

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Alderman William Stinson left today for the coast.

Henry Spalding, who has been seriously ill for several days, is again out on the streets.

Assayer Hart has returned to Sumpter after an absence in Baker City for some weeks.

John Cupid and Secretary Joe Reed, of the Ball Mountain company, are at Hot Lake in Union county.

W. C. Calder left Friday for Pacific coast points, to be gone for ten days or two weeks, on business.

Norman Ellsworth, a Portland newspaper man, accompanied by his wife, was in Sumpter yesterday on business.

Mayor Robbins left Sunday for Denver on mining business. He was granted a leave of absence by the council for thirty days.

Elmer Cleaver, the mining and town-site promoter, was up Monday morning on business, returning to Baker City in the afternoon.

Captain Muir arrived in town yesterday to attend an important business meeting of the Sumpter Rough Riders this evening, in Healy hall.

Sheriff Laurance, of Grant county, passed through here Monday on his way to Salem, with a 14-year old boy for the state reform school.

Messrs. DeVore & Asbury, who have been spending the winter "on the outside," returned today to begin operations at their placer mine in Buck gulch.

Professor Holland says that the attendance in the public schools of Sumpter during February was greater by 96 than for the same month last year.

W. F. Dillon, of Tacoma, who has taken an interest in the recent organized Sunrise Gold Mines company of Sumpter, returned to the Sound today.

It is reported that a social gathering on the west side Saturday night broke up in a free fight and that the premises were as bloody as if they had been killing hogs.

Doctor and Mrs. Tapp with the latter's father and the Doctor's sister, are visiting the Union county Hot Springs for the general physical good that each may get from the trip.

Jesse Habson, of the Mercantile company operating here and at Bourne, left Monday for Portland and Willamette valley points on business, expecting to be absent ten days or two weeks.

Joe Hurt left Friday for Indianapolis and Cincinnati, where he formerly lived, and will be gone three or four weeks. Mrs. Hurt and her sister, Mrs. Griffith, will visit their mother in Baker City during his absence.

F. O. Bucknum and Dan Gonsolus have bonded to eastern people two claims on Trail creek, north of the Bellevue mine. Extensive work is to be done on the property during the life of the bond, or within the next five months.

Mrs. L. L. Scheiber, of the Metropolitan hotel, left Friday for Portland to receive medical attention at one of the sanitariums there. Mrs. Josie Smith, of the same hotel, accompanied her as far as Baker City and returned Sunday morning.

L. E. Rayse, of the Wisconsin Gold mining company, returned Monday from his former home in Portland, where he went a week ago on mining business. He is now installed in his new office on Mill street, next to the Neill Mercantile company.

Ed E. Hauser and Phil Arsenault, with the permission of the street commissioner, have had built at their own expense a cross walk from the postoffice to their places of business opposite. They will also undertake to keep the walk in condition to be used.

Neil J. Sorenson, of Sumpter sends word to mail his SUMPTER MINER, care of the Palace hotel, San Francisco, until further notice. This would indicate where Neil, who recently married Miss Anna Myers, is spending his honeymoon. But for all that, he doesn't want to miss THE MINER.
