

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Dr. Greenlee, dentist, is located over the Sumpter Drug company store.

Mrs. William Stinson's friends will be pained to learn that she is seriously ill.

Ed. Cannon returned yesterday from Portland, where he went a week ago, on a business trip.

General Warren and J. K. Pardee left yesterday for the Diadem mine, to be gone a few days.

Dan O'Connell will please leave his address at THE MINER office, which is wanted by a friend.

Miss Eva Dean returned yesterday from Baker City, where she has been visiting friends for a week.

Hon. Sam White, district prosecuting Attorney, has been here taking testimony in some state cases this week.

W. C. Calder and Mr. Morrell, the later visiting here, went out to the Inter-Mountain mine yesterday.

Dr. L. T. Brock returned yesterday from Baker City, where he had been several days on professional business.

Mrs. N. C. Richards and son have returned from a trip to the coast, remaining in Tacoma and Portland about a month.

Contractor Meiklejohn is building a neat cottage on the south side of Granite street, Vinson's addition, for J. L. Evans.

Seymour Bell returned to Sumpter Saturday, accompanied by his wife and baby. All will remain here during the summer.

It seems now to be an assured fact that a hospital will be erected here at an early date, to be under the supervision of the Catholic church.

Engineer Fenner, his surveyors, Neil J. Sorensen and A. M. Keltie left for the Griffith placers yesterday, to do some survey work there.

W. B. Sargent, wife and son, of La-Grande, were in town Sunday on their way to Granite, near which place Mr. Sargent has a saw mill.

Tom McEwen has been appointed on the committee by the national republican convention to notify the vice presidential candidate of his nomination.

A good strike is reported to have been made this week on the La Grande company's property north of town. There is a large vein, which pans free gold.

United States Marshal Houser, F. H. O'Neill, August Lange and a gentleman from Pendleton, whose name could not be learned, left yesterday for Prairie City by private conveyance.

All members of Egan Tribe, No. 20 I. O. O. F. M., are requested to be at wigwam at 9 o'clock, July 4, for the purpose of taking part in the parade. All visiting brothers are invited.

Miss Flo Potter, who for some time past has been a member of Buffum's social orchestra, is going out for the summer. She was serenaded last evening by the Sumpter brass band.

Mr. and Mrs. August Lange and child arrived in Sumpter a few days since from Portland, and will make their home here in future. Mrs. Lange is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Neill.

J. H. Hubbard, of Portland, arrived here Saturday to remain the balance of the summer, being with other Portland people interested in some of the most promising mining properties in the Greenhorn district, west of Sumpter.

Elmer Cleaver passed through Sumpter Sunday on his way home from the Lawton district, where he is interested in mines. Lon Cleaver came in Monday from Prairie City. He says good coal was recently discovered in that vicinity.

The crosscut on the Umpqua property on McCullough creek, about five miles north of town, is in 210 feet and has encountered a very strong vein that promises well. The vein has been entered ten feet and the hanging wall has not been encountered.
