacksmith shops.
Two harness shops.
About 300 dwelling houses.
Eleven business houses under construction, two of which are brick.
Two two-story brick buildings completed.
Seven assay offices, numerous real estate, mining brokers and law offices, besides physicians, dentists and civil engineers.
Number of secret societies.
No city taxes.
City out of debt.
Splendid fire department.

The place for up-to-date, conservative, practical men to invest. Seeing is believing. Come and see Sumpter and compare us with Republic, Rosslund, Dawson and Cape Nome. The

Sumpter Townsite Company, Limited,

Capital stock $100,000 paid up, are now placing on sale a limited number of lots upon terms to suit purchasers. TITLE GUARANTEED PERFECT. United States patents over six years old. Warranty deeds given. Correspondence solicited. Call on or address

Sumpter Townsite Company, Limited.

CHARLES S. WARREN, President.

TOM C. GRAY, Auditor.

W. C. CALDER, Secretary.