

TALK OF THE TOWN

Attorney John L. Rand, of Baker City, was here on legal business yesterday.

C. F. Kear, recorder of the town of Bourne, was down on business today.

Representative Barrett, of Granite, passed through town today on his way home.

Mayor Mitchell, of Whitney, came in from Baker City on the afternoon train, bound for home.

Mrs. H. S. McCallum returned several days since from Boston, where she went about three months since to visit friends.

William Bemis, the mine contractor, came down from the Golconda Monday, to have several small pieces of steel removed from his eye.

P. F. Chandler, of the Grant County News, at Canyon City, accompanied by his wife and child, came in Friday morning, en route to Walla Walla.

A. P. Goss is in Canyon City for a week or ten days, looking after the interests of his bank there. He was accompanied by Miss Emma Starr, of Baker City, who is visiting friends.

Assistant County Attorney Winfree was in town yesterday, to prosecute the cases against the Columbia miners, to collect road tax from them. The case was continued until tomorrow.

W. H. Gleason came in yesterday from Deer creek, where he has been doing some work on his mining properties. He says that four inches of snow fell on the higher peaks in three hours that day.

A rich strike is reported from the Climax mine, in the Granite district. A 10 foot ledge of good ore is said to have been cut there a few days since. Authentic details are not obtainable at this writing.

While under the influence of liquor Sunday, Jim Sutherland had a scrap with John Hart, a nineteen-year old boy, cutting his face badly and splitting his lip. Justice Felix fined him thirty-five dollars and costs.

Secretary W. F. Burlison, of the Umpqua company, returned here Sunday from an extended visit to the Cœur d'Alene mining country. Work has been commenced again on the property of his company near town.

Miss Edna Carleson returned yesterday from a two months visit to Pendleton and Spokane, accompanied by Miss Bertha Alexander, of Pendleton. They will go out to the Concord mine today, remaining there several weeks.

Miss Agnes Connell returned home several days since after visiting in Hoquiam, Washington, for more than a year. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Taylor, who will spend some weeks with the family.

Dr. Wheeler, of Chicago, a brother of Dr. Wheeler, general manager of the St. Anthony mine, near Alamo, is visiting that property. He is accompanied by several other Chicago capitalists, who are here with a view of investing.

No council meeting was held Saturday evening, owing to the fact that a quorum was not present. Aldermen Ellis and Stoddard were in Portland, and some other member of the body failed to show up. An adjourned meeting will be held this evening.

Ed. T. Davis, a prominent druggist of Weiser, Idaho, is here visiting Fred R. Walker, manager of the Spokane Drug company's store at this point. It is more than probable these two young men will conduct the business in their own name at an early day.

J. M. McCallum, of Toronto, Canada, is visiting here with his brother, of the Mac's Luck company. He will remain a week or so longer, sight-seeing among the various mines of the district. Mr. McCallum is prominent in medical circles in eastern Canada.

Dr. Pearce has decided to relocate in Sumpter and is forming a partnership with Dr. Anderson. They will operate the hospital. Mrs. Pearce arrived early in the week. She is a graduate nurse from the Jefferson medical college, Philadelphia, and has had much hospital experience.

President Eccles, of the Sumpter Valley road, was in town Monday with a party of dignitaries of the Mormon church, from Salt Lake, including Abriel O. Woodruff, who is a member of the twelve apostles, and son of the late President Woodruff, of the Latter Day Saints, and Joseph W. McMurrin, who is one of the first seven presidents of the Seventies.

New Map of the Cable Cove District.

Engineer W. H. W. Hamilton has just completed a new map of the Cable Cove mining district, 17x23 inches in size, showing the various properties there, the mountain ranges, water courses, wagon roads and trails. Blue prints of the same are for sale at THE MINER office at $1.50 each, sent postpaid to any address on receipt of the price.

The Oregonian is on sale at the Elite Cigar Store.
