TALK OF THE TOWN.

Grant Thornburg, of Granite, is a visitor in Sumpter today.

H. J. Coble, a Greenhorn business man, was a Sumpter transient last week.

John Brown Jr., a Spokane mining man, paid Sumpter one of his periodical visits last week.

Mrs. A. P. Goss is at her old home in Minnesota, where she will remain until after the holidays.

John J. Riggs, foreman on the extensive improvements now being made at Olive lake, is visiting his family in Sumpter.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild will give an afternoon tea in the church next Saturday afternoon. Tea and cake ten cents. Everybody invited.

Robert Wilson, of the Case Furniture company, is back from Durkee where he has been doing assessment work on some properties he is interested in.

J. Frank Shelton, of the Niel J. Sorensen Co., went to Portland yesterday in response to a telegram from his principal. He expects to be absent ten days.

M. J. Roelsma returned on Monday from a trip to the Flag Staff mine near Baker City, and left yesterday for a few days snow shoe jaunt in the Greenhorns.

From the first of November until December 6, 1905 inches of snow fell at the California mine. The measurements were made by Mr. McEwen, manager.

Baker City people evidently believe in reciprocity. Already a movement is on foot to entertain a number of Sumpter's foremost citizens at a dinner in the near future.

From the number of mining machinery men who visit this locality, any one can judge that a wonderful era of development is in progress in the mines surrounding this city.

Col. S. W. Ray, of Port Arthur, Canada, who was an important figure in this section about three years ago, has been in the Sumpter district and vicinity for the past week or more.

Seymour H. Bell has returned from a hasty trip east, extending his journey as far east as New York. C. L. Stillman, of Columbus, Nebraska, and T. S. Hutchings, of Marinette, Wisconsin, returned with Mr. Bell.

M. L. Lohmire, one of the oldest of old timers connected with mining in the far west, was a sojourn in Sumpter last week. Mr. Lohmire has been until lately superintendent of the Maxwell mine, one of the Neil J. Sorensen Co's properties.

F. J. Perkins, who has made this city his headquarters for some time, has gone to Portland where his family reside. From that point he expects to go east for the purpose of raising capital to develop some of the holdings he acquired while here.

Methodist Church Bazar.

The ladies of the Good Intent society of the Methodist church will hold their annual bazar in the Sumpter opera house on the 17th and 18th of this month. It will be open on the afternoon of the 17th and in the evening of the 18th. Each evening a short musical program will be rendered, and on the second night an admission fee of ten cents will be charged. Among the numerous attractions, the following booths will be in evidence, presided over by the ladies named: Art, Mrs. Stafford; domestic, Mrs. Bartholf and Mrs. Richards; handkerchief, Mrs. R. L. Neill; doll, Mrs. Heppie; candy, Mrs. Kahler. The dining room, or refreshment booth, will be under the supervision of Mrs. M. W. Wheeler. Young ladies of the society will assist those named above.
