TALK OF THE TOWN.

J. Win Wilson, mining operator and broker, is on a visit to St. Paul.

Mayor-elect McCulloch left the first of the week for Portland to spend Christmas with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil J. Sorensen returned on Sunday from a two weeks visit to Portland and vicinity.

Dr. Greenlie arrived home yesterday from Wallowa county, to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chance left Monday for Portland to spend Christmas with Mr. Chance's relatives.

Professor W. S. Eberman, of the Oregon Smelting and Refining company, left yesterday for a week's visit to Seattle.

Dr. E. W. Mueller, manager of the Oregon Smelting and Refining company's extensive plant, is now in St. Joe, Missouri, on a visit.

Albert Saylor, who is interested in the Tammany group on Wind Creek, left for the east on Friday for the purpose of interesting capital in that property.

Miss Edna Carlson, who has been a pupil at the Sisters school at Baker City, will spend her holiday vacation with her Uncle and Aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robbins.

F. N. Jenkins, one of the most painstaking typists that ever handled a stick, has disposed of all his Sumpter holdings and taken his departure for southern California.

Miss Hawthorn, of Nampa, Oregon, formerly of Kearney, Nebraska, will be a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Welsh, of Sumpter, for the next week or ten days.

J. R. Cunningham, secretary of the Advance and assistant secretary of the Forest Mining companies, will go east the first week in January on business connected with those concerns.

Hon. J. H. Robbins, member-elect from this district to the State legislature, aims to leave Sumpter on the third of January, so as to take his seat when that body convenes on the 12th.

James A. Howard, secretary of the Golconda Mining company, leaves today for his old home at Pendleton, where he will remain until the first of January. His family preceded him a few days.

Mrs. Brock and Miss Jessie reached home yesterday from Salt Lake, where the latter has been attending school and won the honor of making the best record in the public schools of that city.

L. M. Welsh returned last Thursday from Omaha, Nebraska, and other eastern points. He reports there is great interest being taken in eastern Oregon mines in the sections which he visited.

Frank and Charles Robbins, sons of Hon. J. H. Robbins, who have been attending Hills Military Academy at Portland, are now at home and will spend the holidays with their parents in Sumpter.

J. N. Gillis, a successful mining operator, who has been prosecuting work on a property in Malheur county, has closed up his affairs there and is now in the Sumpter district, where he thinks he has something flattering in a mining way.

Hereafter the office of the Advance and Forest Mining companies will be in rooms 6 and 8, Bank of Sumpter building. These companies will push work energetically on the Storm King group of mines in Cable Cove district during the winter.

Her man Schulmerich, general manager of the Oregon Placer and Power company, which is the owner of the famous Griffith placer mines, left for his home at Hillsboro, Oregon, on Monday. Mr. Schulmerich will return in time to commence operations in the spring.

A son was born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hawley, Dr. Brock attending. Both mother and child are doing well. Mr. Hawley is somewhat overcome by the event as the young man bids fair to become treasurer and general manager of the big store on Granite street.

Another Doctor in Town.

Dr. L. T. Brock, who is so well known in Sumpter that he needs no recommendation, and W. H. Vose, of Yoncalla, Oregon, have formed a partnership for the practice of their profession. Dr. Vose is a graduate of the University of Colorado Medical college and has practiced medicine for the past six years. He comes here highly recommended as being a specialist in the treatment of ear, eye, nose, throat and skin diseases, and no doubt will be a creditable acquisition to the medical fraternity of Sumpter.
