TALK OF THE TOWN.

Mrs. Moulton arrived from Minneapolis several days since.

Dr. and Mrs. Lon Cleaver were in Sumpter yesterday between trains.

Mrs. A. W. Ellis went to Baker City this afternoon, to visit friends there for a week.

James Hobson left Sunday for Portland, as a delegate to the irrigation convention now in session there.

General Manager Townsend, of the Baby McKee, was in town Monday. He reports three feet of snow in the Cove.

Clark Snyder arrived in Sumpter several days since from an extensive trip all over the western country, looking for a better town than Sumpter, which he didn't find.

C. M. Borland, a mining man in the Greenhorns, was in Sumpter last week on his way to Stafford, Oregon, where he will spend the winter, returning here in the spring.

A. W. Ellis is making all kinds of changes and improvements in his Brewery saloon. The room has been very much enlarged, and is being handsomely decorated.

A. B. Frame, of Portland, who is promoting a big electric power proposition on Eagle creek, was in town today. The work of construction has already been commenced.

Mrs. A. L. McEwen joined her husband here in Sumpter several days since, he having been here two or three months, returning after an absence of more than a year.

Mrs. Gertridge arrived in Sumpter this forenoon from Salmon City, Idaho. Mr. Gertridge arrived several days since. They will reside here in future, having been absent about a year.

Charley Moore, who hasn't been very well for several weeks past, has taken a lay off for a couple of weeks and left yesterday for his old stamping ground around Portland and Oregon City.

Colonel Jay Nat Hudson returned Monday from the Burnt river country, where he located, on Cow creek, a big wrter right and a lot more ground for the El Dorado Placer Mining company, which he is promoting.

Mrs. W. Parker one of the respected pioneers in eastern Oregon, died at her home near Geiser Monday forenoon, aged sixty years. The Case Furniture company sent out a casket that night and the body was forwarded the next day to Baker City for interment.

C. R. Konkle has returned to town for the winter, from his properties in the Cable Cave district, over near the North Fork of John Day. He has one group of claims on the same ledge with Crown Point, on which he has opened up a good ore body during the past season.

James Peden and James Murry, miners at the Columbia, were married yesterday in Baker City to Misses Maggie Peterson and Hanna Campbell, respectively. The ladies arrived the previous day from Glasgow, Scotland, for the express purpose of playing the leading roles in this performance.

David Bossum, who has been associated with H. Spaulding for several years in the wood and ice business, has been adjudged insane and taken to the asylum at Salem. Marshal Rand turned him over to the county authorities at Baker City Monday. His friends here noticed for several weeks past that he was losing his mental balance.

Colonel W. A. Root, representing the San Francisco Mining and Engineering Review, left this afternoon, after putting in ten profitable days in Sumpter. His nephew, W. B. Root, Jr., son of a prominent mining man in Colorado, ex-president of the Denver Mining Exchange, arrived yesterday and will remain during the winter.

J. N. Van Dorn, who has been working his El Dorado, near Granite, for several years past, was in Sumpter yesterday. He says that property has justified his faith in it and will be a mine some day. He has taken a contract from Tom McEwen to do a lot of work on one of his Greenhorn properties, and left for there today.

W. M. Rummery returned yesterday from Baker City, where he went to meet his wife, who arrived from Minnesota. Mr. Rummery has been here for two or three years, and has visited his family once in that time. Contractor Nordyke and Harley Wood are planning to do things, with tin cans and cow bells, to the "bridal couple."

The celebrated Gund's—"the beer of good cheer"—always on draught at Dauphy's The Club.

Something to depend upon—Giant powder.
