

BRICK BLOCK SOLD

Salem Man Buys From Jones and Yerger

J. E. Allen, of Salem, bought yesterday from Jones & Yerger their brick block, just south of the railroad track, on Mill street. The consideration is not known.

The building was erected last winter by the owners, who are contractors. It is a one story structure and consists of two store rooms. One of these is now occupied by the Hobson Mercantile company and the other by the Sumpter Townsite company, as an office.

Mr. Allen has been in Sumpter about a week, and is favorably impressed with the camp, rightly judging that it has a great future, as the distributing point for the eastern Oregon gold fields. His son has been here for a year past.

He is not taking the public into his confidence as to why he made this purchase; whether merely as an interest bearing investment, or to occupy himself. He was formerly engaged in the mercantile business at Salem, but for several years past has been farming.

Bring Along Your Ores

Every detail has been completed at the Sumpter smelter for treating the ore product of the district, and owners of mines who have long waited this necessary enterprise should now begin to send in the supply which has, in many instances, been lying on the dump for many months. The management of the smelter has expended a handsome sum of money to complete the plant and now only needs the encouragement of the mine owners, which should not be held back for another day. The attention of every one interested is called to the advertisement of the Smelter company elsewhere in these columns. Make use of the good condition of the roads while you can, by starting your ores at once.

Editor Man Makes Queer Promises

Colonel Jay Nat Hudson, of the Granite Boulder, makes some queer promises to his readers, apparently unsolicited. Wonder why he makes such a job lot of resolves as this: "No the Boulder will not pay for phone services before bills are due. The Boulder man will not try to play the 'real nice young fellow' among the young ladies of his vicinity, while his wife remains at home many miles away in blissful ignorance of his funny capers. The Boulder man will not assume leadership among the local democrats and at the same time run his paper in the interest of the Joe Simon-Moody wing of the republican party. Other things he will not do are left for future announcements."

Two Stray Horses

Two large dark bay horses about sixteen hands high, weigh about 1250 pounds each, shod all round, one branded "LT" on left stifle, blind in right eye; the other no brand, came to Eureka stable June 1. About 8 or 9 years old. Owner can have property by proving same, paying for keep and this notice. J. L. SULLIVAN.

Townsite Company People Out of Town
General Warren has gone to Rossland, British Columbia. W. C. Calder is out in the mountains for a few days. John M. Murphey left yesterday with Charles Mattison, of Butte, Montana, for a trip to all of the adjacent mining camps, to be away the rest of the week. Tom Gray is supposed to be over in Montana somewhere. This leaves Major Mosby alone in his glory around the Sumpter Townsite company's offices, but the man who thinks he can go in there and escape without doing business is liable to get fooled.

Public Notice.

All parties holding claims against the Sumpter Water company, proper, are requested to present them to the company's office for examination and audit.
