

TALK OF THE TOWN

Attorney Chance returned from Hot Lake this afternoon, a day ahead of schedule time.

Charlie Robbins returned home Monday from Pendleton, where he has been at school all winter.

Mrs. S. H. Bell left yesterday afternoon for the coast, where she will visit friends for a few weeks.

Messrs. Baillie, of the Columbia, and Flood, of the Golconda, came in from Baker City this afternoon.

J. T. Parkinson left for Baker City Saturday, taking his children with him. He will live there in future.

Mrs. Weigand returned today from Baker City, where she had been to attend the funeral of her husband.

Brick for the completion of the hotel has not yet been delivered. When they will be has not yet been bulletined.

William Fleegle, formerly of the Sumpter police department, now one of Whitney's merchants, was in the city today.

James Newlands has gone to Vale, to assist in opening a bank at that place. He will return to Sumpter in about a week.

James Riddell, the tailor, has united forces with Charles B. Hecht in the merchant tailoring business in the Neill building.

Mrs. and Miss Haines, of Baker City, have for several days past been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ellis, at their home on North street.

C. H. Fenner will leave tomorrow for Colorado, where he will be engaged for several weeks surveying oil lands owned by Oregon companies.

Eugene Bartholf is out at the Gypsy Queen mine, of which company he is general manager. A wagon load of supplies was sent out to the mine this forenoon.

A. M. Kirchheimer, editor of the Antelope Republican, passed through town yesterday on his way to Prairie City, to take charge of The Miner there, he having closed the deal for its purchase.

Mrs. Miller arrived in Sumpter last week from her home in Salem, and will spend the summer here with her son, Roy H., cashier of the First Bank of Sumpter. They are living in the Parkinson residence, on Cracker street.

A Lange, who has had charge of the Neill Mercantile company store at Prairie City for the past year, has returned here with his wife and will remain with the same firm at Sumpter, the business at Prairie City having been discontinued.

Jones Brothers, of the Golconda saloon, have sold a half interest in their place of business to S. D. Sanders and Miles Fitzgerald, of Montana, who have recently arrived here. The new comers are young men of energy and will make friends in their new quarters.

A. M. Keltie has been in town this week on business pertaining to the largest placer mining deal which has been formulated in eastern Oregon for many years, one which he thinks he will "land" at an early day.

Dr. Pearce, formerly interested with Dr. Tape in the hospital here, returned Monday from Pocatello, Idaho, and will resume the practice of medicine for himself. It is not improbable that he will also arrange to take charge of the above institution, which now seems to be without a head.

W. M. Sterling, B. Weatherford and Attorney C. H. McColloch went out to Olive lake Saturday on a fishing trip. They report a very heavy catch of trout for one day's fishing, distributing over 200 among their friends here on their return Monday, after using all they wanted for food while gone.

New Map of the Cable Cove District.

Engineer W. H. W. Hamilton has just completed a new map of the Cable Cove mining district, 17x23 inches in size, showing the various properties there, the mountain ranges, water courses, wagon roads and trails. Blue prints of the same are for sale at THE MINER office at $1.50 each, sent postpaid to any address on receipt of the price.
