

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Frank Hobson was in Baker City yesterday.

Miss Tracy, of Baker City, is the guest of Mrs. Steffen.

Roy Miller came up from La Grande Saturday, returning Monday.

Mrs. Weigand, of Bourne, went to Baker City several days since to visit friends.

Charley McCord and George White caught fifty-six trout in Desolation creek one day this week.

Wanted—A boy fifteen years old or over to learn the printing trade. Apply at THE MINER office.

Dr. Brock has been over in the Susanville country for several days past on professional business.

Arthur Philbrick went to the Red Boy mine Saturday to do some underground surveying, returning to-day.

Frank Baldwin is in town to-day from the Oregon King, which he calls the O. K., and insists that it is all right.

J. G. Connell returned yesterday from a trip to the coast, visiting his daughters at Hoquiam, Washington.

T. T. Daulson returned yesterday from a quick trip to Spokane. There is a brick block mixed up in the incident somewhere.

Miss Meyers, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Sorenson, for several weeks past, left Monday for her home in Forest Grove.

E. Sanderson Smith left yesterday to examine a property over in Grant county, six or seven miles from Quartzburg.

Albert Geiser, of Baker City, has secured contracts from the Northport smelter to deliver 300 tons of lime daily, and from the LeRoi mine to stope 250 tons a day.

More than 200 people attended the Woodmen's picnic Sunday, in the grove on South Mill street. A number of prizes were awarded in athletic contests.

George H. Tracy, who has been with the First National bank of Baker City for a number of years past, has assumed the duties of cashier of the Bank of Sumpter.

Miss Hattie Mack, who formerly conducted a millinery establishment in Sumpter, was married last week at Canyon City to Moses Darkheimer, of Prairie City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hurt left Monday for the east. They will visit the Pan-American exposition and the former's parents in Indiana, being absent about a month.

Wanted—Position to cook for eight or ten men in a mining camp, by a lady who has had fifteen years experience, and one who is a fine cook. None but responsible parties need answer. Will not accept a position where a lady has charge of the house. Address Mrs. A. B. R., North Powder, Oregon, Buckeye mine.

Eugene Bartholf has recovered his two horses that disappeared more than a month ago. They were found over on Snake river and without doubt were driven off by rustlers, as they had to travel over a long stretch of barren country to reach that section. An offer of a reward made in THE MINER did the business. It never fails.

Those who know the comforts of a good hotel, always patronize the Capital; Mrs. G. B. Tedrowe, proprietor.
