

TALK OF THE TOWN.

E. C. Gove returned yesterday from Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Young, of Clifford, were in town yesterday.

Slippers make nice holiday presents. Read the Neill Mercantile company's card on last page.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Weigand came in from Baker City yesterday en route to their home at Bourne.

George B. Tedrowe, who has been confined to his home for three weeks with typhoid fever, is again able to appear on the streets.

The Methodist congregation has recently made some much needed improvements in the parsonage. A church building is the next thing on the program.

A miner named Olsen was brought to Drs. Tape & Pearce's hospital from Bonanza Saturday with a broken leg, which injury was received while working in the mine.

Word comes from Baker City that the owners of the Herald have taken that paper away from Cassidy, because he didn't pay the rent, and placed L. Bush Livermore in charge.

Colonel Grayson came in from Baker City yesterday, on his way to the Baby McKee, to superintend the delivery of a large quantity of machinery for that mine, which has arrived in Sumpter.

H. S. Chipp, who left here last week to take a position in a house in western Oregon, for which he worked for years, returned to Sumpter today. He says he was sent for and may remain here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. English arrived in town this forenoon from their home in Danville, Illinois. They were met here by their son, J. T. English, and driven out to the Golconda. They will remain here about three weeks.

It is reported on apparently reliable authority that the ore on which C. H. Fenner is now making a mill test is from the Magnolia; that he has an option on that mine and if the test proves satisfactory a sale will be made at an early day.

Mrs. Hoseley, of Canyon City, one of the pioneers of the John Day valley, passed through town Monday on her way to Portland, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, who is there under medical treatment.

Harold Sweetapple went to Portland a few days since to meet an old friend with whom he went to school in England. He has just come to this country, having recently been left a large fortune and is looking for investments.

J. G. McGuigan, of the Alamo mines, came in from Spokane yesterday morning, accompanied E. P. Trenholm, superintendent of the Spokane Street Railway company. Both went out to the mines on the noon stage for a few days stay.

A. L. McEwen, the well known mining expert, representing Canadian capital here, was married in Baker City last week to Mrs. W. A. Griffith. They will make Sumpter their home, having taken the Chipp residence on north Columbia street.

L. R. Freeman, of the Northwestern Farm and Home at Seattle, came on the Monday evening train. He is here to see and learn what he can about the town and district, with a view to publishing an article relative thereto in his paper, together with illustrations.

Messrs. Devore and Asbury, who operated the placer mine in Buck gulch, have shut down their camp and gone to Malheur to spend the winter. They have some quartz properties down there, which will receive their attention for the next few months.

Brackett Owen, of Paducah, Kentucky, arrived in town this forenoon. He has invested money in mining and comes here to go into business. He says that recent political troubles in his state have cut the regular democratic majority of forty or fifty thousand down to the present small unknown number.

Scenic Line of the World.

For an enjoyable trip east, take the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, Scenic Line of the world. Three daily trains between Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and all eastern points, and all points on the Pacific coast. Most magnificent scenery on this continent. The leading feature in connection with the trip is that the through trains pass through the scenic attractions of the Rocky mountains in Colorado by daylight, thus affording passengers a cool, pleasant and enjoyable ride, free from dust and the annoyances experienced via other lines. Superb dining car service on all through trains. Service a la carte, pay for what you order. Through standard and tourist sleepers. Stopovers allowed on all classes of tickets anywhere between Ogden and Denver. Call on your nearest ticket agent for tickets, rates and all information, or address,

C. B. NICHOL.
