

ORDINANCE NO. 123.

An ordinance to provide for licensing and regulating pawn brokers, junk and second-hand dealers.

THE CITY OF SUMPTER DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Pawn brokers shall pay a quarterly license of $4.00. Every person whose business or occupation it is to take or receive by way of pledge, pawn or exchange, any goods, wares or merchandise or any personal property whatever, for the payment or security of any money loaned thereon, shall be deemed a pawn broker under this ordinance.

Section 2. Every person who shall be engaged in the business of buying or selling junk, old lead, old metal, bottles, broken glass, old paper, or any other articles usually found in a junk shop, second-hand clothing, second-hand furniture of any kind, second-hand guns, second-hand pistols, second-hand axes or any other articles of second-hand merchandise, or second-hand furniture or property whatever, within the limits of the City of Sumpter, shall pay a quarterly license of $4.00.

Section 3. Any person who shall carry on the business of a pawn broker as described in Section 1 of this ordinance, or that of keeping a junk shop or second-hand store, as defined in section 2 of this ordinance, shall keep a register in which shall be entered in legible writing a description of all property purchased or taken as a pledge, pawn or security for any money loaned thereon of any description whatever, whether new or old, together with the name and residence of the person or persons from whom such property was purchased or received, and said register shall be kept in the English language and subject to the examination of the City Marshal or any police officer of the city, and any person carrying on such business who shall fail or neglect to keep such register or who shall refuse to exhibit the same to the City Marshal or such police officer, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the Recorder, shall be fined not less $10.00 nor more than $50.00, and the Recorder may, in his discretion, declare the license of such pawn broker, junk shop keeper, or second-hand store keeper forfeited. The Marshal of the city and any police officer shall have authority to enter into the place of business of any pawn broker, junk dealer or second-hand dealer, at all reasonable hours, and examine such register and all articles kept in such shop or store.

Passed the council July 6th, 1901.

E. L. MANNING,

Recorder of the City of Sumpter.
Approved July 6th, 1901.

ORDINANCE NO. 124.

An ordinance regulating the use of the streets and alleys of the City of Sumpter for the hanging or placing of signs, signboards, awnings or porches, gates, openings in the sidewalks and doors therein.

THE CITY OF SUMPTER DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That any person, firm or corporation, who shall hereafter use the streets or alleys of the City of Sumpter, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of placing therein any sign, signboard, awning or porch, shall place such sign, signboard, awning or porch at least ten (10) feet in height from the surface of the sidewalk, if there be one laid according to the established grade, or if there be no such sidewalk, then at least ten feet in height above such surface were there a sidewalk laid according to such established grade. And no sign, signboard, awning or porch shall be permitted or allowed to be or remain lower than ten feet in height from the surface of the sidewalk, if there be one laid according to the established grade, or if there be no such sidewalk, then ten feet above the plane which such sidewalk would occupy.

Section 2. That any person, firm or corporation, having any gate opening from any street or alley of the City of Sumpter into the property used, owned or occupied by them or him, shall cause such gate to open inwardly, and no such gate shall be permitted or allowed to open outwardly, or swing into any street or alley of the City of Sumpter.

Section 3. That any person, firm or corporation, who may now have or hereafter place any cellarway or door opening into any sidewalk of the City of Sumpter for any purpose, shall cause such cellarway or door to be placed as near to the building as possible, and no such cellar way or door shall, when open, occupy or fill a greater space than one-half of the width of the sidewalk, measuring from the property line, nor shall any such cellar or doorway be or remain open for a longer time than is absolutely necessary for the purposes for which the same is used; nor shall the same remain open at any time after dark.

Section 4. Any and all signs, signboards, awnings, porches, posts, gates, openings in the sidewalk, and doors opening into any sidewalk now existing which are not in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance, or ordinance No. 113 of the City of Sumpter, entitled "An ordinance regulating the use and occupation of the public thoroughfares of the City of Sumpter," approved May 29th, 1901, shall be removed or placed in such position as will conform to and correspond with the terms hereof, and it shall be the duty of the owner of the property in front of whose property, such sign, signboard, awning, post, gate, porch, opening in the sidewalk, or door opening therein is situated or for whose benefit the same is so placed, or the owner or person having control of any telegraph, telephone or electric light pole, unless the same is in conformity with the terms and conditions of this ordinance and said ordinance No. 113, to remove the same or place the same in such condition as will conform to the terms of this ordinance and said ordinance No. 113, within the time required as hereinafter set forth, then and in that event the Marshal of the City of Sumpter shall remove, or cause the same to be removed at the expense of the owner of such property, or the person for whose benefit the same is so placed, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the City of Sumpter in the first instance, and shall thereafter be collected off such person in any appropriate action at law which may be instituted by the City of Sumpter.

Section 5. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before the Recorder, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $50.00, and in default of the payment thereof, shall be imprisoned in the city jail one day for each two dollars thereof.

Passed the council July 6th, 1901.

E. L. MANNING,

Recorder of the City of Sumpter.
Approved July 6th, 1901.
