Purchasers are Now at the Property.

The report that the Golconda has finally been sold is now given general credence by mining men.

Mr. Flood, of Pennsylvania, N. G. Neal, of Pittsburgh, L. Y. Woodmansee, of East Liverpool, Ohio, are now at the mine; it is thought, for the purpose of taking possession. Mr. Flood is the secretary of the company which is supposed to have made the purchase, and, it is to have made the purchase, and, it is said, will remain here in charge of affairs. TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878.-NOTICE The other gentlemen are interested one way or another in the deal. One of them is a mining engineer, who has come here to make a final examination.

THE MINER has been unable to secure any authoritative information regarding the sale. There are various reports in circulation regarding the details. The price is placed at half a million dollars, a portion of which is paid in cash and the remainder in one year, during which time $75,000 must be expended in development work. The policy of the new owners would therefore seem to be to develop, rather than work the property, indicating the command of ample capital. The plan of developing will be deep sinking.
