

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Attorney Richards is in Baker City today on legal business.

A daughter was born at the home of E. E. Hauser Tuesday of last week.

E. Sanderson Smith returned Sunday from Portland, where he had been on mining business.

Seymour Bell left Sunday for British Columbia, on private business. He returned today.

A ball will be given at Ellis opera house this evening, for the benefit of the Sumpter Social society's library fund.

W. C. Calder returned Monday from La Grande and Warm Lake, where he had been for a week or more.

Miss Minnie Mahler, of the postoffice force, went to Baker City this afternoon to spend several days with her mother.

Hon. Dell Stuart, democratic candidate for elector, will discuss the issues of the campaign at Ellis opera house Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Clifford, were in town yesterday. While here they bought three lots in the new town of Whitney, will erect a building and do business there.

Dr. Eape reports that Mrs. Kane, shot some weeks since by her husband, has about recovered and will leave his hospital tomorrow, going to her sister, who lives in Baker City.

Robert Kahler returned to Sumpter last week, after completing the Portland Mining and Milling company's buildings on the Minneapolis claim at Bourne, of which E. Sanderson Smith is manager.

A Halloween social by the ladies of the Methodist church will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Kahler, corner of Columbia and North streets, to which a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Deity Hunt, more familiarly called "Mike" and certainly the most popular liquor drummer on the Pacific coast, is doing the town today. Mike sells more "cot-tin-oids" than any other five drummers in his line.

The ladies of the Methodist church have thoughtfully arranged to serve one of their noted chicken dinners, also a supper, on Election day, November 6, at Ellis opera house, price of either meal fifty cents, the proceeds to go to the church.

J. Nat Hudson, the attorney and journalist, returned to Sumpter this week from the Grande Ronde valley, where he has been since suspending publication of his paper at Grande. He announces that he will remain here and practice law.

A. C. Little, fish commissioner for the state at Washington, who is largely interested in and around Sumpter, spent several days here this week. He says that Governor Rogers will undoubtedly be re-elected over there and that Bryan will carry the state.

J. W. Scott was arrested a few days since on the charge of larceny, preferred by Ed Carmody, accusing him of stealing blankets and other personal effects from the Eureka livery stable. The case is now on before Justice Felix and will come up for hearing Monday.

There was a shooting scrape in the tenderloin Saturday evening, in which some powder was buried but no blood was shed. There was some trouble about the man's money and the woman's vasclating affections, which the former tried to settle with his gun. Recorder Manning fined him fifty dollars and took his horses to secure the money for this municipality.

Six O'Clock Dinners.

The Golden Eagle Hotel has inaugurated the plan of evening dinners and mid-day luncheons, which idea is an acceptable one to the majority of those living at hotels.

Mrs. R. H. Lloyd, music teacher of fifteen years experience, is now prepared to give instruction on the piano and organ. Apply at her home on North Mill street.
