The Literary Digest

"All the Periodicals in One"

THE LITEPARY DIGEST has taken the highest rank as a weekly review of current thought at home and abroad, in the realms of literature, art, science, religion, politics, sociology, travel, discovery business, etc. Disscussion and information on all sides of important questions are given. The contents each week cover a field so diversified as to make THE LITERARY DIGEST indispensable to the busy man who desires to keep up with the thought of the time, but who lacks the letsure for such a task.

OPINIONS FROM AUTHORITIES

E. P. Powell, D. D., in Unity, Chicago: "THE LITERARY DIGHST is an absolute necessity to those who would keep in line with the progress of thought and achievement. I do not see how any thinking man can get along without it.

Edwin Markhom, Author of "The Man With the Hoe!" "THE LITERARY DIGHST is one of the two of three most valuable journals that come to my table."

Ex-Senator John J. Ingella: "The Literapy Digest enlarges the boundaries of intelligence." Senator William P. Frys: "It will afford im-mense assistance to the scholars of the country." Gov. John P. Altgeld, of Illinois: "The Little-ARY Digits? is one of the very best publications in America. To a student of current literature it is invaluable.

The Sumpter Miner

Is the recognized exponent of the mining and industrial interests of the EASTERN OREGON GOLD FIELDS. In the

Sumpter District

It is not only without an equal, but has no rival in quality and quantity of reliable information published every week. Its circulation is already the largest of any paper published in the district, both locally and in other communities and states, and is growing rap-As an advertising medium THE MINER stands at the head of the list, as its columns demonstrate. Advertising, like everything else, is worth little or nothing if it costs little or nothing. THE MINER'S rates are reasonable.
