

ODD FELLOWS HERE.Delegates to State Convention
Visit Cracker Mines.

A crowd of Oregon City Odd Fellows, some of whom were accompanied by their wives, to attend the state convention of that order being held in Baker City this week, came up Monday morning to enjoy the day in Sumpter. There being various former townsmen of the visitors who are now residents of this camp, arrangements were made to entertain them as well as could be done during the brief stay. Teams were engaged and, piloted by Harley G. Wood, Carley Moore and Max Schupius, the entire party was driven to the Golconda mine, the management of which kindly allowed them to explore the mysteries of the big mill, which was greatly enjoyed and will give them something to talk about on their return home.

The excursionists were then driven up past the Columbia mine, over the high mountain road by way of the E & E and North Pole mines, through Bourne, and back to Sumpter.

As Monday evening was the meeting night of the local Woodmen's lodge, the idea was further conceived of entertaining the visitors with a reception at their hall in the Healy building. The Sumpter band was engaged, a dancing program carried out and general good time had, lasting until after one o'clock a. m.

The party, consisting of County Judge Thomas F. Ryan and wife, W. H. Howell, wife and son, S. S. Walker and wife, H. W. Trembath, County Clerk E. W. Cooper, T. P. Randall and George Brown, all of Oregon City, left yesterday for Baker City, from which point, after attending the convention, they will return home. All agreed that the most enjoyable time they would have on their trip was the visit here and to the mines at Cracker creek.

Other delegates to the convention at Baker City came out yesterday and this forenoon. The visitors here Monday gave such an interesting account of their trip to the mines that many of the delegates have expressed a desire to make the trip. It would be a wise move for the citizens of Sumpter, perhaps through the mayor and city government, to extend an invitation to the entire convention to visit this place, and arrange for an excursion. If anything of the kind is done, it will have to be attended to without delay.

Later—Late this afternoon the Odd Fellows telephoned their acceptance of an invitation to visit Sumpter extended earlier in the day by Mayor Robbins. An excursion train will be run, arriving here at 10 o'clock Friday forenoon.
